Bosch was one of many critical of CIA policy & personnel following Bay of Pigs. However, in March 1962, WAVE requested a POA on Bosch, advising he was "cooperative and secure." When Paneque arrived in Miami, he got together with Alianza de Liberacion through Dr. Luis Conte Aguero. He could not get immediate help from this group, so resigned. Also said he had tried to get help from U.S. govt. but unsuccessful.

Paneque is convinced that the only thing needed to overthrow Castro is arms & supplies. Has a plane which he intends to fly into Cuba with cargo of arms

Author of memo recommeats that CIA offer assistance to Paneque independent of all other organizations as he seems to be capable of becoming an important factor in the future.

MEMO FOR: CHIEF SR/CI

SUBJ: PETER DERYABIN COMMENTS ON PRES. KENNEDY'S ASSASSINATION

BENEFITS TO KRUSCHEV OF JK'S DEATH

1. LESS WESTERN PRESSURE ON KRUSCHEV; CONCILIATORY US ATTITUDE

2. DIVERSION FOR INTERNAL SOVIET PROBS (PROBS OF 1963 HARVEST, CHICOM ARGUMENTS)

3. BECAUSE OF CASTRO ALLEGATIONS, JOHNSON WOULD RESTRAIN FROM ANY PLANNED INTERVENTION IN CUBA

4. KRUSCHEV'S HAND WOULD BE STRENGTHENED IN DEALING WITH CHICOMS

5. ANY PLANS BY JFK TO GET TOUGH WITH SOVIETS DURING ELECTION YEAR WOULD THUS BE SABOTAGED

6. DE GAULLE WOULD EMERGE AS STRONG WESTERN LEADER; HE WAS SUPPORTIVE OF SOVIETS

7. RISING INTELLECTUAL DISSENSION IN USSR WOULD BE THWARTED

8. THE ASSASSINATION WOULD PIT RIGHT AND

~~SECRET~~

9. JFK'S MURDER, WHETHER PLANNED OR NOT, WILL PROVE POWER AND OMNISCIENCE OF KGB

"... THE SOVIET INTELLIGENCE SERVICES HAVE SUFFERED SOME VERY REAL REVERSES RECENTLY WITH PENKOVSKY, GOLITSIN'S DEFECTION, THEIR IGNOMINIOUS EXPULSION FROM THE CONGO, ETC. I HAVE LONG PREDICTED THAT THE USSR WOULD TAKE SOME DRASTIC ACTION TO HALT THE RAPID EROSION OF THEIR SECURITY

RAISES POSSIBILITY THAT OSWALD WAS "INVITED" TO MOSCOW OR "INSPIRED" TO TRAVEL TO USSR AND GIVEN ADVICE OR FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE

THAT ~~KGB~~ SOVIETS NEVER GIVE A VISA WITHOUT MAKING AN INVESTIGATION OF THE PERSON MAKING THE APPLICATION

WAS THE PERSON WHO GAVE OSWALD THE VISA A KGB AGENT OR EMPLOYEE

IN MOSCOW OSWALD WOULD HAVE BEEN UNDER OBSERVATION, INVESTIGATION AND "COMPLETE CONTROL" BY KGB; WOULD HAVE GOTTEN ALL POSSIBLE INFO FROM HIM, ESPECIALLY ABOUT SERVICE IN MARINE CORPS

ANY FOREIGNER, ESPECIALLY AN AMERICAN WOULD BE UNDER CONSTANT OBSERVATION AND STUDY FOR POSSIBLE FUTURE USE BY SOV. INTELL. AND C.I. SERVICES

BELIEVES SOVIETS WOULD HAVE CONDUCTED INVESTIGATION OF O. THROUGH SOV. AGENT NETWORKS + PRO COMMUNIST ORGS. W/IN USA

THAT INITIAL REFUSAL TO MAKE HIM A SOVIET CITIZEN WOULD HAVE BEEN FOR PURPOSE OF FURTHER STUDY AND INV.

THEORY:
AFTER O. ASKED TO RETURN TO U.S. WAS ASKED TO FIGHT FOR COMMUNIST CAUSE W/IN THE USA

THAT STATE SECURITY METHOD OF HANDLING FOREIGNERS WOULD BE TO MAKE MARINA AN AGENT

IF MARINA WERE NOT INVITED TO OFFICIAL SOVIET OFFICES IN AN ATTEMPT TO TALK HER OUT OF THE MARRIAGE, THAT WOULD INDICATE IT WAS ARRANGED BY KGB.

IF MARRIAGE AND PAPERWORK WERE ARRANGED AFTER ONLY FEW MONTHS WAIT, WOULD INDICATE IT HAD BEEN HANDLED BY KGB

basis for opening 201 file operational interest in individual (mostly foreigners): potential recruitment would trace files in the field or system for any info on the person tracking an individual: e.g. foreign specialist, counterintelligence sometimes when there are several files on a person it is more convenient to put it all in one file = 201 tracing = running through all variations of person's name, computer print-out case officer could initiate 201 file; he's usually most knowledgeable hypo: reliable tip that person is disclosing military secrets ans: judgment call as to whether 201 file is opened, but the info would be passed on to name indexing, even if a 201 file is not opened

high-level foreign officer

there are written regulations governing these criteria

some operations are run from HQ, and not the field, so the HQ officer would initiate the 201 file

PRQ I: biographical info

II: bio. data, assessment, surveillance results (may be filed after contact w/ the individual) they would be located in 201 file, sometimes II is not made, so it won't necessarily be included w/ I

there is dual filing: pseudonym or cryptonym will not be filed w/ name file; PRQ II will usually use cryptonym, so they would be stored elsewhere you can run index check to locate all files, or original file should refer to other files ~~SECRET~~ status sheet in 201 file should be maintained to reference other files

201 file is biographical, not operational criteria for classification of sources detailed criteria exist (e.g. witting collaborator) incl. witting collaborator

potential witting collaborator former witting collaborator potential / never contacted (classes A1 - A7)

there is table of contents list to 201 files ask for that: computer will spit out other file references and all material which has been classified into that file green list info = compiled through communications intelligence (no longer exist, used to be kept separately)

K check = special clearance

if another agency is conducting an operation PCS would maintain file to coordinate CIA's involvement voucher system

agent in the field is most likely un-vouchered (see Director of Finance)

prescribed + limited (P+L) = communications which are compartmented (e.g. sealed envelopes)
"P+L traffic channel" is determined by top three DDO staff that info may be downgraded subsequently destruction of docs is prescribed by archives; materials are not destroyed due to nature of the operation

Soviets use parallel system dual intelligence with no cross reference between the two cryptonym may be used for associates (e.g. family members) but that does not necessarily mean a 201 file would exist for each of them defection of American soldiers may be primarily military rather 201 file would not be opened unless there was operational interest

CI staff did have interest in defectors in 60's

→ CI did at one time maintain separate files on their interests an effort is being made now to integrate those files into HQ system

547 A form = request to put document into central files very sensitive operations have very limited access; person handling would make decision whether to ? put documents into system

there can be operations for which files do not exist

it is possible that 201 file would not reflect a particular operation

cryptonym may exist for project, for which no 201 would exist

Operation files are separately maintained by desk in charge

~~SECRET~~

what sources feed into their original info

- are there any files in the field that are not also maintained at HQ

✓ are there other interests which result in other types of files

~~SECRET~~

operational files can usually be disposed of after 10 years; individual files are maintained 50 years it is possible that after an operations file is destroyed the individual's name file may not refer to or disclose the operation

Office of Personnel files are maintained separately from 201 files

CIA employees

The above ~~individuals~~ individuals were selected for interview because of the position they held ~~at the time~~ with the CIA at the [13-3 Tokyo station] ~~[illegible]~~ during the time ~~period~~ frame of 1959 to 1964.

James Wilco~~tt made~~ gave testimony in a closed hearing before the SCA that a CIA case officer ~~told him~~ stationed in [13-3 Tokyo, Japan] told him that LHO was a CIA agent and ~~gave~~ also mentioned LHO's crypto~~nym~~nym. The ~~[illegible]~~ conversation ~~that~~ took place in the [13-3 Tokyo station] shortly after the word of the JFK assassination was received on 23 Nov 63. Wilcot ~~also stated that~~ could not recall the name of the case officer or the cryptonym. Wilcott also advised that considerable conversation took place among CIA employee's in [13-3 Tokyo] at the time concerning the Oswald-CIA agent issue.

The basic questions asked of the CIA employee selected were as follows

(a) Have you ever seen written documents which would indicate that LHO was a ~~CIA~~ intelligence agent or a source of information?

(b) ~~Have~~ Were you ever ~~heard~~ advised orally that LHO was an agent?

(c) Have you ever heard conversation or heard, ~~speculation~~ conversational that LHO was a CIA agent or intelligence source for any government ~~agen~~ Service?

(d) Were you in a position to know if LHO was recruited as a~~n~~ CIA agent during his tour of duty with the military in Japan.

(2) When was the first time you ever heard the allegation that LHO ~~was possibly~~ ~~may have been~~ a CIA agent.

(4) Did you know James & Elsie Wilcott in [Japan?] 13-3

~~Some of~~ the ~~other~~ all individuals interviewed stated they never saw any documents nor heard any information that LHO was a CIA agent while stationed in Tokyo. Only after ~~their departure the~~ critic publication and the Garrison investigation in the late 60s were they ~~so~~ ~~aware~~ aware of the ~~published~~ allegation.

Subjects 2, 7 & 8 express belief that LHO ~~could~~ may have been recruited by the KGB during his tour of duty in Japan. They based their belief on the fact that during the period of time that LHO was in Japan, the CIA [Station] 13-3 in [Tokyo] 13-3 had identified a KGB program specifically ~~double~~ ~~directed~~ designed to recruit U.S. military personnel in Tokyo. However they had no information that the recruitment of LHO by the KGB did in fact take place.

Subject Jerome E. Fox was ~~specifically~~ one person who Wilcot could remember ~~with~~ ~~the~~ who he had conversation ~~with~~ concerning the speculation that LHO was an agent for the CIA. The conversation supposedly took place in 13-3 [Japan] after the information was received that LHO was the assassin of JFK. Fox advised investigator Leap that he was in the U.S at the time of Assassination on 23 Nov 63. Fox's CIA personnel reflects he was transfered from the 13-3 [Tokyo station] to the U.S in 1962.

Subjects 2, 7, 8, 9 and 11 all thought they would have known if LHO have been ~~as~~ recruited as a CIA agent while he was in Japan. All the subjects worked within 13-3 the SR Branch of the [Toyko Station] and theoretically ~~would have~~ one of them would have handled or had knowledge of the recruitment. All thought if Oswald have been recruited with out their knowledge it would have been a rare exception to the working policy and guidelines of the 13-3 [station].

7. Memo dated 31 May 1967 by Ramond G. Rocca
Subject: Garrison and the Kennedy Assassination - Gordon Dwane Novel

A. Summary - Novel has both claimed and denied CIA affiliation -- a thorough check of CIA records shows no affiliation. It is possible that NBC is supporting Novel to get a large audience for expose of Garrison. Novel may have exaggerated his presumed relationship with Sergio Arcacha Smith who also is not CIA affiliated.

B. Novel is mysterious -- little information -- 29 year old former owner of bar in French Quarter and an electronics expert.

C. In Columbus, Ohio, Novel is free on $10,000 bond - living in a rent-free apartment and drives a car with dealer tags. Rocca questions where money is coming from.

D. Novel in McLena, Virginia 25-26 March 1967. Given a polygraph by Lloyd Furr. Furr and Richard L. Bast operate firm Redex -- sell audio and counter audio devices.

E. CIA finds no evidence of ever having an Evergreen Advertising Agency which Novel claims he worked for and was CIA front.

F. Records show CIA never recruited or paid Arcacha directly but since he was associated with FRD in New Orleans, which was created with CIA assistance, guidance anf financial support may have been given him through the Miami FRD circa May 1960.

1. Memo dated 24 Oct 1962 to Chief, Contact Division, from Chief, San Francisco Office
Subject: Suitability of Manuel Ray and Miro Cardona for Important Roles in a Possible New Cuban Government

Information received from Dr. Robert North, Professor of Political Science 05 at Stanford University and long-time source of exceptional value. North visited in Miami and contacted about 25 former Castro supporters representing a broad political gamut. Dr. North got the impression from many of the Cubans that they suspected Ray of being a "possible Communist sleeper". North reluctant to pass along this information, because accusations were very broad.

2. Infomation report dated 16 July 1962 and Earlier 08
Source: Cuban National (Alien File #A-12570921) who asked for an interview on occasion of first contact with CIA.

Cannot vouch for his bona fides. Had credential indicating membership in branch of revolutionary army's intelligence service, now in exile in U.S. and maintaing connections with colleagues in that country.

A friend of his reports plans to assassinate top Castro leadership in Cuba. To be done by poison -- "Clostridium Botulinum" which is strong, odorless, and tasteless. Takes about 12 days to kill. About 5cc would do the job. Waiting for next visit of major delegation from a Communist country -- dinner in honor of the occasion should bring together most of the important members of the regime and that is when the attempt will be made.

2. Cable dated Oct. 3, 1961 - WA CITE NYOR 4902 Support (Travis) info L/A Branch from Daniels. Source is Ernesto Dezaldo - Cuban lawyer now living in New York City. Stated the MRP in Havana is far less radical than under the leadership of Ray, who has been completely discredited in recent months. Primary purpose today is (a) assassination of top leaders in Castro regime and (B) sabotage of important industrial and government installations in Havana. Strength of MRP in Havana estimated to exceed 1,000 -- success measured more in terms of fund raising ability and blowing up of buildings.

3. Information dated June 4, 1961, Subject: Underground Student Leader Comments on Post-invasion Cuba. Reporting officer talked with ISIDRO BORJA, on the leaders of DRE. Borja says top DRE members in jail or in a friendly embassy in Havana but said new leaders have been selected and will resume sabotage activities shortly. Thought the underground could restore tension in Cuba in 3-4 months. However, said outside help needed to get rid of Castro. Claimed that prior to invasion, is was possible to buy almost anything in Cuba from Castro officials -- they were tainted by corruption. Since Castro's victory at Bay of Pigs, his popular support is estimated to be around 80-85%. Most support is out of fear because the people believe he will be in power permanently. Borja said DRE outside of Cuba working hard for release of former leader, Alberto Muller from prison.

Volume I Undated to September 1960

1. Cable suggests that an offer of financial assistance to Ray's wife and children from CIA rather than through the FRD may pay large future dividends. Family to arrive circa September 1960.

2. Cable to Director
From: MASH
19 September 1960

Increasing suspicion RAUL CHIBAS a Castro plant. Since exfiltration by KAPPES, CHIBAS has laid low but back in picture as representative of RAY. Common knowledge that CHIBAS brought KAPPES out of Cuba, but should be noted that KAPPES has since been in and out of Cuba three times with no apparent difficulties.

CHIBAS' sources of information:
Mason in U. S. government
Manuel de Jesus and Bender as FRD representatives
Nino Diaz as Alianza representative
Don Hogan Kappes as Alberto Fernandex representative.

3. Summer 1960. Ray very actively recruited to become FRD member. CIA considered him an important political asset. RAUL CHIBAS, Ray's assistant, spoke for him with U.S. authorities. Urged strong organization inside Cuba before outside help could be effective. CHIBAS meets with Bender 9/7/60, says he is in favor of FRD but completely committed to Ray and would check with him.

4. 27 September 1960.
Memo to Western Hemisphere/4 Chief
From: Rudolph E. Gomez, Acting Chief, WH
Subject: Approval from State to Include Manuel Ray Rivero in the FRD Complex

At a 20 September 1960 meeting, Ray's name was suggested for inclusion in FRD and State desired to look further into his background. Ray was discussed again on 9/27/60 with Mr. Divine who further conferred with Ambassador Mallory same day and Mallory approved Ray's inclusion.

5. September 29, 1960 cable from MASH to WH9 indicates MASH somewhat doubtful about Ray's feelings toward U.S. and continued dealings with this group needs further policy consideration.

Woodrow C. Olien met Ray October 1958 when Ray was head of Civic Resistence Movement in Havana. Three clandestine meetings were held prior to 04 1 January 1959, attended by Olien, Wallace A. Growery, [Ignacio Mendoza] (MRC member) who originally introduced Olien to Ray. After 1 January 1959, Ray given important post in revolutionary government and Olien has seen him only twice since, Olien poising as political officer to State Department.

Section II of PRQ states Ray is friendly to U.S., once having received a grant for special study there. A dedicated, patriotic Cuban, opposed to Communism but taken no active part in combatting it.

8. An undated, unaddressed letter from Antonio Gonsales Mora, Jr. --- P.S. Says Joaquin Sanjenis appears to be a person in whom CIA has great confidence. Linked to Artime conspiracy. Responsible for all "inter-Cuban" intelligence matters. Is a "shady character" -- gangster background -- gives impression of mental retardation. Not known as individual of any importance, but he is! "An inexplicable affair"

9. PRQ Part 2 (contd)
Section VI -- Subject has definite political action potential, ia a pro-democratic official of government who is not in sympathy with aims of international Communism and who is interested in strengthening ties between Cuba and U. Volume II
* October 1, 1960 - November 22, 1960

As of 21 November 1960, MRP organized as follows:

Manuel Ray - Chief
Raul Chibas - Sepcial Assistant to Ray
Juan Esteves Ramires - Secretary
Ramon Barquin - Military and Intelligence matters
Cisneros - Chief of MRP in Cuba

1. 10/4/60 Cable from (London) 15-1 claims that new Cuban resistance group organized under Ray and has 400-500 men in Las Villas Province. Not part of FRD but in touch with it.

* 2. 10/7/60 Cable from Havana. AURELIANO SANCHEZ ARANGO has withdrawn from FRD. JUSTO CARRILLO and FELIPE PAZOS will be integrated into Ray's MRP. VARONA wishes to join, also, but Ray insists VARONA return to Cuba to do so.

3. 10/12/60 Cable to Director. RAMON BARQUIN claims CARRILLO and ARANGO are going to boycott FRD Executive Committee and sabotage its work. Barquin planning to join with Pazos, Ray, Chibas, MIRO and QUEVEDO to form a new frente and then request union with FRD. If accepted, Barquin would become military head. If Barquin does not get U.S. government support for this plan, he will return to Cuba to try to overthrow Castro and win election on an anti-Yankee platform.

* 4. 10/17/60 Contact report from Wallace A. Parlett
Subject: Meeting with JUAN ESTEVEZ and JORGE BERUFF, 10/13/60
Cubans said Ray's group will not lower themselves to answer "Fidelismo without Fidel" charge and let their actions speak for themselves. MRP is highly disciplined and feel the majority of Cuban people favor their platform. Its leaders are interchangeable. If Ray comes out of Cuba, Chibas or Estevez could go in and take his place.

5. 10/24/60 Memo for files
Subject: Representative of Manuel Ray to Professional Groups

ENRIQUE HIRAM GUTIERREZ y RODRIGUEZ (dob 5/20/31, Havana) travels frequently to Puerto Rico on architectural business. Also frequently enters U. S. at Miami. Represents Ray's organization to various professional groups in Havana. Also serves as courier to Miami.

6. DRE information. 10/24/60 Cable states MULLER reported receiving letter from ANTONIO GARCIA, DRE representative in Cuba that organization is going well but needs funds and material aid. MASH asks Mueller to get details of Garcia's "groupos de accion" and details of organization. MASH gave Muller $500 for Garcia. Muller is concerned about Manolo Ray whom he says is gaining strength in Cuba. Says students eager to join active group and will go to Ray if DRE can't get help soon.

7. Provisional Operational Approval granted to Ray on 10/26/60.

* 8. 10/26/60 Cable to Director from Havana reports Ray held MRP meeting on 10/23/60 and made following statements:

  a. MAJOR WILLIAM MORGAN had been very helpful to MRP - responsible for obtaining most of their weapons.
  b. In four months, MRP will have 20,000 militants throughout Cuba. Organized now in all provinces except Pinar del Rio. Invasion could not take place for 4 months but FRD still in favor of earlier date.
  c. CARRILLO and ANGEL del CERRO have left FRD and now with MRP

MRP urging Ray to escape Cuba and they feel it is only a matter of time until he is picked up and executed. MRP manifesto will be released this weekend.

9. 10/28/60 Monthly payments of $400 approved for Ray's wife in behalf of Bender group.

* 10. 10/28/60 Memo for Record
Subject: Conversation of CARRILLO and [PAUL J. MANSON] Chief, MASH
Economic philosophy: When FRD first formed it was attacked by RUBIO PADILLA as "Fidelismo without Fidel." Now FRD saying same thing about MRP.

* 11. 11/5/60 Cable to Director from MASH
Verona tells HUNT that he received information that Ray wanted to leave Cuba and was to be exfiltrated clandestinely by Bender group.

12. 11/8/60 Memo for Record -[John D. Peters] 03
Subject: Contact report on meeting with ROGELIO GONZALES

Gonzales considers Ray highly dangerous because of his ambition to play prominent role in Cuban government after overthrow of Castro. Thinks he poises threat to Varona's authority inside Cuba. Ray appears to have support of middle class, politicians and professionals. Should Ray join FRD, Gonzales thinks he will still operate on a unilateral basis while seeking to supercede FRD with MRP.

13. 11/11/60 Cable to Director from JMASH
Ray arrived Tampa morning of 11/10/60. Mash officer staying with him until surfacing date which depends on safe arrival from Cuba of two other individuals. They are the last of the HUBER MATOS escapee group known by Ray to still be hiding in Cuba.

14. 11/14/60 Cable to Director from MASH.
Ray to surface at press conference scheduled for 11/16/60 in Miami.

 15. 11/17/60 Cable 03 to Director from MASH
On 11/15/60, [Parlett] alias Bender met with Ray in complete privacy. "Unquestionably, the youthful, softspoken, unassuming, almost humble Ray is a natural leader of highest intellect, deepest sincerity and convistion." Ray's political posture doubtful as far as U.S. government acceptance is concerned.

Explained to Ray the U.S. government's desire to have all Cuban exiles unified in their efforts. Ray says MRP does not wish to reinstate 1940 constitution. Provisional government of 30 honorable Cubans would be established and elections held 18 months thereafter. Castro laws passed at beginning of his regime to be promulgated. State would regulate private investment and utilities would be nationalized.

Ray wants to keep MRP "lean and hungry" -- each member to have specific responsibilities and feel important to revolution.

Ray asked for permission to start a fund drive in Cuba and U.S. Also asked for $10,000 by next Wednesday -- Bender made commitment.

[Parlett] believes net result of meeting was establishment of private MRP-U.S. link and door remains open for some kind of relationship with FRD. Ray agrees to discuss this with Miro Cardona. Of all the groups being supported, FRD, MRP and MRR are most significant. All Cuban groups seem to be looking to Bender group to show a preference before joining one of the above three. How long current flexibility can be maintained is problematical.

Subject: Meeting with King and Esterline on subject of handling MRP, 11/18/60

Consensus was that Ray did not politically represent anything to cheer about. Writer felt MRP opposed to joining FRD and recognized need to control MRP and wean it away to the extent possible from its leaders. Could be done by controlling financial and military support. It was agreed in meeting with Mr. Barnes that financial and military support for MRP be channelled through FRD.

17. 11/23/60 Contact Report: Meeting with Ray and Chibas in NYC, 11/22/60
Ray says MRP has contacts at Isle of Pines with two garrisons and can expect about 750 men to desert Castro at proper time. CAPTAIN CAPOTA is contact with Ray's group.

Ray's people also in contact with commander of prison where Huber Matos is incarcerated. Matos believes PADILLA, the prison commander, would assist him in an escape. Ray interested in single operation to get military defectors and free Matos. Wants to effect plan on 11/27/60.

18. 11/24/60 Cable to Director from JMASH
Meeting with AMCHIRP-1 on 11/23, revealed he had information that MRP in Havana had capabilities to blow up power plant and TV stations in Havana -- a diversionary tactic planned to coordinate with Isle of Pines operation. Ray expects Isle of Pines operation support about 12/15/60.

* Notation about Cable: "Operation Unity" is to create dramatic show which will demonstrate that Manolo Ray is wrong when telling contacts in U.S. that his group is the only one capable of action."

19. 11/24/60 Cable to Director from Havana.
Operation Unity involves MRR, MDI, OA, 30th of November Group and MAR (not MAR of PEPIN RIVERO).

MAR and OA groups to blow electric cables in Regla area. MDC group, at same time, to make assassination attempt on CARLOS RAFAEL RODRIGUEZ at University of Havana.

20. 11/30/60 Cable to Director from Havana
JULIO ANGEL METRE advised planning to travel to Miami 12/1/60 escorted by Brazilian ambassador to Panama. Accompanied by ambassador's wife. MESTRE will be introduced to Ray and will offer services of MDC to Ray at that time. Mestre says plan is approved by "DR. LUCAS" (JOSE FERNANDEZ BADUE) MDC coordinator in Cuba.

6. Field Information Report
Subject: Background, Character and Economic Concepts of Manuel Ray Rivero
Date: 16 March 1961
Sources: Dr. Oscar SALAS Marrero (paragraphs 1-11) Knew Ray in Cuba
Dr. Jose ALVAREZ Diaz, former Minister of Finance under Prio (Pg 12)
Dr. Jorge BERUFF, former president of Banco de Desarrollo Economico de Cuba, (pg 13)

Note: Cover note pencilled comment (The content is so biased and mixed with untruth that it would be a disservice to the intelligence community to disseminate it.

Synopsis of paragraphs 1-11. Dr. Salas says during his childhood Ray was a Protestant but today is completely atheistic. Said Ray organized the MRC against Batista and shortly after Batista's fall, MRC and 26th of July Movement fused into one, and as soon as Castro came into power, control of the organization was given to the Communists. Tells of Ray's association with Castro and that he did not resign his position when his own brother was renounced by Castro. Stated that Ray's rupture with Fidel was due to the fact that Ray opposed the idea of shooting Hubert Matos as a traitor. Ray resigned his post but said publicly that he approved and supported the Castro regime without any mental reservations. Says in Cuban clandestine circles Ray is regarded as boastful, ostentatious and deceitful. Intimate friends of Ray feel that he is a man of anti-democratic procedures, and does not like to take advice, even from members of his own movement.

Synopsis of paragraph 12. Dr. Alvarez said Ray was in favor of maintaining relations with USSR and not making Communist Party illegal. Said that although Ray withdrew all these statements when threatened with press coverage, Alvarez thinks they are representative of Ray's thinking and would try to put ideas into practive if he ever came to power. Alverez also mentioned Rays thinking on nationalization of public services, socialized medicine, nationalization of banks, etc.

Synopsis of paragraph 13. Dr. Beruff said Ray well-intentioned with no Communist tendencies. Cited a meeting at which the basic points of the MRP platform were discussed and said that since Ray was in disagreement with the others on most of the points, Dr. Felipe Pazos acted as chairman of the meeting and Ray argued his case as a simple member of the group. Out of this meeting came a declaration of 14 points, including the nationalization of the banks and public utilities.

On 9 March, Ray said that ideas attributed to him in paragraph 12 were not true and part of a "campaign against him by Mr. Pawley of the Miami City Transit Company".

"I am a Cuban who still thinks that Cuba can be rehabilitated after the fall of Castro. For this reason many Cubans have been baffled by the list of names now given as the saviors of Cuba for a Provisional Government. Among these are such notorious Castro followers as: Ray, Barquin, Pazos, Rufo Lopez Fresquet, Chibas and others whose names remind us of an era of mourning, persecution and misery."

4. Report on Manuel Ray received from Enrique Molinet, a road and airfield construction engineer under Batista regime. Cover note dated 4/7/61. Date: 5 May 1961
Subject: Manolo Ray - Comments on his Anti-Castro Activities
Signed: Calvin Hicks WH/4/PM/Operations

"Ray is balieved to have accomplished pratically nothing towards the effort to overthow Castro. Instead, it seems that whenever we played with his so-called assets, we were burned. He is notorious for claiming assets or operations, several days after some other group had already set them up or claimed them. Whenever it came to producing and backing up his claims, he always came up with excuses for not producing, rather than results. He has always tended to try to take over other goups, rather than cooperate with them, and when he couldn't take them over he would "politic" against them. His actions all seemed to be directed toward making him the future power in Cuba rather than toward overthrowing Castro. It is believed that Manolo RAY is so far "left" in his thinking that he would be as dangerous (or more so in the long run) to United States interests as Castro, if he ever got to be the power in Cuba."

7. Memorandum for the Record
Subject: ~~Manolo/R~~ Relations with Manolo Ray and the MRP
Date: 2 June 1961 03

In a 12 May 1961 meeting, Ray promises to write a prospectus of his plans for MRP within ten days. Not received by 2 June, but Ernesto Betancourt is asking for financial support for MRP activities. Tracy Barnes agrees with 03 [Noel] that no money should be given Ray until his plans are studies. Ray is asking for support separate from FRD since Ray has withdrawn from this group. 03 [Noel] further states in Memo, "---I would like to point out the security risks inherent in any arrangements with RYA-BENTANCOURT-CISNEROS trio. These fellows have had easy access to the White House and to the Department, are notorious for their 'planned leaks', will probably presume all the Department officials they deal with are privy to the arrangement, and before we know it the whole exile community will be well aware that we are providing financial and material support to the RAY group."

Source said MRP leaders in exile believe Rays dismissal due to propaganda and pressures by the CIA which brought about the impression that the obstacle to receipt of help from outside (money, arms, etc) was Ray himself and that once Ray removed, they would receive all types of help. The exile leaders are of opinion that it was also brought about because Ray was a divisionist inasmuch as he had abandoned Cuban Democratic Revolutionary Council.

Date: August 1, 1961

FBI conducting investigation on MRP and Ray and Director indicates he needs to know purpose of investigation to respond properly.

2. Dispatch from Chief of Base, JMWAVE
Subject: Debriefing of Father Bastarrica

Father Bastarrica recently arrived from Cuba as a political exile. At a luncheon meeting, he reported as follows:

MRP formed in Cuba around 26 July 1960. Organizers were Dr. Amalio Fiallo Gonzalez, Dr. Antonio Fernandez Nuevo, Reynol Gonzalez, Humberto Perez Herrera. All these men belonged to group called Accion Democratica. The name of MRP was suggested by Raul Chibas and in itself it does not constitute a party or group but rather a coalition of several small groups, which were the following:

a. The 20 May group, led by Manuel Ray
b. Accion Democratica, led by Dr. Fiallo
c. Accion Verde Olivo, led by Dr. Rufo Lopez Fresquet
d. 30 November Movement, led by David Salvador (never really joined)
e. Chibas' group with Jorge Beruff and Felipe Pazos
f. Dr. Valdez Pino, in asylum in Embassy of Peru and belonged to Accion Democratica.

Father Bastarrica's opinion of Ray is that he had no way of judging whether Ray is Communist or Marxist. Lacks quality of leadership because he does not publically hold to a definite political, social and economic ideology. He appears to agree with every person he talks to, never arguing with them or opposing them, all of which shows he has no ideology and makes him a very dangerous man. Is extremely ambitous for himself, with great desire for power.

Romulo Betancourt and former President Jose Figueras and that Ray has taken over post with blessings of the U.S. Further states Ray's appointment as "Chief in Exile" came from underground in Cuba according to Joaquin Godoy, Provisional MRP head in Miami. Article credits Cubans in Miami with saying "new man in field" is Adolf A. Berle, Jr. who has been special asst. to State Dept. and is also member of Pres. "Ray has indicated to WAVE sources that whereas he is not persona grata with the Agency, he has important political connections in Washington and is thus kept informed of much of the Agency's activities. Ray's new organization is not to be military or engage in military thrusts against Cuba because military activity is presently controlled by the Agency and cannot be wrested from it at this time. Ray's new organization will cooperate with the Consejo and attempt to move in on it with the ultimate aim of taking over and dominating it."

3. Memorandum for Chief, Task Force W from Alfonson Rodriguez 25 July 1962
Subject: Manolo Ray Meeting in New York

Ray sorry he joined FRD prior to April invation. Let tide of time suck him in and take him along. Obvious to him that show run in good faith but bad judgment. Ray discusses hope that JURE will be long-lasting organization in Cuba. Ray's political views are assessed as democratically oriented, and if he became ruler of Cuba, his greatest preoccupation would be with economic progress. Rodriguez says Ray is not to be under- estimated. Commands respect because he is well educated and has something to contribute.

4. Ray begins to give information about possible defectors from Castro. Cable dated 25 July 1962 reports that Ray told Willard R. Nauman that Armando Hart Davalos is a feasible target.

5. Additional information to a July 1962 memorandum from Jack Malone (named on interoffice route slip). Information obtained from difference sources from persons close to Ray and their views are complete reliable. Ray did not leave Castro's cabinet because of ideological or policy discrepancies with Castro but because of a heated discussion with the Minister of Labor. Martinez Sanchez, who almost shot Ray after a Cabinet meeting. The sources of information agree that Ray is not any different than Castro. Some of them believe he may not have completely severed his relations with Castro and think he may still be in contact with him. Diplomatic relations were suspended but recognition was not withdrawn.

1. Intelligence Information Cable, 4 January 1964 - information from Carlos Hernandez Hernandez, an Executive Member of Brigade 2506 veterans Association said the Brigade rejected a proposed alliance with JURE on December 7, 1963. Brigade is opposed to Artime, but more opposed to Ray.

2. Identification provided by CIA for Ray in his attempt to infiltrate Cuba. Request made 6 January 1964 - Ray to use identity of Juan Cardenas Mendez.

3. Cable to Director from JMWAVE, dated 8 January 1964, Dir Cite WAVE 0106

[AMOT-84 said he learned from newspaperman Abelardo (Garcia) Berry that Ray had met in Paris with Carlos Franqui Mesa to propose that Franqui join Ray's organization, that is, sector of "Betrayed Revolution". Garcia believes that in order to obtain Franqui's defection, Ray told him about alleged plans of U.S. to overthrow Castro in which Ray was to play a prominent part. Garcia further believes that Franqui's "falling into disgrace" in Cuba is a trick of Castro and Franqui.

4. Cable to DIR from JMWAVE, dated 8 January 1964 states that Governor Munoz Marin, Puerto Rico, pledged to give Ray double any amount Ray raised on a bond sale by JURE to buy guns. JURE has large quantity of arms in P.R. under protection of the Governor.

5. Cable to DIR from JMWAVE, dated 14 January 1964. Cisneros said JURE has military training base in Costa Rica under command of Julio Cesar Alonso, Military Chief of JURE. All JURE boats now at Costa Rican base and also arms which had been in Puerto Rico. Said JURE leaders do not plan to work in Miami area or anywhere else in U.S. because they are afraid CIA will seize their military equipment.

6. Cable to DIR from JMWAVE, dtd 16 Jan 1964 - Amtaup/2 reported that ~~Armando/Alanis/Angulo~~ Julio Cesar Alonso replaced as chief of Costa Rican military base of JURE because of his failure to go on a scheduled operation. (Check to see if this was the aborted mission of 25 November 1963)

6. Cable to DIR from JMWAVE, dated 30 January 1964. Amtaup/2 reported conversation with Sergio Sanchez and Rogelio Cisneros. Cisneros said FBI and INS, Puerto Rico, picked up JURE arms and explosives cached at Cajon de Muerto. Before JURE could pick cach up, it was discovered by a fisherman who advised authorities. JURE boat found and searched, but not retained as they had thrown antiaircraft guns overboard. Governor of P.R. called newspapers and informed them he thought Castro had cached the arms in order to overthrow P.R. Cisneros says he did this to sidetrack FBI and INS investagations and to eliminate possibility Ray's activities would be revealed. Cisneros said JURE boat located in P.R. and registered in Panama in name of person who is extremely close to governor P.R. and bitter enemy of CIA. Amtaup/2 questioned by Governor P.R. was trusted by Jure, to which Cisneros replied that Governor primarily nationalist and enemy of U.S. imperialist politics and therefore an enemy of CIA.

6. Cable to DIR from JMWAVE, dtd 31 Jan 64 - Article in Miami Herlad about the discovery of arms cache in Puerto Rico confirms accuracy of Amtaup/2 reporting that Ray involved in robbery U.S. Military installation and that Governor Marin is misleading FBI investigation. WAVE believes the C-3 explosive found in cache was provided Ray by WAVE as directed by Hdqtrs, but WAVE did not provide any weapons. WAVE will tell loaal FBI that they know nothing regarding background of cache discovery and assume Hdqtrs will coordinate case at Wash.D.C. level with FBI.

7. Intelligence Information Cable, dated 4 Feb. 1964 - reliable source says RAY expected in Caracas, Venezuela middle of February 1964 to establish a guerrilla training base for JURE in venezuela. Will be a regional center used by JHRE members in Venezuela and Panama. (Likely that if Ray succeeds in setting up camp, it will be with tacit consent of Betancourt government. Field Comment). Ray claims he will be inside Cuba by 20 May 1964.

8. Cable to DIR from Panama City, dated 9 Feb 1964 states JOSE MARIA PUENTE BLANCO, Panamanian/Cuban, DOB 17 July 1930, Havana, Cuba, left Panama City for Caracas on 8 Feb. He is possible Castro agent and Panama City would appreciate information re his activities in Caracas and/or subsequent travel.

9. Memo for the Record, dtd 12 Feb 1964 from Alfonso Rodriguez
Subject: Meeting with AMBANG/1

ELC, according to Ray, was now disolved and became a part of JURE on 17 Jan. 1964. This brings to JURE the best former rebel army officers in exile and should give JURE a military background and support second to none in the exile community.

Comments: AMTAUP/2 reports have indicated Cisneros activities and statements are directed against the CIA. Rodriguez discusses Amtaup/2's reporting with Tony Sforza and Warren Frank. If Cisneros is in fact directing a program of denigration against the CIA, suggest agency follow the activities of Dionisio Suarez Esquival, who reportedly has been selected to carry out such a program in various Latin American univerities.

10. Cable to DIR from Panama City, dated 22 Feb. 1964. The PUENTE BLANCO brothers have been under some suspicion since their arrival in BACY following their release from Cuban prison as result of intervention of Thelma King. Part of suspicion is a result of activities of their brother, Jorge, still in Cuba.

Architect, Nocholas Quintana, residing in Cuba, told the following to a Mr. Raphael Katzen, consulting engineer in U.S. Manuelo Ray is in Quintana's opinion more dangerous to U.S. than Castro. Ray is not a Soviet type Communist according to Quintana, but his socialism is so extreme and his anti-U.S. feelings so deep that he considers Ray a dangerous exile leader, at least to the U.S.

Manuelo Ray is known to be of interest to the local FBI (Cincinnati).

(Check -- is ~~this CIA memo~~?)

2. Memorandum for the Record, dated 16 March 1964
   From: Sidney P. Di Ubaldo
   Subject: Contact Report, Meeting with Ernesto Betancourt

Betancourt has known Ray for several years and admired him through all various seasons of their relationship. Betancourt impressed with Ray's organizational talents and talents as an engineer.. Says Ray an effective and judicious personality and appeals to Cuban exiles of various stripes. Betancourt expressed a fear that Ray, in his zeal, might commit himself to such tight timing that he would be forced to undertake action at a disadvantageous moment.

Di Ubaldo comments that if Betancourt was leading him on in an attempt to sell Ray to him, it was done with a "subtlety to which I am definitely not accustomed".

3. Cable to DIR from JMWAVE, dtd 17 March 1964. Cisneros told AMTAUP/2 that CIA had ordered personnel of AMWORLD (Artime's group) boats to fire on JURE boats and therefore Cisneros had instructed his crewmen to fire on AMWORLD boats wherever encountered.

Cisneros had meeting at his home on 15 March, attended by Armando Alanis Angulo, Dunney Perez Alamo, Jose Puente Blanco, National Chief JURE youth and member of JURE national Executive, and AMTAUP/2. Cisneros related that Romulo Betancourt told Ray in Caracas that Betancourt will work in favor of JURE. Puente confirmed this. Betancourt promised to arrange urgent meeting with U.S. officials in Washington to get promise from them that CIA would not sabotage any of JURE's planned operations.

Also said Ray had chosen Venus to make trip to Cuba and Venus armed with 20MM gun, four 50 Cal and one 30 Cal machine guns.

5. Cable to DIR from JMWAVE, dtd 28 Marbh 1964 - AMTAUP/2 reports that Alanis, Perez and Antonio Arias Gonzalez, JURE members, are dissatisfied with Ray's organization because they had now been forbidden to criticize U.S. govarnment policies, and the fact that they were allowed to have a training camp near Miami indicated that Ray is accepting CIA aid. Cisneros claimed the main objective of JURE was to keep U.S. govt. entertained with the training base set up in Miami area and that departure of JURE members to infiltrate Cuba will be outside U.S.

6. Accounting of funds received by Ray, from June 21, 1963 - April 8, 1964, show a total expenditure of $217,924.28 by CIA.

1. AMWORLD Meeting in San Juan, P.R., 2-5 May 1964
Subject: Ray's Plans
Submitted by Henry D. Heckshera WH/SA/SO/HH

Ray's plans to infiltrate Cuba by 20 May were discussed at meeting. Questions about Ray's financing of Puerto Rican conference and ability to store arms and engage in training activities on U.S. soil were raised by AMYUM/19(MRR) Member). He volunteered to tell Heckshe where arms could be found be Heckshe "quickly dissuaded him from divulging further details" at which point AMYUM 19 commented that GUERTLER had reacted in a similar way when offered facts and figures about Ray's activities. Artime stated he would not put it past Ray to go into hiding in a secure place while pretending to be in Cuba.

2. Cable to JMWAVE from DIR, 7 May 1964 - After looking at AMTAUP material, it is obvious much of conspiratorial talk in JURE is for internal consumption only, the purpose being to protect myth that JURE is independent as basically hostile to CIA. In a desire to obtain proof of any anti-CIA or U.S. govt. activity by Ray, urge every effort to check accuracy of AMTAUP/AMOT reporting and follow through for any overt manifestations of many allegations made.

3. Memo for the Director of Central Intelligence, from Richard Helsm, DD/P, dated 13 May 1964. Subject: Plans of Manuel Ray and the JURE to Infiltrate into Cuba.

Helms says there is no question but that Ray seriously plans to enter Cuba sometime in May 1964. JURE has 6 teams ready to infiltrate -- a total of 27 men. Ray hopes with aid of 40 men, he can demonstrate that resistance is possible and that Castro can be defied.

B. Rogelio Cisneros calls Rodriguez (~~Halpern~~) on 20 May to advise him certain arms being manufactured to JURE specifications in El Monte and being investigated by U.S. Treasury. Cisneros says JURE has invested $50,000 in these weapons being manufactured bu Knuson (sic) Manufacturing Co.

C. Rodriguez (~~the undersigned~~) tells Cisneros this is pretty sad situation that JURE must make use of Costa Rican, Venezuelan and other L.A. connections or they were going to get "clobbered" in U.S.

C?. Halpern and Rodrigaez advised Mr. FitzGerald of the above. He agreed agency could not assist JURE in this matter. On 20 May, Mr. Bowdler of St. Dept. notified of the matter, and Deputy Chief, WH/SA advised.

E. Joseph O'Neill of OGC called on 20 May and informed that JURE was involved but agency did not want Revenue called off its investigation because of the "autonomous" nature of our relationship with JURE.

6. Cable to DIR from JMWAVE, dtd 22 May 1964. Sender states that the manner of Tad Szulc in an office visit on May 21 and new confident tone expressed by Cisneros conveyed feeling to cable sender that Ray has made it into Cuba.

7. Cable tp JMWAVE from DIR, dated 23 May 1964. Request Reuteman advise AMCARBON/1 that he has checked with hdqtrs and that Ray is not receiving CIA support. Reuteman should trace history of intimate relationship of AMCAPE/1 with Ray noting that since Bay of Pigs, AMCAPE/1 has been serving, in effect, as a public relations man and loggyist for Ray. Further explain to AMCARBON/1 that AMCAPE/1 must be credited with single-handedly placing entire Cuban nation on alert and causing withdrawal of masses of conscripted workers from cane fields merely by articles playing on theme of threat of infiltration of Ray and a few men. Tell AMCARBON/1 that CIA would not become party to Ray operation knowing close relationship with AMCAPE/1, particularly since latter well known to be less than friendly to CIA.

8. Intelligence Information Cable, dtd 26 May 1964. Cisneros says that as of 23 May 1964, no contact has been established with Ray but Cisneros believes he has reached Cuba.

9. Intelligence Information Cable, dtd 28 May 1964 - Cisneros says Ray has not as yet been able to infiltrate Cuba and will make ~~another~~ attempt night of 28 May 1964. Origin of Autonomous Operations

Integrated Covert Action Program for Cuba, approved by Higher Authority in June 1963, provided for "support of autonomous anti-Castro Cuban groups to supplement and assist in the execution" of other courses of action. Concept was first voiced in Sept. 1962 in Walter Rostow's proposal for a "Track Two" approach to Cuban operations. Parallel to regular CIA-controlled Cuban teams, CIA would extend financial aid and some advice and guidance to independent and uncontrolled Cuban leaders such as Manuel Ray.

Rules of Engagement incorporated into June 1963 program.

1. "It is the keystone of autonomous operations that they will be executed exclusively by Cuban nationals motivated by the conviction that the overthrow of the Castro/Communist regime must be accomplished by Cubans, both inside and outside Cuba acting in consonance.

2. The effort will probably cost many Cuban lives. If this cost in lives becomes unacceptable to the U.S. conscience, autonomous operations can be effectively halted by the withdrawal of U.S. support; but once halted, they cannot be resumed.

3. All autonomous operations will be mounted outside the territory of the United States.

4. The United States Government must be prepared to deny publicly any participation in these acts no matter how loud or even how accurate may be the reports of U. S. complicity.

5. The United States presence and direct participation in the operation would be kept to an absolute minimum. Before entering into an operational relationship with a group, the U.S. representative will make it clear that his Government has no intention of intervening militarily, except to counter intervention by the Soviets. An experienced CIA officer would be assigned to work with the group in a liaison capacity. He would provide general advice as requested as well as funds and necessary material support. He may be expected to influence but not control the conduct of operations.

6. These operations would not be undertaken within a fixed time schedule."

4. Memo for the Record, dtd 11 Sept 1964 from Alfonso Rodreguez

On Aug 24, 1964, Rogelio Cisneros called to report his resignation from JURE. Stated Ray incapable of directing both political and military activities. Cisneros thinks Raul Chibas will soon also resign. Cisneros said Ray not prepared for ill-fated May attempt into Cuba and Cisneros thinks Ray had believed he could arrange for CIA to take him into Cuba. "Ray is politically unformed --- politically that which he last read". Cisneros further stated that he believed Ray had planned his entire return-to-Cuba angle with President Kennedy and the presidential elections of November 1964 in mind. According to him, Ray planned to make JURE and Ray outstanding liberal and democractic exile group with the thought that prior to the 1964 elections, Mr. Kennedy would have to do something about Cuba. With Kennedy's death, according to Cisneros, all of Ray's plans went awry. Rodriguez expresses to Cisneros that this seems like a far-fetched possibility and Cisneros admits he got idea out of thin air, but said theory widely held within Directorate of JURE.

5. Memo for the Record - draft - dtd 22 Sept 1964 - Alfonso Rodriguez

CIA files contain voluminous information from sources of varying reliability re: Ray who is well known to Intelligence Community as a prominent anti-Castro Cuban exile leader and head of JURE. If particular info is desired, please specify.

2. Memo dtd 6 Dec 1965 to Secret Service from DD/P gives 2 1/2 page standard bio information on Ray.

3. Memo dtd 15 Dec 1965 to Commissioner, INS from DD/P
Subject: Roige Cerezo, Jose
(A 12 399 923 TC)

According to CIA files, information dtd Aug 1963 from a Cuban emigree source, Roige was designated chief of intelligence by National Direction Abroad of JURE. Source said intelligence group created in Marc 1963 on orders of Manuel Ray for purpose of infiltrating JURE members into various organizations which operated in Miami area, as well as into agencies of U.S. govt. Further, that in April 1963, Ray had issued orders to infiltrate a JURE member into CIA in order to learn details of plans regarding Cuba. JURE also intended to drop leaflets into Cuba of a derogatory nature regarding U.S. govt. Included in these leaflets was Subject's manifesto against the U.S. govt and against this Agency.

4. Ltr. dtd June 2, 1966 from Dr. Julian Gallo to Harry (Mahoney?)
Gallo is contact with Ray in Puerto Rico and trying to discover the names of Ray's contacts in Cuba. Ray, apparently is seeking a Mexican visa from Gallo and unhappy that it did not come through. Refused to reveal names or addresses to Gallo and would not give information about where his radio broadcast tapes were to be sent for transmission into Cuba.

5. Memo for the Record, dtd 21 June 1966 from Charles Anderson
Met with Ray on 28 April 1966. Anderson said in general Ray had less information on the "purge situation that I did." Ray said relatives of Gustavo Arcos in P.R. had telephone contact with Arcos family in Cuba, about 25 April and that Arcos still in prison but charges against him were thin. "(This means there was at least one more telephone call than we knew of previously, and this has probably served to increase the pressure on Arcos)." Anderson tells of his concern and strong interest in Arcos on the chance that Ray might assume Arcos had been CIA agent. Doesn't know if Ray will construe remark this way but it seemed like an opening "to use an important exile channel as a possible deception mechanism."

"I believe that later in the summer it might be a good idea to have another talk with AMBANG to keep up with exile thinking, and feeding more deception thoughts."

Informant states there was publicity after Mardi Gras incident alleging Banister was "framed" by NOPD because he was uncovering corruption within the dept. N.O. Crime Commission defended Banister as did many other prominent groups in the area.

Banister has associated himself with Leander Perez, D.A. for Plaquemine Parish. Perez is extremely right-wing & known to have denied voting rights to blacks.

Interview with official of NOPD indicates Banister had good record, but began to publicly ~~critiz~~ criticize his superiors. His incident at Absinthe Bar in 1957 was thoroughly investigated & 50 witnesses made statements. The majority stated Banister drunk.

Two other interviewees indicate bar incident exaggerated because Banister was getting too close to the bosses of police administration.

Opening of 201
Operational interest
Trace would be conducted → bring together existing materials → open 201
Trace produces computer printout w/ refs., not documents. In early '60's, it produced index cards.
Who opens 201?
Case officer - it's his judgement which determines whether if
If no indication of continuing interest, 201 may not be opened.
If its an Am. & info. comes from a source such as FBI, CIA may not open a 201.
If this type of info. comes in, it would go into index
There are certain criteria
1) Recruitment
2) High-Level Communist officials

There are some operations which are run out of headquarters, in which case, a case officer is involved.

PRQ. Pt. I - biog. info.
Pt. II - more extensive
- might indicate op. involvement

There should be a doc. indicating reasons why a part. person is not recruited.
There should be a reference in 1st file to document in 2nd file if there is one.

More integrated cover where a person would do a full-time S.D. job & also a CIA job which is unbeknownst to rest of S.D. employees. — could be a "deep official cover" as well as a "deep cover"

Am. citizens or most foreigners being used in some manner would, as a general rule, have a security check

If that person was an official of another govt. agency or from military, that org. would have to be consulted.

Probably would use that org's

PCS - Policy & Co-ord. Staff

↳ would be involved in co-ord. of a project in which both the CIA & another org. was involved

To the extent of CIA involvement, files would be maintained. That is not to say that the other would not have more comprehensive files.

REPRODUCTION PROHIBITED

"Sleeper agent" hypo: to run 2 or 3 sleepers in Comm. China [{station there] 24] doesn't necessarily have to know @ it since it is being run from Hqtrs. — from DDP to CI Staff — reasonable scenario

Would a 201 be opened on sleeper?
Competing ' of secrecy vs. being able to keep track of sleeper

Change of sleeper to Am. soldier defecting to E. Germany: — no 201 opened — C.O. in E. Ger. — report comes in from reliable source stating that sleeper is providing info.

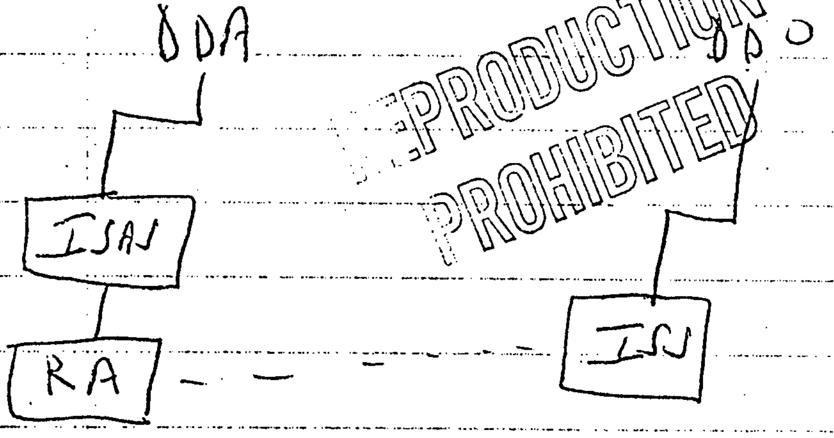
RID – defunct designation for part of Info Services Staff wh handles DDO records



REPRODUCTION PROHIBITED

DDO has a filing sys unto itself

Any DD can call upon RA to give assistance. But DD can also design its own filing sys so long as RA's legal guidelines are followed. But RA usually is informed of how the other filing sys work.

Day to day maintenance of files is decentralized.

REPRODUCTION PROHIBITED

ISS central sys is also heart ~~fo~~ of indiv ~~fi~~ division (i.e. area) systems.
– for items of record value

Special materials might not go into central file. ie Special Correspondence.

"Prescribed & Limited" info
– highly sensitive info – limited distri to certain indivs
Designation as P&L is made by DDO & senior staff officer

P&L designation – deep cover agent in hostile territory might receive this designation.
– this P&L designation would not be uncommon* for cases of this kind.

10 or 15 yrs ago, w/ super sensitive operations, this was relatively common.
* Possi for something to be so sensitive that no 201 file is assigned.

CI staff has gone over accumulation of many yrs & is now catching up to place names in central index.

possi ~~to~~ that situations occur where a P&L file is no longer [illegible] to locate.

"Prescribed & Limited" Distribution (P&L): doesn't cover files but info., communications

"Sleeper" hypo: Operation could have been so sensitive as to be kept out of filing, indexing system, particularly 10-15 years ago.

May have been handled out of front offices; may not have even rec'd 201 file #.

201 #'s: assigned by ISS; were assigned by RID 10-15 yrs. ago

Files were not designated "P&L" but were "restricted" to confined jurisdictions

Cryptonym assignment: part of ISS - Central Top Secret & Cryptic Reference Staff

"Sleeper" would have to have a cryptonym for op. purposes. Would list cryptonym w/201 # → ∴ no name, not in STAR system

Bob Bartowe - Basis for opening a 201 file:

Some sense of "continuing interest" either as a potential source, agent, KGB official - can be either for operational or counter-intell. purposes

Could be either to consolidate several references in STAR system

Could be opened in response to one reference - Ex.: 1 credible source ref. to some suspected KGB person

201 could be opened in a matter of hrs., days or weeks if someone recognized info. of significance on part. person

"Files content listing" - supplemental listing from STAR system

Central Source Register

Ask Gregg for details

Interagency Source Register: in effect probably since beg. of CIA (of Intelligence Agencies) – doesn't include regular personnel – only assets – would be based on true names – wouldn't contain sensitive sources 201 files would not necessarily contain a photograph. Even if photo existed, it may not have been in 201 file but may be x-ref. to a specific desk.

REPRODUCTION PROHIBITED

Ask Gregg

Graphics collection in DDI
Indiv. desks will collect photos of persons of interest may contain photos of terrain, etc. Not particularly interested in group pics, etc.

Listing of assets – would be maintained in a working manner at separate desks.

Ref. Gregg

DDO would be only place where there would be access to this type of listing.

By & large, no 201 files on employees, unless there was an op. interest prior to employment → Official Personnel File

REPRODUCTION PROHIBITED

Opening docs. of 201 files would contain refs. to clearance papers (which would be maintained in Sec. Office)

Emp. under deep cover → Staff Agent – his files would be converted & would appear under his pseudonym.

Don't open 201's on pseudonyms, but would open one on cryptonyms.

REPRODUCTION PROHIBITED

Project file: operational mgmt. record of a given project

201 would have info. on asset involved in project; project file's info is on operation itself.

7. Memo dated 31 May 1967 by Ramond G. Rocca
Subject: Garrison and the Kennedy Assassination - Gordon Dwane Novel

A. Summary - Novel has both claimed and denied CIA affiliation -- a thorough check of CIA records shows no affiliation. It is possible that NBC is supporting Novel to get a large audience for expose of Garrison. Novel may have exaggerated his presumed relationship with Sergio Arcacha Smith who also is not CIA affiliated.

B. Novel is mysterious -- little information -- 29 year old former owner of bar in French Quarter and an electronics expert.

C. In Columbus, Ohio, Novel is free on $10,000 bond - living in a rent-free apartment and drives a car with dealer tags. Rocca questions where money is coming from.

D. Novel in McLena, Virginia 25-26 March 1967. Given a polygraph by Lloyd Furr. Furr and Richard L. Bast operate firm Redex -- sell audio and counter audio devices.

E. CIA finds no evidence of ever having an Evergreen Advertising Agency which Novel claims he worked for and was CIA front.

F. Records show CIA never recruited or paid Arcacha directly but since he was associated with FRD in New Orleans, which was created with CIA assistance, guidance anf financial support may have been given him through the Miami FRD circa May 1960.

2. 12/8/60 Cable to Director from WAVE

Ray advised Wiesinger he is departing for Washington same day to visit ERNESTA BETANCOURT of OAS and others. In New York on 12/9 to contact Raul Chibas. Return Miami about 12/11/60.

3. 12/23/60 Cable to Director from Havana indicates Ray wishes return to Cuba as soon as possible and asks that OLIEN make arrangements through his official channel. Doesn't want Cubans in WAVE or Cuba to know of his return.

* 4. 12/22/60 Information report from U.S. citizen, free-lance writer and part-time sugar broker [(DONALD HOGAN)]

Says Miro Cardona has accepted teaching position in Puerto Rico effective early January 1961. Is disgusted with bickering among anti-Castro Cubans and will sit on sidelines for time being. Is partivularly opposed to Ray -- program is too Marxist and Ray is an opportunist.

* 5. 1/16/61 Information Report from U.S. national in a U.S. governemnt agency. Source had contact with DR. GUILLERMO SALAZAR SANCHEZ, former Cuban ambassador to Switzerland and DR. SERGIO ROJAS SANTAMARINA, former Cuban Ambassador to United Kingdom. Salazar said he had heard from a reliable source that Ray was not a bona fide defector and still acting on behalf of Castro and is a member of the "Blue Legion". (no further explanation.)

Dr. Salazar mentioned group called "The Ten Unknowns" who are key figures in making Communist policy in Latin America. (Ray not implicated as one of these).

INS is concerned over the increased news coverage of Ray's arrival in U.S. and activities here. Afraid they will be confronted about Ray's arrival (which was describad as "black" in another communication) so JMWAVE asked to re-advise Ray that his story is that on 10 Nov 1960, he landed somewhere on Keys in a fishing boat, made way to road where picked up by INS patrol car, taken to WAVE area, examined, declared refugge and released with admonition to always keep INS advised of his address.

Conversation with Jose Miro Cardona and Berle, reveals that Cardona has misgivings about Ray and Pazoz and the MRP. Says Ray is bitterly anti-American as well as probably totalitarian in his thinking. He no longer believes Ray has any considerable support inside Cuba. Thinks Ray group endeavoring to exercise influence in our government so as to be the major recipient of whatever assistance can be obtained here. He is particularly ~~[illegible]~~ concerned about the role played by Felipe Pazos.

Subject: Background, Character and Economic Concepts of Manuel Ray Rivero
Date: 16 March 1961
Sources: Dr. Oscar SALAS Marrero (paragraphs 1-11) Knew Ray in Cuba
Dr. Jose ALVAREZ Diaz, former Minister of Finance under Prio (Pg
Dr. Jorge BERUFF, former president of Banco de Desarrollo
Economico de Cuba, (pg 13)

Note: Cover note pencilled comment (The content is so biased and mixed with untruth that it would be a disservice to the intelligence community to disseminate it.

Synopsis of paragraphs 1-11. Dr. Salas says during his childhood Ray was a Protestant but today is completely atheistic. Said Ray organized the MRC against Batista and shortly after Batista's fall, MRC and 26th of July Movement fused into one, and as soon as Castro came into power, control of the organization was given to the Communists. Tells of Ray's association with Castro and that he did not resign his position when his own brother was renounced by Castro. Stated that Ray's rupture with Fidel was due to the fact that Ray opposed the idea of shooting Hubert Matos as a traitor. Ray resigned his post but said publicly that he approved and supported the Castro regime without any mental reservations. Says in Cuban clandestine circles Ray is regarded as boastful, ostentatious and deceitful. Intimate friends of Ray feel that he is a man of anti-democratic procedures, and does not like to take advice, even from members of his own movement.

Synopsis of paragraph 12. Dr. Alvarez said Ray was in favor of maintaining relations with USSR and not making Communist Party illegal. Said that although Ray withdrew all these statements when threatened with press coverage, Alvarez thinks they are representative of Ray's thinking and would try to put ideas into practice if he ever came to power. Alverez also mentioned Rays thinking on nationalization of public services, socialized medicine, nationalization of banks, etc.

Synopsis of paragraph 13. Dr. Beruff said Ray well-intentioned with no Communist tendencies. Cited a meeting at which the basic points of the MRP platform were discussed and said that since Ray was in disagreement with the others on most of the points, Dr. Felipe Pazos acted as chairman of the meeting and Ray argued his case as a simple member of the group. Out of this meeting came a declaration of 14 points, including the nationalization of the banks and public utilities.

On 9 March, Ray said that ideas attributed to him in paragraph 12 were not true and part of a "campaign against him by Mr. Pawley of the Miami City Transit Company".

✱ 7. Report dated March 17, 1961, Marked Urgent

"It has been reported by a very reliable source that Manuel Ray (MRP) is bringing as an Adviser, Professor Fiterre from Habana University - This man Fiterre is an undisclosed Communist that has always openly admitted and braged about being aCommunist.

9. Memorandum for the Record

Subject: Reported Anti-MRP Rally Promoted by Aureliano Sanchez Arango
Signed: B. E. Reishhardt

For this reason many Cubans have been baffled by the list of names now given as the saviors of Cuba for a Provisional Government. Among these are such notorious Castro followers as: Ray, Barquin, Pazos, Rufo Lopez Fresquet, Chibas and others whose names remind us of an era of mourning, persecution and misery."

4. Report on Manuel Ray received from Enrique Molinet, a road and airfield construction engineer under Batista regime. Cover note dated 4/7/61. Molinet outlines his distaste for Ray, citing at the beginning his refusal to leave Castro even after the questionable suicide of his brother, Rene. After Ray was ousted from his Cabinet job, he continued to visit Castro, occupying a prominent position in all Castro's public appearances. Said that even before Castro, Ray was an active member of the Cuban Orthodox Party, highly infiltrated with communists. Date: 5 May 1961
Signed: Calvin Hicks WH/4/PM/Operations

"Ray is balieved to have accomplished pratically nothing towards the effort to overthow Castro. Instead, it seems that whenever we played with his so-called assets, we were burned. He is notorious for claiming assets or operations, several days after some other group had already set them up or claimed them. Whenever it came to producing and backing up his claims, he always came up with excuses for not producing, rather than results. He has always tended to try to take over other goups, rather than cooperate with them, and when he couldn't take them over he would "politic" against them. His actions all seemed to be directed toward making him the future power in Cuba rather than toward overthrowing Castro. It is believed that Manolo RAY is so far "left" in his thinking that he would be as dangerous (or more so in the long run) to United States interests as Castro, if he ever got to be the power in Cuba."

* 7. Memorandum for the Record
Subject: ~~Manolo R~~ Relations with Manolo Ray and the MRP
Date: 2 June 1961 03
Signed: James A. Noel

In a 12 May 1961 meeting, Ray promises to write a prospectus of his plans for MRP within ten days. Not received by 2 June, but Ernesto Betancourt 03 is asking for financial support for MRP activities. Tracy Barnes agrees with Noel that no money should be given Ray until his plans are studies. Ray is asking for support separate from FRD since Ray has withdrawn from 03 this group. Noel further states in Memo, "...I would like to point out the security risks inherent in any arrangementw with RYA-BENTANCOURT-CISNEROS trio. These fellows have had easy access to the White House and to the Department, are notorious for their 'planned leaks', will probably presume all the Department officials they deal with are privy to the arrangement, and before we know it the whole exile community will be well aware that we are providing financial and material support to the RAY group."

    Source: Cuban Exile Lawyer
    Evaluation: F-6

Report transmits information concerning activities, persons visited and purpose of visit of Ray to Puerto Rico, terminating when Ray hurridely left Puerto Rico following press account that he had been removed as Coordinator of the MRP.

Source said MRP leaders in exile believe Rays dismissal due to propaganda and pressures by the CIA which brought about the impression that the obstacle to receipt of help from outside (money, arms, etc) was Ray himself and that once Ray removed, they would receive all types of help. The exile leaders are of opinion that it was also brought about because Ray was a divisionist inasmuch as he had abandoned Cuban Democratic Revolutionary Council.

Father Bastarrica recently arrived from Cuba as a political exile. At a luncheon meeting, he reported as follows:

MRP formed in Cuba around 26 July 1960. Organizers were Dr. Amalio Fiallo Gonzalez, Dr. Antonio Fernandez Nuevo, Reynol Gonzalez, Humberto Perez Herrera. All these men belonged to group called Accion Democratica. The name of MRP was suggested by Raul Chibas and in itself it does not constitute a party or group but rather a coalition of several small groups, which were the following:

a. The 20 May group, led by Manuel Ray
b. Accion Democratica, led by Dr. Fiallo
c. Accion Verde Olivo, led by Dr. Rufo Lopez Fresquet
d. 30 November Movement, led by David Salvador (never really joined)
e. Chibas' group with Jorge Beruff and Felipe Pazos
f. Dr. Valdez Pino, in asylum in Embassy of Peru and belonged to Accion Democratica.

Father Bastarrica's opinion of Ray is that he had no way of judging whether Ray is Communist or Marxist. Lacks quality of leadership because he does not publically hold to a definite political, social and economic ideology. He appears to agree with every person he talks to, never arguing with them or opposing them, all of which shows he has no ideology and makes him a very dangerous man. Is extremely ambitous for himself, with great desire for power.

3. Memorandum for Chief, WH Division, dated 10 October 1961, from Warren S. Yauger, Subject: General - Cuban Matters; Specific - Manuel (Monolo) Ray Planning Board of Puerto Rico announced on 9 October 1961 that Ray has accepted position as consultant to that Board. Board is an important agency of Puerto Rican government, attached to the Office of the Governor. Has broad powers over economic and social planning and is active in exercising these powers. Ray to receive $12,000 per year. Ray presently in Venezuela but expected to arrive Puerto Rico within a week.

4. Cable to Director from JMWAVE, dated May 27, 1962 discusses front page article in Miami Herald of this date by James Buchanan entitled "Miro fades as Exile Chief: Three Latin Leaders Behind Ray". States that Ray has the backing of Gov. Monoz Marin, Pres. Romulo Betancourt and former President Jose Figueras and that Ray has taken over post with blessings of the U.S. Further states Ray's appointment as "Chief in Exile" came from underground in Cuba according to Joaquin Godoy, Provisional MRP head in Miami. Article credits Cubans in Miami with saying "new man in field" is Adolf A. Berle, Jr. who has been special asst. to State Dept. and is also member of Pres. Kennedy's special task force on Lantin America. Implication being that Berle is running new U.S. sponsored Cuban effort. Release causing furor in local Cuban colony.

Cable to JMWAVE from Director, 28 May 1962 states State Department spokesman will state story without foundation at a noon press briefing this date.

Volume XII - January 1964 - February 1964

1. Intelligence Information Cable, 4 January 1964 - information from Carlos Hernandez Hernandez, an Executive Member of Brigade 2506 veterans Association said the Brigade rejected a proposed alliance with JURE on December 7, 1963. Brigade is opposed to Artime, but more opposed to Ray.

2. Identification provided by CIA for Ray in his attempt to infiltrate Cuba. Request made 6 January 1964 - Ray to use identity of Juan Cardenas Mendez.

3. Cable to Director from JMWAVE, dated 8 January 1964, Dir Cite WAVE 0106

AMOT-84 said he learned from newspaperman Abelardo (Garcia) Berry that Ray had met in Paris with Carlos Franqui Mesa to propose that Franqui join Ray's organization, that is, sector of "Betrayed Revolution". Garcia believes that in order to obtain Franqui's defection, Ray told him about alleged plans of U.S. to overthrow Castro in which Ray was to play a prominent part. Garcia further believes that Franqui's "falling into disgrace" in Cuba is a trick of Castro and Franqui.

4. Cable to DIR from JMWAVE, dated 8 January 1964 states that Governor Munoz Marin, Puerto Rico, pledged to give Ray double any amount Ray raised on a bond sale by JURE to buy guns. JURE has large quantity of arms in P.R. under protection of the Governor.

5. Cable to DIR from JMWAVE, dated 14 January 1964. Cisneros said JURE has military training base in Costa Rica under command of Julio Cesar Alonso, Military Chief of JURE. All JURE boats now at Costa Rican base and also arms which had been in Puerto Rico. Said JURE leaders do not plan to to work in Miami area or anywhere else in U.S. because they are afraid CIA will seize their military equipment.

6. Cable to DIR from JMWAVE, dtd 16 Jan 1964 - Amtaup/2 reported that ~~Armando/Alanis/Angulo~~ Julio Cesar Alonso replaced as chief of Costa Rican military base of JURE because of his failure to go on a scheduled operation. (Check to see if this was the aborted mission of 25 November 1963)

6. Cable to DIR from JMWAVE, dated 30 January 1964. Amtaup/2 reported conversation with Sergio Sanchez and Rogelio Cisneros. Cisneros said FBI and INS, Puerto Rico, picked up JURE arms and explosives cached at Cajon de Muerto. Before JURE could pick cach up, it was discovered by a fisherman who advised authorities. JURE boat found and searched, but not retained as they had thrown antiaircraft guns overboard. Governor of P.R. called newspapers and informed them he thought Castro had cached the arms in order to overthrow P.R. Cisneros says he did this to sidetrack FBI and INS investagations and to eliminate possibility Ray's activities would be revealed. Cisneros said JURE boat located in P.R. and registered in Panama in name of person who is extremely close to governor P.R. and bitter enemy of CIA. Amtaup/2 questioned by Governor P.R. was trusted by Jure, to which Cisneros replied that Governor primarily nationalist and enemy of U.S. imperialist politics and therefore an enemy of CIA.

6. Cable to DIR from JMWAVE, dtd 31 Jan 64 - Article in Miami Herlad about the discovery of arms cache in Puerto Rico confirms accuracy of Amtaup/2 reporting that Ray involved in robbery U.S. Military installation and that Governor Marin is misleading FBI investigation. WAVE believes the C-3 explosive found in cache was provided Ray by WAVE as directed by Hdqtrs, but WAVE did not provide any weapons. WAVE will tell loaal FBI that they know nothing regarding background of cache discovery and assume Hdqtrs will coordinate case at Wash.D.C. level with FBI.

7. Intelligence Information Cable, dated 4 Feb. 1964 - reliable source says RAY expected in Caracas, Venezuela middle of February 1964 to establish a guerrilla training base for JURE in venezuela. Will be a regional center used by JHRE members in Venezuela and Panama. (Likely that if Ray succeeds in setting up camp, it will be with tacit consent of Betancourt government. Field Comment). Ray claims he will be inside Cuba by 20 May 1964.

8. Cable to DIR from Panama City, dated 9 Feb 1964 states JOSE MARIA PUENTE BLANCO, Panamanian/Cuban, DOB 17 July 1930, Havana, Cuba, left Panama City for Caracas on 8 Feb. He is possible Castro agent and Panama City would appreciate information re his activities in Caracas and/or subsequent travel.

9. Memo for the Record, dtd 12 Feb 1964 from Alfonso Rodriguez
Subject: Meeting with AMBANG/1

ELC, according to Ray, was now disolved and became a part of JURE on 17 Jan. 1964. This brings to JURE the best former rebel army officers in exile and should give JURE a military background and support second to none in the exile community.

Comments: AMTAUP/2 reports have indicated Cisneros activities and statements are directed against the CIA. Rodriguez discusses Amtaup/2's reporting with Tony Sforza and Warren Frank. If Cisneros is in fact directing a program of denigration against the CIA, suggest agency follow the activities of Dionisio Suarez Esquival, who reportedly has been selected to carry out such a program in various Latin American univerities.

10. Cable to DIR from Panama City, dated 22 Feb. 1964. The PUENTE BLANCO brothers have been under some suspicion since their arrival in PACY following their release from Cuban prison as result of intervention of Thelma King. Part of suspicion is a result of activities of their brother, Jorge, still in Cuba.

Betancourt has known Ray for several years and admired him through all various seasons of their relationship. Betancourt impressed with Ray's organizational talents and talents as an engineer.. Says Ray an effective and judicious personality and appeals to Cuban exiles of various stripes. Betancourt expressed a fear that Ray, in his zeal, might commit himself to such tight timing that he would be forced to undertake action at a disadvantageous moment.

Di Ubaldo comments that if Betancourt was leading him on in an attempt to sell Ray to him, it was done with a "subtlety to which I am definitely not accustomed".

3. Cable to DIR from JMWAVE, dtd 17 March 1964. Cisneros told AMTAUP/2 that CIA had ordered personnel of AMWORLD (Artime's group) boats to fire on JURE boats and therefore Cisneros had instructed his crewmen to fire on AMWORLD boats wherever encountered. CITE WAVE 3691

AMTAUP/2 said Armando Alanis Angulo said he was leaving Miami on 30 March for new JURE base within 6 hours of Miami. Said base under responsibility of Dunney Perez Alamo and himself. Also said Ray had chosen Venus to make trip to Cuba and Venus armed with 20MM gun, four 50 Cal and one 30 Cal machine guns.

5. Cable to DIR from JMWAVE, dtd 28 Marbh 1964 - AMTAUP/2 reports that Alanis, Perez and Antonio Arias Gonzalez, JURE members, are dissatisfied with Ray's organization because they had now been forbidden to critigize U.S. govarnment policies, and the fact that they were allowed to have a training camp near Miami indicated that Ray is accepting CIA aid. Cisneros claimed the main objective of JURE was to keep U.S. govt. entertained with the training base set up in Miami area and that departure of JURE members to infiltrate Cuba will be outside U.S.

6. Accounting of funds received by Ray, from June 21, 1963 - April 8, 1964, show a total expenditure of $217,924.28 by CIA.

1. AMWORLD Meeting in San Juan, P.R., 2-5 May 1964
Subject: Ray's Plans
Submitted by Henry D. Hecksher, WH/SA/SO/HH

Ray's plans to infiltrate Cuba by 20 May were discussed at meeting. Questions about Ray's financing of Puerto Rican conference and ability to store arms and engage in training activities on U.S. soil were raised by AMYUM/19(MRR) Member). He volunteered to tell Hecksher where arms could be found be Hecksher "quickly dissuaded him from divulging further details" at which point AMYUM 19 commented that GUERTLER had reacted in a similar way when offered facts and figures about Ray's activities. Artime stated he would not put it past Ray to go into hiding in a secure place while pretending to be in Cuba.

2. Cable to JMWAVE from DIR, 7 May 1964 - After looking at AMTAUP material, it is obvious much of conspiratorial talk in JURE is for internal consumption only, the purpose being to protect myth that JURE is independent as basically hostile to CIA. In a desire to obtain proof of any anti-CIA or U.S. govt. activity by Ray, urge every effort to check accuracy of AMTAUP/AMOT reporting and follow through for any overt manifestations of many allegations made.

3. Memo for the Director of Central Intelligence, from Richard Helsm, DD/P, dated 13 May 1964. Subject: Plans of Manuel Ray and the JURE to Infiltrate into Cuba.

Helms says there is no question but that Ray seriously plans to enter Cuba sometime in May 1964. JURE has 6 teams ready to infiltrate -- a total of 27 men. Ray hopes with aid of 40 men, he can demonstrate that resistance is possible and that Castro can be defied.

4. Cable to DIR from JMWAVE, , dtd 20 May 1964. Andrew St. George, on assignment with Time-Life, left Miami 18 May with JURE elements for rendezvous with Ray.

5. Memo for the Record dtd 20 May 1964, from Samuel Halpern
Subject: JURE Purchase of Arms

Chronological resume of reports reaching WH/SA desk regarding attempted purchase of arms by JURE in El Monte, California.

A. Revenue officials queried CIA re its knowledge of certain arms being handled by Juan Erquiaga Aizcorbe in L.A. area for shipment to Florida. WH/SA denied knowledge. Discussion about 20 May 1964.

B. Rogelio Cisneros calls Rodriguez (~~Halpern~~) on 20 May to advise him certain arms being manufactured to JURE specifications in El Monte and being investigated by U.S. Treasury. Cisneros says JURE has invested $50,000 in these weapons being manufactured bu Knuson (sic) Manufacturing Co.

C. Rodriguez (~~the undersigned~~) tells Cisneros this is pretty sad situation that JURE must make use of Costa Rican, Venezuelan and other L.A. connections or they were going to get "clobbered" in U.S.

D. Halpern and Rodrigaez advised Mr. FitzGerald of the above. He agreed agency could not assist JURE in this matter. On 20 May, Mr. Bowdler of St. Dept. notified of the matter, and Deputy Chief, WH/SA advised.

E. Joseph O'Neill of OGC called on 20 May and informed that JURE was involved but agency did not want Revenue called off its investigation because of the "autonomous" nature of our relationship with JURE.

6. Cable to DIR from JMWAVE, dtd 22 May 1964. Sender states that the manner of Tad Szulc in an office visit on May 21 and new confident tone expressed by Cisneros conveyed feeling to cable sender that Ray has made it into Cuba.

7. Cable tp JMWAVE from DIR, dated 23 May 1964. Request Reuteman advise AMCARBON/1 that he has checked with hdqtrs and that Ray is not receiving CIA support. Reuteman should trace history of intimate relationship of AMCAPE/1 with Ray noting that since Bay of Pigs, AMCAPE/1 has been serving, in effect, as a public relations man and lobbyist for Ray. Further explain to AMCARBON/1 that AMCAPE/1 must be credited with single-handedly placing entire Cuban nation on alert and causing withdrawal of masses of conscripted workers from cane fields merely by articles playing on theme of threat of infiltration of Ray and a few men. Tell AMCARBON/1 that CIA would not become party to Ray operation knowing close relationship with AMCAPE/1, particularly since latter well known to be less than friendly to CIA.

8. Intelligence Information Cable, dtd 26 May 1964. Cisneros says that as of 23 May 1964, no contact has been established with Ray but Cisneros believes he has reached Cuba.

9. Intelligence Information Cable, dtd 28 May 1964 - Cisneros says Ray has not as yet been able to infiltrate Cuba and will make ~~another~~ attempt night of 28 May 1964. Cisneros says vigilance by U.S. authorities over activities of JURE reps. in Florida making support of Ray's effort extremely difficult.

1. Intelligence Information Cable, dtd 30 May 1964 - information from Rogelio Cisneros Diaz - as of 30 May 1964, Ray had not entered Cuba. Boat to be used in final infiltration developed motor trouble. JURE reps were making all out effort to go to Ray's aid with replacement for boat and an additional supply of drinking water.

2. Cable to JMWAVE from DIR, dated 2 June 1961, Ref: WAVE 7218 (in 95616)* Please note similarities rumor reported Ref Para 2 and statement attributed to Rogelio Cisneros that CIA had instructed AMWORLD boats to fire on JURE boats per WAVE 3691 (IN 41477). Is this significant?

* Artime's followers authorized to attack any of Ray's or Gutierrez's men on high seas.

   b. British and U.S. participated in Ray's capture
   c. Whole thing was a publicity stunt which went wrong.

5. Memo for the Record, dtd 9 June 1964, from Alfonso Rodreguez
Subject: Possible Plans of Ray

Opinion of Rodriguez that Ray will attempt asap to mount another infiltration effort. He is relatively certain JURE has or can procure a small craft capable of making trip from Florida to Cuba. He also thinks that ~~either Cisneros/or~~ Ray "would be willing to publicly give the lie to the TIME magazine article of 12 June 1964.

6. Cable to DIR from JMWAVE, dtd 10 June 1964 - re-canvassing of exile community reveals Ray's prestige at near-absolute low point. Trend is tendency to ignore Ray completely. Information that JURE in considerable dissension. Threats of various factions to withdraw unless Cisneros dismissed and national board reorganized.

(see TIME of 12 June 1964, page 48 -- alleged CIA paid). Governor stated he had seen no such figure and to best of his knowledge, there was no such person. "I of course did not tell Chris Phillpotts that we knew the identity 05 of the American as reported to us by Rogelio Cisneros of JURE."

8. Memo for Record, dtd 12 June 1964 from Alfonso Rodriguez
Subject: JURE telegram to TIME Magazine

Protest falsity of information published by TIME re: capture of Manuel Ray and his group. False that a CIA ship participated in any phase of operation. Also false that a CIA individual paid fine -- the $84.00 was sent to JURE by an American citizen at request of one of his employees.

9. Cable to DIR from JMWAVE, dtd 27 June 1964: According to AMFAST/6, Ray informed Pepe Catillo (Jose Garcia Valdez) their departure date for Cuba would be July 1. Boat to be used is unnamed Rybovitch rented in Ft. Lauderdale. Ray planning to stay in Cuba about 15 days.

This cannot but influence Ray."

Origin of Autonomous Operations

Integrated Covert Action Program for Cuba, approved by Higher Authority in June 1963, provided for "support of autonomous anti-Castro Cuban groups to supplement and assist in the execution" of other courses of action. Concept was first voiced in Sept. 1962 in Walter Rostow's proposal for a "Track Two" approach to Cuban operations. Parallel to regular CIA-controlled Cuban teams, CIA would extend financial aid and some advice and guidance to independent and uncontrolled Cuban leaders such as Manuel Ray.

Rules of Engagement incorporated into June 1963 program.

1. "It is the keystone of autonomous operations that they will be executed exclusively by Cuban nationals motivated by the conviction that the overthrow of the Castro/Communist regime must be accomplished by Cubans, both inside and outside Cuba acting in consonance.

2. The effort will probably cost many Cuban lives. If this cost in lives becomes unacceptable to the U.S. conscience, autonomous operations can be effectively halted by the withdrawal of U.S. support; but once halted, they cannot be resumed.

3. All autonomous operations will be mounted outside the territory of the United States.

4. The United States Government must be prepared to deny publicly any participation in these acts no matter how loud or even how accurate may be the reports of U. S. complicity.

5. The United States presence and direct participation in the operation would be kept to an absolute minimum. Before entering into an operational relationship with a group, the U.S. representative will make it clear that his Government has no intention of intervening militarily, except to counter intervention by the Soviets. An experienced CIA officer would be assigned to work with the group in a liaison capacity. He would provide general advice as requested as well as funds and necessary material support. He may be expected to influence but not control the conduct of operations.

6. These operations would not be undertaken within a fixed time schedule."

4. Article from New York Times, Wednesday, July 15, 1964, bylined Tad Szulc "Ray Said To Leave For Cuba Landing - Castro Foe, Balked in May, Reported on Way Again."

4. Memo for the Record, dtd 11 Sept 1964 from Alfonso Rodreguez

On Aug 24, 1964, Rogelio Cisneros called to report his resignation from JURE. Stated Ray incapable of directing both political and military activities. Cisneros thinks Raul Chibas will soon also resign. Cisneros said Ray not prepared for ill-fated May attempt into Cuba and Cisneros thinks Ray had believed he could arrange for CIA to take him into Cuba. "Ray is politically uninformed --- politically that which he last read". Cisneros further stated that he believed Ray had planned his entire return-to-Cuba angle with President Kennedy and the presidential elections of November 1964 in mind. According to him, Ray planned to make JURE and Ray outstanding liberal and democractic exile group with the thought that prior to the 1964 elections, Mr. Kennedy would have to do something about Cuba. With Kennedy's death, according to Cisneros, all of Ray's plans went awry. Rodriguez expresses to Cisneros that this seems like a far-fetched possibility and Cisneros admits he got idea out of thin air, but said theory widely held within Directorate of JURE.

5. Memo for the Record - draft - dtd 22 Sept 1964 - Alfonso Rodriguez
Conclusions "I recommend we give Ray what he asks and close the JURE books for good. If Ray is succesful in Cuba he will not need our help, if he is not, our help won't do much good.

"He is honest and at least the money will largely be spent for the purpose he wants to achief .

"Whatever Ray may ever say, he was treated the way he asked to be treated. We have played the game in a manner beyond reproach."

President Orlich made clear he would be happy at any time to undertake action such as this if US government wanted him to. While he does wish see Cuba free he inclined to agree with US position Re Hit and Run raids undertaken principally for publicity sake. President Orlich's decision based on (1) relaization that he would not be doing us a favor and, (2) further realization that CRG would be hard pressed to explain such a $70,000 purchase of arms if it became a campaign issue in 1965."

   From: Deputy Director for Plans
   Subject: Ray, Rivero, Manuel Antonio aka: Ray, Manolo

In response to a telephonic request of 15 Nov. 1965 for a name trace on Ray. CIA files contain voluminous information from sources of varying reliability re: Ray who is well known to Intelligence Community as a prominent anti-Castro Cuban exile leader and head of JURE. If particular info is desired, please specify.

2. Memo dtd 6 Dec 1965 to Secret Service from DD/P gives 2 1/2 page standard bio information on Ray.

3. Memo dtd 15 Dec 1965 to Commissioner, INS from DD/P
   Subject: Roige Cerezo, Jose
   (A 12 399 923 TC)

According to CIA files, information dtd Aug 1963 from a Cuban emigree source, Roige was designated chief of intelligence by National Direction Abroad of JURE. Source said intelligence group created in Marc 1963 on orders of Manuel Ray for purpose of infiltrating JURE members into various organizations which operated in Miami area, as well as into agencies of U.S. govt. Further, that in April 1963, Ray had issued orders to infiltrate a JURE member into CIA in order to learn details of plans regarding Cuba. JURE also intended to drop leaflets into Cuba of a derogatory nature regarding U.S. govt. Included in these leaflets was Subject's manifesto against the U.S. govt and against this Agency.

4. Ltr. dtd June 2, 1966 from Dr. Julian Gallo to Harry (Mahoney?) Gallo is contact with Ray in Puerto Rico and trying to discover the names of Ray's contacts in Cuba. Ray, apparently is seeking a Mexican visa from Gallo and unhappy that it did not come through. Refused to reveal names or addresses to Gallo and would not give information about where his radio broadcast tapes were to be sent for transmission into Cuba.

5. Memo for the Record, dtd 21 June 1966 from Charles Anderson Met with Ray on 28 April 1966. Anderson said in general Ray had less information on the "purge situation that I did." Ray said relatives of Gustavo Arcos in P.R. had telephone contact with Arcos family in Cuba, about 25 April and that Arcos still in prison but charges against him were thin. "(This means there was at least one more telephone call than we knew of previously, and this has probably served to increase the pressure on Arcos)." Anderson tells of his concern and strong interest in Arcos on the chance that Ray might assume Arcos had been CIA agent. Doesn't know if Ray will construe remark this way but it seemed like an opening "to use an important exile channel as a possible deception mechanism."

"I believe that later in the summer it might be a good idea to have another talk with AMBANG to keep up with exile thinking, and feeding more deception thoughts."

On 15 June 1966, Rafael Garcia-Bango, Cuban exile in Spain, received call in Madrid from Ray in P.R. regarding Ray's plans to assume power in Cuba. Garcia-Bango told Ray it was essential he come Madrid before 25 June and return to San Juan in order to talk to a member of Cuban delegation for 10th Caribbean and CenAm games in P.R., prior to return of delegation to Cuba. Ray agreed to do so.

Ray enthusiastic over possibility of overthrowing Castro in next several months. Knows Garcia-Bango has bad reputation but feels he could prove useful. Also useful would be Garcia-Bango's brother, Jorge Garcia-Bango Dirube, who has more respectable reputation. Ray also state that he had received indirectly a message from Jose Llanusa Gobel and c onsiders him a potential ally.

He wants to have same influence of others when Haiti leadership starts distributing bases to Cuban exiles and providing them help for their aid in overthowing Francois Duvalier (a trade off). It was on Aixala's Catamaran ct 1208 D, that Ray made his ill-fated initial attempt to enter Cuba. Aixala is not a member of JURE.

* 9. Classified Message to Director, from Paris
Date: 8 June 1963

Ray and Emio Guede arrived in Paris and Ray contacted by Nauman on 7 June. Reviewed plan for Franqui recruitment in place. Urged Ray to take immediate action before his presence in Paris was leaked. Guede tries to contact Franqui by phone and on all occasions, phone answered by Edith Sorel or her roomate, Helene Pulish (phonetic). Guede leaves message each time and on last call told Franqui going to Brussels and may have already left. On 7 June Guede sees Franqui at the opening of his exhibition and talks to him. Franqui listened to him, but made no responses to his veiled overatures. Guede surmizes Franqui not interested -- thinks he is incapable of defending regime but not willing or capable of breaking with it. Grovery and JERVAY met Ray. Feel this important re possible future use Ray Europe. Pari support excellent. (C/S comment: HQS has reason believe no obstacle convincing Ray push for Franqui return for period to be eyes and ears anti-Castro conspiracy.)

* 10. Cable Report to Director, from Paris
Date: 14 June 1963

Ray and party travel to Burssels on 11 June, and Ray continues his efforts to recruit an agent in place for CIA. Contacts Guillamo Cabrera and surmised Cabrera held back from a break due to his concern for a brother inside who is ill. Ray asks Cabrera to arrange a meeting with Gustave Arcos but Cabrera unable to do so since Arcos ~~leaves~~ leaving for a few days. Ray extends his trip. Contacts Nauman who tells Ray it is not possible to resolve all the personal problems of those he has contacted and Ray must show them the wisdom and practicality of working in place as a means of eliminating the regime. Ray willing to settle for defection as he believes this has an impact on the regime. Report states that Ray extremely active, moves fast and purposefully, and has given impression of frank cooperation. Has volunteered to assign a man to be station contact, but feels UNRUMBLE 2 is too young but should be aware of whomever is designated.

Source: A trained observer with access to wide variety of Cuban exiles. Source is known to most of his contacts as a channel to U.S. intelligence. Obtained information from Reinaldo Pico Ramon, officer in the Alianza de Trabajadores Cubanos (ATC, Alliance of Cuban Workers).

Pico was told by an unidentified informant, who is probably on the JURE National Executive, that Luis Manuel Rodriguez, a former rebel army lieutenant from Santioago de Cuba, and who was known as "Mama Dolores" while a member of Brigade 2506, is serving as a Ray agent at Fort Benning, Georgia. Individuals who are working with Rodriguez are SILAS CUERVO CASTILLO and LUIS CLEMENTE BARCENA SERRANO, both former members of Brigade 2506.

1. Memo dated 24 Oct 1962 to Chief, Contact Division, from Chief, San Francisco Office
   Subject: Suitability of Manuel Ray and Miro Cardona for Important Roles in a Possible New Cuban Government

Information received from Dr. Robert North, Professor of Political Science 29 at Stanford University and long-time source of exceptional value. North 05 visited in Miami and contacted about 25 former Castro supporters representing a broad political gamut. Dr. North got the impression from many of the 05 Cubans that they suspected Ray of being a "possible Communist sleeper". 05 North reluctant to pass along this information, because accusations were very broad.

2. Infomation report dated 16 July 1962 and Earlier
   Source: Cuban National (Alien File #A-12570921) who asked for an interview on occasion of first contact with CIA.

Cannot vouch for his bona fides. Had credential indicating membership in branch of revolutionary army's intelligence service, now in exile in U.S. and maintaing connections with colleagues in that country.

A friend of his reports plans to assassinate top Castro leadership in Cuba. To be done by poison -- "Clostridium Botulinum" which is strong, odorless, and tasteless. Takes about 12 days to kill. About 5cc would do the job. Waiting for next visit of major delegation from a Communist country -- dinner in honor of the occasion should bring together most of the important members of the regime and that is when the attempt will be made.

2. Cable dated Oct. 3, 1961 - WA CITE NYOR 4902 Support (Travis) info L/A Branch from Daniels. Source is Ernesto Dezaldo - Cuban lawyer now living in New York City. Stated the MRP in Havana is far less radical than under the leadership of Ray, who has been completely discredited in recent months. Primary purpose today is (a) assassination of top leaders in Castro regime and (B) sabotage of important industrial and government installations in Havana. Strength of MRP in Havana estimated to exceed 1,000 -- success measured more in terms of fund raising ability and blowing up of buildings.

3. Information dated June 4, 1961, Subject: Underground Student Leader Comments on Post-invasion Cuba. Reporting officer talked with ISIDRO BORJA, on the leaders of DRE. Borja says top DRE members in jail or in a friendly embassy in Havana but said new leaders have been selected and will resume sabotage activities shortly. Thought the underground could restore tension in Cuba in 3-4 months. However, said outside help needed to get rid of Castro. Claimed that prior to invasion, is was possible to buy almost anything in Cuba from Castro officials -- they were tainted by corruption. Since Castro's victory at Bay of Pigs, his popular support is estimated to be around 80-85%. Most support is out of fear because the people believe he will be in power permanently. Borja said DRE outside of Cuba working hard for release of former leader, Alberto Muller from prison.

Subject: Alleged "New York Times" Publicity Build-up for Manolo Ray

Hal Hendrix, Scripps-Howard L.A. correspondent believes NY Times publicity buildup for Ray in full swing. Tad Szulc reporting Ray's war movements from Miami. Also with Szulc is close friend, Henry Raymont of the Times. Hendrix said Times playing up Ray while downplaying Artime and Gutierrez Menoyo. Volume I   Undated to September 1960

1. Cable suggests that an offer of financial assistance to Ray's wife and children from CIA rather than through the FRD may pay large future dividends. Family to arrive circa September 1960.

2. Cable to Director
From: MASH
19 September 1960

Increasing suspicion RAUL CHIBAS a Castro plant. Since exfiltration by KAPPES, CHIBAS has laid low but back in picture as representative of RAY. Common knowledge that CHIBAS brought KAPPES out of Cuba, but should be noted that KAPPES has since been in and out of Cuba three times with no apparent difficulties.

CHIBAS' sources of information:
- Mason in U. S. government
- Manuel de Jesus and Bender as FRD representatives
- Nino Diaz as Alianza representative
- Don Hogan Kappes as Alberto Fernandex representative.

3. Summer 1960. Ray very actively recruited to become FRD member. *CIA considered him an important political asset. RAUL CHIBAS, Ray's assistant, spoke for him with U.S. authorities. Urged strong organization inside Cuba before outside help could be effective. CHIBAS meets with Bender 9/7/60, says he is in favor of FRD but completely committed to Ray and would check with him.

4. 27 September 1960.
Memo to Western Hemisphere/4 Chief
From: Rudolph E. Gomez, Acting Chief, WH
Subject: Approval from State to Include Manuel Ray Rivero in the FRD Complex

At a 20 September 1960 meeting, Ray's name was suggested for inclusion in FRD and State desired to look further into his background. Ray was discussed again on 9/27/60 with Mr. Divine who further conferred with Ambassador Mallory same day and Mallory approved Ray's inclusion.

5. September 29, 1960 cable from MASH to WH9 indicates MASH somewhat doubtful about Ray's feelings toward U.S. and continued dealings with this group needs further policy consideration.

Section I Contact and Development

Woodrow C. Olien met Ray October 1958 when Ray was head of Civic Resistence Movement in Havana. Three clandestine meetings were held prior to 1 January 1959, attended by Olien, Wallace A. Growery, Ignacio Mendoza (MRC 04 member) who originally introduced Olien to Ray. After 1 January 1959, Ray given important post in revolutionary government and Olien has seen him only twice since, Olien poising as political officer to State Department.

Section II of PRQ states Ray is friendly to U.S., once having received a grant for special study there. A dedicated, patriotic Cuban, opposed to Communism but taken no active part in combatting it.

8. An undated, unaddressed letter from Antonio Gonsales Mora, Jr. --- P.S. Says Joaquin Sanjenis appears to be a person in whom CIA has great confidence. Linked to Artime conspiracy. Responsible for all "inter-Cuban" intelligence matters. Is a "shady character" -- gangster background -- gives impression of mental retardation. Not known as individual of any importance, but he is! "An inexplicable affair"

9. PRQ Part 2 (contd)
Section VI -- Subject has definite political action potential, ia a pro-democratic official of government who is not in sympathy with aims of international Communism and who is interested in strengthening ties between Cuba and U. * October 1, 1960 - November 22, 1960

As of 21 November 1960, MRP organized as follows:

Manuel Ray - Chief
Raul Chibas - Sepcial Assistant to Ray
Juan Esteves Ramires - Secretary
Ramon Barquin - Military and Intelligence matters

1. 10/4/60 Cable from London claims that new Cuban resistance group organized under Ray and has 400-500 men in Las Villas Province. Not part of FRD but in touch with it.

* 2. 10/7/60 Cable from Havana. AURELIANO SANCHEZ ARANGO has withdrawn from FRD. JUSTO CARRILLO and FELIPE PAZOS will be integrated into Ray's MRP. VARONA wishes to join, also, but Ray insists VARONA return to Cuba to do so.

3. 10/12/60 Cable to Director. RAMON BARQUIN claims CARRILLO and ARANGO are going to boycott FRD Executive Committee and sabotage its work. Barquin planning to join with Pazos, Ray, Chibas, MIRO and QUEVEDO to form a new frente and then request union with FRD. If accepted, Barquin would become military head. If Barquin does not get U.S. government support for this plan, he will return to Cuba to try to overthrow Castro and win election on an anti-Yankee platform.

* 4. 10/17/60 Contact report from Wallace A. Parlett
Subject: Meeting with JUAN ESTEVEZ and JORGE BERUFF, 10/13/60
Cubans said Ray's group will not lower themselves to answer "Fidelismo without Fidel" charge and let their actions speak for themselves. MRP is highly disciplined and feel the majority of Cuban people favor tair platform. Its leaders are interchangeable. If Ray comes out of Cuba, Chibas or Estevez could go in and take his place.

5. 10/24/60 Memo for files
Subject: Representative of Manuel Ray to Professional Groups

ENRIQUE HIRAM GUTIERREZ y RODRIGUEZ (dob 5/20/31, Havana) travels frequently to Puerto Rico on architectural business. Also frequently enters U. S. at Miami. Represents Ray's organization to various professional groups in Havana. Also serves as courier to Miami.

6. DRE information. 10/24/60 Cable states MULLER reported receiving letter from ANTONIO GARCIA, DRE representative in Cuba that organization is going well but needs funds and material aid. MASH asks Mueller to get details of Garcia's "groupos de accion" and details of organization. MASH gave Muller $500 for Garcia. Muller is concerned about Manolo Ray whom he says is gaining strength in Cuba. Says students eager to join active group and will go to Ray if DRE can't get help soon.

7. Provisional Operational Approval granted to Ray on 10/26/60.

* 8. 10/26/60 Cable to Director from Havana reports Ray held MRP meeting on 10/23/60 and made following statements:

a. MAJOR WILLIAM MORGAN had been very helpful to MRP - responsible for obtaining most of their weapons.
b. In four months, MRP will have 20,000 militants throughout Cuba. Organized now in all provinces except Pinar del Rio. Invasion could not take place for 4 months but FRD still in favor of earlier date.
c. CARRILLO and ANGEL del CERRO have left FRD and now with MRP

MRP urging Ray to escape Cuba and they feel it is only a matter of time until he is picked up and executed. MRP manifesto will be released this weekend.

9. 10/28/60 Monthly payments of $400 approved for Ray's wife in behalf of Bender group.

* 10. 10/28/60 Memo for Record
Subject: Conversation of CARRILLO and PAUL J. MANSON, Chief, MASH
Economic philosophy: When FRD first formed it was attacked by RUBIO PADILLA as "Fidelismo without Fidel." Now FRD saying same thing about MRP.

* 11. 11/5/60 Cable to Director from MASH
Verona tells HUNT that he received information that Ray wanted to leave Cuba and was to be exfiltrated clandestinely by Bender group.

12. 11/8/60 Memo for Record - [03 John D. Peters]
Subject: Contact report on meeting with ROGELIO GONZALES

Gonzales considers Ray highly dangerous because of his ambition to play prominent role in Cuban government after overthrow of Castro. Thinks he poises threat to Varona's authority inside Cuba. Ray appears to have support of middle class, politicians and professionals. Should Ray join FRD, Gonzales thinks he will still operate on a unilateral basis while seeking to supercede FRD with MRP.

13. 11/11/60 Cable to Director from JMASH
Ray arrived Tampa morning of 11/10/60. Mash officer staying with him until surfacing date which depends on safe arrival from Cuba of two other individuals. They are the last of the HUBER MATOS escapee group known by Ray to still be hiding in Cuba.

1/8R

14. 11/14/60 Cable to Director from MASH.
Ray to surface at press conference scheduled for 11/16/60 in Miami.

#* 15. 11/17/60 03 Cable to Director from MASH
On 11/15/60, [Parlett] alias Bender met with Ray in complete privacy. "Unquestionably, the youthful, softspoken, unassuming, almost humble Ray is a natural leader of highest intellect, deepest sincerity and convistion." Ray's political posture doubtful as far as U.S. government acceptance is concerned.

Explained to Ray the U.S. government's desire to have all Cuban exiles unified in their efforts. Ray says MRP does not wish to reinstate 1940 constitution. Provisional governmant of 30 honorable Cubans would be established and elections held 18 months thereafter. Castro laws passed at beginning of his regime to be promulgated. State would regulate private investment and utilities would be nationalized.

Ray wants to keep MRP "lean and hungry" -- each member to have specific responsibilities and feel important to revolution.

Ray asked for permission to start a fund drive in Cuba and U.S. Also asked for $10,000 by next Wednesday -- Bender made commitment.

[Parlett] believes net result of meeting was establishment of private MRP-U.S. link and door remains open for some kind of relationship with FRD. Ray agrees to discuss this with Miro Cardona. Of all the groups being supported, FRD, MRP and MRR are most significant. All Cuban groups seem to be looking to Bender group to show a preference before joining one of the above three. How long current flexibility can be maintained is problematical.

Subject: Meeting with King and Esterline on subject of handling MRP, 11/18/60

Consensus was that Ray did not politically represent anything to cheer about. Writer felt MRP opposed to joining FRD and recognized need to control MRP and wean it away to the extent possible from its leaders. Could be done by controlling financial and military support. It was agreed in meeting with Mr. Barnes that financial and military support for MRP be channelled through FRD.

17. 11/23/60 Contact Report: Meeting with Ray and Chibas in NYC, 11/22/60
Ray says MRP has contacts at Isle of Pines with two garrisons and can expect about 750 men to desert Castro at proper time. CAPTAIN CAPOTA is contact with Ray's group.

Ray's people also in contact with commander of prison where Huber Matos is incarcerated. Matos believes PADILLA, the prison commander, would assist him in an escape. Ray interested in single operation to get military defectors and free Matos. Wants to effect plan on 11/27/60.

Ray wants assistance from U.S. -- military information and supplies.

18. 11/24/60 Cable to Director from JMASH
Meeting with AMCHIRP-1 on 11/23, revealed he had information that MRP in Havana had capabilities to blow up power plant and TV stations in Havana -- a diversionary tactic planned to coordinate with Isle of Pines operation. Ray expects Isle of Pines operation support about 12/15/60.

* Notation about Cable: "Operation Unity" is to create dramatic show which will demonstrate that Manolo Ray is wrong when telling contacts in U.S. that his group is the only one capable of action."

19. 11/24/60 Cable to Director from Havana.
Operation Unity involves MRR, MDI, OA, 30th of November Group and MAR (not MAR of PEPIN RIVERO).

MAR and OA groups to blow electric cables in Regla area. MDC group, at same time, to make assassination attempt on CARLOS RAFAEL RODRIGUEZ at University of Havana.

20. 11/30/60 Cable to Director from Havana
JULIO ANGEL METRE advised planning to travel to Miami 12/1/60 escorted by Brazilian ambassador to Panama. Accompanied by ambassador's wife. MESTRE will be introduced to Ray and will offer services of MDC to Ray at that time. Mestre says plan is approved by "DR. LUCAS" (JOSE FERNANDEZ BADUE) MDC coordinator in Cuba.

Volume VIII July 1962 - August 1962

1. Cable dated July 2, 1962 to Director from San Juan
Clear that Manolo Ray wooked upon with great favor by Puerto Rican government. No evidence, however, that Puerto Rican government is supporting the MRP. Believe record will show that while our past contact with Ray has not always been happy one, it always revealing of Ray's intentions.

2. Memo for Chief, Task Force W from Alfonso Rodriguez 12 July 1962
Subject: Manolo Ray Rivero

"Ray has indicated to WAVE sources that whereas he is not persona grata with the Agency, he has important political connections in Washington and is thus kept informed of much of the Agency's activities. Ray's new organization is not to be military or engage in military thrusts against Cuba because military activity is presently controlled by the Agency and cannot be wrested from it at this time. Ray's new organization will cooperate with the Consejo and attempt to move in on it with the ultimate aim of taking over and dominating it."

3. Memorandum for Chief, Task Force W from Alfonson Rodriguez 25 July 1962
Subject: Manolo Ray Meeting in New York

Ray sorry he joined FRD prior to April invation. Let tide of time suck him in and take him along. Obvious to him that show run in good faith but bad judgment. Ray discusses hope that JURE will be long-lasting organization in Cuba. Ray's political views are assessed as democratically oriented, and if he became ruler of Cuba, his greatest preoccupation would be with economic progress. Rodriguez says Ray is not to be under- estimated. Commands respect because he is well educated and has something to contribute.

4. Ray begins to give information about possible defectors from Castro. Cable dated 25 July 1962 reports that Ray told Willard R. Nauman that Armando Hart Davalos is a feasible target.

former mgr., Kings Ranch, Cuba

7. Additional information to a July 1962 memorandum from Jack Malone (named on interoffice route slip). Information obtained from difference sources from persons close to Ray and their views are complete reliable. Ray did not leave Castro's cabinet because of ideological or policy discrepancies with Castro but because of a heated discussion with the Minister of Labor. Martinez Sanchez, who almost shot Ray after a Cabinet meeting. The sources of information agree that Ray is not any different than Castro. Some of them believe he may not have completely severed his relations with Castro and think he may still be in contact with him. Diplomatic relations were suspended but recognition was not withdrawn.

5. Memo from Jack Malone, dated July 16, 1962 Cover letter addressed to C. Mechen, Says Ray's ethics are poor and he is capable of sacrifycing his own kin and friends if such sacrifice turns out in favor of his personal plans. Claims Ray is irresponsible and ignorant of present international conditions and particularly of the Cuban social and economic reality.

Quotes Ray as having said, "When I was Minister of Public Works, we, the inner circle of the Department, took a course in Marxist economics, and if what we were taught is communism, I must say that communism is not as bad as it is claimed to be."

8. Report on visit with Ray in Puerto Rico during first week of June, 1962, submitted by Winterrowd through Walt Raymond. Winterrowd states his general impression of Ray was a good one -- seems of be a moderate, intelligent man, a little given to hysteria and slogan-mongering. Best quality is in his skill as an organizer

9. Cable to Director from JMWave, dated Aug 15, 1962 DIR Cite WAVE 7062 Ray had meeting in Miami area 11 or 12 August in which an informant says Ray stated that he has arsenals in Venezuela and Dominican Republic, has a B-26 plane, territory available for training in Costa Rica and has the support through indirect means of U.S. Has invited journalists from New York Times and Time Magazine to cover his announcement of the formation of JURE.

10. Cable to Mexico City from Director, dated 6 August 65 says Ray plans to travel to Central America late August or September and needs visitors visa for Mexico. Says he has close acquaintance and wants to make personal effort to recruit him or talk him into defecting.

CIA makes inquiries in an effort to obtain visa for Ray.

11. Cable to Director from San Juan, dated August 20, 1962. Ray believes Llanusa will defect but needs financial support. Jose Gelabert to make pitch to Llanusa. Later cable says CIA willing to offer Llanusa $5,000.

12. Cable to Mexico City from Director, 23 August 1962 with directions to proceed to procure visa permit but make every effort to conceal U.S. connection. Ray had agreed in N.Y. meeting to make recruitment or defection effort towards Cuban Ambassador in Mexico.

13. Memo to Chief, Task Force W from Alfonso Rodriguez dated 24 Aug 1962
Subject: Operational Use of Ray Expenditure of Funds

Rodriguez feels beginning collaboration with Ray can be based on three specific proposals:
1. creation of an intelligence network inside Cuba
2. creation of recruitment or defection capability to assist our efforts in MEXI, RIO, SAGO, and MONT
3. immediate effort to recruit in place Carlos LECHUGA and Raul PRIMELLES.

Recommends paying Ray $84,700 over a six month period to begin this initial operation.

Dr. Orlando Bosch Avila CAMDITTO/23/
DPOB: 18 Aug. 1926, Santa Clara, Cuba

Bosch was one of many critical of CIA policy & personnel following Bay of Pigs. However, in March 1962, WAVE requested a POA on Bosch, advising he was "cooperative and secure." To be utilized as General Coordinator of Evelio Duque group. POA granted on 6 March 1962. Given polygraph in May 1962 & came out clean. His clearance was cancelled in Nov. 1962.

Bosch aligns himself with individuals and organizations that are currently involved in operations against Cuba, usually serving as General Coordinator & takes responsibility for securing financial backing.

"Red Terrorism Rules at Havana University"
Three Uni. students escaped after hiding in Havana 2 months: Alberto Muller, Ernesto Fernandez Travieso & Manuel Salvat. Escape possible under protection of Brazilian Embassy. All three blamed Maj. Rolando ~~Cubella~~ Cubela, Castro's personal choice to head the University Student Federation, and his aides of "murdering" the autonomy of the university. The three, on arrival in Miami, offered their services to Cuban Democratic Revolutionary Front - want to organize an anti-~~Communist~~ student org. within the front.

Russell August Langelle

Robert Genzman and Harold Leap interviewed Russell August Langelle at CIA headquarters on May 4, 1978. The interview yielded the following information:

Langelle joined the CIA in September 1950, and worked mainly in SR9 of the Soviet Russia Division. In November 1955 he resigned from the Agency on the pretext that he was disgruntled with his assignments. His CIA files would have reflected this termination of employment. The only document to the contrary would have been a memorandum from the Director of Central Intelligence Allan Dulles, stating that Langelle would retain all rights and benefits when he returned to the CIA. (at present this document would probably be in his personnel file.)

Approximately fifteen people knew that Langelle was still with the CIA after his resignation in 1955. These included John Mawry (SE), Joe Bulik (SR 9), Quentin Johnson (Chief of Operations), George Kisevalper, Frank Levy, Ted Polling,

Genzman

Jack Kindschi, June Sworbuck, Ed Galloway, Leonard McCoy (Reports and Requirements), Pierre de Silva (COS), and someone at the State Department's Office of Security.

At the time of his resignation, Langelle applied for employment with the State Department. In the interim he worked at the Hecht Company. In March 1956 he started to work at the State Department as a Security Officer. In September 1956 he was sent to Vienna, where he earned a reputation for being a strict Security Officer at the Embassy. He was deliberately tough on CIA personnel who breached security, in order to build his cover as a non-CIA foreign service officer. His salary was paid by the State Department. The CIA Chief of Station in Vienna and the Ambassador knew he was with the CIA.

Langelle served as the Security Officer at the Moscow Embassy from December 1957 to September 1959. In addition, he was the senior CIA officer there. The CIA contingent in Moscow consisted of five or six officers working inside the Embassy and approximately four outside. Inside, with deep cover, were George P. Winters (Econ. Officer), FNU Mahoney, FNU Venables, and Steve Washenko (Econ. or Agric. Officer). Outside were Jean Leberman (teacher at the American school) and three or four students, who handled orientation projects rather than operations projects.

Langelle handled CIA communications in Moscow. The CIA used State Department channels of communication, but could code messages by means of one-pad encrypting so that the message was secret until it was forwarded to CIA headquarters, where it was decoded.

In 1959 the Soviets declared Langelle persona non grata as a result of his involvement with P. S. Popov. Langelle was the case officer of Popov, who worked for the GRU, Soviet military intelligence. While making a contact with Popov, Langelle was detained by the KGB and was questioned for two and a half hours. The KGB attempted to recruit him, and then released him. The State Department filed a formal protest, but Langelle was told to leave the Soviet Union within three days. He left the Soviet Union in early October 1959.

Langelle first became aware of Lee Harvey Oswald when he heard in a conversation that a Marine had contacted the American consular office in Moscow to renounce his citizenship. He later heard that this individual had changed his mind and was returning to the United States. He does not recall the details of these conversations, but he believes they took place in the United States.

Langelle characterized Oswald's defection as a consular case to be handled by consular officers, rather than an intelligence case involving intelligence officers, who were shorthanded in Moscow at that time. He stated that the few intelligence officers in Moscow at that time were involved in specific operations, and did not perform general intelligence functions. He also stated that intelligence officers at the Embassy did not use the consular officers for intelligence purposes, and that there were no CIA people in the consular section.

Langelle stated that the military intelligence people at the Embassy probably would have been contacted about Oswald's defection. The military intelligence personnel included Leo Dulacki (Marines), Paul Adams (Navy), John Munson (Navy), and Ted Hoffman (Army). He did not know whether Alexis Davison (Navy) was an intelligence officer or whether Davison was involved in the Penkovsky case.

Langelle stated that when Oswald left the Soviet Union, he was the responsibility of the State Department, the Immigration and Naturalization Service, and the FBI.

When Langelle left [redacted] Moscow in 1959, Winters was the senior CIA officer there. Mahoney and Leberman were still there, and Washenko may still have been there. Langelle's replacement as Embassy Security Officer was John Abidian, who was not with the CIA. Abidian was later replaced by Hugh Montgomery, who was Winter's successor as senior CIA officer.

Montgomery was later replaced by Paul Garbler, who became the first officially designated Chief of Station in Moscow. Other CIA officers in Moscow circa 1962 included Rodney Carlson, Bill Horbaly, and possibly John D. Hemenway.

At headquarters the chief of the Soviet Russia Division was John Maury, followed by Howard Osborne and then David E. Murphy.

With regard to American journalists in Moscow, Langelle had no contacts with R. G. Korengold or Aline Mosby, did not know A. I. Goldberg, and was contacted by Priscilla Johnson for an interview after he was declared persona non grata.

When Langelle returned to the United States, he continued working for the State Department. He resumed his CIA duties on a part-time basis in 1961. He dealt with communications between Washington and Moscow. In September 1961 he resumed his CIA duties on a full-time basis at headquarters. He worked mainly in the Soviet Russia Division, External Operations, Africa and Europe. At present he is still with the CIA and still paid by the State Department, but he plans to retire soon.

In April 1976, the Senate Select Committee to Study Governmental Operations With Respect to Intelligence Activities (SSC) published their Final Report (Book V) which in essence faulted the CIA ~~and to some ext~~ for its errors of omission in not informing the Warren Commission of the Agency's ongoing plots against the revolutionary government in Cuba and its [illegible] attempts on the life of ~~its~~ the premier, Fidel Castro. The Committee's rationale is [illegible] detailed on pages 6-7 of its Findings but one paragraph succinctly sums up their position.

P7 Book V

"Senior CIA officials also should have realized ~~that~~ their agency was not utilizing its full capability to investigate Oswald's pro-Castro and anti-Castro connections. They should have realized ~~that~~ CIA operations against Cuba, particularly operations involving the assassination of Castro, needed to be considered in the investigation. Yet, they directed their subordinates to conduct an investigation without telling them of these vital facts. These officials, whom the Warren Commission relied upon for expertise, ~~advised~~ the Warren Commission that the CIA had no existence of a foreign conspiracy?

Stung by the Senate criticism and the "rippling effect" that Book V ~~has~~ occasioned in the media, the CIA prepared a comprehensive report in 1977 designed to answer at least within the Agency, the critical questions posited in the SSC Final Report. However, even the CIA's 1977 Report tacitly recognizes the inadequacy of the CIA's narrow response to the Warren Commission's quest for all possibly relevant information. ["Relevancy" is of course, the "buzzword" upon which both the Senate and Agency each base their position on the importance of the anti-Castro plots to the Commission's work.] On page 10 of the Agency's Conclusions, the 1977 Report acknowledges that: "

"While one can understand today why the Warren Commission limited its inquiry to normal avenues of investigation, it would have served to reinforce the credibility of its effort had it taken a broader view of the matter. CIA, too could have considered in specific terms what most saw in general terms -- the possibility of Soviet or Cuban involvement in the assassination (JFK) because of tensions of the time. ..... The Agency should have taken broader initiatives, ~~then~~, as well."

It is not the purpose of this analysis to detail ~~and~~ the conflicting viewpoints of the SSC and CIA with regard to the significance of the CIA's Castro assassination attempts to the work of the Warren commission and to resolve ~~their~~ the parties controversy as to ~~their~~ the operations importance. ~~Rather,~~ Instead this paper seeks to present a comprehensive review of all ~~the~~ facts, drawn from a variety of sources, of organized crime's involvement or potential involvement in CIA operations against Cuba during 1960-63. Certain inferences and conclusions ~~are~~ will then be drawn upon the nature, scope, and motivations ~~of the operations~~ of the syndicate participants in the operations.

Involvement of Organized Crime in CIA Plots to Assassinate Fidel Castro

SECRET

The genesis of the ~~use~~ utilization of the United States criminal syndicate by the CIA to attempt to assassinate Castro is placed by the 1967 Inspector General's Report as occurring during a conversation between the Deputy Director of Plans, ~~[illegible]~~ Richard Bissell, and the Director of the Office of Security, Colonel Sheffield Edwards.+ [1967 IG Rpt. p. ; Interim Rpt p 74; see note 1.] Edwards assigned the specific task of locating the right party to "eliminate" or assassinate Castro, to James "Big Jim" O'Connell, who was the Chief of the Operational Support Division of the Office of Security. Both men agreed that Robert A. Maheu+ who ~~he~~ had been previously utilized by the Agency in several sensitive covert operations, would be contacted to recruit the necessary personnel.

+[Maheu's CIA history and relationship to O'Connell are detailed on pp 74-75, Interim Report]

Although Maheu and O'Connell differ as to who initially brought up John Rosselli's name for consideration there was a meeting between Maheu and Rosselli at the Brown Derby Restaurant in Los Angeles in early September 1960 [Interim Report p 75]

[Comment: Maheu seems the logical person to have thought of and contacted Rosselli for several reasons. In an Office of Security file on Ed Morgan, Maheu's attorney, there is a memo to the DCI dated 19 November 1970 which reviews the mafia operation. Paragraph 5 states that", Mr. Maheu advised that he had met one John Rosselli on several occasions while visiting Las Vegas. He only knew him casually through other clients, but was given to understand that he was a 'high ranking member of the syndicate' and controlled all the ice making machines on the Strip. Maheu reasoned that, if Rosselli was in fact a member of the clan, he undoubtedly had connections leading into the Cuban gambling interests."

Roselli, although apparently skeptical at first, agreed to a meeting in New York City with Maheu and O'Connell to discuss further details

[[illegible] Report p.76; Office of Security memo from Morgan file, dated 19 Nov. 1970]

Although the Inspector General's Report places the meeting at the Plaza Hotel on 14 Septem 1960, Roselli recalled that the [illegible] discussions took place during Castro's visit to the United Nations which began on September 18, 1960.

Comment

Tony de Varona admits going to NY c at the time of Castro's visit, but it is unlikely that he was in contact with Roselli at this time or [Testimony of de Varona, that his visit had an assassination motivation]

According to a 19 Nov. 1970 memo to the DCI, it was at this September meeting in New York City, that Roselli "agreed to introduce him (Maheu) to a friend, "Sam Gold", who knew the Cuban crowd".

Comment:

The timing of the introduction of both Gian[illegible]cana ("Gold") and Trafficante ("Joe") is [illegible] important to the analysis of the "true" role of the mob in the Castro assassination plots. According ?? to the 1967 I.G. Report, the ~~[illegible]~~ introduction of Giancana took place “ during the week of 25 September 1960”.... [1967 I.G. Report, p18.]

In contrast, the SSC Interim Report at p.76, does not ~~[illegible]~~ fix a date certain ~~the~~ for Giancana's initial appearance ~~but as~~ (although it was ~~[illegible]~~ "certainly prior to October 18." (p76)) because of conflicting ~~testimony~~ evidence between the 1967 I.G. September date and Maheu's Senate testimony which set the introduction in ~~at~~ November 1960. As a compromise, the Interim Report reasoned that Giancana had been introduced to ~~the~~ Maheu "prior to October 18" because (1) the Las Vegas wiretap occurred on October 30, 1960, and (2) ~~the~~ DDP Bissell had received an FBI memo dated 18 October 1960 which revealed an FBI ELSUR quoting Giancana as discussing his involvement in an assassination plot against Castro ” [FBI memo, dated 18 Oct 1960 from Hoover to Bissell; Interim Report, p 79] that " Maheu pointed out "Gold" to O'Connell from a distance but O'Connell never met ~~either~~ "Gold" or Joe", the Interim Report disputes this observation by apparently quoting from O'Connell's ~~Senate~~ testimony and stating ~~that~~ " The Support chief, who was using the name "Jim Olds," said he had met "Sam" and Joe, once, and then only briefly [O.C. 5/30/75, pp 26-29; Interim Rept p 7

~~Comment~~ Comment

Conflicts appear also on ~~a variety~~ several ~~of~~ relatively minor points surrounding the September 1960 meetings in N.Y.C. and Miami. For instance:

1) Did Rosselli know from the beginning that ~~Maheu~~ the operation was CIA?

a) O'Connell stated that Maheu told Rosselli that they were representing international business interests whereas Rosselli testified that Maheu told him that O'Connell was CIA [Interim Rept p 76. Also, footnote 1 on p. 76 indicates that Rosselli told O'Connell: " about 3 weeks after the New York meeting", which is during the Miami involvement of Giancana, that " I am not kidding, I know who you work for".

The importance of Rosselli's recognition of CIA ~~was~~ situation is that it is doubtful if Giancana and Trafficante could have been enlisted unless they could be sure of government protection. this theme will be developed more fully below.

(2) Roselli told his Cuban contacts that he was an "agent of some business interests of Wall Street ~~that~~ had.. _nickel_ interests and properties around Cuba... (Roselli; 6/24/75 pp 9,17)

Cf. Jack Anderson column of Jan. 19, 1971, which stated that: ? (4.) "Could the plot against Castro have backfired against President Kennedy? ..... None of the assassination teams, however, had direct knowledge of the CIA involvement. The CIA instigators had represented themselves as _oilmen_ seeking revenge against Castro for his seizure of oil holdings."

If Anderson's sources for this article were Roselli and ~~[illegible]~~ William Harvey, who was not privy to the details of Phase I, it is another example of serious discrepancies which exist between the CIA, Senate, and Anderson versions which all purport to depend, in varying degrees, upon Roselli.

3) The alleged ~~discovery~~ "surprise discovery" by Maheu and O'Connell as to the ~~true~~ identities of "Sam Gold" and "Joe" is really suspect. First, ~~alt~~ although it is possible that the Senate Committee Staff overlooked the specific Miami newspaper Sunday supplement (Parade) which purportedly included pictures of Giancana and Trafficante, thus ~~[illegible] [illegible]~~ graphically showing Maheu and O'Connell ~~[illegible]~~ ~~[illegible]~~ the nature of the people with whom they were dealing, it is a relatively easy matter to research Parade magazine for the months of October and November. It would appear that ~~they~~ O'Connell and Maheu were looking for an ~~ex~~ post facto reason for continuing the operation after the introduction of two of the top Mafiosi in the United States. O'Connell testified that his discovery was after "we were up to our ears in it" which is difficult to fathom since the operation was in the embryonic stage and no pills were delivered to Roselli et al until approximately March 1961. ? Whatever the reason, the Senate staff insists it could not find the Parade article. In Senate Report P77, Ft 1

The principals in Phase I of the operation ~~[illegible]~~ also disagree as to the roles which were to be played by both "Gold" and "Joe" in ~~Phase~~ the pre-Bay of Pigs phase of the operation.

"Although Maheu described Giancana as playing a "key" role, 0002189 (Maheu, 7/29/75, p.34) and discussed his job as "to locate someone in Castro's entourage who could accomplish the assassination", Roselli downplayed Giancana's part to that of a "back-up" man (Roselli 6/24/75, p.15) ~~All of the circumstantial also~~ [Whether Roselli received a "message" from Giancana's murder four days before Roselli's Senate appearance is open for question. J. Roselli's Senate characterization of Giancana's role as minor is in contrast to his alleged recruitment of ~~description of~~ Giancana due to his "knowledge of the Cuban world" as the 19 Nov. 1970 memo recorded.

Trafficante(s) involvement in Phase I is even more puzzled by the available evidence. The 1967 I.G. Report and Senate Interim Report ~~says~~ states that "'Sam' identified 'Joe' to Maheu as a man who would serve as a courier to Cuba and make arrangements there" (I.G. Report p.19; Interim Report, p.77). To support the description of Trafficante as a "courier," the ~~1967 I.G. Report~~ Interim Report quotes p.19 of the 1967 I.G. Report in stating that, "At that time, the gambling casinos were still operating in Cuba and Trafficante was making regular trips between Miami and Havana on syndicate business."

This factually unsupported assertion runs contrary to the evidence available through official government records of other agencies. As an example, State Department files reflect that Trafficante applied for a passport in Cuba on October ?, 1959 and received that document in Havana on February ?, 1960. (See Trafficante File, State Dept). ~~From this record~~ No records available to the Committee from INS, State Department or FBI record any later 1960 travels even though the Bureau ~~and [illegible]~~ maintained decent surveillance on Trafficante during the period. In his Committee testimony, Trafficante recalled ~~maintained~~ that he made two trips to Cuba after his release from prison in August 1959 and placed these sojourns within two or three months after his release from prison. (Testimony, pp 4-5-3, ~~Oct~~ , 1978) His testimony has some logical credibility in that all of the casinos in Havana were either closed or operating in the red by mid-1960, all law enforcement reports placed him in the Tampa-Miami area consistently ~~in this~~ during the pre-Bay of Pigs period.)

By the time of the Senate testimony of Rosselli, however, Trafficante's role had diminished to a point even below Giancana; he had been reduced from "courier" to a mere "translator" and was needed only to facilitate conversation between Rosselli and the Cubans who had been recruited for the actual assassination. Internally, Trafficante and Rosselli 1975 and 1977 Congressional appearances dovetail well but remain in contradiction to the ~~[illegible]~~ facts as they were being reported in 1963 of the principals.

[Comment: The Senate testimony of Rosselli and Trafficante needs to be outlined ~~[illegible] to~~ with a view to contrasting ~~the~~ "courier vs interpreter" role. My memory is that the Senate did not vigorously cross examine either man on this discrepancy nor did ~~they~~ the Interim Report "hint" at the problem.]

Once the actors had been assembled for the launching of the enterprise, a discussion began as to the method ~~of~~ to be employed to accomplish the goal. The Agency took the simplistic, straight forward approach of shooting Castro but this plan was rejected by Giancana. In a Comment to its 1967 Report, the Inspector General noted that "Giancana was flatly opposed to the use of firearms. He said that no one could be recruited to do the job because the chance of survival and escape would be negligible. Giancana stated a preference for lethal pill that could be put into Castro's food and drink... Trafficante (Joe; the courier) was ~~[illegible]~~ in touch with a disaffected Cuban official with access to Castro and presumably of a sort that would enable him to surreptitiously poison Castro. The gangsters named their man inside as Juan Orta, who was then office chief and Director General of the Office of the Prime Minister Castro. The gangsters said that Orta had once been in a position to receive kickbacks from the gambling interests but had since lost that source of income and needed the money." [I.G. Report, p 25]

Comment

The observations quoted above of the 1967 I.G. Report ~~has~~ are ~~[illegible]~~ extremely significant in several respects. First, the poison pill ~~of~~ [illegible] proposal originated with Giancana, not the Agency; a point 0002193 which is crucial to the final conclusions presented below.

Secondly, ~~Trafficante~~ is identified as ~~providing~~ having access to and providing the putative assassin in Cuba which is inconsistent with his "self-serving" role description of "interpreter." His ability to recruit Orta apparently ~~as~~ was directly tied to his ~~of~~ former gambling empire associations which formed a constant pattern for all his illegality of conduct ~~for Trafficante~~ both during and after his Cuban days. [See Trafficante profile.]

Comment

Speculation concerning Orta's role arose during the ~~a~~ Agency's 1977 Report when it was forced to address a problem raised by an April 23, 1975 article, concerning Frank Sturgis, written by Paul Meskill of the New York Daily News. Sturgis was quoted as saying, "The third (assassination) scheme involved planting a bomb in Castro's office. I had access to the Prime Minister's office," Sturgis said, "I knew Fidel's private secretary, Juan Orta. I recruited him to work with the Embassy." (American Embassy in Havana)

What was disturbing to the writers of the 1977 Report was the fact that Orta's name had surfaced in connection with a Castro assassination plot, before revelation of the CIA-Mafia connection by the Senate Intelligence Committee. The Report references news stories linking Sturgis with Trafficante and with a "gambling partner" of Trafficante's, Norman Rothman (see Rothman Profile). Coupled with Sturgis' alleged mob relationships, is the allegation that Sturgis "had a role in infiltrating the gambling casinos in Cuba on behalf of the Castro government and could have developed an contact with Orta in running gambling kickbacks."

A second aspect of Miskil's news series concerned a claim by Marita Lorenz that she had acted on behalf of Sturgis in 1960 in attempting to poison Castro. which dovetailed with the 18 October 1960 FBI memorandum on Giancana's electronically surveilled conversation in which he stated that "the assassination had been arranged with a girl, not further described, to drop a 'pill' in some drink or food of Castro's." (Memo, Hoover to DCI, Att. DDP. 10/18/60.

The tentative conclusions advanced in the 1977 Report are as follows:

[illegible] "It is obvious that many lines of speculation can be developed, not the least of which is that the Agency did not know the full extent of syndicate activities..."

Additional considerations:

1. Criminal syndicate may well have had some independent activities of its own underway prior to CIA involvement in late 1960. Also, could have been ongoing when CIA undertook plan in 1962 but ??

2. Syndicate operations could have had actions such as those in New York Daily News stories in 1975 and 1976.

3. Frank Sturgis seems to have had contacts with but not a member of syndicate. Could well have been used by the syndicate.

4. Sturgis has not been a reliable source. He probably knew Orta in Cuba but he was outside Cuba when Orta assumed role of assassin.

If there was an earlier operation w/ Orta, it was not CIA's; could have been earlier operation of syndicate.

Sturgis could have known or been involved in syndicate operation, or picked up gossip from him in 1965 after Orta settled there.

000002197 SECRET

Neither the 1967 I.G. Report or the SSC Interim Report can pinpoint the precise date on which the Agency passed the poison pills which O'Connell delivered to Rosselli [Interim Report, p80]. The chain of custody, according to the 1967 I.G. Report ~~then~~ was for the lethal pills ~~to~~ to be delivered from Rosselli to Trafficante. Although the next intervening steps remain a mystery, Rosselli reported to O'Connell that the pills had been delivered to Orta in Cuba in late February - early March 1961 [Interim Rpt. p 27; Interim Rpt p 80

Comment:

The Senate Interim Report reported the version of Joe Shimon ~~whose~~ ~~[illegible]~~ whose memory was that the money and pills for the operation were delivered at a meeting at the Fountainbleau Hotel on March 12, 1961 attended by "Maheu, Rosselli, Trafficante, and the Cuban". [Interim Rpt p81] Shimon's ~~memory~~ ~~[illegible]~~ story is filled with vivid ~~[illegible]~~ details which are documented on p 82 of the Report, but his credibility is subject to serious question as this account is not shared by anyone else connected with the plan ~~and~~ nor is his relationship with 0002198 Roselli, Giancana, or Trafficante appear as "cozy" as he would lead one to believe.

SECRET

It is also apparent that Shimon was a source for Jack Anderson's column of January 19, 1971 which fixed the date of the passage of the poison at the Fountainebleau by Roselli as March 13, 1961" and contained the report that Castro became ill a few ~~days~~ weeks later.

The real problem with Shimon's story is ~~that~~ the pills were returned to the CIA for a few weeks because Orta could or would not attempt the poisoning, a fact apparently unknown to Shimon before his "leaks" to Anderson and his Senate testimony.]

Comment

One additional fact concerning Orta's inability to carry out the mission ties in with the final thesis of this report. Orta "lost his position in Castro's office on 26 January 1961, while ~~the~~ planning for the operation was still going on in Miami and Washington."

It would seem though, that the gangsters did know that Orta had already lost his access to Castro [IG 1967 IG Report p. 27]

With the failure of Orta to produce the desired results, the project was at a standstill until, once again, Santo Trafficante assumed command. Rosselli [illegible] that "Trafficante believed a certain leading figure in the Cuban exile movement ~~[illegible]~~ might be able to accomplish the assassination [~~Fol~~ 1967 IG Rpt, p 29; Interim Rpt p80.

Comment:

The exile leader was, of course Tony de Varona, ~~[illegible]~~ who was the subject of speculation in an FBI memorandum of 18 January 1961 crediting him with receiving financial aid from American gangsters for anti-Castro activities which [illegible] the CIA operation.

At the time of his introduction ~~[illegible]~~ into the CIA mob plots, deVarona was already being funded by the Agency through the Revolutionary Front and was heavily involved in CIA planning for the Bay of Pigs invasion which was imminent.

In fact de Varona was also being ~~[illegible]~~ in 1960-61 by Mike McLaney whose advertising agency was ~~[illegible]~~ engaged in promoting Varona's image in collaboration with McLaney's friend

000220 "Chirri" or "Chilo" Mendoza (Mendoza is described in Trafficante's FBI files as a close Cuban associate]

Completing the picture of support for Varona is the promotional efforts of the Dino and Eddie Cellini, Mickey and Lansky business associates, who were reportedly working through a Washington D.C. public relations firm, Edward K Moss and Associates. Moss had previous CIA associations and was supposedly acting as a conduit for funds supplied by the Cellini benefactors with ~~the~~ understanding that their group would have "privileged treatment" in the Cuba of the Future". Attempts to verify ~~these~~ reports were unsuccessful" [1967 IG Report P.30]

The Lansky influence using the Cellini brothers as a "front" is particularly interesting in light of Varona's admission that Jorge Pujol arranged a meeting in Miami in ~~[illegible]~~ approximately 1960 wherein Meyer Lansky offered to financially "back" Varona's efforts ~~to~~ ~~[illegible]~~ "educate" the American people about Castro, which may be a euphemism for anti-Castro plots. [See Varona transcript

The logical inference to be drawn is that both the Agency ~~and~~ organized crime, and other persons interested in removing the Castro regime had settled upon de Varona, possibly independently, as an individual who had the potential of uniting the ~~vast~~ multitude of exile groups who were in a continual internecine turmoil. de Varona was understandably pleased to permit ~~both~~ the U.S. government and criminal syndicates ~~to~~ offer him support and asked no questions as to the source of the funds or the motives of his benefactors [see Varona testimony —]

Although de Varona ~~has~~ no specific memory of meeting Trafficante, the Tampa crime boss admits that he acted as an "interpreter" in several meetings attended by de Varona, Roselli, Giancana, and other exiles. These meetings were arranged by Rafael "Macho" Gener, a Trafficante gambling partner from Havana who continued to serve Trafficante in Miami during the 1960s. Trafficante claimed that Roselli had primary recruited Gener but this appears unlikely in view of Trafficante's long-standing relationship with Gener in Cuba. and Roselli's admission to O'Connell that ~~[illegible]~~ Trafficante would provide the replacement for the ill-fated Juan Orta who had escaped to the Venezuelan Embassy in April 1961.

Comment: ~~Parallelly~~ Parallelling the situation at the Senate hearings July 1975 when Roselli's description of Trafficante's role ~~changes~~ changed from ~~the it~~ his "courier" characterization ~~statement~~ in 1960-61 as reported by the Agency to conform to Trafficante's "interpreter" statement, is the recent interview with Gener who agrees with the Trafficante's ~~Committee~~ testimony that he was an intermediary ~~only~~ with de Varona for Roselli. ~~In~~ The net result in both instances ~~is~~ is to minimize Trafficante's exposure. (~~See~~ Cf. Fonzi interview with Gener, May? 1978 and Trafficante testimony, Oct? 1977]

~~However, the meetings with Varona came to pass,~~ the

If ~~Confusion~~ ambiguity exists as to the specifics of the introduction of de Varona into ~~place~~ one of the Castro assassination plots, more ~~clear~~ ~~ambiguity~~ confusion surrounds de Varona's ~~pre~~ actual participation prior to the Bay of Pigs invasion. The IG Report indicates that de Varona ~~attempted~~ a second poison mission before the ~~Cuban~~ invasion ~~that~~ Roselli was positive that only one attempt, (Orta's) was made. He was also positive that he 0002203 delivered both pills, money and supplies to de Varona which is corroborated by O'Connell ~~[illegible]~~ during 1961. The conflict is resolved by the Senate in speculating "that only one pre-Bay of Pigs attempt was made, and that ... [de Varona] was the contact in the United States who arranged for ... [Orta] ... to administer the poison."

Comment

There appears to be no further way to resolve de Varona's initial contribution to the poison attempts especially since Varona denies ever having received poison pills from Rosselli or being involved in any attempt on Castro's life at any time [See Varona transcript]

Comment

The Agency was aware of the possible dangers inherent in having de Varona participate in the mob's plots while ~~a~~ continuing his part on the Revolutionary Council. However, "Steps were taken to end his participation in the syndicate's plan but [they] were apparently ineffective." [1967 I.G. Report, p 32]

0002204 SECRET

Phase II

The debacle which marked the mid-April 1961 Bay of Pigs effort, curtailed CIA efforts with the mob to assassinate Castro, but it was not until, April 1962, when Bill Harvey assumed Agency responsibility for the task, were efforts made to re-establish contact with Roselli.

However, the fact that the Agency was squeamish during the Bay of Pigs aftermath to continue to try to kill Castro, does not mean that the mob shared their shyness. Indeed, both ~~Harvey~~ and O'Connell swore that Harvey "took over a going operation." [I.G. Rept p 33] The exact details of what that operation might have been ~~cannot be discovered~~ has not been uncovered, but Roselli's ability to regenerate his forces ~~was~~ in response to Harvey's contact in April 1962 was immediate. Once again the ubiquitous de Varona ~~was~~ was to provide the ~~[illegible]~~ individuals who would carry the lethal poison into Cuba.

However, there were some significant ~~important~~ differences between Phase One and Phase Two of the operation which bear upon the ultimate question of the mob's motivation and seriousness in carrying out their part of the bargain struck in 1960 with the Agency.

First. In Phase One, Rosselli et al had demonstrated their ability to execute the contract on Castro by naming their source who was, in fact, in a position close to Castro to succeed. In contrast, the details of the modus operandi and the ability of the ~~[illegible]~~ putative assassins was deliberately vague. After ~~when~~ Harvey initially met Rosselli in Miami in April 1962, Harvey reported that "the manner in which the lethal material was to be introduced ~~to~~ into Castro's food [which involved] an asset of Varona's who had access to someone in a restaurant frequented by Castro." L19417 FR/4 p4 By June 1962 after ~~the~~ Varona had received money and munitions from the JMWAVE station and had presumably sent the pills ~~into~~ Cuba, ~~the~~ "Rosselli reported to Harvey on 21 June that Varona had dispatched a team of three men to Cuba. Just what they were supposed to do is pretty vague. Harvey said that they appeared to have no specific plan for killing Castro. They were to recruit others who might be used in such a scheme. If an opportunity to kill Castro presented itself, they or the persons they recruited were to make the attempt -- perhaps using the pills. Harvey never learned work for Pearson and did learn that Anderson had more than a passing acquaintance with Morgan. - Morgan also tight with Pat Coyne of NSC their names or anything about them" [1967 IG. Report p51]

Comment

As the 1967 IG authors correctly observed, Harvey's tale of the "favorite restaurant" poisoning opportunity ~~with the same plan that" Edwards~~ was familiar in "that Edwards had decided pursue the same plan". the fact that Varona related the exact modus operandi to Harvey as he had discussed with Edwards in Phase One (circa 1960-mid 1961) leads to the possibilities that:

(1) Harvey was correct in assuming that he was taking over an ongoing operation in April 1962 or

(2) the mob had been using de Varona before, during, and after the Bay of Pigs and permitted the CIA to provide logistical support and future protection against the Justice Department; or

(3) de Varona was simply making up a story for the Agency to gain their financial backing or in response to directives from organized crime

Second

the cast of underworld

characters changed. Harvey had insisted that Maheu and Giancana be dropped from the operation which Rosselli readily acceded to. Trafficante's "interpreter" role was assumed by "Maceo", a mysterious "Cuban who spoke Italian" and who sometimes used the names [illegible] and Godoy.

Comment

"Maceo's" introduction into one of the most sensitive CIA covert actions in history without any attempt ~~to~~ made by the Agency to check his background or to ascertain his identity is extraordinary. Yet, the Agency apparently went blithely "to bed" ~~to~~ ~~two~~ with ~~two~~ prominent of the top hoodlums in the United States without doing any basic background security investigation.

Although the 1967 I.G. Report characterizes Maceo as "Rosselli's man," it is probable that this individual was ~~[illegible]~~ drafted by Trafficante who had provided all the Cuban personnel previously used in the attempts and who still possessed, in 1962, the most complete network of Cuban allies in Miami and Cuba.

SECRET

? The termination of the CIA-mafia was plots slow and undramatic. Rosselli, in May 1962, reported to Harvey ~~that~~ the pills and guns which had been delivered to Varona in Miami in April had arrived in Cuba, and an unidentified three-man team had been dispatched in June to execute the plan [Interim Report p84]

? During September 1962, ~~one~~ Rosselli related to Harvey that de Varona ~~was~~ readying a second three-man team who were "supposedly militia men whose assignment was to penetrate Castro's body guard. During this period the 'medicine' was reported as still in place and the three men of the first team safe [1967 I.G. Report, p51] However, the second team never made Cuba and a series of alibis were constructed during December and Jany 1963. Nevertheless, de Varona supposedly collected $2700 for the maintenance of these individuals from Rosselli who had received the payment from Harvey. [1967 I.G. Report p52]

In mid-Jany 1963 both Harvey and Rosselli agreed that "nothing was happening and that there was not much chance that anything would happen in the future" [1967 I.G. Rept p52 Rosselli was instructed to ease his way out of touch with Varona which he presumably did. The last meeting between Harvey and Rosselli occurred in Washington D.C. in June 1963. when he was Harvey's ~~guest~~ ~~fo~~ overnight guest. However their meeting ostensibly was not directly related to any assassination plots.

CONCLUSION

SECRET

The available evidence suggests ~~that organized crime~~ the thesis which, in part, is tacitly assumed by the Agency in its 1977 internal Inspector General's Report wherein it states that, "It is possible that CIA simply found itself involved in providing additional resources for independent operations that the syndicate already had under way. ... In a ~~sense~~ sense, CIA may have been piggy-backing on the syndicate, and, in addition to its material contributions, was also supplying an aura of official sanction." [1977 IG Rpt p 208] ?

1. FBI memo 18 Oct 1960 re Giancana ELSUR:

"... Giancana reportedly assured those present ~~that~~ Castro's assassination would occur in November. Moreover, he allegedly indicated that he had already met with the assassin-to-be on three occasions ... Giancana claimed that everything has been perfected for the killing of Castro, and that the assassin had arranged with a girl, not further described, to drop a 'pill' in some drink or food of Castro." [1977 IG Rpt p 19]

SECRET

Although the dates of the reported meetings between Maheu, Roselli, and Giancana are subject to different interpretation, it is clear that no plans were formalized between the parties ~~by~~ until sometime after October 18, 19 the date of the FBI's intercepted conversation of Giancana.

The poison pills, prepared by the CIA at Giancana's request, were not ready for delivery until late February-early March 1961, so that it is difficult to see how Giancana's November 1960 assassination plot could be a part of the CIA operation. Rather, it appears that the mob had its poison plan in progress, using a mistress of Castro's to accomplish the deed, when the CIA fortuitously happened along to offer its support. The mob was then in a perfect position. If their ~~[illegible]~~ private plot actually worked and Castro died, then the Syndicate had enormous blackmail potential against ~~the~~ CIA which it could exercise at the opportune moment. However, if their ~~plot~~ intrigue back-fired, then their position ~~is~~ would be that ~~they~~ were only attempting to execute the wishes of their Government.

Additional Comment

The actions of Giancana's "hired hand", Richard Cain ~~[illegible]~~ ~~not to~~ raise some interesting possibilities. Given Cain's admission to the FBI that he had ~~been~~ joined the Chicago Police Department and Sheriff's office while on Giancana's payroll. Cain's approach to ~~[illegible]~~ the CIA Chicago office in the fall of 1960 to volunteer ~~his services~~ information on the Cuban community ~~is~~ appears a little more than ~~significant~~ coincidental. Then when FBI files disclose that he is planning to go to Cuba for Life magazine (~~and~~ one story), and to "bug" influential Cubans in Havana ostensibly for ex-President Prio (second story) the coincidence becomes more suspect. The suspicion is that Cain was being sent by Giancana to supervise the poisoning attempt on Fidel Castro. Cain could be the "a man to be" whom Giancana referred to in the FBI memo of ~~[illegible]~~ Oct 18, 1960 or he could be the contact man for the operation.

[Tie in memo on Cain with Salerno's view which is ~~so~~ strongly supported by the evidence, that Cain was the "missing second man" in the Las Vegas wiretap of Oct 30, 1960. Maheu needs to be questioned on this point]

Cain continued to "volunteer" information and assistance to the CIA during 1961-1963. In August 1963, he offered information on the DRE Student Directory in Chicago to that office of the Agency. In writing, [illegible] was the former head of the Directorio in Cuba where he was a major power in deposing Batista.

In September 1963, Cain reported to the Chicago office of the CIA that DRE was in a deal to purchase a large arms shipment. He was told by the Agency to "get out of the picture" ~~which~~ a directive which is subject to several interpretations including the fact that the CIA was a witting participant in the deal.

Again, on November 27, 1963, Cain now the chief investigator for Cook County Sheriff's Office, gave the Agency some information that Oswald was in ~~Cuba~~ Chicago in April 1963 with the Fair Play for Cuba Committee and had purchased the assassination rifle in March 1963.

2. Recruitment of ~~Assassin~~ the potential Assassin(s)

In describing the putative poisoner, Giancana spoke in October 1960 of a "girl" who was close to Castro while the individual recruited for the CIA pills was Juan Orta, a secretary in Castro's Prime Ministry.

The identity of the "girl" referred to by Giancana can never be ascertained but Trafficante was clearly in the best position to recruit ~~a Cuban~~ one of Castro's Cuban mistresses due to his multitude of contacts in the Cuban gaming and prostitution circles

It was common for American gangsters to have Cuban mistresses and Trafficante, Rothman, and Tourine were typical examples. Also, one witness told the Committee that Castro was accustomed to arrive at the Nacional Hotel (owned by Mike McLaney) unescorted on a regular basis to visit one of his paramours. Thus, it would have been relatively easy for Trafficante to have arranged for ~~a~~ a young women to service Castro and to attempt to poison him.

Marita Lorenz is a confusing witness to say the least, and her potential as an assassin recruited by Frank Sturgis has been previously discussed. However, the interesting point is that she was also Charles Tourine's mistress and thus could have been solicited to activate the poison plot. Unfortunately, Tourine is totally uncooperative and Lorenz was not asked about her relationship with Tourine in Cuba so that we do not know the dates match.

Comment

Juan Orta, the ~~a~~ man identified to the Agency as the gangsters' contact in Castro's inner circle, was presumably indebted to Trafficante, due to his former receipt of gambling "kickbacks."

One fact is extremely bothersome however, in attempting to gauge the depth of the mob's sincerity in using Orta to execute the assassination plans. According to the IG Report (page 23):

Orta "lost his position in the Prime Minister's Office on 26 January 1961, while planning for the operation was still going on in Miami and in Washington." According to the official version Orta received the pills in late February–early March 1961 and kept the pills for a couple of weeks before returning them" [1967 IG Rpt p 27] If the mob was close enough to Orta to have pills smuggled in and out of Cuba, then they had to know that Orta had lost his position of accessibility. ?? the other possibility also exists, i.e., that the pills never left the United States and thus were available to give to de Varona when he was brought into the plot.

The question arises then, as to whether the mob was pursuing their own assassination plot and the CIA operation or, what appears more likely, simply using the Agency for the ulterior motives previously outlined.

Turning to Phase II of the operation which began in April 1962, ~~there also~~ the same possibilities exist. If Harvey and O'Connell are correct in assuming that Harvey had walked into an "ongoing" operation, then ~~this~~ ~~they~~ it can be assumed that the mob's relationship with de Varona, which predated the CIA participation according to the FBI memos of 21 Dec 1960, and 18 January 1961, had continued uninterrupted after the Bay of Pigs, with the exception of the CIA's participation, funding and material ~~support~~ could, once again be returned to the Agency although deVarona would continue to deal through his most contacts, Russell and "Maceo."

~~Due to~~ the loose structure of Phase II in terms of the ambiguous nature of the operational means of ~~attack~~ the lack of identity of the potential assassins, the complete reliance of Harvey ~~upon~~ Rosselli's word ~~as~~ that attempts were actually being carried out, the Agency's lack of control or ~~in~~ability to corroborate Rosselli's information, the ~~[illegible]~~ speculation arises that the syndicate was not seriously trying to assassinate Castro after the Bay of Pigs fiasco and the solidification of Soviet influence in Castro's Cuba. Being solid businessmen, Trafficante, Lansky and other former Cuba casino owners must have realized that the "golden goose" of Havana had laid its last egg and that fortunes were to be made elsewhere. Certainly, the evidence shows growing Lansky influence in the Bahamas, Las Vegas, and Trafficante projects in the Dominican Republic and a new opportunity for bolita ~~[illegible]~~ tremendous operations in Florida with the influx of Cuban exiles. It was also abundantly clear that the new Justice Department program on organized crime would never permit the "wide-open" Cuba of the pre-Kennedy era ~~[illegible]~~ even if Castro ~~[illegible]~~ and all his Communist associates could be eliminated.

~~So although~~ Despite the relatively usual business sense in continuing the assassination attempts against Castro in a substantive way, there still was a percentage in "stringing the Agency along." First, there was no expense to the syndicate because the Agency was providing full logistical support for Varona. Second, there was the mounting pressure from the ~~Agency~~ FBI and Justice Department which had to be blunted, if possible. No better weapon to accomplish this goal could be found than to use one agency (CIA) against another (F. A brief look at the record shows the employment of ~~the~~ this strategy ~~at that time~~ at moments of crisis for those who participated in the plots.

?! - Impact

The Rosselli-Garrison contact in Las Vegas in March is particularly disturbing. It lends substance to reports that Castro had something to do with the Kennedy assassination in retaliation for U.S. attempts on Castro's life. We do not know that Castro actually tried to retaliate, but we do (CIA emphasis) know that there were such plots against Castro. Unhappily, it now appears that Garrison may also know this (p127)

- The Pearson story, which is now causing us so much distress, includes one detail that is not found in Phase Two: the three-man team

Comment

Not necessarily since Varona was involved in Phase One also, he may have begun the 3-man team initially and not briefed Roselli on the concept in Phase Two or Roselli just didn't mention the 3 man team to Maheu or O'Connell during Phase II

Comment

- In figuring out "ulterior motives" for a leak to Pearson, agency makes the following point -

If protection was what the source was seeking, he could be better assured of getting it by a direct approach to CIA for help. pg 123

a. Prior to August 1960

All of the identifiable schemes prior to Aug. 1960, w/ one possible exception, were aimed only at discrediting Castro personally by influencing his behavior or by altering his appearance

b. August 1960 to April 61

Plots aggressively pursued; viewed by at least some of participants as one aspect of effort to overthrow regime culminating in BOP

c. April 1961 to late 1961

Major scheme begun Aug 60 was called off after BOP & remained dormant for several mos.

d. Late 1961 to late 1962

Comment

In essence he (AMLASH/1) was told there would be no U.S. support until after the fact, and then only if he was successful. While ~~that~~ may not seem a very realistic way in which to bring about the overthrow of a govt, it is directly relevant to the question of what AMLASH/1 was told and what he understood. It is contrary to the statement in the SSC Final Report (p10) to the effect that it was not clear how AMLASH/1 interpreted the visit ~~of~~ of Fitzgerald.

Cites July 1964 FBI Report stating that AMLASH/1 unhappy with CIA response and A.G. Kennedy had refused to support the plan

19 Nov 63 Fitzgerald "approved telling AMLASH/1 he would be given a cache inside Cuba. The cache could, if he requested it, include.. high-power rifles w/ scopes..

19 Nov. AMLASH tells CIA he is returning to Cuba.

AMLASH agrees "if it is something interesting"

These furnished in April 1962 passed by gambling rep. to a Cuban exile leader in Fla who in turn, had them sent to Cuba about May 1962. In June 1962, the exile leader reported that a team of 3 men had been dispatched to Cuba to recruit for the operation.

1. Comments on Book V

The criticisms of the CIA are based on a series of presumptions of how various investigative leads were handled, and on the non-reporting of various Agency operational activities that the SSC Final Report judges to have been relevant to the Warren Commission inquiry.

2. A stated thesis of the SSC Final Report is that the operations of the intelligence agencies against Cuba caused a negative influence on the quality of their support for the W.C. investigation

"It places particular .... investigation p 2

they should have .... facts .. p 7

Certainly .... information. p 7

A central feature of the rationale is the concept that if Castro had learned of these activities it would have provided him with motivation against Pres. Kennedy. The SSC Final Report makes it clear that it feels this ~~theory~~ should have been pursued and accepted at the time by the intelligence agencies (not to mention the WC) leading to a review of the various anti-Castro programs to see what it might reveal.

Agency views the provocation theory in the Final Report to [illegible] form of " the result of an evolution in perception.

i.e. Provocation existed in 63 from both Cuba & USSR from Bay of Pigs, Missile Crisis; along with the array of US Cuban programs.

"The SSC Final Report has elected to emphasize instead CIA operational activity against Cuba as requiring specific attention.

Review by Agency -

Persons ~~in charge~~ who knew details of 1963 & 1964 operations for the most part are no longer available. Primary reliance on records.

CIA has now conducted such a review - looking at "the other end" of a possible chain of evidence, where they theoretically could have started. This has produced no new evidence bearing on the assassination, altho' it has produced the basis for new lines of speculation. In fact, the review sometimes seemed to become a futile exercise in trying to fit facts to the provocation theory rather than being able to identify evidence actually bearing on the assassination of Pres. Kennedy. The exploration sometimes became one of asking if this activity (whichever was under review) could have provoked Castro to order the assassination President Kennedy had he (Castro) learned of it. The SSC, in its Final Report, fell into this very trap, trying to make the AMLASH operation actually fit the thing for which the SSC's presentation seemed to be tailored!

Tab C

AMLASH

The Agency had only a tentative relationship with this man during Pres Kennedy's life, altho the SSC Final Report – in trying to prove its thesis -- has attempted to present it differently. Because the case is discussed so extensively in the SSC Final Report, it is treated in a separate annex in the paper at Tab D. The key point is that prior to Pres. Kennedy's death the relationship ~~the~~ with AMLASH/1 was amorphous and without substance. Had Castro learned of it he could learn only that there was a contact that had not developed to the point of an understanding.

p 14 New Considerations on the Syndicate Operation

In a series of stories by Paul Meskil in the New York Daily News, of April 20-25, 1975 it quoted Sturgis as follows:

"The third assassination scheme involved planting a ~~bomb in~~ Castro's office. I had access to the Prime Minister's office,' Sturgis said. I knew Fidel's private secretary Juan Orta. I recruited him to work with the Embassy (American embassy in Havana).

"He (Sturgis) has claimed on a number of occasions to have been an employee of CIA, altho there is no record of any such relationship. He was in contact with some of the CIA Cuban employees in the Miami area, but had no direct relationships with the Agency.

"Orta was the director of the Office of the Prime Minister, which gave him the access that would make it possible for him to poison Castro. The plan failed because Orta lost his position, and with it his access, in late January 1961. This was prior to delivery of the poison pills to him in late Feb or early March 1961. Orta's role in this operation was over when he took refuge in the Venezuelan Embassy in Havana in April 1961. He was allowed to leave Cuba in October 1964 and settled in Miami in Feb. 1965.

Same news stories and one 13 June 1974 discuss a possible relationship between Sturgis and Trafficante, also naming a Norman Rothman as a gambling partner of Trafficante. Office of Security wrote a memorandum in 1975, noting a connection between Sturgis and Rothman in 1960, citing FBI reports.

Presumes that Sturgis reported to have had a role in gambling also. Orta's availability due to his "lost payoffs." One could deduce that Sturgis and Orta could have known one another because of their connections with the gambling activities as well as having contacts with the men heading the gambling operations.

June 1976 Story also reports claims by Marita (Marie)^{CIA} Lorenz that she acted on behalf of Sturgis in 1960 re poison pills in jar of face cream.

Quotes FBI memo on Varona: "This seems to confirm some plot involving a woman to kill Castro with poison. However, the timing of events does not fit the time frame known to CIA. While consideration had been given to various schemes, ~~there~~ were no CIA pills for delivery until February 1961. IG suggests that the syndicate may have been moving (U) ahead on its own."

SECRET

In fact, it is possible that Varona already was involved in independent operations with the criminal syndicate when first approached prior to B of Pigs in March 1961 to carry out the Castro assassination, the 1967 IG Report refers ~~to two~~ FBI reports that bear on this. One of them, on 21 Dec. 1960, indicates support by the criminal underworld for some of the Cuban exiles. The other report, on 18 Jany 1961, suggests that Varona was one of those receiving that support, altho' this was not confirmed.

... As late as June 64 another gangster plot in Miami area for 150,000.

Speculation that when Harvey took over in April 1962 case officer felt "there was something already ongoing."

It is possible that CIA simply found itself involved in providing additional resources for independent operations that the syndicate already had underway. . . .

In a sense CIA may have been piggy-backing on the syndicate and — in addition to its material contributions was also supplying an aura of official sanction.

Box 6, 4th Doc. 4

The CIA has publicly stated that it never interviewed Lee Harvey Oswald. Numerous allegations have arisen over the years since President Kennedy's assassination that Oswald either had been or should have been debriefed by the CIA upon his return from the Soviet Union since he appeared to be in a position to provide useful information due to the ~~length of stay~~ unusual duration of his residence and employment there. The claim response that no records exist which indicate a debriefing of Oswald has stimulated speculation that Oswald may have had some kind of Agency relationship either because the contact was not reported through normal channels or because the CIA communicated with Oswald in another manner which alleviated obviated(?) alleviated(?) the necessity for a routine debriefing.

stimulated by the allegation, not the response.

The HSCA attempted to determine: 1) whether Oswald was, in fact, interviewed by the CIA upon his return from the Soviet Union; 2) whether there is an official report of the interview if one was conducted; and 3) the reasons why Oswald would not have been interviewed if that was in ~~fact~~ finality actuality the case.

In response to the Warren Commission's request of ...., John A. McCone, Director of the Central Intelligence Agency, submitted an affidavit stating that the CIA had had no relationship of any kind with Lee Harvey Oswald. ~~In this~~ The affidavit, dated 18 May 1964, ~~stated~~ certifies that "the Agency never contacted him, interviewed him, talked with him or received or solicited any reports or information from him, or communicated with him, directly or indirectly, in any other manner." (... Exhibit #870, 17H 866) Mr. McCone's testimony before the Warren Commission on May 14, 1964 gave the same ~~reflects~~ the same assertion as to the Agency's lack of contact with Oswald. Mr. McCone was asked specifically whether the CIA had had any contact with Oswald during his stay in the Soviet Union. McCone replied, "No; not to my knowledge, nor to the knowledge of those who would have been in a position to have made such contact, nor according to any record we have." (Warren Commission Hearings & Exhibits, 5H 123) He also responded negatively to the question of whether the CIA had any personal contact with Oswald subsequent to his return to the United States. (Ibid.)

17H 866 [illegible]

[illegible]

Was it, or was it not, in response to Warren Commission request

Malone's affidavit was ~~primarily~~ partially instigated by the appearance of an article on 28 February 1964 in the Northern Virginia Sun which made the following allegation:

~~Alleged that~~ "State Department records show that Oswald had several meetings with the CIA representative in the U.S. Embassy in Moscow. During this period, the assassin was seeking to renounce his citizenship. One State Department cable, No. 234, dated November 2, 1959, reports that Oswald was interviewed by the CIA and other embassy officials" (CIA FOIA Document #609-786).

The CIA memoranda reporting this Show information both internally and to the Warren Commission advises that this allegation is totally unfounded. (Ibid. and CIA FOIA Document #610-263). The ~~internals~~ memos explain that the reference to the State Department "cable" is erroneous and that the document to which the article was referring is undoubtedly a State Department "despatch", No. 234, which was dated 2 November 1959 from the U.S. Embassy in Moscow. (Ibid.) (not a new paragraph)

According to the internal memorandum, the despatch contained no statement or reference that Richard E. Snyder, who was the Second Secretary of the U.S. Embassy in Moscow and the only person mentioned by name in the dispatch, had any CIA connection. (CIA FOIA Doc. #[illegible]-75:

However, the memorandum acknowledged that Holt Snyder and Edward L. Freers, the State Department official who signed the dispatch, had had some past connection with the Agency. Snyder had been employed by the CIA for less than one year in 1950 when he resigned in order to assume a position with the State Department. (Ibid.) Although the CIA's ~~Freers had never~~ records indicate the existence of ~~actually been employed by the~~ a history of Agency interest in Freers, he was never actually employed by the CIA. (Ibid.)

The record of the Central Intelligence Agency throughout the years is consistent with the position ~~that~~ as stated to the Warren Commission that the CIA never interviewed Lee Harvey Oswald. A 9 February 1972 letter from Bernard Fensterwald to the Assistant Director of the CIA requests any records pertaining to a "debriefing" of Oswald by or on behalf of the CIA following his return from the Soviet Union. This request for information contrary to the Agency's previously ~~[illegible]~~ stated position appears to be generated by a statement made by Richard Helms on 14 April 1971 before the American Society of Newspaper Editors that "... if there is a chance that if a private citizen travelling abroad has acquired foreign information that can be useful to the American policymaker, we are certainly going to try to interview (CIA FOIA Doc. #961-927-AG). Since Fensterwald cites Oswald as appearing to be such a person.

There follows an exchange of letters between Fensterwald and Angus M. Thuermer who was the Assistant to the Director of the CIA in which Thuermer refers Fensterwald to the testimony of McCone and

Helms before the Warren Commission. Thuermer states that "the testimony is still valid; therefore the information you request does not exist." (CIA FOIA Doc #962-927-AN)

When Fensterwald responds to this answer with a request for Thuermer's own position with respect to the records rather than "conclusions based upon statements of persons other than yourself", Thuermer ends the exchange by stating that his previous response was "a simple declarative statement on the best possible authority that the Agency never had any contact with Oswald and that, therefore, the information sought by you in your letter of February 9th does not exist and never did exist." (CIA FOIA Doc #970-927-AP).

In April of 1978, the HSCA requested that the CIA provide a statement as to whether Lee Harvey Oswald was ever contacted, spoken to or interviewed by anyone directly or indirectly representing the CIA. (HSCA letter to CIA, 4/5/78). The Agency responded in the same manner it had used in responding to previous requests from other sources, by way of referring the Committee to the testimony of Helms and McCone before the Warren Commission and to McCone's affidavit denying any Agency contact with Oswald. (CIA Statement Regarding and Con-tact [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]).

A 25 November 1963 CIA Memorandum (now located in LHO's 201 file as CIA FOIA #435-173-A) is the only documented evidence of any CIA interest in interviewing Oswald. ~~The author of the memo,~~ The memorandum written by [Thomas B. Casasin], stated: "As soon as I had heard Oswald's name, I recalled that as Chief of the 6 Branch I had discussed ~~with~~ sometime ~~the then~~ in Summer 1960 - with the then Chief and Deputy Chief of the 6 Research Section the laying on of interviews through (KUJUMP) or other suitable channels. At the moment I don't recall if this was discussed while Oswald and his family were en route to this country or if it was after their arrival." (CIA FOIA Document #435-173-A).

[Casasin] was interviewed by the HSCA ~~staff members~~ on August 17, 1978. In this interview, he stated that he worked as Chief of the 6 Branch from September 1960 until his reassignment in September 1962. (HSCA Staff Interview of CIA Employee, 8/17/78, p1) He advised that the function of the 6 Branch was to amass information from defectors concerning details about Soviet life which could then be used to assist persons working inside the Soviet Union. (Ibid.) The 6 Branch also relied upon the CIA's Contacts Division and the FBI as sources of this type of information, as well as collecting information from the State Department and the press concerning Americans in the Soviet Union. (Ibid., p.4)

During this interview, (Casasin's) recollection of the discussion mentioned in the 25 November 1963 memo was that it took place during the last days of his tenure with the 6 Branch. (Ibid., p.4) This would have placed the discussion sometime in July 1962. He stated that the date cited for the discussion in the memo must have been erroneous as he was travelling with his family between assignments in the summer of 1960 and did not begin his assignment with the 6 Branch until September of that year. (Ibid., pp. 4-5)

(Casasin) stated that at the time the Oswald case was discussed, he assumed that Oswald must have been sent out of the Soviet Union by the KGB. (Ibid., p.4) Therefore, exercising caution, he did not attempt to debrief Oswald but suggested that Oswald be debriefed by (KUTUMP) which represented the Office of Operations, an office which debriefed persons through its Contacts Division or "other suitable channels" by which he meant the FBI or the Immigration and Naturalization Service (Ibid., pp. 4-5). He ~~did not~~ stated that he did not believe that this had been done at that time because ~~such~~ this type of information would have been routinely passed on to the CIA and to his section if such a debriefing had occurred (Ibid., p. 5). Whatever information he had on Oswald at the time was in the form of State Department dispatches. (Ibid.)

In the memorandum, (Casasin) states that he told his subordinates something to the effect of "Don't push too hard to get the information we need, because this individual looks odd. (CIA FOIA Document #435-173-A). He explained in the interview that this statement reflected the CIA's assessment of Oswald based on the unusual facts that Oswald was permitted by the Soviets to remain in the USSR and was further permitted to marry a Soviet citizen (HSCA Staff Interview of CIA Employee, 5/17/78, p. 5).

(Lesasie) stated that his interest in Oswald as expressed in the memorandum was just a lead and that it was not unusual that there had been no follow-up regarding a debriefing of Oswald (Ibid., p. 9). He wrote no memo at the time of the discussion as it was not customary to write memos regarding leads that were discussed and subsequently ~~left~~ dismissed as being ~~unproductive because being~~ of little unimportance. (Ibid.)

(Walter P. Haltigan), the person to whom (Cassini's) 25 November 1963 letter was written, was then employed by the CIA as Chief of ~~(HSCA Staff Interview of CIA Employee, 6/13/78, p. 1)~~ (Haltigan's) recollection was is the Soviet section of the (Paris station). ~~In 1978 he explained in an interview with HSCA staff members~~ that because of the nature of (Cassini's) position under (non-official) cover, (Cassini) frequently wrote informal memos such as the one in FOIA #435-173-A which were then passed on through the use of cut-outs to the (Paris station). (Ibid.) These memoranda would then be forwarded to CIA Headquarters, generally by (Haltigan). However, in this particular instance, Robert G. (Kempnell), who served under (Haltigan) received and forwarded the memorandum to Headquarters as (Haltigan) was in the hospital. (Ibid.)

~~[illegible] (Ibid.)~~

(Haltigan) expressed the general Agency opinion that had the CIA wished to contact a returning defector, it would have done so through the Contacts Division of the Office of Operations but that it was not standard operating procedure to interview returning defectors because this job fell within the FBI's jurisdiction. (Ibid., p. 2)

¶(Thomas) also told the HSCA ~~(Casasin)~~ stated that the CIA had a specific interest in Minsk as it was ~~known~~ known that the city contained some type of special design plants that may have involved aviation, nuclear energy or bacteriological warfare. (HSCA Staff Interview of CIA Employee, pp.5-6). Consequently, although (Casasin) did not think ~~believe~~ that LHO was working in any type of security facility, he believed that anyone, who would have been in the area of those plants would have been of interest to the Agency. (Ibid., p.6). However, even with the presence of the design plants, Minsk was not identified as a security or military priority area. (Ibid.).

(Casasin) believed that the CIA maintained a large volume of information on the Minsk radio factory in which Oswald worked. (Ibid.) This information was stored in the Office of Research and Reporting. ~~This fact was corroborated by another CIA employee.~~ Another former CIA employee, [Donald Deneslya] DO who worked in the Foreign Documents Division in the Soviet Branch of the Directorate of Intelligence in 1962 told the HSCA that he specifically recalled collecting intelligence regarding the Minsk Radio Plant. (HSCA Class. Interview of CIA Employee, 9/28/78, p.1).

In fact, [Deneselya] 03 ~~[illegible]~~ claims that, during the summer of 1962, he reviewed a contact report from representatives of the CIA's New York field office who interviewed a former Marine who had worked at the Minsk Radio Plant following his defection to the USSR. (Ibid.) This person, who [Deneselya] 03 believes may have been Oswald, had been living with his family in Minsk. (Ibid.) [Deneselya] 03 advised the Committee that the contact report was filed in a volume concerning the Minsk Radio Plant which should be retrievable from the Industrial Registry Branch, which was then a component of the Office of Central Reference in 1962. (Ibid.)

The HSCA requested that the CIA provide the Committee both the above-described contact report and the volume of materials concerning the Minsk Radio Plant. (HSCA Ltr. to CIA [illegible]). A review of the documents in the volume on the Minsk Radio Plant revealed that no such contact report existed in that file. (Outside Contact Report of 10/17/78, JFK Doc. #012.023).

The file review did indicate that in 1975, Daniel Schorr had made a similar request and was informed by the CIA that no such report existed. (Ibid.)

The Select Committee on Assassinations requested that the Central Intelligence Agency provide a written statement indicating whether ~~whether~~ the CIA, from 1958-1963, interviewed or debriefed returning American defectors to the Soviet Union as a matter of standard operating procedure. (HSCA letter to CIA, 4/5/78). The Agency was also requested to indicate the circumstances under which an interview would be initiated if such interviews were not conducted as standard operating procedure. (Ibid.)

The Agency's response indicated that the Counterintelligence Staff reviewed the files of 117 persons who had "defected" to the USSR between 1958 and 1963 and who had subsequently returned to the United States. (CIA Memorandum B. Hugh Tovar to Special Assistant to DDO for External Oversight, 4/20/78). This review revealed that only ten of the 117 individuals had been contacted by any component within the CIA and that the CIA had no procedure for the systematic debriefing of such persons. (Ibid.) Instead, the Agency stated maintained that the contacts that were initiated appeared to be based on "opportunity and circumstance." (Ibid.)

Another memorandum explained that the CIA had no standard operating procedure with respect to debriefing returning American defectors

as the Agency relied upon the FBI for reporting the results of interviews it may have conducted in connection with its responsibility for internal security matters (CIA Memorandum, Tovar to Special Asst. to DDO for External Oversight, 5/25/78). The Agency further stated that there were no manuals or regulations for the period of 1958-1963 which specifically address the subject of American defectors. (Ibid.)

In fact, the ten persons with whom the CIA admitted having had contact did not strictly meet the specific requirements as requested in the HSCA's request. Seven of the ten individuals had not actually defected to the USSR during the period 1958-1963, but had resided there for at least ten years prior to 1958 (CIA Memo from Tovar, 4/20/78). Three of the ten individuals returned to the United States and were subsequently debriefed after 1963. (Ibid.) The CIA employee who conducted the research in preparation for the Agency's response told the HSCA that the requirements he had utilized in arriving at his conclusions had been somewhat broader than those requested in order to include all those persons regarded as defectors who were residing in the Soviet Union during the time period in question, rather than just those who actually defected at that time. (HSCA Staff Interview of CIA Employee, 7/21/78).

The House Select Committee on Assassinations conducted ~~[illegible]~~ a review of defectors' files in order to determine whether defectors other than Oswald were routinely debriefed upon their return to the United States. The Committee requested that the CIA provide a list of persons travelling to the Soviet Union during the period from 1958 to 1963, including both visitors and those persons considered by the Agency to be "defectors." ([illegible] HSCA to CIA) ~~The Committee~~ In response ~~was~~ the CIA provided a computer listing of 380 individuals entitled "U.S. Persons Who Have or May Have Defected to the USSR Between 1958-1963." (Attachment to 27 January 78 Memo, E. Hugh [illegible] to S.A. to DDO) The Agency stated that this listing represented ~~individuals~~ U.S. persons, including some non-U.S. citizens who owed some measure of allegiance to the United States, who ~~has~~ either defected or had shown some intention of defecting to the USSR ~~for~~ within the requested time period. (27 January 78 Memo, [illegible] to S.A. to DDO)

As this list was compiled from a more detailed computer program on American defectors, a more detailed description concerning these individuals was requested and provided in an expanded version of the original list. This machine listing included the following information where ~~available~~ relevant or available for each individual: name, date and place of birth, 201 file number, date arrival in Soviet Union, departure fr. Soviet Union, employment in Soviet Union, most current address, and other miscellaneous information compiled from the individual's 201 file and/or third agency documents regarding this individual.

("Expanded Computer List of U.S. Persons ....")

The Committee compiled a list of persons who appeared, from the information available in the Agency's expanded list, to be U.S. citizens born in the United States, who defected or attempted to defect to the Soviet Union between the years of 1958 and 1963 and who returned to the United States within the same period of time. ~~Also on-~~ In addition, ~~Added to the list were~~ the Committee included individuals from an October 1960 State Department ~~[illegible]~~ request for information from the CIA regarding these persons whom they considered to be defectors to the Soviet Union or Soviet bloc countries.
(25 (Letter from State, [illegible])

Like Tennyson's "Brook" goes on and on and on and on

The HSCA requested files on twenty-nine individuals who fit the above-described criteria and the CIA provided files on twenty-eight individuals on whom they maintained records. ~~Both~~ These 201 files were reviewed as well as any existing Domestic Contact Division files regarding these persons. The HSCA file review revealed that, in the case of six of the individuals, there is no indication that they ever returned to the United States. In some of these cases, the files contained a report from a source who observed or spoke with the subject and then reported the contact to the CIA, but there is no indication of direct contact with any of these persons on the part of the CIA.

In regard to the other twenty-two defectors, the file review ~~indicates~~ shows that there is no record of CIA contact with eighteen of them. Again, four of these files contain a reports by a sources who advised the Agency of their contact. ([illegible])

One file regarding a former military person contains a report of a debriefing conducted by military intelligence. ([illegible])

The circumstances of the CIA's contact with the four remaining defectors differed in each case. The file of one individual reflects that he had actually been living in the USSR since 1933 and returned to the United States in 1962. He was debriefed in 1964 by a CIA officer using [Department of Defense] cover after applying for employment in response to a newspaper advertisement. (Rev. of Irving [illegible] 201 file)[29] Another returning defector, Harold Citrynell, was unwittingly interviewed by a CIA officer [in the American embassy][10] in Copenhagen upon his departure from the Soviet Union en route to the United States. While Citrynell's file indicates that the Agency considered it desirable that a full and controlled debriefing by the CIA and FBI be conducted and Angleton wrote to the FBI suggesting a joint debriefing, there is no evidence in Citrynell's 201 file nor in any DCD documents which suggest further contact on the part of the CIA.

More extensive debriefings were conducted of the other two defectors. Robert E. Webster, a plastics expert with the Rand Development Corporation whose defection to the Soviet Union in 1959 was highly publicized, returned to the United States in June of 1962. ([illegible] Webster had been employed in the Soviet Union at the Leningrad Scientific Institute of Polytechnic Plastics.

E/BR

Shortly after his return to the United States, Webster was debriefed in his home territory by representatives from the CIA's Office of Operations and SR/6 ~~and~~ in conjunction with representatives from the Air Force. It was decided that a more extensive debriefing was in order and Webster was subsequently brought to the Washington, D.C. area where he was debriefed for a period of two weeks. The debriefing reports include a chronology of Webster's life and the CIA's assessment of him as well as a large body of information regarding life in the Soviet Union, Webster's work there and biographic information on persons he had met during his residence there

Likewise, Libero Riccardelli who had lived in the Soviet Union for nearly four years, was contacted for purposes of debriefing ~~shortly~~ soon after his return to the United States in late June of 1963. His initial debriefing included such subjects as his motivation to defect to the USSR as well as well as activities engaged in during his Moscow stay, relocation from Moscow to Kiev and general aspects of life such as residence controls and costs. While the CIA felt it was unfeasible to debrief Riccardelli more thoroughly due to his current status of attempting to regain U.S. citizenship, the Agency expressed an interest in eliciting more information on such topics as cost of living, medical care, consumer goods, highways, transportation and restrictions upon travel within Kiev.

It becomes clear from the review of files on these defectors that debriefing of defectors by the CIA was, in fact, somewhat of a random occurrence. However, in the instances in which the Agency did choose to debrief returning American defectors, the Agency appeared to be interested in topics of general interest regarding life in certain areas of the Soviet Union. In this regard, the persons who were debriefed were similar to Oswald in that they defected and returned ~~for the~~ within the same general time period and each spent his time in the Soviet Union in areas of interest to the CIA.

It appears, from an examination of all available materials, that Lee Harvey Oswald was not interviewed by the CIA following his return to the United States from the Soviet Union. Although persons in a branch of the Soviet Russia Division expressed an interest in interviewing Oswald, they never followed up on this interest. There is also no indication that the Domestic Contact Collection Division of the Office of Operations interviewed Oswald.

While the CIA did conduct interviews of some tourists who visited the Soviet Union during ~~this~~ the period 1959-1963 as well as some American citizens who defected to the Soviet Union and then returned to the United States, there was no standard policy to interview all persons in either category. Thus, the fact that Oswald was not interviewed was more the rule than the exception according to procedures followed by the CIA at that point in time.

HSCA was advised that at time of Oswald's return, there were many Soviet citizens leaving USSR & debriefing program probably concentrated on them.

SYNOPSIS

Permission to interview WERBELL granted by IRS. Review of air and surface shipment records, Eglin AFB, FL, failed to disclose any information pertinent to this investigation. WERBELL interviewed by IRS. During interview WERBELL advised that firearms shipped to him by SUBJECT in April 1969 were obtained by him (WERBELL) in Vietnam and registered during amnesty period; however, no authorization was obtained to import these firearms. WERBELL stated that majority of firearms currently being held at Eglin AFB were sent at WERBELL's request by ARPA and authorized by PATTERSON, who thought firearms were for AF museum purposes. WERBELL asserted seized firearms were sent by him to Vietnam after receiving State Department approval and were to be returned to SIONICS by Air Force. No authorization for this action was obtained by WERBELL. WERBELL advised that firearms which were not sent by him to Vietnam, and which were seized at Eglin AFB, were sent to SUBJECT for use in Air Force museums and that, to WERBELL's knowledge, Forms 6 were not filed on any of the seized firearms.

DETAILS:

1. On 1 October 1969, Investigator WILLIAM C. GOODMAN Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms Control Division, IRS, Pensacola, FL, was interviewed by SA WILLIAM D. DIXON. GOODMAN advised that as of that date, he had not received any additional information concerning the matter under investigation. GOODMAN was requested to determine if IRS would object to an interview of MITCHELL L. WERBELL III by OSI. GOODMAN advised that he would query his higher headquarters regarding the request, and subsequently, GOODMAN advised that he had spoken to his supervisor in the Atlanta office and that his agency had no objection to an interview of WERBELL, Vice-President and Director of Research and Development of Sionics.

2. On 8 Oct 69 Mr. SHELLEY F. REEVES, GS-8, SSAN 261-50-7220, Shipment Planner, 3201st Trans Sq., EAFB, FL, advised that it was possible for a shipment to arrive at Eglin AFB without any paperwork, such as a Government Bill of Lading (GBL); however, if such shipment arrived by military air, it should be listed on the manifest of the aircraft involved. REEVES added that the Air Transportation Section is required to keep copies of aircraft manifests for one year.

3. On 9 Oct 69 EUGENE D. LAWRENCE, MSgt, FR 407-38-0038, Director of Air Transportation, 3201st Trans Sq, EAFB, FL, made available to the writer copies of all military air shipment manifests for the months of May, June and July 1969. Review of these manifests disclosed no information pertinent to this investigation.

4. On 9 Oct 69, NAOMI J. KING, GS-5, Freight Rate Assistant, 3201st Trans Sq, EAFB, FL, made available to the writer her log of all shipments received from Charleston, SC, from Jan 69 through Jul 69. Review of all GBL's concerning these shipments failed to disclose any information pertinent to this investigation.

5. On 9 Oct 69, WILLIAM N. GRIFFIN, Assistant Regional Commissioner, Alcohol, Tobacco andFirearms Tax Division, Internal Revenue Service, Southeast Region, Atlanta, GA, advised by letter that WERBELL had been interviewed by agents of his office on 16 Sep 69. GRIFFIN advised in summary as follows:

WERBELL stated the 11 Title II firearms shipped by SUBJECT to SIONICS on or about 11 April 1969 were obtained by WERBELL in Vietnam and registered during the amnesty period. SIONICS did not apply for or receive authorization to import these firearms. The Title II firearms received at Eglin AFB, FL during June 1969 were sent at WERBELL's request by ARPA. Col PATTERSON authorized the shipments after WERBELL had told PATTERSON that the firearms were for AF museum purposes. WERBELL reviewed the list of firearms currently being held by OSI at Eglin AFB, FL, and advised that all the sound suppressors, except the one marked HELE 4A, and the Winchester Model 52, Cal .22 rifle, SN 69494B, were the property of SIONICS and were taken or sent to Vietnam by him after approval of the shipment by the State Department. According to WERBELL, the Air Force agreed to send the weapons to Vietnam and return same to SIONICS; however, he could not produce written authorization for this action. WERBELL said the remainder of the firearms were to be sent to SUBJECT for the purpose of Air Force museum displays.

This report relates to an investigation conducted at the request of Chief Special Investigator, Jacksonville, Florida. The Office of Special Investigations, Eglin Air Force Base, Florida, in conjunction with Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms Division, Pensacola, Florida, is currently conducting an investigation regarding the alleged illegal importation of certain Title II firearms by Lt. Col. Paul A. Marriott.

On September 16, 1969, Special Investigator in Charge Arbie R. Odom, Jr. and I interviewed Mitchell L. WerBell III, at his residence in Powder Springs, Georgia. In answer to questions asked by Florida, we obtained the following information: (1) The shipment of firearms shipped by Lt. Col. Marriott on or about April 11, 1969, to Sionics, Atlanta, Georgia, contained 11 Title II firearms. These weapons were obtained by Mr. WerBell in Vietnam and registered during the amnesty period. Sionics did not apply for or receive authorization to import these firearms.

(2) The additional boxes of Title II firearms received at Eglin Air Force Base during June 1969, were sent at the request of Mr. WerBell by ARPA, and Col. Patterson authorized the shipments after Mr. WerBell told him they were for Air Force museum purposes. Mr. WerBell was shown a list of firearms contained in the two boxes currently being held by the OSI at Eglin Air Force Base and asked to identify any belonging to Sionics. He stated all the sound suppressors except the one marked HELE 4A, and the Winchester Model 52, caliber .22 rifle, serial number 69494B, were property of Sionics and were taken or sent to Vietnam by him. He stated these were taken over on approval of the State Department, and that the Air Force had agreed to send them to Vietnam and return them to Sionics; however, he has no written authorization. He stated the remainder of the firearms were given to him by authorized persons, and were to be given to the Air Force to put in museums.

Before Lt. Col, Marriott left Vietnam, Mr. WerBell told him he would attempt to obtain captured enemy weapons which he would send to Lt. Col. Marriott for the purpose of museum displays.

Lt. Col. Marriott told Mr. WerBell he thought the museum would be grateful for them. Mr. WerBell stated he did not file any Forms 6 on any of the firearms and had no knowledge of anyone else filing them.

Sionics is in the business of developing and manufacturing silencers for sale to United States Military Units and United States Allies. Although there are apparent violations of Title II of The Gun Control Act of 1968, it appears from talking to Mr. WerBell that on the part of Sionics, they were unintentional. Mr. WerBell stated that prior to the passing of the Gun Control Act of 1968, the procedure used in exporting and importing the firearms was the acceptable method with the State Department.

REPORT OF INTERVIEW

With Mitchell L. WerBell III, on September 16, 1969, at 2:30 p. m., at his residence at RFD#1, Powder Springs, Georgia, by Special Investigators Charles E. Stanfill and Arbie R. Odom, Jr.

This interview was conducted in the presence of Sionics President Fred N. Brown and Secretary-Treasurer Jo Florence. It was conducted in the basement of Mr. WerBell's residence, which is used as a laboratory for research and development for Sionics. Mr. WerBell is Vice-President and Director of Research and Development of Sionics. Sionics currently hold Federal Firearms License Number 58-3742, which expires March 31, 1970, as a manufacturer of firearms other than destructive devices, and License Number 58-6156 which expires May 18, 1970, as an importer of firearms other than destructive devices. Sionics is also holder of Special Occupational Tax Stamp Return Number 1-58611 169 85398, as a Class 1 Manufacturer (Firearms), and Return Number 1-58611 169 85399, as a Class 1 Importer (Firearms), both issued for the period beginning July 1, 1969. Sionics was also holder of a Class 1 Manufacturer Tax Stamp for the previous year, however, they did not hold an Importers Tax Stamp. According to officials of Sionics, they were a registered importer under the Munitions and Control Act, registered with the State Department. Mr WerBell stated as follows:

Mr. WerBell said he went to Vietnam in September of 1968 for the purpose of demonstrating "Sound Suppressors" manufactured by Sionics. He stated this trip was authorized by Mr. Stanford of the State Department, Munitions Control, Washington, D. C., who also authorized him to take and send weapons and sound suppressors for demonstrations, however, he has nothing in writing from them. He stated he took some of these weapons with him and sent the rest through the Air Force to Vietnam in care of Col. Fagen. Mr. WerBell stated that in the course of his business and travels, he was able to acquire 12 captured enemy weapons from the date of his arrival through about November of 1968. He said these weapons were given to him by General Dong of the South Vietnamese Army and by other authorized sources. He stated he sent descriptions and serial numbers of the firearms to Sionics in Atlanta, Georgia, with instructions to register them, and then asked Lt. Col. Marriott to ship them to the United States for him. He said he didn't think there was anything wrong with this procedure because of the military involvement, and that he didn't make application for importation of the firearms for the same reason.

Mr. WerBell said he told Lt. Col. Marriott he could pick out any of the weapons he wanted for the museum, and that he could take any that he had picked from the shipment when it arrived at Eglin Air Force Base. Mr. WerBell stated he wanted the firearms for research purposes, except for the Chinese Rocket Launcher, which he wanted for company display purposes. He stated some of the fighting units of Thailand are being furnished with captured enemy weapons, and that officials of Thailand had expressed an interest in Sound Suppressors for same. Mr. WerBell showed us an AK-47 which had a Sionics Sound Suppressor attached. Mr. WerBell stated before Lt. Col. Marriott returned to the United States, he advised him that he would attempt to obtain other captured weapons which he would give to Lt. Col. Marriott for the purpose of displaying in a museum, and that Lt. Col. Marriott told him he thought the museum would be grateful for them. He said he was hopeful at the time that arrangements could be made to transfer any of the weapons not used by the museum to Sionics, but he could not recall if this had been discussed with Lt. Col. Marriott.

Mr. WerBell stated he collected numerous captured enemy weapons during the next few months, and during that time he sent them in two cases to Eglin Air Force Base in care of Lt. Col. Marriott. He stated he sent these shipments through ARPA, and that Col. Patterson authorized the shipments after WerBell told him they were for Air Force museum purposes. Mr. WerBell again stated he thought there was nothing wrong with this procedure at the time because of the military involvement, and for that reason did not make application for importation of the firearms. Mr. WerBell was shown a list of firearms currently under seizure by the OSI, and ask to identify any belonging to Sionics. He stated weapons listed were the ones sent by him to Lt. Col. Marriott and that all the listed noise suppressors belonged to Sionics with the exception of the one marked HELE 4A, which is one he picked up that has been shot out, manufactured by a competitor. He also stated the .22 caliber Winchester M-52, serial number 69494B, with Scope, serial number 31411, belonged to Sionics. He stated the noise suppressors were manufactured by Sionics and either taken or sent to Vietnam by him. He stated he could not explain why one had no serial number without examining it, however, some of the earlier models had the serial number on a front part which may have been removed. He stated the Winchester rifle was also either taken or sent to Vietnam by him. Mr. WerBell stated as far as he was concerned, all the other firearms were the property of the United States Air Force, although he had hoped any that weren't used by the Air Force would be transferred to Sionics. Mr. WerBell further stated he left many firearms and suppressors in Thailand, which are in the custody of Major Stevens, 46th Group, Special Forces.

He stated he was waiting instructions from Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms Division before attempting to have them imported. He states most of the firearms were taken to Vietnam by him, however, some are weapons that he acquired there. (See attached list).

Mr. WerBell stated on his return to the United States he made an inventory of the firearms received from Eglin Air Force Base and found that he had made several errors when copying the serial numbers from the firearms, and thus some of the firearms had been registered on Form 4467's with wrong serial numbers. (See attached list). Mr. WerBell stated the errors were made by him, and they were made because of the condition of the numbers and the difficulty in reading them. Mr. WerBell said he had not notified the National Office of the errors, however, he would notify them now and ask instructions.

DETAILS:

1. ON 16 Oct 69, Mr. WILLIAM A. BANGERT, Assistant Director for Support Management. Office of the Secretary of Defense/Advance Research Projects Agency (OSD/ARPA) was interviewed by SA GERALD A. TRIMBLE and the writer at Bangkok, Thailand. BANGERT elected to execute a signed, sworn statement, the body of which is quoted verbatim as follows:

"This statement is made in response to inquiry by Special Agent Mr. Richard H. GRAHAM, Office of the Special Investigations, The Inspector General, USAF. concerning the person of one Mr. Mitchell L. WerBell, and specifically, the shipment of two (2) boxes containing assorted firearms from Bangkok, Thailand to Eglin Air Force Base, Florida. Only information based on first-hand knowledge and available records is contained in this statement.

"Statement: 1. Mr. Mitchell WerBell

"During the month of January 1969 (exact date unknown) I was introduced to Mr. Mitchell L. WerBell by Col. John V. Patterson, the former Deputy Director, RDC-T in the latter's office. Col. Patterson stated that Mr. WerBell was representing the SIONICS Corporation and the purpose of his visit was to show to the Thai and U.S. staff of the Military Research and Development Center (MRDC) an assortment of special weapons. I attended one of several so-called indoor demonstrations given by Mr. WerBell when I noticed approximately 3 - 4 custom-made, suit-case type containers in which these weapons were transported. When I casually questioned Mr. WerBell how he got these weapons into Thailand he answered that they were flown in from Vietnam by a Thai Royal Air Force transport plane at the request of Air Chief Marshal Dawee, Supreme Command Armed Forces. Concurrently Mr. WerBell produced a set of official U.S. Government Travel Orders approved by the American Embassy in Saigon and authorized by the Counselor for Administration, U.S. Embassy, Bangkok. As I recall, these orders specified travel by U.S. Military Aircraft authorized between Bangkok and Saigon and small arms and automatic weapons to accompany passenger.

"2. Shipment of Box No. 1

"Also during the month of January 1969 I received information from the Battelle Memorial Institute Laboratory Support Manager (BMI/LSM), Mr. Ross B. Young, that a box containing special weapons had been received in the MRDC warehouse. The box in question had been shipped via Military Aircraft by the U.S. Embassy in Saigon to RDC-T Bangkok, Attn: Mr. WerBell, SIONICS. The transportation and Movement Document DD Form 1384 listed the contents of the box as "official equipment".

"On 28 January 1969, I notified Mr. Ross B. Young (BMI/LSM) in writing that RDC-T had no contractual connections with the SIONICS Corporation, did not desire to store the equipment shipped by the U.S. Embassy in Saigon, and therefore, to return the shipment to the vendor via the Transportation Officer, Dobbins Air Force Base, Marietta, Georgia.

"On 31 January 1969, Mr. Ross B. Young, EMI/LSM acknowledged my 28 January 1969 memo cited above in writing and notified me that the requested shipment to the vendor via the Transportation Officer, Dobbins Air Force Base could not be accomplished because of the lack of official documentation required to effect shipment. I instructed Mr. Young verbally not to take any further action until appropriate disposition of the contents of the box in question had been resolved.

"On 3 February 1969, Col. John V. Patterson, Deputy Director, RDC-T suggested in a memorandum to Mr. Young and me that the box in question should be shipped via Military Air Transport (MAT) to Commander, Air Force Armament Laboratory, (DOL-AFSC) Eglin Air Force Base, Florida, Attention: Lt. Col. Paul A. Larriot, FR35859. In the same memorandum Col. John V. Patterson stated that he would attest to the nature and official aspects of this equipment. Several days later I learned from Mr. Ross Young that he had effected the shipment of Box 1 to Eglin Air Force Base on the basis of the instructions received from Col. John V. Patterson. (See Memorandum for the Record, Subject: Shipment of Weapons to A.F. Armament Laboratory, Eglin AFB, Florida, of June 13, 1969, signed: Ross B. Young.)

"A second box, allegedly containing assortment of firearms was delivered to the MRDC warehouse on or about 10 May 1969, according to the Memorandum for the Record of June 13, 1969, signed Ross B. Young. During this time I was on TDY in the U.S. and can only reference available documentation concerning the shipment of this box to Eglin AFB. According to the memorandum cited above, the EMI Laboratory Support Manager, Mr. Ross B. Young was advised by the Deputy Director, RDC-T to ship this box in the same manner similar to Box 1. With the permission of William R. Thompson, Senior Master Sergeant, USAF, I attach a memorandum for AD/PM, Subject: Shipment of Box Containing Armaments to Armaments Laboratory Eglin AFB., dtd 16 June 1969, Signed: William R. Thompson, SMSgt, USAF which was received by me upon return from the U.S."

Any errors in the above statement were typed from the original, which is being retained by OSI District #7, available to proper authority upon request. In addition to the above, BANGERT furnished a reproduced copy of the above described memorandum signed by SMSGT WILLIAM R. THOMPSON, which is quoted verbatim as follows:

On 12 November 1969, KARL D. ACKERMAN (former Counselor for Administration, United States Embassy, Bangkok, Thailand), 99 Victoria Drive, Atherton, California, was interviewed by SA ROBERT J. NOVACK and the writer, and related substantially as follows:

ACKERMAN had several conversations with Colonel WALTER ADAMS concerning the practical problems of getting weapons, belonging to a MITCHELL L. WERBELL, into Thailand from the Republic of Vietnam in order that WERBELL could put on a fire power demonstration for the King of Thailand's birthday. At all times during these conversations, ACKERMAN assumed the weapons were WERBELL's wares, and that he had brought them from the United States with him. With this in mind, ACKERMAN stated that he instructed Mr. GERALD T. CARTA to annotate WERBELL's travel orders with a Bangkok United States Embassy Funding Citation number. ACKERMAN said the citation numbers were in a block of numbers belonging to the Embassy, and because he did not feel he had the authority to issue WERBELL any other type of number, he issued him an Embassy number. When ACKERMAN was asked if he knew PAUL ARNOLD MARRIOTT, he said the name was vaguely familiar but could not recall anything further. When ACKERMAN was asked if he knew EARLENE DOBBS, he stated that he did not, to the best of his knowledge. ACKERMAN stated that his knowledge of WERBELL came solely from ADAMS and other stories he heard around the Embassy of the fire power demonstration to be given for the King. ACKERMAN stated he had no personal knowledge of WERBELL.

SYNOPSIS

Information re: WERBELL, as contained in files of OSI District 50, obtained and set forth. CARTA advised WERBELL, during Jan 69, requested his assistance in shipping various captured enemy automatic weapons and official equipment from Saigon to Bangkok. WERBELL was traveling on a U. S. Invitational Travel Order, without funding citation, authorizing space available travel only from Bangkok to Saigon and return. CARTA stated WERBELL told him he had collected the weapons while in northern sectors of RVN, with U. S. Army Airborne and Special Forces units. Packaging and preparation of Transportation Control and Movement Documents (TCMD) were prepared by U.S. Embassy, Saigon. CARTA did not know why one TCMD reflected antique arms when contents were known to be automatic weapons. CARTA received authorization and funding citation number for WERBELL's shipment from the Counselor for Administration, U.S. Embassy, Bangkok. This was only shipment processed by CARTA for WERBELL. CARTA did not know of or process any shipments for SUBJECT and/or SIONICS, INC.

DETAILS

1. On 20 September 1969, Mr. GERALD T. CARTA, Staff Operations Officer, U.S. Embassy, Saigon, Republic of Vietnam (RVN), was interviewed with the assistance of SA RONALD A. CUNDIFF and provided the following information:

During early January 1969, a Mr. MITCHELL WERBELL, a senior officer in an American firm (NFI), came to his office requesting assistance in shipping one or two cartons of captured automatic weapons to Bangkok, Thailand. WERBELL stated that he was a weapons expert and was in the RVN on invitation from the U.S. Government to demonstrate some of his new weapon accessory inventions to the military services of the RVN and Thailand. WERBELL indicated that he had just spent the last 2-4 weeks in various northern sectors of the RVN, with U.S. Army Airborne and Special Forces units. During this period WERBELL had collected various captured enemy automatic weapons. He advised that he needed these weapons for examination, in that he was in the process of designing a new automatic weapon that would far surpass the capabilities of the best foreign made automatic weapon. WERBELL produced an Invitational Travel Order, issued by the USAF Air Attache, Bangkok, Thailand. This travel order was approved by the Counselor for Administration (CFA), U.S. Embassy, Bangkok, Thailand. This travel order authorized WERBELL to travel, on a space available basis, from Thailand to the RVN and return. The travel order did not reflect a funding citation, which is necessary to ship any large items aboard a military aircraft. WERBELL stated that he had attempted to ship these weapons aboard military aircraft stationed at Tan Son Nhut AB (TSNAB), RVN, however, because his orders did not reflect the necessary funding citation, he was sent to the U.S. Embassy. WERBELL indicated he was going to use these captured weapons in a fire power demonstration, to be held for the King of Thailand on his birthday, which was on the following Saturday. WERBELL stated he was a personal friend of the King and Queen of Thailand and numbered among his friends many high ranking military and civilian officials of the Thai government. CARTA placed a long distance call to the CFA, U.S. Embassy, Bangkok, Thailand. The CFA advised that WERBELL was expected in Thailand by the King for a weapon demonstration, to be held on the King's birthday. The CFA was informed that WERBELL wanted to ship one or two heavy cartons to Thailand. The CFA then gave CARTA the Bangkok U.S. Embassy funding citation, with instructions to have same added to WERBELL's travel orders. He then asked the CFA: "Do you know what he wants to ship?" and the CFA replied: "Yes, it's okay". After this conversation the weapons were packed, along with some items of official equipment, as identified by WERBELL. Transportation Control and Movement Documents were executed and signed by CARTA. The U.S. Embassy, Bangkok, Thailand, funding citation was reflected on these documents. At no time did CARTA examine the contents of the boxes. CARTA identified the Transportation Control and Movement Documents reflected as attachments 1 and 3, ROI, D07, 2 Sep 69, as the ones executed and signed by him. CARTA could provide no explanation as to why one of the Transportation Control and Movement Documents (Atch 1) reflected the contents as antique arms. CARTA stated that he knew of no other shipments of firearms that had been processed by WERBELL. He concluded that he does not know SUBJECT, nor has he ever processed any shipments under SUBJECT's name or for SIONICS, INC.

2. On 24 September 1969, a review by SA CUNDIFF of case file 50D24G-133, of which WERBELL is the SUBJECT, revealed the following information:

WERBELL was in the RVN in an unofficial status, with the concurrence of ASD, Wright-Patterson AFB, OH, to demonstrate a noise and flash suppressor assembly for the M-16 rifle, as well as other firearms equipment. He possessed no security clearance. He was to demonstrate his equipment only in the RVN and was then to return to the U.S. Upon his arrival in the RVN, he was given a Military Assistance Command Vietnam (MACV) Identification and Privilege Card (MACV Form 6) for use while in country. The application for this card was filled out by Col WILLIAM M. FAGAN, Commander, Det 6, ASD, TSNAB, RVN. The card, to expire Mar 69, was only to reflect WERBELL was to have BX privileges, and no grade or rank was reflected intentionally. The card that was finally issued reflected equivalent rank of GS-16 and gave WERBELL postal, BX, commissary and check privileges for a period of one year, to Sep 69. The application form was adjusted to show this and someone other than FAGAN placed FAGAN's initials in the appropriate blocks to obtain these privileges.

SUBJECT was the individual who met WERBELL upon his arrival in country, and who took care of getting his weapons registered in accordance with MACV directives. SUBJECT also set up the demonstrations WERBELL was to give.

At the conclusion of the demonstrations, rather than return to the U.S., WERBELL traveled to Bangkok and Korea, utilizing his MACV ID card and dropping names of alleged acquaintances of high reputation in order to show his equipment in those countries. FAGAN obtained the MACV ID card from WERBELL in Bangkok on 8 May 69.

3. On 24 September 1969, a review by SA CUNDIFF of 50D24G-0/86 revealed the following information concerning WERBELL:

FAGAN advised that in Jan 69, WERBELL stated he had captured weapons he wanted to ship back. FAGAN told him he would help through legitimate channels if the weapons were for a government agency; otherwise, he would ship back only the equipment WERBELL brought over. FAGAN heard no more from WERBELL until early Feb 69, when WERBELL stated he was ready to leave and would bring the items to be shipped. He was told by FAGAN to bring the items in an open box, which would be sealed at the aerial port.

FAGAN was unable to locate WERBELL after that meeting until 8 May 69, when he located WERBELL in Bangkok to retrieve the MACV ID card. WERBELL requested FAGAN to ship some gear from Saudi, Arabia, to the U.S. FAGAN again replied he would ship back only the original equipment from TSNAB.

The files contained no further information pertinent to the present investigation.

DETAILS

1. On 28 July 1969, SUBJECT Voluntarily appeared at OSI Detachment 710. Eglin AFB, FL and released a previously prepared signed, notarized, undated statement pertinent portions of which are set forth as follows:

Read carefully Att.

> My assignment is Assistant to the Commander of the Air Force Armament Laboratory. I am responsible for many staff duties, the following of which bear directly upon my official actions which were taken in connection with the matter being investigated. (These, of course, are known by Colonel Martin). Although SIONICS never has made a sale to the Air Force Armament Laboratory, or been awarded a contract by the lab, they are working on developments related to laboratory requirements and continue to try to come up with attractive proposals. They are welcome to keep working to meet our requirements as are other contractors who naturally try to make sales.
> As AFSC munitions specialist in SEA for the second tour, during 1969, I was directed officially to work with SIONICS in the combat theater. The AFSC Liaison detachment was requested by its chain-of-command supervisor, Colonel Louis Schaffer, AFSC Assistant for Limited War, Hq ASD (ASJ), WPAFB, to afford the SIONICS representative every assistance to include assisting him to get materials in and out of the country (Vietnam), to introduce him to units in the theater to whom he could demonstrate SIONICS items developed to use in combat, to advise and assist him in obtaining quarters and transportation, and in short, to assist him in every way to perform his mission. The recipient of this direction was Colonel William Fagan, Commander of the AFSC Liaison Detachment and my boss in SEA.
> The facts in this paragraph are set down only because of the nature of the questions raised by the OSI. First, why did we telephone SIONICS? We have already mentioned the base defense proposal SIONICS wishes to submit and for which they made advance queries. In addition to this subject, SIONICS called frequently to find out if we had received evaluations through the SEA liaison office of the items placed throughout the combat theater as previously explained. Many of these were still outstanding when I left Vietnam. We checked to see if any had been received after each call and called back. Sometimes we were out when called and were requested to call back. Also, of course, there were calls about the shipments. Second, what are our personal relations with SIONICS? AFSC liaison office in SEA and for the Armament Lab as herein explained. My actions have been directed and authorized or no special or unusual favors have been done for SIONICS. I have had only one social contact with Mr. Brown. A few weeks ago, the Browns

(of SIONICS) took us to an Atlanta Braves-Los Angeles Dodgers baseball game and the next evening we invited them to dinner as our guest at the Marriott Hotel. We spent more on them than they had on us. We have many contractor friends and acquaintances and are very careful to go "Dutch" in social affairs. This is the standard and the requirement for military people who have dealings with contractors. Regulations prohibit us from accepting any form of gratuity so we make certain we go more than half way in meeting social obligations. We have no especial relations or connections with SIONICS or any other contractor, nor has SIONICS ever suggested or hinted we have any. Further SIONICS has never demonstrated or hinted at any tendency to evade laws, licenses or other requirements.

The original of the above statement is being retained in the files of OSI District 7 and will be available to proper authority upon request. A reproduced copy of the statement is appended to this report as an attachment.

2. On 5 August 1969, Mr. ROBERT CORBIN, Investigator, Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms Control Division, Internal Revenue Service, Pensacola, FL, telephonically advised that his agency had initiated an investigation concerning the involvement of SIONICS, Inc in this matter but that results of their inquiry were not yet available. CORBIN advised that his agency would furnish the results of their investigation upon completion.

3. On 20 August 1969, William GOODMAN, Special Investigator, Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms Control Division, Internal Revenue Services, Pensacola, Florida advised Special Agent Grover C. Ayers, Jr. that investigation being conducted by his service is continuing; however, he has not received any additional information from the Atlanta, Ga Office. He advised that upon receipt of additional information it would immediately be made available to OSI.

4. On 22 August 1969, ABNER B. MARTIN, Colonel, SSAN: 251-30-1478FR, Commander, Air Force Armament Laboratory (AFATL), Eglin AFB, FL was interviewed at his duty station and advised substantially as follows: AFATL developes all types of weapons for the USAF, but very few small arms are required, therefore there is little activity in the small arms area. At the present AFATL is developing a survival weapon which is in the small arms area. SUBJECT, as a representative of AFATL while on TDY in SEA could send captured enemy weapons of any type or quantity to AFATL for test purposes, based on his judgment, if he followed established procedures which would include notifying AFATL that such weapons were being sent back. Colonel MARTIN stated that to the best of his knowledge AFATL received no indication or notification that any such weapons were being sent to AFATL. Colonel MARTIN further stated that the enemy weapons in this case could conceivably be used either in testing or as museum pieces. Colonel MARTIN also said that he felt it unusual that SUBJECT would have such frequent telephonic conversations with SIONICS at government expense. Colonel MARTIN further stated that the AFATL has no contract with SIONICS, nor has the USAF ever had any contract with SIONICS and SUBJECT had no authority to ship any weapons to SIONICS for any purpose.

5. On 27 August 1969, CLARENCE M. COOLEY, GS-9, SSAN 505-32-7744, Logistics Officer, AFATL (ATDA-Log), was reinterviewed at Eglin AFB, FL, and advised that when weapons are shipped by his office, they are always listed by serial number, and he at no time told SUBJECT that he should list a shipment of weapons as "miscellaneous equipment". COOLEY further stated that to the best of his knowledge no shipments are made from AFATL to a non-contractor.

6. On 27 August 1969, PAUL (NMN) ARNOLD, SSgt, FR489-38-5452, Logistics Office, AFATL, Eglin AFB, FL, was reinterviewed at his duty station and advised that at no time did he advise SUBJECT that a shipment of weapons could be listed as "miscellaneous equipment". ARNOLD further stated that weapons are always shipped by serial number, in accordance with the SOP which so specifies.

7. On 27 August 1969, EUCLIDE P. BEAUDOIN, GS-12, SSAN: 087-14-3917, Staff Transportation Office, 3201st Transportation Squadron, Eglin AFB, FL, advised at his duty station that sometime subsequent to 15 July 1969, SUBJECT telephoned him at his office and inquired as to the proper procedures for shipping material to Air Force Contractors; and if a memorandum signed by a "responsible officer" would serve as justification for the shipment. BEAUDOIN stated that he advised SUBJECT that any property being sent at government expense to a contractor had to be contractorally authorized prior to being shipped and to have been cleared through the base contracting office. BEAUDOIN stated that he further advised SUBJECT that the justification should contain the statement that the item being shipped was government property and that receipt of the material being sent by the contractor was advantageous to the government.

8. On 27 August 1969, DALE M. DAVIS, GS-15, SSAN: 232-42-3600, Technical Director of Guns and Rockets, AFATL, Eglin AFB, FL was interviewed at his duty station and advised that prior to Colonel PINKSTON's retirement he had worked in the same facility with him. DAVIS further advised that as early as April or May 1967, his facility had been experimenting with noise supressors manufactured by SIONICS, which were furnished to AFATL at no expense to the government for evaluation. DAVIS also stated that AFATL has no contract with SIONICS nor does he know of any plans to enter into a contract with SIONICS, due to the fact that the Air Force has no need at this time for noise supressors. DAVIS added that in his opinion AFATL would need not more than one of each type of foreign weapon for evaluation by AFATL and he knew of no requirement to send any weapons to SIONICS.

SYNOPSIS

Investigation requested by Comdr, Eglin AFB, FL on 7 Jul 69, to determine circumstances surrounding importation of 3 boxes of captured enemy weapons by SUBJECT. Two boxes containing a total of 21 weapons, 5 noise suppressors, and related equipment seized. Both boxes marked for SUBJECT. Munitions officials advised boxes were stored at request of SUBJECT. Deputy Comdr, AFATL, advised his agency was queried by ARPA, a DOD agency, about a box of weapons being sent through ARPA channels. Investigation disclosed SUBJECT sent 12 weapons to Eglin AFB from SEA while TDY in RVN in Nov 68. Eleven of these weapons were subsequently shipped from Eglin AFB to Sionics, Atlanta, at SUBJECT's request and at government expense. The twelfth weapon recovered at Eglin AFB. Deputy Comdr, AFATL, advised SUBJECT had no known authority to send weapons from SEA nor to ship weapons to Sionics; Sionics does not have AF contract. Records reflect SUBJECT, since Nov 68, has placed 7 long distance telephone calls to Sionics, at government expense. In verbal statement, SUBJECT advised he shipped one box containing 12 captured enemy weapons from SEA in approximately Nov 68 as part of his assigned duties to assist Vice-President of Sionics; that 11 of the weapons were subsequently forwarded to Sionics in Mar 69, because he considered Sionics an AF contractor. He advised that official telephone calls were placed for same reason. SUBJECT stated he acted as an agent for the USAF in all instances. He declined to execute a written statement at this time. SUBJECT's former supervisor in SEA advised that he did not authorize or direct the shipment of any captured enemy weapons to Sionics. Matter coordinated with U. S. Treasury agents who opined that SUBJECT was in violation of Public Law 90-618.

DETAILS

1. This investigation was requested by the Commander, Eglin AFB, Florida on 7 July 1969, based on a request from the Commander, Air Force Armament Laboratory (AFATL), Eglin AFB, to determine the circumstances surrounding the importation of three boxes of captured enemy weapons by PAUL ARNOLD MARRIOTT (SUBJECT), Lt Col, 513-10-4236FR, AFATL, during the approximate period of November 1968 - July 1969.

2. On 7 July 1969, at Eglin AFB, Florida, a letter dated 3 July 1969, from the Commander, AFATL, was reviewed and the body of the letter is set forth as follows:

"1. It is requested that an investigation be conducted to determine if the laws/regulations regarding the importation of firearms have been complied with in the following instance.

"a. Approximately the first week in June Mr Beard of ARPA called Colonel Berkow of ADTC and inquired about a box of enemy weapons that had been shipped through the transportation capabilities of ARPA to Eglin AFB, Attention of Lt Colonel P. A. Marriott. Colonel Berkow called the Armament Laboratory (AFATL) since Lt Colonel Marriott is assigned to AFATL.

"b. A search was made to locate the shipment. Two boxes were found each containing North Vietnamese weapons. Both boxes were addressed as follows: FB2823 USAF (DOL-AFSC) Attn L/C P. A. Marriott.

"c. Subsequently, it was discovered that a shipment of North Vietnamese weapons and ammunition had been received at Eglin in early March and had been reshipped to Sionics Corporation, 1655 Peachtree Street, N.E., Atlanta, Georgia. The attached documents pertain to this shipment.

"2. Colonel J. H. Hobaugh, telephone 882-2763, will be available to discuss in more detail the above information."

The above letter is being retained in the files of OSI District 7 and will be available to proper authority upon request.

3. On 9 July 1969, J. T. KING, Lt Col, 472-12-2614FR, Staff Judge Advocate, 3201st Air Base Group, Eglin AFB, Florida, was apprised of the information contained in the above letter, by SA WILLIAM D. DIXON. KING advised that in his opinion, there existed probable cause to warrant the issuance by the Base Commander of an authorization for search and seizure of any captured enemy weapons contained in the storage facilities of the 3207th Armament and Munitions Test Support Squadron (AMTS), Eglin AFB.

Reviewed By AFOSI
For Public Disclosure
In Accordance With
JFKARCA, 1992
14 AUG 95

KING also opined that there was probably a violation of Public Law 90-618 (Gun Control Act of 1968), possibly a violation of customs regulations, and possibly a fraud in that government transportation facilities had been misused.

4. On 9 July 1969, DONALD V. THOMPSON, Colonel, 472-12-2614FR, Deputy Commander, 3201st Air Base Group, Eglin AFB, Florida, was briefed concerning this matter, by SA DIXON. Colonel THOMPSON subsequently executed an Authority to Search and Seize, thereby authorizing the seizure of any captured enemy weapons contained in the storage facilities of the 3207th AMTS.

5. On 9 July 1969, a search of the storage facilities of the 3207th AMTS, Building 1270, Eglin AFB, Florida, was conducted by SA DIXON, in presence of JOSIAH C. MUSICK, CMSgt, FR361-07-1904, and CLARENCE M. GREEN, SMSgt, FR250-44-2188, NCOIC and Assistant NCOIC, respectively. The search revealed the presence of two packing crates marked for SUBJECT containing a total of 21 various automatic weapons, five noise suppressors, two range finders, 32 ammunition magazines and a brass plaque mounted on a piece of wood. The crates and contents were seized and taken as evidence against proper receipt and are being held by the evidence custodian of OSI Detachment 710, Eglin AFB, Florida, and are available to proper authority upon request.

6. On 11 July 1969, this investigation was coordinated with WILLIAM C. GOODMAN, SSAN: 579-20-9774, and ROBERT E. SANDERS, SSAN: 150-26-6417, Special Investigators, Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms Control Division, Internal Revenue Service (Treasury Department), Pensacola, Florida, at Eglin AFB, Florida. GOODMAN advised that based on the available information, it appears that SUBJECT is in violation of Public Law 90-618; however, he would query his headquarters in Atlanta, Georgia and Washington, D. C. in an attempt to ascertain if SUBJECT had applied for permission to import the weapons or had submitted application to register the weapons. GOODMAN added that his inquiry would be accomplished by the most expeditious means available. GOODMAN and SANDERS requested that they be present during the photographing and identification of the weapons and during all interviews of witnesses and SUBJECT during this investigation.

7. On 11 July 1969, at Eglin AFB, Florida, the weapons were photographed in the presence of the writer, SA DIXON, GOODMAN and SANDERS, by CARL (NMI) CASSULO, SSgt, FR122-14-3910, Photographic Laboratory, Eglin AFB. The weapons are further identified as follows:

8. On 14 July 1969, JOHN H. HOBAUGH, Colonel, 165-05-2634FR, Deputy Commander, AFATL, Eglin AFB, Florida, was interviewed at his duty station by GOODMAN and the writer. Colonel HOBAUGH advised substantially as follows: The first part of June 1969, he received a telephone call from Colonel BERKOW of the Armament Development and Test Center (ADTC), Eglin AFB. Colonel BERKOW stated that he had received a call from a Mr. BEARD (NFI) of the Advance Research Project Agency (ARPA), a DOD agency, who inquired about a box of enemy weapons that had been shipped through the transportation capabilities of ARPA to Eglin AFB, to the attention of Lt Col P. A. MARRIOTT. At this time Colonel HOBAUGH attempted to contact SUBJECT, but was unable to do so as SUBJECT was on leave; however, he left a message for SUBJECT to call him the next day. The next day SUBJECT called Colonel HOBAUGH and was instructed to telephonically contact Mr. BEARD and explain to BEARD the circumstances surrounding the shipping of the enemy weapons. At this time Colonel HOBAUGH went on leave, returning about 1 July 1969. Upon his return to duty, Colonel HOBAUGH was asked by Colonel MARTIN, Commander, AFATL, to look into the circumstances surrounding the shipment of enemy weapons and ammunition to Sionics from Eglin AFB, Florida and at the same time showing Colonel HOBAUGH a shipping document, dated 13 March 1969, requesting the shipment of two boxes of miscellaneous equipment to Sionics, 1655 Peachtree Street, NE, Atlanta, Georgia 30309, Attn: Mr. FRED BROWN, signed by SUBJECT. Colonel HOBAUGH further stated that the boxes of so called miscellaneous equipment were found to contain weapons and ammunition and were therefore repacked and shipped by the organizational logistics personnel according to their instructions from SUBJECT.

Colonel HOBAUGH advised that SUBJECT made several conflicting statements concerning his knowledge of how the enemy weapons got into the U.S. from the Republic of Vietnam (RVN). SUBJECT stated that he thought the weapons were registered by Sionics; SUBJECT stated that he thought the weapons were for the museum at Eglin AFB; and SUBJECT denied any knowledge of how any of the boxes of enemy weapons were sent to Eglin AFB. SUBJECT stated to Colonel HOBAUGH that while assigned to 7th Air Force in RVN, he acted as escort officer for MITCHELL WER BELL III, Vice-President of Sionics, and during such duties introduced WER BELL to several agencies. Colonel HOBAUGH also recalled that SUBJECT had stated that WER BELL was in RVN under Air Force sponsorship and was a close friend of the Thai Chief of Staff. Colonel HOBAUGH recalled that Colonel BILL FAGAN was SUBJECT's supervisor in RVN. Colonel HOBAUGH stated that to the best of his knowledge the Air Force museum at Eglin AFB has only a few old Viet Cong weapons as the museum was appointed to display weapons of U.S. origin and the Air Force Laboratory has no test program for enemy weapons. Furthermore, no need exists for enemy weapons at Eglin AFB. Colonel HOBAUGH stated that it is not likely that SUBJECT had any authority to ship any enemy weapons from RVN, and SUBJECT unequivocally had no authority to ship any weapons to Sionics as the Air Force Laboratory at Eglin AFB presently has no contract with Sionics, nor has it ever had a contract with Sionics for any purpose.

10. On 15 July 1969, OTIS R. FRYE, WS-8, SSAN: 228-10-2575, Freight Checker, 3201st Transportation Squadron, Eglin AFB, Florida, advised at Eglin AFB, that a review of his files revealed a copy of a Government Bill of Lading (GBL) Nr Z-6,684,529, dated 19 May 1969, which reflected an incoming shipment of firearms weighing 183 pounds, from Chief, JUSMAG Thailand, Bangkok, Thailand, through Charleston AFB, South Carolina to Eglin AFB, Florida. The shipment was marked: USAF ARMAMENT LABORATORY (DOL-AFSC) ATTN: LTC P. A. MARRIOTT. The shipment arrived at Eglin AFB, Florida on 2 June 1969 and was receipted for by CHARLIE B. MOBLEY, SSgt, 3207th AMTS on 7 July 1969. FRYE furnished the above document to the writer. A reproduced copy of the document is appended to this report as an attachment. The copy furnished by FRYE is being retained in the files of OSI District 7 and will be released to proper authority upon request. Copy +

11. On 15 July 1969, S. F. REEVES, GS-8, SSAN: 261-50-7220, Shipment Planner, 3201st Transportation Squadron, Eglin AFB, Florida, advised at Eglin AFB that a review of his files revealed a copy of a GBL, Nr F-0,648,922, dated 28 March 1969, with an attached DD Form 1149 (REQUISITION AND INVOICE/SHIPPING DOCUMENT), dated 13 March 1969, Requisition Nr FB2823 9073X100XXX, both of which he furnished to the writer. A review of these documents revealed that an outgoing shipment consisting of one box of small arms ammunition weighing 55 pounds and a box of captured enemy weapons, weighing 140 pounds, was shipped from AFATL (ATEL), Eglin AFB, Florida 32542 (Mr. COOLEY/882-2328) to Sionics, 1655 Peachtree Street N.E., Atlanta, Georgia 30309, Attn: Mr. FRED BROWN. The DD Form 1149 reflects serial numbers for the 11 weapons as follows: 4514, 1300273, 35285, 68149, 12099391, 928231, 8414320, 12047120, 411564, 700867 and 930843.

12. On 15 July 1969, CLARENCE M. COOLEY, GS-9, SSAN: 505-32-7744, Logistics Officer, AFATL (ATDA-Log), was interviewed at Eglin AFB, Florida, and advised as follows: On 13 March 1969, Sgt ARNOLD of his office advised him that there were two boxes of small arms and ammunition in the logistics storage facility for SUBJECT. COOLEY stated that he advised SUBJECT that the arms and ammunition could not be shipped without authorization. SUBJECT therefore requested by letter dated 13 March 1969 that the arms and ammunition be shipped as miscellaneous equipment to Sionics, 1655 Peachtree Street, Atlanta, Georgia 30309, Attn: Mr. FRED BROWN. COOLEY therefore made the arrangements for the shipment and the DD Form 1149, Nr FB2823 9073 X100XXX was executed. A file containing the following documents was furnished to the writer by COOLEY:

a. Original letter dated 13 March 1969, signed by SUBJECT, requesting Mr. COOLEY to ship two boxes of miscellaneous equipment to Sionics.

b. Form letter dated 8 April 1969, to Sionics advising them of the shipment of weapons and ammunition to them; this letter reflects shipment received on 11 April 1969.

c. Two copies of AF Form 1149 (with air movement designator FB 5629 8325X002, 20 Nov 68) reflecting the shipment of a total of 12 captured enemy weapons, 19 magazines, 2 pouches with magazines, and 1 circular drum, from Hq 7 AF DAFSC APO 96307 to ACK 2823 Eglin AFB, FL 32542, marked: Hold for LtCol MARRIOTT.

The above mentioned DD Form 1149 further reflects that an attempt has been made to obliterate one of the serial numbers from the list of 12 weapons. The effaced serial number appears to be 9473736.

COOLEY advised that the box of weapons was opened on 13 March 1969 in the presence of SUBJECT and Sgt ARNOLD, and that they should have knowledge of the missing weapon.

The above mentioned documents are being retained in the files of OSI District 7 and are available to proper authority upon request. Copies of the documents are appended to this report as attachments.

13. On 15 July 1969, JOHN C. LYNCH, SMSgt, FR215-22-3876, First Sergeant, AFATL, Eglin AFB, Florida, furnished to the writer the AF Forms 1072 (AUTHORIZED LONG DISTANCE TELEPHONE CALLS) for the period from 1 December 1968 to date. A review of these forms disclosed that SUBJECT placed seven long distance telephone calls to either Mr. FRED BROWN or Sionics at telephone numbers 404-873-3672, 404-873-3673, and 404-366-7120 during the period from 2 December 1968 to 9 July 1969. The documents for the pertinent periods are being retained in the files of OSI District 7, available to proper authority upon request.

14. On 15 July 1969, LIDA R. McEWEN, SSAN: 372-22-1834, Secretary, AFATL, Eglin AFB, Florida, advised that she recalled SUBJECT personally placed a long distance telephone call to Sionics in approximately December 1968.

15. On 16 July 1969, PAUL (NMN) ARNOLD, SSgt, FR489-38-5452, Logistics Office, AFATL, Eglin AFB, Florida, was interviewed at his duty station and advised substantially as follows: On 13 March 1969, SUBJECT informed him that there were two boxes in the AFATL storage facility that had to be shipped out. ARNOLD subsequently went to the storage facility with SUBJECT and Capt JERRY McEWEN where the two boxes were opened and were found to contain weapons and ammunition. Among the weapons there was one that had apparently been damaged in combat and both SUBJECT and McEWEN expressed a great deal of interest in the weapon. ARNOLD stated that he left the storage facility to proceed to packing and crating to make arrangements for the shipment, and SUBJECT and McEWEN were left alone in the facility with the weapons. ARNOLD stated that he did not see either SUBJECT or McEWEN remove a weapon from that area, but he felt that one or the other took the weapon, therefore explaining why only 11 weapons were shipped to Sionics.

16. On 16 July 1969, JERALD B. MASSEY, Lt Col, 711-14-9602FR, Commander, 3207th AMTS, advised at Eglin AFB, Florida that in approximately February 1969, someone from SUBJECT's office called him to ask if a box of arms could be stored for a few days. He assented and the box was therefore stored in Building 1270 until seized by OSI on 9 July 1969.

17. On 16 July 1969, WARREN G. COOK, CMSgt, FR015-16-6519, 3207th AMTS, advised at Eglin AFB, Florida that on 6 July 1969, SUBJECT called and requested that a box of weapons, which was at that time in the transportation storage locker, be picked up by COOK and placed in the AMTS storage area until such time as SUBJECT could get some plaques made so that the weapons could be displayed in the AFATL museum. Sgt MOBLEY was therefore instructed by COOK to proceed to transportation and pick up the box of weapons, at which time the weapons were stored in Building 1270 and remained there until seized by OSI on 9 July 1969.

18. On 17 July 1969, SUBJECT was interviewed by GOODMAN, supra, and the writer at OSI Detachment 710, Eglin AFB, Florida. Prior to the interview SUBJECT was advised of the nature of the investigation; of his rights under the provisions of Article 31, UCMJ; of his right to remain silent; his right to have a lawyer present during the interview; and that he could obtain a civilian lawyer of his own choosing, at his own expense, or if he wished, the Air Force would appoint a military lawyer for him free of charge. SUBJECT advised that he wished to waive his rights and made the following verbal statement:

In approximately November 1968, while assigned to 7th Air Force Headquarters, RVN, as a munitions expert, he was ordered by his OIC, Colonel FAGAN, to assist and support WER BELL, the Vice-President of Sionics, to the fullest extent possible. Therefore, when WER BELL asked SUBJECT to send a box of 12 captured weapons to the U.S., SUBJECT complied by sending the weapons through official channels to Eglin AFB, Florida, as he (SUBJECT) considered Sionics, and therefore WER BELL, an official Air Force contractor. On approximately 13 March 1969, at SUBJECT's request, 11 of the 12 weapons sent to Eglin AFB by him were further sent to Sionics, after FRED BROWN, President of Sionics, assured SUBJECT that the weapons had been licensed and registered with the proper authorities. The shipment was sent to Sionics through official government transportation channels, at government expense. SUBJECT also admitted placing approximately 7 long distance telephone calls since November 1968 from his office at Eglin AFB, Florida to Sionics or FRED BROWN in Atlanta, Georgia, at government expense as he (SUBJECT) stated that Sionics is an Air Force contractor. SUBJECT further stated that he had the twelfth weapon that was sent to Eglin AFB from SEA in approximately November 1968 stored in the lock-up room at Range 22, Eglin AFB. SUBJECT also advised that during the approximate period of February to June 1969, two additional boxes of captured enemy weapons were sent to Eglin AFB, Florida (Attn: Lt Col P. A. MARRIOTT) from Bangkok, Thailand, by (to the best of SUBJECT's knowledge) WER BELL. SUBJECT then asked the appropriate personnel at Eglin AFB to store the weapons for safekeeping and SUBJECT stated that if the weapons were not sent to Sionics, he assumed the weapons would be sent to the Air Force museum at Eglin AFB. SUBJECT further stated that as the officer responsible for the Air Force museum, he had been ordered to procure foreign weapons for the museum. SUBJECT stated that he at all times acted as an agent for the USAF, and at no time acted on his own. SUBJECT subsequently released to the writer against proper receipt, an AKA-47 Assault Rifle, S/N 9473736, one of the 12 captured enemy weapons sent by SUBJECT from RVN in approximately November 1968. It was noted that when SUBJECT removed the weapon from the lock-up area at Range 22, Eglin AFB, that it was marked with SUBJECT's name on the stock. The above mentioned weapon is being retained at OSI Detachment 710 by the evidence custodian, available to proper authority upon request.

19. On 18 July 1969, SUBJECT was reinterviewed at OSI Detachment 710 by the writer, in the presence of THOMAS F. KERN, Capt, 579-46-3076FR, Assistant Staff Judge Advocate, after SUBJECT was again advised of his rights as set forth in paragraph 18, above. SUBJECT advised that based on advice of his legal counsel, he wished to make no statement until sometime in the future. The interview was then terminated.

20. On 18 July 1969, Internal Revenue Service Publication 627 (1-69), Gun Control Act of 1968 (Public Law 90-618), was reviewed at Eglin AFB, Florida by the writer. Pertinent portions of this document are set forth as follows:

21. On 21 July 1969, WILLIAM M. FAGAN, Colonel, 533-14-6288FV, SUBJECT's former commander in RVN, was interviewed at his summer home in Destin, Florida. Colonel FAGAN executed a sworn statement, pertinent portions of which are set forth as follows:

"On or about 5 Sept 68 I was advised that a Mr. Mitchell Wer Bell of Sionics was arriving at Saigon Airport and would bring some munitions equipment (guns and suppressors) for demonstration  "I assigned Lt Col Marriott the task of handling all facets of Mr Wer Bell's visit which he did by meeting Mr Wer Bell at the Commercial Terminal and assisted him to get settled in a hotel. Mr Wer Bell was in RVN as a private citizen and we were aware that he had no security clearance. * "I departed on a Trip to CONUS at the end of Nov 68 and returned to Saigon 13 Dec 68. Mr Wer Bell was still in SEA, but I did not know where. I was aware a shipment of guns had gone to Eglin during my absence but had already arranged through the Commander of FTD W-PAFB that we should have shipped such items to FTD and they would forward them to the designated base. I did nothing to counter this Nov 68 shipment as it was going to the A.F. Armament Lab for a "museum". ******

"In early Feb 69 I found Mr Wer Bell and we concluded that he would leave RVN about 17 Feb 69 and he would give me his MACV form 6 and I would ship back only what he brought over. I was very specific about no enemy weapons being involved and if he had such for the Air Force, that I would ship them to FTD as instructed. After my return from my second CONUS trip on 23 Apr 69 I found that Wer Bell did not depart RVN. I asked around for him and heard many stories of his activities and felt I should take direct action. I called the OSI

I went there with a Capt Gaylord and got back the MACV form 6. On 14 May I turned it over to the OSI. I felt that I had closed out our sponsorship, but also felt his (Wer Bell's) activities in SEA warranted investigation. This is why I went to the OSI. I did not authorize or direct the shipment of any captured enemy weapons to Mr Wer Bell and/or Sionics."

STATEMENT OF WITNESS

Destin Flordia (Place)
21 July 69
(Date)

I, Col. William M. Fagan 533-14-6288 FV, hereby state that Grover A. Ayers, JR has identified himself to me as Special Agent - OSI USAF.
(Special Agent OSI, Air Police Investigator, Other—Specify)

I do hereby voluntarily and of my own free will make the following statement without having been subjected to any coercion, unlawful influence or unlawful inducement.

On or about 5 Sept 68 I was advised that a Mr. Mitchell WerBell of Sionics was arriving at Saigon Airport and would bring some munitions equipment (guns and suppressors) for demonstration to Air Force units and other U.S. forces as we in Det 6 of ASD (AFSC) thought worthwhile. The prime piece of equipment to be demonstrated was the Sionics Suppressor. This notice of arrival came from ASD (ASJ) Wright-Patterson AFB Ohio. I assigned Lt Col Marriott the task of handling all facets of Mr WerBell's visit which he did by meeting Mr WerBell at the Commercial Terminal and assisted him to get settled in a hotel. Mr WerBell was in RVN as a private citizen and we were aware that he had no security clearance. We hosted him to the extent that we obtained a MACV form 6, Identification and Privilage Card, and Col Marriott, at my instructions, set up a demonstration of his equipment (WerBell's) for the Army, Navy, Air Force and ARPA people on the VNAF firing range. Prior to the demonstration I had received notification and did receive a box (about 375 # W.M.F.) of equipments for the demonstration. ~~It~~ W.M.F. had come via MAC airlift out of Charleston W.M.F. and was addressed to me at 7th AF (DAESC).

After several cables of Mr W Bell's traveling around through SEA I was becomming concerned and wanted to close ~~of~~ W.M.7. out his business and send him home. In the month of Nov 68 I located him and instructed him that I felt our business was over and he should prepare to leave – or at least we would withdraw our sponsorship of him (The only concern was that he had a MACV form 6 that showed ASD as his sponsor). I departed on a Trip to CONUS at the end of Nov 68 and returned to Saigon 13 Dec 68. Mr WerBell was still in SEA, but I did not know where. I was aware a shipment W.M.7. of guns had gone to Eglin during my absence but had already arranged through the Commander of FTD W-PAFB that we should have shipped such items to FTD and they would ~~to ship~~ W.M.7. forward them to the designated base. I did nothing to counter this Nov 68 shipment as it was going to the A.F. Armament Lab for a "museum". (On a later trip to CONUS in March 69 I advised Col Weinbrenner (FTD Commander) of the one shipment). I had no knowledge of or authorized any other shipment. The Nov 68 shipment was intended for Air Force use and there was no knowledge or intent on my part that they were to be sent to Sionics.

In early Feb 69 I found Mr WerBell and we concluded that he would leave RVN about 17 Feb 69 and he would give me his MACV form 6 and I would ship back only what he brought over. I was very specific about no enemy weapons being involved and if he had such for the Air Force, that I would ship them to FTD as instructed. After my return from my second CONUS trip on 23 Apr 69 I found that Wer Bell did not depart RVN. I asked around for him and heard many stories of his activities and felt I should take direct action. I called the OSI about 1 May 69 and made a statement and asked them to investigate. About 7 May I heard Mr Wer Bell was in Bangkok at the President Hotel. I went there with a Capt Gaylord and got back the MACV form 6. On 14 May I turned it over to the OSI. I felt that I had closed out our sponsorship, but also felt his (Wer Bell's) activities in SEA warranted investigation. This is why I went to the OSI. I did not authorize or direct the shipment of any captured enemy weapons to Mr Wer Bell and/or Sionics.

I further state that I have read this entire statement, initialed all pages and corrections, and signed this statement, and that it is correct and true as written.

American-Russian Institute of San Francisco (ARI)

> The ARI has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

The Subject attended the 30th Anniversary celebration of the ARI, which was held at 150 Golden Gate Avenue, San Francisco, on November 19, 1961. The purpose of this meeting was also to celebrate the 44th anniversary of the Russian revolution and the 75th birthday of the Secretary of the ARI. One of the speakers at this meeting told of his trip to New Delhi and the Soviet Union. He said the Soviet Union, Cuba, and China have been accused of suppressing rights, freedom, religion and speech. He said that this was not true. These countries do not want soap box criticisms but they respect the broader right of the majority and sometimes individual rights have to give way to the rights of the majority.

The guest speaker at this meeting was DMITRY MURAYEV, who was introduced as a Cultural Attache with the Soviet Embassy. He presented the Secretary of the ARI with a gold watch and read a prepared speech. He said Russia wants peace and that the U.S. and Russia fought together during the war and still can be friends but Nazi elements in Germany are being supported by the U.S. Government. He said Russia would disarm if disarmament could be agreed upon but now the U.S. has rearmed Germany and they have the second largest army in Europe with rockets, tanks, and atomic weapons. He said the Russians are ready to defend their homeland against the Germans and felt that they had to do something to dramatize their readiness to defend themselves so they resumed atomic testing.

SF T-2 - 11/20/61

The Subject attended a reception sponsored by the ARI and held at the Sheraton-Palace Hotel in San Francisco, on January 20, 1962. This reception honored a group of visitors from the Soviet Union.

HOLLAND ROBERTS, President of the ARI, and M. M. DOMRACHEV, a member of the Board of the Institute of Soviet-American Relations, gave speeches which stressed cultural exchange and friendship.

SF T-3 - 1/22/62

Citizens Committee for Constitutional Liberties (CCCL)

See Appendix Page.

The Subject attended a meeting sponsored by the CCCL held at 150 Golden Gate Avenue on December 15, 1961. At this meeting a monologue was presented entitled "Are You Now Or Have You Ever Been A Horse Thief", which was a satire on the McCarren Act.

A skit was then presented to represent the petition of the Communist Party before the Supreme Court in regard to the registration provisions of the McCarran Act. After the skit, MICKEY LIMA was introduced as Chairman of the Northern California District of the CP, who would present his views on the registration. LIMA read a statement in which he said that the CP in good conscience could not and would not register because to do so would violate the law of self-incrimination. If the CP registered, they would admit to being spies, saboteurs, and agents of a foreign power.

LIMA said that the CP is leading the fight for freedom. If the present trend continues, the Government can later attack the labor unions and the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP). The ruling party in the Government will be able to get any group they wish to register.

SF T-2 - 12/18/61

Subject attended a meeting sponsored by the CCCL held at 150 Golden Gate Avenue, San Francisco, on January 24, 1962. The Chairman of the meeting gave an opening statement of the purpose of the CCCL and the purpose of the meeting. He mentioned that the Bill of Rights is under attack and that the military forces are controlling the Government and the press and that civil rights are being repressed. He said that these things are of concern to the Committee and they have asked GUS HALL to present his views of the current situation.

HALL then spoke and said that he is presently on a lecture tour all over the country presenting the views of the CP. He mentioned that he had requests to speak at schools all over the United States. He said that the CP is being prevented by law and by control of the press from expressing their views and that they only want the right of free speech which is being denied them.

HALL said that at a recent press conference he was asked to give his position in the Party both now and prior to June 6, 1961. He told the press at that time that he could be referred to as an authoritative spokesman for communism.

HALL said that the people don't really know what the McCarran law means. When the law went into effect he was supposed to register. He has been indicted already and is under possible sentence of 500 years in jail and $1,000,000 fine. HALL went on to say that he went to jail under the Smith Act and that for thirty years the Government has tried to prove that the CP has been advocating the violent overthrow of the Government and that all communists are agents of a foreign power and are espionage agents etc. but has failed to do so.

According to HALL, the McCarran Act came into being during the McCarthy era when the Administration was being pressured to prosecute communists. The Attorney General said the Government couldn't prosecute them as they did not have the necessary evidence. Congress decided to get around the courts by legislative enactment. They appointed a political committee and presented a lot of illegal and unconstitutional evidence and came up with a finding that the communists are agents of a foreign power and spies and saboteurs.

HALL said that, according to the Attorney General, the present Act is simply a registration statute similar to registrations of foreigners, voters, dealers in securities, etc. However, a recent decision of the Supreme Court held that it is not necessary to be a card carrying member of the CP or do an act which is generally attributed to communists but it is only necessary to have a state of mind and be in sympathy with any of the objectives of communism and you could be prosecuted under the law.

HALL said assuming he did register, he would have to register each official and member of the Party and if he didn't, they would be required to register or be liable to $10,000 fine and ten years imprisonment for each day they failed to register. He would also be required to register any communist organization or any association or organization that has affiliation with the CP. He must also list every typewriter, mimeograph machine, photostat machine, and printing press by serial number. HALL said that you can begin to see the diabolical threat of fascism which is beginning to become real. He said that in addition to these penalties, he can receive the death penalty in Texas, a life sentence in other states and sentences of 20 to 50 years in other states. He is also prohibited from obtaining Veterans or Government housing, employment in the teaching profession, from making movies in Hollywood, or plays on Broadway under this Act. He said that communists can't even work in Government atomic plants.

HALL said that California has more native right-wing support than any other state and it is the idea of certain right-wingers to unite these organizations under one group. He said that is how Nazism came about and they won't stop with the CP. HALL said that the reason the right-wing is making such an onslaught is because a different social system is overtaking capitalism and many of the older people find it difficult to accept the new philosophy of life and they oppose it.

San Francisco Citizens Committee to Preserve American Freedoms (SFCCPAF)

See Appendix Page.

The Subject attended a fund raising party sponsored by the SFCCPAF for FRANK WILKINSON held at 939 Ashbury Street, San Francisco, on February 17, 1962.

WILKINSON gave a speech in which he denounced the Government and the Supreme Court for the decisions they have handed down outlawing the CP. He predicted that an irate populace would soon force the Supreme Court to change its position on these issues.

He spoke of his jail experiences and condemned the Government for segregating the staffs of the Federal prisons.

SF T-4 - 2/20/62

In an article in the "San Francisco Examiner" newspaper of March 20, 1961, it was noted that WILKINSON was convicted of contempt of Congress for refusing to state before the House Committee on Un-American Activities whether he had ever been a member of the CP. His sentence of one year in jail was upheld by the United States Supreme Court.

Since its establishment, the CCPAF, in extending its scope, has worked for the abolition of all Congressional, State, and local committees investigating subversive activities and in the latter part of 1954 became very active in opposition to State and Federal legislation directed at the Communist movement.

FRANK WILKINSON, Executive Secretary of the CCPAF, is described by the source as the "brains and energy" behind the organization.

Another source advised on September 17, 1952, that FRANK WILKINSON was a Communist Party member as of September, 1952.

CITIZENS COMMITTEE FOR CONSTITUTIONAL LIBERTIES (NORTHERN CALIFORNIA)

A source advised on June 19, 1961, that MICKEY LIMA, Chairman, Northern California District, Communist Party (CP), reported on June 15, 1961, that the CP, USA, in response to the Supreme Court decision of June 5, 1961, relating to the Internal Security Act of 1950 (ISA-50) had decided to create a committee known as Citizens Committee for Constitutional Liberties (CCCL), 22 East 17th Street, New York City, and that a local committee would be organized for Northern California.

This source advised on June 26, 1961, that a meeting was held on June 18, 1961, at the home of ROSCOE PROCTOR, member of the National Committee, CP, USA, for the purpose of formulating the CCCL for Northern California.

A second source advised on September 14, 1961, that the CCCL had opened an office at 942 Market Street, Room 401, San Francisco, California, and that some of the furniture for this office had come from the CP office on the same floor.

CITIZENS COMMITTEE FOR CONSTITUTIONAL LIBERTIES

A source advised on June 11, 1961, that a meeting of the National Executive Committee (NEC), Communist Party, USA (CPUSA), was held on June 10, 1961, at CP headquarters, 23 West 26th Street, New York, New York. According to the source, the main topic of discussion at this meeting was the CP's plans in regard to combating the June 5, 1961, decision of the United States Supreme Court, requiring the CP to register with the Attorney General of the United States as a communist-action organization pursuant to the provisions of the Subversive Activities Control Act of 1950 and the Court's decision of the same date upholding the April 21, 1955, conviction of Junius Scales under the Smith Act provision covering membership in the CP. This source further advised that during this discussion a special CP defense committee was formed and it was decided that this committee would have an office, which would be managed by Miriam Friedlander who, according to the source, is a member of the CPUSA National Committee.

Another source advised on June 14, 1961, that at a meeting of the CPUSA National Board and invited guests held on that date at CP headquarters, New York City, it was announced that the CP defense committee would have an office at 22 East 17th Street, New York, New York, under the name of the Citizens Committee for Constitutional Liberties (CCCL).

A third source advised on July 20, 1961, that at a meeting of the CP defense committee held on that date at CP headquarters, New York City, the purpose and scope of the CCCL was discussed. It was stated that this committee has been set up to serve as a national coordinator and service center for every effort being made by whatever source to repeal the McCarran and Smith Acts. In addition, it has been set up to reverse the Supreme Court's decision of June 5, 1961, or secure an indefinite stay of any enforcement of the law by the Department of Justice.

It is to engage in generating a popular defense movement to mobilize legal assistance of any organization or individual whose "democratic rights are infringed upon by these laws." This committee wants to encourage the creation of local organizations or groups to work in support of any one of the above-stated objectives. The committee will also serve as an exchange center of material and provide speakers for any local organization.

II. COMMUNIST PARTY (CP) AND RELATED ACTIVITIES

A. San Francisco County CP (SFCCP)

SF T-2, a self-admitted former member of the CP in the San Francisco area during the period from 1952 to 1957, advised on November 5, 1962, that she knows IRVING FROMER and his wife as members of the CP in San Francisco during that period.

At a meeting of the Sunset Club, SFCCP, which was held at 1235 42nd Avenue, San Francisco, on May 16, 1962, a discussion was held regarding IRVING FROMER and his wife. It was noted that the FROMERs had recently moved to the area covered by the Sunset Club. HERB NUGENT, Chairman of the SFCCP and a member of the Sunset Club, remarked that the FROMERs are in the Lincoln Club, SFCCP, and that they are needed in the Lincoln Club. He said, however, that the FROMERs do not contribute much to Club life and this is one of the problems of the Lincoln Club. He said that the Lincoln Club had agreed to meet at the FROMERs house, and the FROMERs didn't even arrive to attend meetings held at their own home. NUGENT said that both of the FROMERs are active in other mass organizations.

(SF T-3, 5/18/62)

IRVING FROMER is a member of the Lincoln Club, SFCCP.

(SF T-3, 3/1/63)

The Subject attended a May Day meeting held at 150 Golden Gate Avenue, San Francisco, on May 1, 1962, sponsored by the San Francisco Free Speech Forum. The Free Speech Forum was set up by the SFCCP to hold public meetings.

WALTER STACK, a member of the SFCCP, was chairman of this meeting and spoke on the meeting of May Day as a labor holiday.

ARCHIE BROWN, a member of the SFCCP, discussed his conviction under the Landum-Griffith Act. He said it is a test case to see if the act is constitutional. They noted that he was elected to the Executive Board of Local 10, International Longshoremen's and Warehousemen's Union (ILWU), by members of the local and it would make no difference if he resigned from the CP because the Landum-Griffith Act says a person must not have been a member in the past five years.

RALPH IZARD, a member of the SFCCP, gave a speech on the subject of government and monopolies . He said the government should spend money on the unemployed, the sick, and the ill-housed instead of spending money trying to dominate former colonial countries trying to establish independence.

ELIZABETH GURLEY FLYNN, Chairman, CP of the United States of America (CPUSA), was the featured speaker. She said that things were different today for Communists under indictment than when she was indicted under the Smith Act. She said at that time all doors were shut to them, but now all doors are open. She said that GUS HALL and BEN DAVIS, Communist functionaries, have been speaking to students all over the country. She said that the government knows ~~that~~ that she is the Chairman of the CPUSA but so far has not been able to prove that she is a member of the CP. She said that the State Department is trying to take away her passport under the McCarran Act.

She also said that she had visited the Soviet Union as a fraternal delegate to the Congress of the U.S.S.R. and gave the Russians the greetings of the American people. She also visited some of the Social Democracies and found no unemployment there.

She said that capitalism cannot solve the problems of the people but the development of Socialism can.

(SF T-3, 5/11/52)

Subject's attendance at this meeting was verified.

(SF T-4, 5/2/52
SF T-5, 5/3/52
SF T-6, 5/8/52)

The Subject attended a public meeting sponsored by the CP held at 150 Golden Gate Avenue on December 5, 1952. MICKEY LIMA, Chairman of the Northern District of California CP, was Master of Ceremonies at this meeting. He said that he need not be introduced as everyone knew what his political views were. He introduced JOHN APT, Legal Council for the CP and Defense Attorney for CP members victimized by the McCarran Committee.

JOHN APT spoke of the complexities of the McCarran Act and how it had been used before in an attempt to convict MICKEY LIMA and others, and he told how the government had reversed the conviction on LIMA and the others because they lacked evidence to prove their charges. Now, the government is trying to get these people to confess to something that they had failed to prove the first time.

APT stated that President TRUMAN vetoed the McCarran Act on the grounds that it would put the government in the roll of a dictator.

He also spoke of the concentmation camps scattered throughout the country and noted that anyone could be placed in them if the government felt they were a danger to the national war crisis.

He spoke of the flexibility of the McCarran Act, which he said could be used against any citizen for any given reason and at any given time.

ELIZABETH GURLEY FLYNN also spoke and said she felt slighted because she was not indicted for failure to register along with GUS HALL and BEN DAVIS, however, she had some satisfaction in that the government was trying to take her passport from her.

(SF T-7, 12/5/62)

B. Northern California Committee for the Protection of the Foreign Born (NCCPFB), and Committee for Constitutional Liberties (CCL)(See Appendix Pages)

The Subject attended a conference sponsored by the NCCPFB and CCL held at 739 Page Street, San Francisco, on September 23, 1962. JEAN KRAMER, Chairman of the conference, opened the meeting by stating that its purpose was to discuss the WALTER MCCARRAN Act and the California "Little McCarran Act" (Proposition 24 on the California Ballot)

KRAMER read a written speech which had been prepared by LLOYD MC MURRAY Civil Liberties Attorney, who had planned to attend the meeting but was unable to make it. MC MURRAY's speech dealt with the Chinese Confession Program which was set up to give Chinese who were illegally in the country protection if they came forth and told their real identity. The main gist of the speech was condemning the Immigration Service because of their policy of sending illegal immigrants back to China.

The "San Francisco Call Bulletin" issue of November 18, 1957, carried an article which stated that JEAN KRAMER had been ordered deported as an alien who belonged to the CP. The article stated that she came to the United States in 1933 and was a CP member from 1933 to 1948.

LLOYD MC MURRAY was an active member of the CP in San Francisco from 1946 to 1950.

(SF T-8, 6/23/55)

LAURENT FRANTZ, introduced as an expert in constitutional law and a writer and publisher, spoke on the Walter McCarran Act and said that the security of the nation is hampered by this act.

The "New York Guild Lawyer", volume 20, March and April, 1962, a self-described publication of the National Lawyers Guild, lists LAURENT FRANTZ as a member at large of the National Executive Board, National Laywers Guild (NLG). (See Appendix Page for NLG).

ROSE CHERNIN, introduced as the Executive Director of the Committee for the Protection of the Foreign Born from Los Angeles, said that the committee is fighting the Walter McCarran Act and will not register as a communist front group.

Other speakers who spoke in favor of a repeal of the McCarran Act included ROSCOE PROCTOR, HERBERT PHILLIPS, and FRANK WILKENSON.

WILKENSON also urged for the abolishment of the House Committee on Un-American Activities and the defeat of Proposition 24 on the California ballot..

HERBERT PHILLIPS is Chairman of the CCL.

His sentence of one year in jail was upheld by the United States Supreme Court.

VINCENT HALLINAN was one of the speakers and he told of his recent trip to Europe, including Hungary. He gave some of the history and background and culture of Hungary and said there was no democratic government in Hungary until after the war.

HALLINAN said that the Hungarian people had some legitimate complaints under STALIN and the revolution in 1956 was somewhat justified, but the Facists took over almost immediately and they were responsible for the hangings and other atrocities that occurred.

(SF T-4, 12/5/62
SF T-5, 12/3/62

Subject attended a meeting of the FPCC held at 625 Polk Street, San Francisco, on December 7, 1962.

MARJORIE MORRAY, wife of JOSEPH P. MORRAY, a Stanford Professor, told of her experiences in Cuba in 1960 and 1961. She said she was a supervisor for English teachers in Cuba, and her husband was engaged in research at the University of Havana.

She said the United States State Department policy on Cuba was bad as it prevented good relations between the two countries. She asked for contributions to send medical supplies to Cuba.

The "National Guardian" (NG)(See Appendix Page), issue of November 29, 1962, lists JOSEPH P. MORRAY as a Guardian correspondent who spent two years in Havana.

WILLIAM WORTHY also spoke at this meeting, and he described himself as a reporter for an Afro-American newspaper in Baltimore, Maryland. He said he had lost his passport when he traveled to Red China several months previous.

WORTHY said that the CIA is involved in every trouble spot in the world, particularly when Communism enters the picture.

WORTHY branded the United States as an imperialistic nation determined to undermine Latin American countries and bleed them of their natural resources.

He said that Cuba is showing the world what socialism can produce without the help of imperialistic countries.

(SF T-4, 12/10/62)
SF T-12, 12/12/62)

G. "National Guardian" (NG)

Subject attended a meeting sponsored by the NG which was held at 625 Polk Street on November 16, 1962. The purpose of the meeting was to hear a report on Cuba by JOSEPH P. MORRAY and SAUL LANDAU.

LANDAU told of visiting universities throughout the country and speaking of recent events in Cuba, he said he found hatred in the eyes of the students and felt at times as though they wanted to lynch him. He said that many educators feel that the right wing is getting control of the universities.

He also discussed life in Cuba as he observed it during his stay there.

JOSEPH P. MORRAY described himself as a former officer in Naval Intelligence, a lawyer and a former professor in Havana. He said that when the revolution in Cuba was started, the CP was against it and told CASTRO it was ill-advised, ill-timed, however, CASTRO went ahead with the revolution and when the Communist saw he was accepted as the national leader, they joined forces and accepted his leadership.

MORRAY said the first president after the revolution was a conservative who demanded that CASTRO kick out the Communists and close the Communist papers. He also wanted appropriate compensation to be paid for land and factories which were nationalized. MORRAY said that CASTRO agreed only to pay the value which had been declared for these properties in their tax returns.

MORRAY said that CASTRO is a Leninist and disagrees somewhat with Communists. He said that the Cuban people are proud of being socialists and that CASTRO is in Cuba to stay.

He said he was skeptical about Russian missiles being in Cuba and decided that the Russians were trying to build a nuclear wall between Russia and Cuba.

(SF T-4, 11/23/62)

CITIZENS COMMITTEE FOR CONSTITUTIONAL LIBERTIES (NEW YORK CITY)

The Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications, revised and published December 1, 1961, prepared and released by the Committee on Un-American Activities, United States House of Representatives, contains the following on Page 42 concerning "Citizens Committee for Constitutional Liberties (New York City)":

1. "On the basis of its investigations and hearings to date, the committee concludes that the National Assembly for Democratic Rights and a coordinating and organizing group in support thereof, titled the 'Citizens Committee for Constitutional Liberties,' are Communist fronts. Created, dominated, and controlled by members and officials of the Communist Party, the National Assembly for Democratic Rights and the Citizens Committee for Constitutional Liberties were organized as propaganda devices for the conduct of 'mass activity' in support of the avowed objectives of 'reversal or nonapplication' of the Supreme Court decisions of June 5, 1961, which upheld the constitutionality of the registration and disclosure provisions of the Internal Security Act of 1950 as applied to the Communist Party, and the Smith Act membership clause making punishable active and purposive membership in the Communist Party."

"* * * The long-range objective of the Citizens Committee for Constitutional Liberties is to serve as the vehicle for concealed Communist participation in, and direction of, propaganda and agitational activities aimed to nullify the Internal Security and Smith Acts."

"* * * Committee investigation disclosed that the Citizens Committee for Constitutional Liberties was formed on or about June 12, 1961 * * *."

The "New York Times" newspaper on November 20, 1960, carried an article captioned "Pro-Castro Body Reports U.S. Gain," which reported that the Fair Play for Cuba Committee (FPCC) had 5,000 paid-up members in the United States. The article declared that the FPCC had headquarters at 799 Broadway, New York City, New York, and had chapters in other cities, including one in San Francisco.

A source advised in March, 1961, that the Bay Area Chapter of the FPCC (BAFPCC) began to be formed in San Francisco in November, 1960, under the direct guidance and leadership of ASHER HARER, who the source identified as a member of the San Francisco Branch of the Socialist Workers Party (SWP) and a member of the National Committee of the SWP.

> The SWP has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

A source advised in May, 1962, that the BAFPCC is currently active in the San Francisco area and includes members in San Francisco and surrounding counties. He advised that the BAFPCC has no headquarters but receives mail through Post Office Box 2615, San Francisco 26, California, which is a box maintained by ASHER HARER. He stated that the announced aims and purposes of the BAFPCC are to "spread the truth about Cuba and to prevent U.S. intervention in Cuba."

A source advised in March, 1962, that in the recent elections of the BAFPCC, the SWP continued its influence by having SWP members elected to the Executive Committee.

FAIR PLAY FOR CUBA COMMITTEE (FPCC)

The April 6, 1960, edition of "The New York Times" newspaper contains a full page advertisement captioned "What Is Really Happening in Cuba," placed by the FPCC. This advertisement announced the formation of the FPCC in New York City and declared the FPCC intended to promulgate "the truth about revoluntionary Cuba" to neutralize the distorted American press.

"The New York Times" edition of January 11, 1961, reported that at a hearing conducted before the United States Senate Internal Security Subcommittee on January 10, 1961, Dr. CHARLES A. SANTOS-BUCH identified himself and ROBERT TABER as organizers of the FPCC. He also testified he and TABER obtained funds from the Cuban Government which were applied toward the cost of the aforementioned advertisement.

On October 3, 1960, a source advised that the Socialist Workers Party (SWP) in New York had become active in the FPCC, and that SWP members, in a FPCC election, had been able to remove several Communist Party (CP) members who were on the Executive Board of the FPCC and gain control of the organization.

A second source advised that an announcement from National Headquarters of the SWP was made on September 24, 1961 to the effect RICHARD GIBSON had fired the secretary in the FPCC headquarters and was trying to break the SWP influence in the FPCC.

Column 2, page 8, of the February 22, 1962, edition of "The New York Times" contains an article captioned "Castro Backer Resigns" which announced that ROBERT TABER had resigned as Executive Secretary of the FPCC and as President of the Institute for the Improvement of Inter-American Relations, Inc., which had organized the FPCC in April, 1960.

On May 17, 1962, a third source advised that National Headquarters of the FPCC is located in room 329 at 799 Broadway, New York City, and that the FPCC is operating under the direction of RICHARD GIBSON, Acting National Executive Secretary of the FPCC.

INDEPENDENT PROGRESSIVE PARTY

The 1955 Report of the California Committee on Un-American Activities, page 46, stated, "The Independent Progressive Party in California was quickly captured by the communists, and by the time the Wallace for President campaign had swung into high gear was being operated lock, stock, and barrel by the Communist Party of California. Time after time the committee in questioning witnesses throughout the State discovered that the leaders of the Communist Parties in various localities were identical with the leaders of the Independent Progressive Party in the same area. It is true, of course, that in the Independent Progressive Party there were many sincere liberals who, because of dissatisfaction with the two major political organizations registered as Independent Progressives and continued their affiliation until the true control of the I. P. P. became obvious. These people invariably resigned, many of them having given the benefit of their experience to various official agencies interested in the exposure of subversive activities."

CITIZENS COMMITTEE TO PRESERVE AMERICAN FREEDOMS

The Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications, revised and published December 1, 1961, prepared and released by the Committee on Un-American Activities, United States House of Representatives, contains the following on Page 43 concerning "Citizens Committee to Preserve American Freedoms":

1. "The (Communist) party's front operations in the Southern California District today are * * * confined to four major organizations," which include the Citizens Committee to Preserve American Freedoms.

"The Citizens Committee to Preserve American Freedoms * * * specializes in propaganda aimed at abolishing the Committee on Un-American Activities and discrediting the Federal Bureau of Investigation. Created in Los Angeles in 1952, the front organization is run by Frank Wilkinson, an identified Communist who recently resumed the full-time, paid post of executive secretary after approximately a year's leave of absence to assist in a similar campaign by another front in New York City, the Emergency Civil Liberties Committee.

"When the Committee on Un-American Activities held hearings in Los Angeles September 2-5, 1958, to inquire into the nature of the party's recent reorganization in California, the Citizens Committee to Preserve American Freedoms sponsored a series of public meetings to protest the hearings and the very existence of the committee. Communists subpenaed as witnesses were guests of honor.

"At this time, leaders of the party's Southern California District were mobilizing Communists in the area for participation in an intensified campaign to abolish this committee of Congress. How the Citizens Committee to Preserve American Freedoms served the party in this effort was revealed by (Communist Party) District Chairman Dorothy Healey in a report to the party's Southern California District Council on September 21, 1958. Mrs. Healey declared that the party preferre public protest meetings to be held by the Citizens Committee to Preserve American Freedoms rather than under party auspices because Communists could attend without danger of being exposed as members of the party. She also noted that Communists scheduled as congressional committee witnesses could not appear beforehand at openly Communist rallies without creating the impression that the party was conspiring with witnesses to withhold information from the committee."

II. COMMUNIST PARTY (CP) AND RELATED ACTIVITIES

A. Communist Party

The Subject attended a May Day meeting sponsored by the San Francisco Free Speech Forum held at 150 Golden Gate Avenue, San Francisco, on May 4, 1963. MARGRIT PITTMAN acted as chairman of the meeting and noted that she had celebrated May Day last year in Moscow. She said she regarded this a privilege and honor and said that May Day in Moscow was celebrated in a spirit of good will and fraternity and should be celebrated in a like manner in this country. She said that some day everyone would live under socialism and there would be no more war and everyone would be friends and brothers.

ARCHIE BROWN, introduced as a well known labor leader and progressive, gave a speech critical of the city administration in San Francisco, and claimed that the slum clearance program drove under-privileged people from one slum area into marginal area which then became slums.

CARL BLOICE and several others then put on an entertainment skit prior to the introduction of HYMAN LUMER as a featured speaker. LUMER was introduced as an historian and economist and a Taft-Hartley victim.

LUMER discussed the unemployment situation in the United States, and said unemployment was increasing because of automation and he said the unions are worried and noted that recent strikes were for job security rather than increased benefits. He said that if the United States had a planned economy and traded with Soviet nations, most of the ills of unemployment could be cured. He also spoke briefly on repressive government acts and union busting legislation. He said the government is applying antitrust provisions to unions and there is a vicious prosecution of labor leaders. He said these acts are the products of the cold war and reaction.

A resolution to the President and the Attorney General was passed at this meeting which requested the government take action against the Birmingham Police Department for police brutality. At the suggestion of IRVING FROMER, they had a condemnation of the government for past inactivity to the resolution.

II. COMMUNIST PARTY (CP) AND RELATED ACTIVITIES

A. Communist Activities

The Subject attended a May Day meeting held at 150 Golden Gate Avenue, San Francisco, which was sponsored by the San Francisco Free Speech Forum on May 2, 1964.

> The San Francisco Free Speech Forum is a name used by the CP of San Francisco to hold public meetings.

STEVE MURDOCK, editor of the "PW" reviewed the activities of the "PW" for the past year and pointed out that the "PW" offered its readers news from the viewpoint of the working class and Negro people and really had something to offer and this had enabled it to survive.

ROSCOE PROCTOR also spoke on the problems of the Negro people in the capitalistic society and noted that only socialism offered the Negro any chance of solving his problems. PROCTOR said that the President's "War Against Poverty" was simply a political scheme to attract votes.

The featured speaker was ROBERT THOMPSON, a member of the CP Committee, who discussed the split between the Soviet Union and China and said that it would soon be healed over. THOMPSON told the audience that they should support the Democratic Administration while at the same time put pressure on the Democratic Party to end defacto segregation in schools throughout the country. THOMPSON noted that public school systems would have to be integrated in order to survive.

> The "PW" is a West Coast communist newspaper published in San Francisco.

ROSCOE PROCTOR attended a meeting of the CP, USA, national and district leaders, held in New York City on June 22 - 24, 1962.

SF T-4, 6/29/62

On June 27, 1964, the Subject attended a social affair sponsored by the Maritime Club, San Francisco CP, at 1027 Brussels Street, San Francisco. Proceeds of this social affair went for the benefit of the "PW".

SF T-5, 7/2/64

On September 25, 1964, the Subject attended a public meeting sponsored by the San Francisco FSF held at 150 Golden Gate Avenue, San Francisco. The purpose of this meeting was to hear HENRY WINSTON, a member of the CP National Committee, speak.

WINSTON identified himself as a communist and told of his imprisonment by the Federal Government. He said that because the government would not treat him for his illness, he became blind. He said the reason for the government's refusal to treat him was because he was a Negro and a communist.

WINSTON pointed out that the Republican Party must be defeated even though he did not completely approve of President JOHNSON and the Democratic Party. WINSTON also discussed the civil rights movement and said that the Negro must get his rights before everything in this country would be all right.

B. "People's World"(PW)

On April 12, 1964, the Subject attended a dinner held for the benefit of the "PW" at 1581 Masonic Street, San Francisco.

SF T-5, 4/13/64

C. "National Guardian" (NG)

A characterization of the NG is contained in the appendix pages.

On February 8, 1964, the Subject attended a public meeting sponsored by the NG held at 625 Polk Street, San Francisco. The featured speaker at this meeting was MARK LANE, an attorney for the mother of LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

LANE discussed the background of the assassination of President KENNEDY and stressed the fact that Dallas was a very reactionary city and for that reason it is easy to understand why Dallas had been selected as the place for the President to be assassinated. LANE discussed briefly the background of LEE HARVEY OSWALD and noted that he was a drifter without any ties who had spent some time in the Soviet Union. LANE tried to establish a link between OSWALD and the FBI and indicated that OSWALD was the victim of a frameup. He said he had a reputation of being an unstable character and a past association with left-wing groups. LANE said that in spite of this he did not believe that OSWALD was the actual assassin of the President.

SF T-1, 2/12/64

D. W.E.B. DuBois Club of San Francisco

A characterization of the W.E.B. DuBois Club of San Francisco is contained in the appendix.

On August 20, 1964, Subject attended a meeting sponsored by the W.E.B. DuBois Club held at 1007 McAllister Street, San Francisco. The meeting was a panel discussion on the question of world peace. One of the speakers took the viewpoint of the Chinese Marxist and said he believed in revolution because this was the only way of eliminating capitalist enterprises and capitalist economy. He cited such areas as Cuba, Vietnam, the Soviet Union and China. He said that all of these countries are socialist camps of one form or another and all are working for peace.

AL RICHMOND, the editor of the "PW", took the position that peaceful co-existence was a possible way to make some progress for peace without changing the economy of the country.

One of the other panel members spoke in support of peace but not in favor of any kind of violence. He pointed out that the left wingers comprising the CP, the Trotskyite Party, and the Progressive Labor Party looked toward revolution as an alternative for peace; however, he did not think that peace would ever be won by revolution.

SF T-1, 8/31/64, SF T-3, 8/27/64
SF T-6, 8/25/64

On October 16, 1964, the Subject attended a panel discussion sponsored by the DuBois Club held at 625 Polk Street, San Francisco. The three panel members were DOROTHY HEALEY, Chairman of the Southern California CP, VINCENT HALLINAN, a San Francisco attorney, and JOHN BURTON, a California State Assemblyman.

The Subject of the discussion was on the forthcoming election and what part progressive forces should play in the election.

VINCENT HALLINAN took a strong pro-Democratic Party attitude and pointed out that he, himself, had campaigned on a national ticket for a minority party and the result had been disastrous. He said they had wasted their time and money and energy and polled so few votes that he did not receive even one electoral vote. He stressed the fact that the Republican forces represented a step toward fascism and that at all costs, all decent people and all good left-wing people must vote the Democratic slate.

DOROTHY HEALEY generally agreed with HALLINAN but pointed out the Communist Party's specific obligation to the working class to provide good leadership. She said the CP had only one chance of acting as a vanguard of the working class and that was to be right in its support of political candidates. HEALEY also said the people should support the Supreme Court and particularly the Court's recent decision to reapportion state legislature.

JOHN BURTON said this was the first election in which he felt free to accept support from the left openly and he attributed this to a determination on the part of the general public to defeat BARRY GOLDWATER. He praised the DuBois Club for supporting him and he thanked the persons on the left including the Socialist Workers Party, the CP and others for their support.

SF T-1, 10/20/64

VINCENT HALLINAN was candidate for President of the United States on the Independent Progressive Party (IPP) ticket in 1952. The IPP was formed in California in 1948 and ceased to exist in 1954 when it failed to get sufficient votes to remain on the California Ballot.

A characterization of the IPP appears in the Appendix.

E. American-Russian Institute of San Francisco (ARI)

The ARI has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

On November 20, 1964, the Subject attended a public meeting sponsored by the ARI held at the Jack Tar Hotel, San Francisco.

HOLLAND ROBERTS, President of the ARI, spoke about the great work being done by the USSR and the Soviet bloc for peace. ROBERTS said he always is inspired when he visits these countries and hears of their achievements to bring about peace and he is always disappointed on returning to the United States to find the war mongers holding the upper hand and keeping the people obsessed with the idea that they have to stay prepared for war against the communists. ROBERTS said the United States was constantly on the side of the landlords and money lenders of small countries throughout the world such as South Vietnam. He said these people only aspire justice for themselves and an opportunity to live in peace and comfort. However, they are ground down ruthlessly by native oppressors with the help of American troops and American support.

CARL BLOICE, a reporter for the "PW", also told of a recent trip he made to Eastern Europe. He said he found the East Germans consecrated to the task of being a socialist nation and cooperating fully with the Soviet Union. BLOICE said that East Germans now claim that America has succeeded to the position once held by fascist Germany of being the most reactionary and most militant country on earth. BLOICE said that communist nations now were in a position to defeat any non-communist countries in the event of military attack but he said this was the poorest way he could think of to bring about communism and he would prefer to see non-communist nations become communist through the means of logic.

SF T-1, 11/30/64

F. Ad Hoc Committee To End U. S. Intervention In Vietnam

A characterization of the Ad Hoc Committee To End U. S. Intervention In Vietnam is contained in the Appendix hereto.

On May 9, 1964, the Subject attended a meeting sponsored by the Ad Hoc Committee to End U. S. Intervention In Vietnam held at the Hall of Flowers in Golden Gate Park, San Francisco. The chairman of the meeting who stated he was from Vietnam claimed that the war in Vietnam started with the French Government supporting an attack by South Vietnam against North Vietnam. He said the American military has taken over from the French in supplying arms and ammunition to the South Vietnamese. He urged the United States to pull out of South Vietnam and let the country be unified.

The film was shown entitled, "The War In Vietnam" made by the National Liberation Front of the South Vietnamese. Among other things, the film showed American helicopters being shot down and picket demonstrations in North Vietnam protesting American intervention.

SF T-3, 5/12/64

III. MISCELLANEOUS

On March 1, 1964, the Subject was one of 123 persons arrested picketing the Sheraton-Palace Hotel in San Francisco for alleged discriminatory practices. The 123 pickets who were arrested were charged with contempt of court. These charges were dismissed on April 3, 1964, by Municipal Judge JOSEPH G. KENNEDY because the restraining order which they were accused of violating was faulty.

"San Francisco Chronicle" newspaper, 3/3 and 4/4/64, and San Francisco Police Department Record of Arrest Number 1901586.

On the evening of October 28, 1964, the Citizens Councils of America held a meeting at the Masonic Auditorium in San Francisco which was picketed by numerous individuals on the sidewalk and entrance way to the auditorium. Among those observed in the picket line was the Subject.

Observation by Special Agents of the FBI.

W.E.B. DU BOIS CLUB OF SAN FRANCISCO, aka DuBois Youth Group, San Francisco DuBois Club, San Francisco DuBois Youth Group, Student-Labor Alliance

A source advised that on January 31, 1963, the W.E.B. DuBois Club of San Francisco held its first general meeting at California Hall, Polk and Turk Streets, San Francisco, California, at which time the aims of the club were put forth as follows by TERENCE "KAYO" HALLINAN:

(1) Alleviate the Negro problem in the United States.
(2) Promote peaceful co-existence between the United States and Russia.
(3) Promote and encourage Marxist doctrines and to bring about a socialistic government in the United States.

A second source advised in March 1963 that the DuBois Club was both conceived and originated by TERENCE HALLINAN.

A third source has advised that TERENCE HALLINAN attended a Communist Party Youth Commission meeting in San Francisco in October 1963.

Commencing in March 1963, the DuBois Club published a newsletter entitled "San Francisco News and World Report." In its first issue a "Proposed Statement of Principles" was set forth in which the club's aforementioned aims were elaborated upon. In the same issue the lead editorial in part described the San Francisco DuBois Club as "...a group of young people who are convinced that Socialism is the only answer to the many problems of our time and so find philosophical rapport with the life and thought of Dr. DU BOIS, nevertheless, we are weighed with humility in comparing our goals and ambitions with the genius of his life and work. As a source of inspiration, the figure of W.E.B. DU BOIS is unequaled in American history, but as a standard and example, we seem miserably lost in his shadow. We can only resolve that we do his name no dishonor, and whatever we may accomplish should be recognized as a supplement to his life work."

The November 25, 1961, issue of the "People's World," a West Coast communist newspaper published in San Francisco, contains an article on page 12 reflecting that W.E.B. DU BOIS joined the Communist Party after applying for admission on October 1, 1961.

In May 1963, the first source informed that the "San Francisco News and World Report," although written and edited by members of the club, was run off on a mimeograph machine located in the offices of the "People's World;" however, in March 1964, this source advised that the newsletter was no longer mimeographed by the "People's World" because of the unreliability of the machine and, in addition, the name was changed to "The Insurgent" upon recommendation of one of the club officers who felt the new name sounded more militant.

The first source has also stated that commencing in May 1963, the DuBois Club had no permanent headquarters and used to hold its meetings at 307 Page Street, Apartment 3, San Francisco, California. In March 1964, this source advised that the club is currently active as a membership organization and has its headquarters at 1007 McAllister Street, San Francisco.

INDEPENDENT PROGRESSIVE PARTY

The 1955 Report of the California Committee on Un-American Activities, Page 46, stated, "The Independent Progressive Party in California was quickly captured by the communists, and by the time the Wallace for President campaign had swung into high gear was being operated lock, stock, and barrel by the Communist Party of California. Time after time the committee in questioning witnesses throughout the State discovered that the leaders of the Communist Parties in various localities were identical with the leaders of the Independent Progressive Party in the same area. It is true, of course, that in the Independent Progressive Party there were many sincere liberals who, because of dissatisfaction with the two major political organizations registered as Independent Progressives and continued their affiliation until the true control of the I.P.P. became obvious. These people invariably resigned, many of them having given the benefit of their experience to various official agencies interested in the exposure of subversive activities."

COMMITTEE TO END U. S. FOREIGN INTERVENTION, aka Committee to End U. S. Foreign Aggression, Committee to End American Intervention in Viet-Nam (Ad Hoc), Committee to End United States Intervention
in Viet-Nam (Ad Hoc), Committee to End United States Imperialism

This Committee was organized as the Committee to End American Intervention in Viet-Nam (Ad Hoc), March 29, 1964, in San Francisco, California, at the instigation of and by members of the W.E.B. DuBois Club of San Francisco, a Marxist youth group, which has promoted the organization's activities among the various groups in the San Francisco area interested in peace and disarmament. Its announced aims have included American withdrawal from Viet-Nam, self-determination for the South Viet-Namese people and adherence of the United States to the 1954 Geneva Convention. Demonstrations along with the distribution of and exhibition of propaganda comprise its program. A flyer advertising a forum of September 15, 1964, in San Francisco on "World Wide Movements--for Freedom" referred to "Cuba - Harlem - Congo - Viet Nam" and listed the Committee to End U. S. Foreign Intervention as sponsor. One of the two sources which provided the information on the Committee's organization has advised that it is the same committee. According to this source, on October 9, 1964, this Committee's proper name is "Committee to End U. S. Foreign Aggression," but it is a loose-knit organization and exactness of title or name is of little concern to the officials and members. The other source advised on June 28, 1964, that an Executive Committee of five members was elected in June, 1964, but no new officers were otherwise elected.

Another source advised on September 17, 1964, that the original officers were JOHN W. THOMAS, Chairman; BEVERLY D. RADCLIFFE, Treasurer, and MARGARET DRIGGS, Secretary. The signature of two of these are still required for checks written.

One source mentioned above currently advises that no headquarters is maintained by the Committee; meetings are infrequent and poorly attended, ranging from eight to twenty members. The last reported membership total was approximately twenty in June, 1964.

JOHN THOMAS attended meetings of the DuBois Club of San Francisco on May 10 and 31, 1964.

When interviewed by Special Agents of the FBI on October 1, 1964, THOMAS indicated he was not a member of the W.E.B. DuBois Club and would not join any group until he found one that really helped the Negro people.

BEVERLY RADCLIFFE in April, 1964, was a member of the DuBois Club of San Francisco.

MARGARET DRIGGS, when interviewed by Special Agents of the FBI on January 25, 1955, said that her activities in the Communist Party (CP) began in the middle 1930s during the depression in Tacoma, Washington. She and her husband moved to Seattle, Washington, and were members there of the CP and the Communist Political Association (CPA). As a result of open criticism of Party functionaries on her part and on the part of her husband, she and her husband were expelled from the CP in 1946 with the proviso that after six months they would reinstate. She said that they did not seek reinstatement.

The CPA has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

II. COMMUNIST PARTY (CP) AND RELATED ACTIVITIES

A. Communist Party

When contacted in March, 1966, confidential informants who are conversant with various phases of activities of the CP in the area of San Francisco in which Subject resides were unable to furnish any information reflecting that Subject has been active in the CP during the past year.

Subject, however, was in attendance at the annual May Day meeting sponsored by the San Francisco Free Speech Forum held at 150 Golden Gate Avenue, San Francisco, on May 1, 1965.

The San Francisco Free Speech Forum is a name used by the San Francisco County CP to sponsor public meetings.

The principal speaker at this meeting was GUS HALL, General Secretary of the CP,USA. HALL accused the administration of President JOHNSON of being dangerous and trigger happy, stating that our foreign policy is a cold-blooded war machine which would turn back history. HALL stated that Marines had been sent to the Dominican Republic on the pretext of protecting American lives. He alluded to the U. S. foreign policy as being imperialistic and said that the President is not receiving full support for his invasion of other countries and the U. S. will never be successful in these undertakings.

C. Women For Peace

WOMEN FOR PEACE, aka Women Strike for Peace

The "Berkeley Daily Gazette," a daily newspaper of general circulation published in Berkeley, California, contained an article in the November 19, 1965, evening edition reflecting that in November, 1961, when concern mounted over radioactive fallout from nuclear testing, a group of women in Washington, D. C. started Women Strike for Peace. The idea spread rapidly throughout the country and now embraces 900 groups, including Women For Peace groups in the San Francisco Bay area.

These groups support programs to achieve goals such as:

(1) Continued disarmament negotiations.

(2) A strong and flexible United Nations.

(3) Planning now at state and national levels for conversion to peace-time economy and positive efforts to ease world tensions.

The women act as individuals and as a group, with specific actions suggested by individuals and groups from all over the world. Decision to participate jointly on any given suggestion is democratly arrived at by members of the Coordinating Committee. Effective cooperation with other peace groups is encouraged. Monthly Coordinating Committee meetings and general meetings, as warranted, are open to all and announced in mailings to members. There are no dues or membership forms nor conditions for membership.

To stir an awareness of the need for peace, Women For Peace encourage public education in peace objectives at local schools and sponsor peace-oriented demonstrations and public meetings, newspaper ads, billboards, and candidates for public office. On the national level the group attempts to influence government officials by letters and conferences.

A public meeting sponsored by Women For Peace at which Subject was in attendance was held at California Hall, 625 Polk Street, San Francisco, on August 1, 1965.

SF T-6, 8/4/65

D. Vietnam Day Committee

VIETNAM DAY COMMITTEE (VDC)

A booklet published by the VDC contained the following policy statement of the VDC adopted by the general membership, June, 1965:

The Vietnam Day Committee is a group of students, faculty and other members of the Bay area community opposed to American intervention in Vietnam, the Dominican Republic and wherever else it may occur. Revolutionary struggles for self-determination are sweeping the world today. American suppression of these movements, we believe, is immoral and a threat to the peace of the world. The Vietnam Day Committee is organizing non-violent direct actions, teach-ins, door-to-door organizing and other educational activities to oppose American intervention. We believe that the struggle for self-determination in other countries is related to the struggle for democracy in America--a democracy in which the people have the facts and the power to make decisions for themselves. The struggles in America against racism, poverty, and bureaucratic conformity are part of the same movement as the struggle against American militarism. We must build a New America and join with those people in Asia, Africa and Latin America building a New World.

Subject was observed participating in a picket line of the VDC engaged in picketing General MAXWELL TAYLOR at the Fairmont Hotel, San Francisco, on August 25, 1965.

Observation by Special Agents of
FBI on 8/25/65

Subject was in attendance at a rally sponsored by the VDC protesting U. S. intervention in Vietnam which was held at Civic Center Plaza, San Francisco, on October 17, 1965.

Observation by Special Agent of
FBI on 10/17/65

He was also observed present at another demonstration of the VDC held in protest of U. S. policy in Vietnam at DeFremery Park, Oakland, California, on November 20, 1965.

Observation by
Special Agent of
FBI on 11/20/65

Subject acted as chairman of the Haight-Ashbury Vietnam Committee meeting which was held at 22 Parnassus Street, San Francisco, on December 1, 1965. Subject did most of the talking at this meeting and explained how the war in Vietnam started. He claimed that the U. S. had offered the French the atomic bomb to use against the Vietnamese during the French-Vietnamese War. FROMER stressed that if the war had not ended in six months it would lead to World War III and involvement of China and the U. S. He said that it is up to individuals to bring pressure on the government to stop the war in Vietnam.

SF T-1, 12/2/65

The Haight-Ashbury Vietnam Committee has headquarters at Number 8, Rivoli Street, San Francisco, and is self described as a neighborhood organization with the purpose of opposing U. S. involvement in Vietnam.

On December 3, 1965, Subject took part in another demonstration sponsored by the VDC which was held in protest of U. S. intervention in Vietnam by picketing the Fairmont Hotel, San Francisco, when Vice President HUMPHREY was registered there on that day as a guest.

Observation by Special Agent of
FBI on 12/3/65

CITIZENS COMMITTEE TO PRESERVE AMERICAN FREEDOMS

The Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications, revised and published December 1, 1961, prepared and released by the Committee on Un-American Activities, United States House of Representatives, contains the following on Page 43 concerning "Citizens Committee to Preserve American Freedoms":

1. "The (Communist) party's front operations in the Southern California District today are  confined to four major organizations, "which include the Citizens Committee to Preserve American Freedoms.

"The Citizens Committee to Preserve American Freedoms * * * specializes in propaganda aimed at abolishing the Committee on Un-American Activities and discrediting the Federal Bureau of Investigation. Created in Los Angeles in 1952, the front organization is run by Frank Wilkinson, an identified Communist who recently resumed the full-time paid post of executive secretary after approximately a year's leave of absence to assist in similar campaign by another front in New York City, the Emergency Civil Liberties Committee.

"When the Committee on Un-American Activities held hearings in Los Angeles September 2-5, 1958, to inquire into the nature of the party's recent reorganization in California, the Citizens Committee to Preserve American Freedoms sponsored a series of public meetings to protest the hearings and the very existence of the committee. Communists subpoenaed as witnesses were guests of honor.

"At this time, leaders of the party's Southern California District were mobilizing Communists in the area for participation in an intensified campaign to abolish this committee of Congress. How the Citizens Committee to Preserve American Freedoms served the Party in this effort was revealed by (Communist Party) District Chairman Dorothy Healey in a report to the Party's Southern California District Council on September 21, 1958. Mrs. HEALEY declared that the party preferred public protest meetings to be held by the Citizens Committee to Preserve American Freedoms rather than under party auspices because Communists could attend without danger of being exposed as members of the party. She also noted that Communists scheduled as congressional committee witnesses could not appear beforehand at openly Communist rallies without creating the impression that the party was conspiring with witnesses to withhold information from the committee."

II. STRUCTURE OF THE VDC

SF T-2 on September 20, 1965, furnished a copy of a mimeographed leaflet captioned, "SUGGESTION FOR THE STRUCTURE OF THE V.D.C." The leaflet set forth the following information:

"The Steering Committee of 30 will meet every Sunday night at open meetings, with the following purposes:

"1. to make proposals to the Tuesday night general membership meeting.

"2. to carry out decisions of the membership."

The leaflet informed that all actions by the Steering Committee would be announced at the opening of the Tuesday night meeting of the general membership. According to the leaflet, the general membership is the final authority on all policy decisions.

The leaflet went on to inform that the basic working arrangement of the VDC is that individual committees work autonomously and make their own decisions within the general framework of philosophy and allocation of resources as decided by the Steering Committee and the general membership.

Continuing, the leaflet related that individual committees must bring their actions to the Steering Committee and the membership when their actions are a matter of political or organizational principle and large allocation of resources. Voting in the Tuesday VDC meeting is based exclusively on membership in the VDC, which is defined as possession of a membership card and active work. According to the leaflet, the Steering Committee is also empowered to make and carry out day-to-day decisions of the VDC and to choose a smaller committee or committees to do the same. The leaflet commented that the general membership will set the next date for election of a new Steering Committee.

IV. ACTIVITIES

SF T-2 on September 20, 1965, furnished a copy of a printed leaflet issued by the VDC captioned, "The War in Vietnam is Against our National Interest". The leaflet commented the war in Vietnam was against our national interest because:

"1. The policy of our government is now to send large numbers of American GIs to fight in Vietnam. A hundred thousand of our men died in the Korean War. We don't want this to happen again.

"2. The war in Vietnam is destroying our democracy. The American people rejected Goldwater's policies of war, but President Johnson has defied his mandate for peace and has escalated the war in Vietnam. Even though Congress has not debated American involvement in Vietnam, it has automatically supported all of the government's actions.

"3. It is in our interest to have a strong United Nations. But our country violates the UN Charter and weakens the UN when we intervene in South Vietnam and the Dominican Republic.

"4. Our nation's attention should be on ending poverty, providing jobs for all, fighting Jim Crow, and guaranteeing the right to vote. Our government cannot accomplish this if it devotes its time, energy, and money to interfering in the affairs of other countries."

The leaflet informed that to end the war, President JOHNSON could do any or all of the following things:

"1. Stop bombing North Vietnam.

"2. Call for negotiations with everybody involved in the war, including the Viet Cong.

"3. Ask the United Nations to try to solve the problem.

"4. Call for free elections in South Vietnam and let the people there make up their own minds."

SF T-2 on October 11, 1965, furnished a copy of a printed leaflet captioned, "ATTENTION ALL MILITARY PERSONNEL", issued by the VDC and printed by the Berkeley Free Press.

A Xerox copy of the leaflet follows.

ATTENTION ALL MILITARY PERSONNEL

You may soon be sent to Vietnam. You have heard about the war in the news; your officers will give you pep talks about it. But you probably feel as confused and uncertain as most Americans do. Many people will tell you to just follow orders and leave the thinking to others. But you have the right to know as much about this war as anyone. After all, it's you—not your congressman—who might get killed.

WHY ARE WE FIGHTING IN VIETNAM?

We are supposed to be fighting to protect democracy in Vietnam, and yet our own government admits that South Vietnam is run by a dictatorship. General Ky, the latest military dictator, is as bad as they come. In a recent interview he said: "People ask me who my heroes are. I have only one -- Hitler. I admire Hitler because he pulled his country together when it was in a terrible state." (London Sunday Mirror, July 4, 1965).

General Ky doesn't mean much to us; we're not even sure how to pronounce his name, but the South Vietnamese have lived under men like him for years. As far as the Vietnamese are concerned, we are fighting on the side of Hitlerism; and they hope we lose.

WHO IS THE ENEMY?

U.S. military spokesmen have often said that their greatest problem is finding the enemy. The enemy, they say, is everywhere. The old woman feeding her chickens may have a stock of hand grenades in her hut. The little boy who trails after the American soldiers during the day slips out to give information to the guerillas at night. The washerwoman at the American air base brings a bomb to work one day. It is impossible, say the military, to tell which are the Viet Cong and which are the civilians.

And so, because the whole Vietnamese people seem to be the enemy, the military is taking no chances. They use tear gas -- a weapon designed for use against civilians. They order American troops to fire at women and children -- because women and children, after all, are firing at American troops. American fighter planes destroy civilian villages with napalm; American B-52's are flattening whole regions. That is why the war in Vietnam is so often called a "dirty war."

When the South Vietnamese people see you in your foreign uniform, they will think of you as their enemy. You are the ones bombing their towns. They don't know whether you're a draftee or a volunteer, whether you're for the war or against it; but they're not taking any chances either.

FREE ELECTIONS

The Vietnamese would like to vote the foreigners out of their country, but they have been denied the chance. According to the Geneva Agreement of 1954, there were supposed to be elections throughout Vietnam in 1956. But the U.S. government was certain that our man in Vietnam, Premier Diem, would lose. So we decided not to allow any election until we were sure we could win. Diem set up a political police force and put all political opposition -- Communist and anti-Communist -- in jail. By 1959, it was clear there weren't going to be any elections, and the guerillas known as the Viet Cong began to fight back. By 1963 our government was fed up with Diem, but still wasn't willing to risk elections. Our CIA helped a group of Vietnamese generals to overthrow Diem and kill him. Since then there have been a series of "better" military dictators. General Ky -- the man who admires Hitler -- is the latest one.

FIGHTING FOR DEMOCRACY

Your job as a soldier is supposed to be "to win the people of South Vietnam." Win them to what -- democracy? No, we keep military dictators in power. What then? The American way of life? But why should they care any more about our way of life than we care about theirs? We can't speak their language or even pronounce their names. We don't know anything about their religion or even what it is. We never even heard of Vietnam until Washington decided to run it.

You are supposed to be fighting "to save the Vietnamese people from Communism." Certainly Communist influence is very strong in the National Liberation Front, the rebel government. Yet most of the people support the NLF. Why? Many of the same people who now lead the NLF led the Vietnamese independence movement against the Japanese during World War II, and then went on to fight against French colonial rule. Most Vietnamese think of the NLF leaders as their country's outstanding patriots. In fact, many anti-Communists have joined the guerrilla forces in the belief that the most important thing is to get rid of foreign domination and military dictators. On the other hand, very few Vietnamese support the official government of General Ky. His army has low morale and a high desertion rate.

THE GUERRILLAS

The newspapers and television have told us again and again what a tough fighter the Vietnamese guerrilla is. Short of ammunition and without any air cover, he can beat forces that outnumber him five or ten to one. Why do they have such high morale? They are not draftees; no draftees ever fight like that. They are not high-paid, professional soldiers. Most of them are peasants who work their fields; they can't even spare the ammunition for target practice.

Their secret is that they know why they are fighting. They didn't hear about Vietnam in the newspapers; they've lived there all their lives. While we were in high school, they were living under the Diem regime and hating it. Now American planes are bombing their towns and strafing their fields; American troops have occupied their country; and if they complain out loud, an American-supported dictator sentences them to jail or the firing squad. Is it any wonder that they fight so fiercely?

CRUSHING THE RESISTANCE

The war in Vietnam is not being fought according to the rules. Prisoners are tortured. Our planes drop incendiary bombs on civilian villages. Our soldiers shoot at women and children. Your officers will tell you that it is all necessary, that we couldn't win the war any other way. And they are right. Americans are no more cruel than any other people; American soldiers don't enjoy this kind of war. But if you are going to wage war against an entire people, you have to become cruel.

The ordinary German soldier in occupied Europe wasn't especially cruel, either. But as the resistance movements grew, he became cruel. He shot at women and children because they were shooting at him; he never asked himself why they were shooting at him. When a certain town became a center of resistance activity, he followed his orders and destroyed the whole town. He knew that SS men were torturing captured resistance fighters, but it wasn't his business to interfere.

FOLLOWING ORDERS

As a soldier you have been trained to obey orders, but as a human being you must take responsibility for your own acts. International and American law recognize that an individual soldier, even if acting under orders, must bear final legal and moral responsibility for what he does. This principle became a part of law after World War II, when the Allied nations, meeting in London, decided that German war criminals must be punished even if they committed war crimes under orders. This principle was the basis of the Nuremberg trials. We believe that the entire war in Vietnam is criminal and immoral. We believe that the atrocities which are necessary to wage this war against the people of Vietnam are inexcusable.

OPPOSE THE WAR

We hope that you too find yourself, as a human being, unable to tolerate this nightmare war, and we hope that you will oppose it. We don't know what kind of risks we are taking in giving you this leaflet; you won't know what risk you will be taking in opposing the war. A growing number of GIs have already refused to fight in Vietnam and have been court-martialed. They have shown great courage. We believe that they, together with other courageous men who will join them, will have influence far out of proportion to their numbers.

There may be many other things you can do; since you are in the service, you know better than civilians what sorts of opposition are possible. But whatever you do, keep your eyes open. Draw your own conclusions from the things you see, read and hear. At orientation sessions, don't be afraid to ask questions, and if you're not satisfied with the answers, keep asking. Take every chance you get to talk to your fellow soldiers about the war.

You may feel the war is wrong, and still decide not to face a court-martial. You may then find yourself in Vietnam under orders. You might be forced to do some fighting -- but don't do any more than you have to. Good luck.

Vietnam Day Committee
2407 Fulton Street
Berkeley, California
549-0811

SF T-5 on December 17, 1965, furnished a copy of a "Dear Friend" letter, dated December 14, 1965, issued by the International Committee of the VDC. The letter informed the recipient there was "now" a serious danger that soon the JOHNSON Administration would further escalate the war in Vietnam by extending the bombing to the population centers of North Vietnam, Haiphong and possibly Hanoi.

The letter informed that should escalation of the war effort in Vietnam take place, the peace groups everywhere, as well as all organizations and individuals opposed to the war, should respond immediately by demonstrating their horror at this outrage.

The letter related the committee was urging the demonstrations should take place within hours or days at American embassies, consulates, information centers and military establishments throughout the world.

The letter commented if such a response were made immediately, it would represent a significant acceleration of the movement to stop the war.

CHARLES HARRISON, Intelligence Unit, Berkeley, California Police Department informed on January 12, 1966 that STEVE CHERKOSS had obtained a Berkeley City Permit for a literature table for the VDC. Officer HARRISON informed that at approximately 3:45 PM, January 12, 1966, approximately 100 to 150 junior high students were milling around the literature table where STEVE CHERKOSS, GEORGE EWART, LARRY HAMLIN, MARILYN MILLIGAN and 4 or 5 other representatives from the VDC were situated. Officer HARRISON informed they were distributing VDC literature in the vicinity of the Garfield Junior High School, Berkeley, and were speaking to the youngsters, encouraging them to organize a VDC to oppose the U.S. policy in Vietnam. CHERKOSS and EWART stated the U.S. had violated the Geneva Agreements and told the students that they could be drafted and killed in about five years. At approximately 5:00 PM, the VDC representatives departed from the area.

SF T-5 on November 18, 1965 reported that on November 13, 1965, GEORGE EWART attended a meeting of the Campus Club of the PLP.

SF T-23 informed on January 13, 1966, that JOHN SELTZ, member of the VDC, and others planned to drop propaganda leaflets on Treasure Island Naval Station, San Francisco, during the evening of January 14, 1966.

According to SF T-23, the leaflets portrayed the charred bodies of "mother and child" and contained on their reverse sides a message critical of the U.S. involvement in Vietnam.

Sergeant DICK CALLAHAN, 115th INTC, San Francisco, informed on January 14, 1966, that the above-described leaflets had been dropped over Oakland at 9:25 PM and over Alameda, California at 9:30 PM. Sergeant CALLAHAN also informed that an unidentified plane had dropped described leaflets on the Alameda Annex near the Naval Supply Depot.

Sergeant CARL DAHL, Intelligence Unit, Oakland Police Department, Oakland, informed on January 14, 1966, that at 11:30 PM, January 14, 1966, four individuals responsible for dropping the described leaflets had been arrested at the San Carlos Airport, San Carlos, California. The four arrested were identified as JAMES HENRY PETRIE, 56, Campbell, California, the pilot; ANTHONY ERNEST BROSKLEY, 28, a heavy equipment operature, Palo Alto, California; RAYMOND P. TIERNAN, JR., 23, a British graduate student at Stanford University, Palo Alto, and GLEN D. FOWLER, San Jose, a student at San Jose State College, San Jose. The airplane used was a Cessna 180, license N1656C, owned by MARGARET H. YOUNG, 2505 Greer Road, Palo Alto.

Sergeant DAHL related on January 16, 1966, that the four persons arrested for dropping the leaflets were released on bond, $1,100 each for PETRIE and TIERNAN, and $550 each for BROSKLEY and FOWLER. Sergeant DAHL added that the Oakland Police Department would confer with the Alameda County District Attorney's Office on possible charges to be filed against the individuals.

Sergeant DAHL later informed that the 4 above-mentioned individuals were charged with conspiring to litter the streets of Alameda County, California. Sergeant DAHL added that the charge against FOWLER and BROSKLEY were dismissed and the cases against PETRIE and TIERNAN are pending.

A review of the Records of the Oakland Police Department, Oakland, revealed the following description for PETRIE, under Oakland Police Department Number 182146:

The Hayward, California "Daily Review", a Hayward, California daily newspaper, in its issue of November 5, 1965, contained an article which informed that RAYMOND PATRICK TIERNAN appeared before juniors at Castro Valley High School, Castro Valley, California, during the "previous week" and spoke against U.S. intervention in Vietnam. He was described as a graduate law student, a protester of U.S. policy in Vietnam and a pacifist.

SF T-24, on January 24, 1966, made available to the FBI, Washington, D.C., two letters from the International Committee of the VDC, which had been mailed to the Center University Federation of University Centers, Caracas, Venezuela, South America.

The letters, written in Spanish, urged demonstrations against U.S. embassies, consulates, information centers, cultural services, military missions and military bases throughout the world should the U.S. Government, "declare war or bomb Haiphong and Hanoi".

SF T-25 on February 14, 19[illegible] graphed VDC statement on [illegible]

The statement informed that BILL EPTON, a revolutionary communist and leader of the PLP, was convicted on December 20, 1964, of conspiring to riot and criminal anarchy in the New York State Supreme Court.

The statement related the Harlem rebellion during the summer of 1964 was the result of high rents, police brutality, crowded housing, unemployment and countless other indignities. The statement remarked that the black people of Harlem and other ghettos throughout the U.S. had been subjected to these conditions for many years. According to the statement, BILL EPTON was the scapegoat of the corrupt establishment that created and intensified these brutal conditions of dehumanization.

The statement went on to say that BILL EPTON strongly opposed the war in Vietnam and had urged his brothers not to fight against the people of Vietnam stating that, "the fight for freedom and liberty is right here in this country."

The statement said the VDC was demanding the charges against BILL EPTON be dropped and the conviction be immediately reversed.

PROTEST DEMONSTRATIONS

A. Demonstration at Voting Residence of Governor EDMUND G. BROWN, 460 Magellan Avenue, San Francisco, September 26, 1965

In the September 27, 1965 issue of "The Daily Californian" newspaper there appeared an article captioned, "VDC Members Picket Brown's Residence".

The article informed that 25 members of the VDC had picketed Governor BROWN's voting residence at 460 Magellan Avenue, San Francisco, on September 26, 1965.

The article informed the VDC was protesting Governor BROWN's criticizing of SI CASADY, President of the California Democratic Council. CASADY had been asked by Governor BROWN to resign after making statements praising students who burned their draft cards.

CECIL PHARRIS, Assistant Inspector, Intelligence Unit, San Francisco Police Department, San Francisco, informed on September 26, 1965 there were no arrests or incidents in connection with the above-described demonstration.

B. International Days of Protest,
October 15-16, 1965

SF T-2 on September 20, 1965, furnished a copy of a printed leaflet captioned, "Vietnam Day Committee, OCT 15-16, International Days of Protest."

Among other things, the leaflet informed that the VDC had set October 15-16, 1965, as dates of International Days of Protest against military intervention, and had sent a call for support throughout the world. The leaflet added the VDC office at Berkeley would be the international headquarters for the protest. The leaflet went on to inform that a community anti-war meeting would take place on the Berkeley campus on Friday, October 15, 1965, and Saturday morning, October 16, 1965.

According to the leaflet, the meeting would culminate at noon, October 16, 1965, with a "peace march" through Berkeley to the Oakland Army Terminal (OAT), "the country's major send-off port of men and materials to Vietnam."

Sergeant DAHL informed on October 5, 1965, that on October 4, 1965, two representatives of VDC contacted Chief of Police EDWARD TOOTHMAN, Oakland Police Department, for a permit to march on October 15, 1965 from UCB campus to the OAT. The representatives indicated the march would begin at 7:30 PM and last for about 2 to 2-1/2 hours, with a minimum of 2,500 and a maximum of 15,000 individuals participating. The representatives estimated there would be approximately 5,000 individuals in the march and torches would be carried to light the way.

Chief TOOTHMAN informed the representatives the police department did not have the authority to grant a permit and this matter was handled by the City Manager. Chief TOOTHMAN commented that the City Manager relied on the recommendations of the Oakland Police Department and the Oakland Fire Department. When asked what he would recommend, Chief TOOTHMAN replied he would recommend the permit be denied.

Upon hearing this, the representatives stated they would hold a march and use torches whether the permit was granted.

A Special Agent of the FBI observed on October 14, 1965 that on October 14, 1965, the VDC held a press conference in San Francisco, at which time MORRIS HIRSCH, who identified himself as a "rank and file" member of the VDC, stated the march through Berkeley and Oakland would be held even though permits to do so were not issued.

The following is a description for HIRSCH as set forth in the records of the Registration Office, UCB:

Sex	Male
Race	White
Born	June 23, 1933, Chicago, Illinois
Height	5'8"
Weight	175
Eyes	Grey-green
Hair	Dark
Employment	Mathematics Professor at UCB

Sergeant DAHL informed on October 14, 1965 that on October 14, 1965, the Acting City Manager of Oakland denied the VDC permit to march through Oakland on October 15, 1965. This refusal was appealed to the Oakland City Council, who also denied the permit.

Inspector O'MEARA informed on October 15, 1965, that he had received information that on October 14, 1965, the VDC held a meeting and discussed detailed plans for the October 15-16, 1965 march. At the meeting, BETTINA APTHEKER, who made her first appearance at a VDC meeting, cautioned those in attendance on how to make arrests more difficult.

Special Agents of the FBI observed that the two-day demonstration began on October 15, 1965 at Sproul Hall Plaza, UCB, shortly after 9:00 AM. The classes at the University had already commenced and the crowd which was small and gathered subsequently, was entertained by folk singers during the morning hours.

At approximately 11:30 AM, October 15, 1965, the VDC held a press briefing on the UCB campus, and announced that in spite of the fact that the Oakland City authorities had refused to issue a parade permit, the march from the UCB campus to OAT, 7 miles away, would begin as scheduled at 7:30 PM.

At 12 noon, October 15, 1965, the crowd had grown to approximately 1,000. At 12 noon, the rally began. From 12 noon to 5:00 PM, five speakers were presented and their remarks were directed primarily towards criticizing U.S. foreign policy in Vietnam.

At approximately 5:00 PM, JERRY RUBIN announced that all means to appeal for a permit for the VDC march through the streets of Oakland and the City of Oakland, had been denied to them. JERRY RUBIN was followed by PAUL JACOBS, who was one of three speakers who continued to protest U.S. foreign policy in Vietnam.

> PAUL JACOBS informed Special Agents of the FBI on August 18, 1949 that in 1933 and 1934, he was active in the Young Communist League (YCL), but was a member for less than one year. He stated he was expelled from the YCL for engaging in Trotskyite activities. According to JACOBS, he remained a Trotskyite for about one year.
> The YCL has been designated by the Attorney General of the U.S. pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

At approximately 7:45 PM, October 15, 1965, the marchers began leaving UCB campus. Monitor captains preceded and followed the line of marchers. As the marchers approached the Berkeley-Oakland border, they were repulsed by a cordon of Oakland police officers. The marchers, whose ranks were estimated from 4,000 to 12,000, then proceeded to the Civic Center Plaza, Berkeley. At approximately 11:55 PM, October 15, 1965, the crowd began to break up. An unknown person threw a tear gas bomb which disrupted the crowd in the plaza. An 18 year old girl was injured in the eye by the canister-type bomb utilized. During the remainder of the wee hours of the morning and until 4:30 AM

October 16, 1965, movies were shown. At 3:15 AM, the crowd had dwindled to approximately 150 persons.

An agreement had been reached with the Berkeley Police Department by the marchers that they would not return to the Civic Center Plaza, Berkeley, because of traffic resulting for a football game at UCB stadium on October 16, 1965.

At approximately 11:45 AM, October 16, 1965, the protest commenced with a rally in the vicinity of the Civic Center Plaza. At the rally, MORT SCHEER was introduced as a representative of PLP.

SCHEER addressed a crowd which now numbered about 350 as "comrades". SCHEER criticized the imperialistic aggression of the U.S. in Vietnam and remarked that in order to win, "we must get rid of the ruling class in the United States." SCHEER added that the working class and the Negroes must be united to achieve this end.

MORT SCHEER has been publicly identified as a Vice President of PLP.

PAUL MONTAUK also spoke at the rally on October 16, 1965. He was also critical of U.S. foreign policy and action in Vietnam.

MIKE MYERSON also spoke at the rally on October 16, 1965. He claimed the U.S. military forces were bombing and murdering thousands of innocent Vietnamese women and children and were on the verge of bombing dikes and dams which would cause starvation to millions of defenseless peasants.

SF T-26 reported on January 13, 1965, that MIKE MYERSON, at a meeting of the National Coordinating Committee of the W.E.B. Du Bois Clubs of America (DCA) in San Francisco, reported to the committee members, he was serving as International Secretary of the DCA. This meeting was held December 31, 1964 to January 2, 1965.

At approximately 2:15 PM, between 1,700 and 3,000 demonstrators moved out of Berkeley and commenced marching south on Grove Street towards Oakland. In the meantime, the Oakland Police Department had formed a double wedge of policemen on the Oakland side of the city limits and were waiting for the arrival of the marchers. At 2:30 PM, 16 black-leather-jacketed motorcyclists, known as the "Hell's Angels" arrived at the Grove-Adeline and 62nd Street intersection. Some of the members began wrapping their hands with leather belts. The members of the "Hell's Angels" began mingling with the spectators, but were forced behind the line of Oakland policemen. At 3:37 PM, the marchers arrived at the above-mentioned intersection. Upon reaching the intersection, a member of the "Hell's Angels" broke through the police lines and grabbed the lead banner of the VDC marchers. Both police departments moved in and broke up the fight. One member of the "Hell's Angels" was injured on the head and a Berkeley police officer suffered a broken leg.

The demonstrators then sat down in the intersection on the Berkeley side of the city boundary. Things remained impasse until the demonstration began breaking up at 5:05 PM.

There were no further incidents although five more members of the "Hell's Angels", which has been publicly described as a notorious outlaw motorcycle group, were arrested and charged with assault with a deadly weapon in connection with the injury to the Berkeley officer. They were later released after questioning.

C. Protest March, November 20, 1965

A Special Agent of the FBI observed on October 18, 1965 that at 12 noon, October 18, 1965, a rally was held at Sproul Hall Plaza, UCB. The rally was co-sponsored by the VDC and the master of ceremonies and one of the main speakers was BETTINA APTHEKER. During her speech, she condemned U.S. Attorney General KATZENBACH, the Federal Government in general, and damned the Oakland, California Police Department for its part in stopping the VDC marches on October 15-16, 1965.

BETTINA APTHEKER called for a national mobilization to be held in Berkeley of all groups interested in civil rights, individual rights and all peace movements opposed to the war in Vietnam, to unite and form a unit of solidarity for a national march on November 13, 1965 from Berkeley through Oakland.

STEVE WEISSMAN then spoke at the rally and called for a mobilization of all the Negro communities in West Berkeley, West Oakland and East Oakland, to support the November 13, 1965 march. WEISSMAN commented there would be an intensive campaign of leafletting, speeches and rallies to mobilize the Negro community in support of the march and peace rally on November 13, 1965.

WEISSMAN added the planned march for November 6, 1965 was changed to November 13, 1965, because of a civil rights meeting being held somewhere in the South on November 6, 1965, where support would be garnered for the November 13, 1965 rally and march.

The planned march of November 13, 1965 was subsequently changed to November 20, 1965.

At the rally on October 18, 1965, APTHEKER and WEISSMAN emphasized the fact that the Oakland Police Department had denied individual's liberties and rights in stopping the VDC march. They implied that "now" was the time for all of the radical left to organize and crush the Oakland Police Department and the Oakland power structure.

A Special Agent of the FBI observed on October 27, 1965, that at a VDC press conference on October 27, 1965, at the Sir Francis Drake Hotel, San Francisco, mention was made that on the "previous night" (October 26, 1965) the general membership of the VDC had radified the following plans for the march on October 20, 1965:

12 noon to 1:00 PM, pre-march rally at Sproul Hall Plaza, UCB.

1:00 PM, march will depart from UCB to the OAT.

After picketing at the base, the marchers will return to 7th and Peralta Streets, Oakland, for a rally.

Announcement was also made at the press conference that the purpose of the march was to oppose American intervention in Vietnam, and demand an end to Federal and local suppression of the protest movement. Mention was also made that a team of lawyers would take every possible legal step to force the City of Oakland to permit the march.

Records of the U.S. District Court, San Francisco, revealed that on November 1, 1965, a petition was filed by the VDC which asked for an injunction against the City of Oakland, the Mayor, the Chief of Police and the Acting City Manager. U.S. District Judge WILLIAM T. SWEIGERT filed an order for the defendants to show cause by November 12, 1965, why they should not permit a parade through the City of Oakland on November 20, 1965, by the VDC.

In the November 12, 1965, issue of the "San Francisco Examiner", there appeared an article captioned, "Berkeley OKs VDC March, but Oakland Sticks to Ban."

The article informed that the City of Berkeley had approved a parade permit, however, the City of Oakland was denying the parade permit on the grounds it could cause violence. Oakland City Manager JOHN A. MORIN denied the permit for several reasons.

1. "The proposed 7-1/2 mile march to a point near OAT starting at 1:00 PM would still be going on after dark."

2. The fact he had received 3 parade applications and one amended petition, all signed by different individuals in the VDC. This led him to believe the VDC was a "loosely-knit organization which might not be able to control itself."

3. "It is not reasonable to expect local taxpayers to suffer inconvenience and exposure to possible violence, as well as having to pay the high cost of protection."

On November 17, 1965, U.S. District Judge SWEIGERT issued a preliminary injunction asked by the plaintiff (VDC) with the following restrictions.

The parade must enter Oakland no later than 11:00 AM, November 20, 1965, and must terminate at 7th and Peralta Streets no later than 4:00 PM. If permission from the owners of the property at 7th and Peralta (U.S. Post Office) can not be obtained, alternate points of dispersement will be De Fremery Park or Bushrod Park, Oakland. Both of these alternate locations were offered by the defendant, City of Oakland and Alameda County, as dispersal points.

Permission for the use of the vacant lot at 7th and Peralta was subsequently denied by the owners.

The injunction prevented the plaintiff from sending any persons to the OAT.

The rally following the parade must terminate no later than 5:00 PM.

Law enforcement officers in Oakland and Alameda County were restricted from arresting plaintiff; however, individuals who might commit acts of violence or break possible laws, were subject to arrest. Defendant and their agents must protect the plaintiff and thus sanctioned from attacks by any group, such as the "Hell's Angels". The parade must consist of no more than 1,000 persons in each group and each group must maintain a distance of 60 feet or more from groups, so as not to interfere with east-west traffic. The marchers must march no more than 7 abreast and not occupy more than 1/2 of the street. In addition, the injunction provided that the plaintiff must file by noon, November 18, 1965, the names and addresses of all the monitors of the parade. If reasonable emergency arises, law enforcement agents of the defendant must change the parade route in a reasonable manner consistent with the parade route.

On November 20, 1965, a Special Agent of the FBI was furnished with a printed leaflet captioned, "Why We March .. Against the War in Vietnam."

The leaflet stated that every day young Americans were daily in a war they didn't understand. The leaflet further stated that American soldiers were daily "dying" because they think "we" want them to die. "If we kept silent, we would be disloyal to them. We march against this war because we believe that our loyalty to humanity and to our country is far more important than any loyalty to politics and generals."

The leaflet was issued by the VDC and invited the recipient to join the march from Berkeley to Oakland on November 20, 1965.

A Special Agent of the FBI observed on November 19, 1965, that a leaflet captioned, "VDC Bulletin" was being distributed in Berkeley. A copy of the leaflet, which was furnished to the Special Agent, informed that "everything is 'go' for the march", on November 20, 1965. The leaflet explained that the purpose of the march was to "protest American intervention in Vietnam and to affirm our right to peacefully protest, even in Oakland, when we feel our government is wrong."

A Special Agent of the FBI observed on November 20, 1965 that the march on November 20, 1965, was led by the sheriff's van and patroled by police and the California Highway Patrol. The march began at 9:50 AM from the UCB campus. The marchers were divided into groups of approximately 1,000 with some 50 feet between groups. There were 10 groups and the groups wended their way through the cities of Oakland and Berkeley and were joined by people on the sidelines. The 3 lead groups had sound trucks and monitors for the parade and were equipped with 2-way radios. The first group reached its destination, De Fremery Park, 18th and Adeline Streets, Oakland, at approximately 12 noon, and the last marchers reached the park at approximately 1:50 PM.

During the above march, counter-demonstrators were on the scene with signs reading, "Win the War in Vietnam" and "Let's Get the Viet Cong out of California."

A second Special Agent of the FBI observed on November 20, 1965 that the rally at De Fremery Park began at approximately 1:15 PM with some 7,000 people in attendance. Among the speakers was one DANIEL HEALY, who stated that on November 10, 1965, he refused induction into the U.S. Armed Forces. HEALY stated the U.S. Government forced him to choose between being a criminal or losing his self-respect.

Another speaker was DONALD DUNCAN, who was introduced as a veteran of the Vietnam war, who had spent 18 months in combat and had received the Silver Star medal for heroism. DUNCAN was very critical of U.S. policy in Vietnam. JOHN BURTON, California State Assemblyman, also spoke at the rally and said war was an economic burden on the nation, and killings must stop. The rally ended at approximately 4:30 PM.

Sergeant DAHL informed on November 20, 1965, there were no arrests or incidents during the march and rally on November 20, 1965.

D. Demonstration Against Vice-President HUBERT HUMPHREY, Fairmont Hotel, San Francisco, December 3, 1965

On December 3, 1965, a Special Agent of the FBI was furnished a copy of a printed leaflet captioned, "Humphrey! What Does your Liberalism mean in Vietnam?". The leaflet which was issued by the VDC was distributed during a demonstration against Vice President HUMPHREY on December 3, 1965, at the Fairmont Hotel, San Francisco, by the VDC.

Special Agents of the FBI observed on December 3, 1965 that the VDC commenced picketing at the Fairmont Hotel at approximately 5:45 PM on December 3, 1965. This picketing took place across the street from the main entrance to the Fairmont Hotel, Mason Street, San Francisco, where Vice President HUMPHREY was residing and was to be featured guest at a $100-a-plate Democratic Party fund-raising banquet.

Subsequently, some of the demonstrators who were protesting U.S. intervention in Vietnam, proceeded to march on the California Street entrance to the hotel. A maximum number of pickets at one time reached approximately 250 on the Mason Street side and 150 on the California Street side, considerably below the 1500 to 3000 participants the VDC expected in the demonstration.

The demonstrators carried signs reading, "repent" and "Make Love, Not War." They chanted, "Hey, hey, LBJ, how many kids did you kill today?" and "2, 4, 6, 8, when you gonna negotiate?".

At approximately 8:40 PM, as Vice President HUMPHREY was about to enter the Gold Ballroom in the Fairmont Hotel, where he was to deliver his speech, GEORGE ARMSTEAD KAUFFMAN attempted to shout a statement; however, he was quickly removed from the immediate area by members of the San Francisco Police Department. The demonstration outside ended at approximately 9:35 PM and according to Lieutenant BERNARD O'LEARY, San Francisco Police Department, there were no arrests or other incidents during the activities on December 3, 1965.

SF T-27 has informed that during 1948, GEORGE ARMSTEAD KAUFFMAN was a member of the Herman Boettcher Club, Alameda County Communist Party.

In the December 5, 1965 issue of the "San Francisco Examiner", there appeared an article captioned "The Vice President faces VDC." The article related that Vice President HUMPHREY on December 4, 1965 had met with a six-member delegation from the VDC at the Moffett Naval Air Station, California. Among other things, the article stated that ROBERT SCHEER, a spokesman for the delegation, had remarked, "it was worthwhile to get a clear statement from the administration that it was not willing to negotiate with the National Liberation Front."

The article described the National Liberation Front as an underground political group.

In the December 12, 1961 issue of "The Daily Californian", there appeared an article captioned, "Fair Play for Cuba", which was signed by two individuals, one of whom was "BOB SCHEER, Grad. Stu, Econ, member Fair Play Exec. Comm."

In the May 22, 1965 issue of the "San Francisco Examiner" there appeared an article captioned, "The 'camp' meeting at Cal". Among other things, the article identified ROBERT SCHEER as research director for the Fair Play for Cuba Committee and stated that SCHEER had visited Cuba in the summer of 1964, in defiance of a U.S. Department of State travel ban.

ROBERT SCHEER is the foreign news editor for "Ramparts" magazine.

"Ramparts" is self-described as the Catholic journal of political opinion.

The February 23, 1966 issue of the "Berkeley Daily Gazette" informed, among other things, that "SCHEER, an outspoken critic of the JOHNSON Administration policies in Vietnam was "presently"touring South Vietnam and Cambodia the latter country at the invitation of Prince SHIANOUK".

E. Demonstrations against U.S. Secretary of State DEAN RUSK and Vice President HUMPHREY, San Francisco, December 10, 1965

A Special Agent of the FBI observed on December 10, 1965, that at approximately 10:30 AM, U.S. Secretary of State DEAN RUSK arrived at the San Francisco International Airport, San Mateo County, California. At the airport, there were approximately 50 individuals, some of whom were there on behalf of the VDC.

During the demonstration, a leaflet issued by the VDC, Berkeley, was distributed.

The leaflet asked Secretary of State RUSK if he would be willing to participate in a nationally televised debate and if he could honestly defend-"U.S. financing of French efforts to retain colonial control of Vietnam between 1948-1954?

"The breaking of the implementation of the Geneva Accords of 1954, with its provision for free election?

"The creation of the republic of South Vietnam under the leadership of DIEM, and subsequent leaders who were even less popular?

"Consistently ignoring the call of the 'enemy' during the past 10 years for a reconvening of the Geneva conference and a return to the essential provisions of the document?"

Special Agents of the FBI on December 10, 1965, observed at approximately 11:30 AM, December 10, 1965, Secretary of State RUSK addressed the 6th Biennial Convention of the AFL-CIO at the San Francisco Civic Auditorium. During Secretary of State RUSK's speech, approximately 30 individuals, who were seated in the balcony, held signs which were critical of the U.S. foreign policy in Vietnam. Following Secretary of State RUSK's speech, the demonstrators were escorted from the audience by union members.

The demonstrators then commenced to march in front of the San Francisco Civic Auditorium. After the morning session, the demonstrators proceeded across the street to the San Francisco Civic Center Plaza where an impromtu rally was held.

At approximately 2:30 PM, December 10, 1965, Vice President HUMPHREY spoke before the 6th Biennial AFL-CIO Convention. During Vice President HUMPHREY's speech, 16 demonstrators marched outside the auditorium.

Assistant Inspector CECIL PHARRIS, Intelligence Unit, San Francisco Police Department, informed on December 10, 1965, there were no arrests or other incidents on December 10, 1965, nor were there any demonstrators at the San Francisco International Airport when Secretary of State RUSK departed or when Vice President HUMPHREY arrived or departed.

F. Demonstrations at Offices of U.S. Congressman JEFFERY COHELAN, Oakland, on the following dates:

1. January 31, 1966

ROBERT HULL, UCB Campus Police, informed on January 31, 1966 that on January 31, 1966 a noon-time rally sponsored by the VDC was held at Sproul Hall Plaza, UCB. At approximately 1:30 PM, some 200 individuals, some of whom carried signs reading, "Impeach JOHNSON" and "Fight JOHNSON Madness," began marching from UCB to Oakland, California, where they intended to picket the offices of U.S. Congressman JEFFERY COHELAN (Democrat), 16th and Telegraph Avenue, Oakland. The demonstrators marched to Latham Square Building, 508 - 16th Street, Oakland, where Congressman COHELAN's offices are located. Approximately 100 of the marchers picketed outside the building while another 100 went upstairs to Congressman COHELAN's offices on the 8th floor to petition his representative, ROY LEMON. The petition urged Congressman COHELAN to initiate legislation for President JOHNSON's impeachment and also urged Congressman COHELAN to return to the bay area to debate with VDC leaders.

Special Agents of the FBI observed on January 31, 1966, that at approximately 5:30 PM, there were some 125 demonstrators in the building and food and blankets were being taken into the building by the marchers; outside, some 25 individuals were marching with signs calling for the impeachment of President JOHNSON, asking him to resign and demanding U.S. get out of Vietnam.

At approximately 7:00 PM, January 31, 1966, the building manager, Latham Square Building, Oakland, read a statement and informed those remaining in the building they would be subject to arrest. The marchers then left the building and departed.

Sergeant DAHL informed there were no arrests or incidents during the rally and march on January 31, 1966.

2. February 2, 1966

Officer HULL informed on February 2, 1966, that the VDC planned to hold a noon-time rally on February 2, 1966, at Sproul Hall Plaza, UCB. Officer HALL added that UCB rules state an organization can hold only one rally per week at UCB.

Continuing Officer HALL commented that at 11:55 AM, February 2, 1966, BETTINA APTHEKER, JACK WEINBERG and SUSAN STEIN, members of the VDC, began to call for a rally on Sproul Hall Plaza. Since the rally was not authorized, representatives of the VDC placed their own public address system in the plaza in defiance of another UCB rule and regulation. The speakers then commenced to criticize U.S. policy in Vietnam.

In view of the fact that the rally was held without a permit, each speaker was admonished by a representative of the UCB administration and told that he/she was violating UCB rules. Each speaker ridiculed the UC administration and the University rules, and the individuals then proceeded to speak [illegible]

BETTINA APTHEKER, also a member of the UCB Rules Committee, told the crowd that President JOHNSON continued to lie to the American people. She stated that the whole peace venture conducted by President JOHNSON and his colleagues was a fraud against the whole world. She demanded that the U.S. recognize the National Liberation Front in Vietnam and the Viet Cong government and withdraw all U.S. troops from the Vietnam area. BETTINA APTHEKER claimed that taking the Vietnam problems to the United Nations (UN) was an act of hypocrisy.

JERRY RUBIN told the group there would be a rally at noon on Thursday, February 3, 1966, at Sproul Hall Plaza, UCB. RUBIN went on to say that following the rally there would be a march from Berkeley to the offices of Congressman COHELAN, where there would be a demonstration and sit-in at his offices.

RUBIN related the following demands would be made upon Congressman COHELAN:

1. He initiate impeachment proceedings against President LYNDON JOHNSON for waging undeclared war in violation of U.S. Constitution.

2. He vote against any further appropriations for the war in Vietnam.

3. He return to his district by February 10, 1966 to debate the Vietnam war with a VDC member.

Officer HULL informed that there were no arrests or incidents during the rally on February 2, 1966.

A review of the records of the Registrar's Office, UCB, revealed the following background information for SUSAN COLE STEIN, also known as Mrs. BERNARD L. (BUDDY) STEIN, nee SUSAN ELLEN COLE:

The article informed that the 3 students were accused of violating new free speech violations, for staging an unauthorized anti-Vietnam war rally in early February (February 2, 1966). Continuing, the article informed that under the ruling the 3 students' activities would be curtailed until June 9, 1966.

A review of the records of the Registrar's Office, UCB, revealed the following background information concerning JACOBS:

Officer HULL informed on February 3, 1966 that on February 3, 1966, the VDC, utilizing a permit issued to the SDS, attempted to hold a noon-time rally at Sproul Hall Plaza, UCB. Due to a torrential downpour, the group huddled under the building eaves.

According to Officer HULL, the rally attracted approximately 100 people, which was considered by Officer HALL to be a "fizzle".

Sergeant DAHL informed that at approximately 1:00 PM on February 3, 1966, individuals appeared at the offices of U.S. Congressman COHELAN, Oakland. The demonstrators were informed by the building manager which housed U.S. Congressman COHELAN's offices, that his offices were closed for the day. Despite the announcement, the demonstrators commenced a sit-in on the 8th floor where the offices were located. There was a maximum of some 70 demonstrators in the building, however, at 6:45 PM, there were only 12 remaining demonstrators.

These 12 demonstrators left the building with the remark that they would return at a later date.

Sergeant DAHL informed on February 3, 1966, that on February 3, 1966, there were no arrests or incidents in the building.

3. February 7, 1966

Sergeant DAHL informed on February 8, 1966, that on February 7, 1966, WILLIAM CROSBY MILLER, member of the VDC; MATTHEW WILLIAM ZION, who was arrested in connection with a sit-in at Sproul Hall Plaza, UCB, on December 3, 1964 and GEORGE ARMSTEAD KAUFFMAN were arrested outside U.S. Congressman COHELAN's office by PAT KENKE, Executive Secretary of the Morgan Peacock Corporation, owners of the Latham Square Building. Miss KENKE made a citizen's arrest.

Sergeant DAHL explained that the 3 above-mentioned individuals were taken into custody by members of the Oakland Police Department and were charged with trespassing, disturbing the peace and failure to disperse.

Sergeant DAHL further explained that at approximately 2:00 PM, February 7, 1966, 12 demonstrators began a sit-in protest in the hall outside U.S. Congressman COHELAN's office. At 5:00 PM, which was the office closing hour, the 3 abovementioned individuals were told to leave. At 7:00 PM, they were again told to leave the building, which they refused to do. They remarked they would not leave until they had a personal confrontation with U.S. Congressman COHELAN. As previously mentioned, they were arrested by Miss KENKE at approximately 7:45 PM.

A review of the records of the Department of Motor Vehicles, Sacramento, reveal a Chauffeur's Permit for WILLIAM CROSBY MILLER, under number H271408. He was described in the permit as follows:

A review of MILLER's identification record under FBI Number 365 363F, reveals MILLER had been fingerprinted by the Sheriff's Office, Edwardsville, Illinois, on January 2, 1963 on a charge of grand theft. No disposition was set forth.

A review of the records of the Oakland Police Department, under their number 182704, revealed the following description for ZION:

Sergeant DAHL informed on March 31, 1966, that on March 30, 1966, KAUFFMAN, MILLER and ZION were found guilty of the charges against them. Sergeant DAHL added that the 3 individuals had appealed their convictions.

G. Three-day Protest Rally and Planned Strike, UCB, February 7, 8 and 9,1966

On February 4, 1966, a Special Agent of the FBI received a copy of a printed leaflet captioned "Why Strike?", issued by the VDC. The leaflet commented that if the JOHNSON administration escalates the war in Vietnam, so must "we" intensify "our" committment to stop it. The leaflet informed the VDC was planning a work-transfer walk-out for Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday (February 7, 8 and 9, 1966).

The leaflet commented the strike was not aimed directly at the University, but at a political system which influenced it. The leaflet remarked the protest was a political protest and would be successful if a sizeable minority of students and faculty committed themselves to building a peace movement.

"For 3 days we plan to transfer the work we would normally do in class to a discussion of the war and of the development of programs to stop it." The leaflet went on to say, "On Wednesday, a student walk-out is planned. Everybody transfer your work during the demonstration. We urge the entire university community to join together in this action."

Officer HULL, UCB Campus Police, informed on February 7, 1966 that on February 7, 1966, the VDC sponsored a rally at Sproul Hall Plaza, UCB. Officer HULL related the rally commenced at 12 noon and terminated at 1:00 PM. According to Officer HULL, the speakers included SUSAN STEIN, JAMIE ALLEN, JACK WEINBERG, MORRIS HIRSCH and ROBERT HURWITT, all of whom spoke against U.S. foreign policy in Vietnam. Officer HULL stated the rally was MC'd by HURWITT, who commented there would be a march to Congressman COHELAN's offices later in the day.

SF T-15 on February 8, 1966, identified JAMIE ALLEN as a current member of the BAYSA.

Officer HULL, UCB, informed on February 8, 1966 that the Freshman class at UCB had a permit to hold a rally at Sproul Hall Plaza, UCB, on February 8, 1966. Officer HULL further informed that a representative of the Freshman class had the microphone for approximately 5 minutes when JACK WEINBERG, a member of the VDC Steering Committee, jumped on the platform and took the microphone away from the speaker. WEINBERG then announced there would be a VDC rally.

Featured speaker at the rally was BETTINA APTHEKER, who proceeded to attack the U.S. foreign policy and called for a two-hour walk-out at UCB after the noon-time rally on February 9, 1966. APTHEKER remarked that if 1,000 students participated in the walk-out it would be a success. APTHEKER added the rally was not an anti-university rally but an anti-war protest.

JAMIE ALLEN also spoke at the rally and informed those in attendance of the march on the Oakland Induction Center on February 16, 1966. She did not comment at what time the march would take place.

The march on the Oakland Induction Center was subsequently changed to February 23, 1966.

Officer HULL related on February 9, 1966, that the VDC held a noon-time rally on February 9, 1966 at Sproul Hall Plaza, UCB. The rally started at 12 noon and lasted until approximately 1:10 PM with about 1,200 persons in attendance. To determine who in the crowd was supporting the VDC, those in attendance were told to sit down. This was intended as a show of strength. Only some 200 sat down.

STEVE WEISSMAN, a member of the VDC Steering Committee, upon seeing such a small number seated, commented "we evidentally did not get through to the students." He wondered outloud what could be done.

Officer HULL went on to say that the planned student strike appeared to have failed and did not receive any backing from faculty members. After the rally some 200 persons remained in the area and broke up into "work shops" with the announced intention of studying what action would be taken by the VDC when UN Ambassador to the UN, ARTHUR GOLDBERG appeared at the UCB Campus activities on March 25, 1966, for the Charter Day exercises; what action would be taken in connection with the march on the Oakland Induction Center and a discussion of U.S. foreign policy in Vietnam.

The "Berkeley Gazette" in its issue of February 9, 1966, described the student strike at UCB as a "flop" and a "fiasco".

The article commented that a check of attendance at regular classes at the UCB on February 9, 1966, showed it to have been little affected by the strike.

Officer HULL informed on February 7, 8 and 9, 1966, that there were no arrests on February 7, 8 and 9, 1966.

H. Demonstration at Oakland Induction Center, Oakland, February 23, 1966

On February 23, 1966, a Special Agent of the FBI received a copy of a printed leaflet, "WOMEN: MARCH AGAINST THE WAR - FOR HIM AND FOR ALL OF AMERICA'S YOUNG MEN", issued by the Women's March Committee, VDC. The leaflet was distributed in Berkeley and informed that on February 23, 1966, there would be an all-women's march on the Oakland Induction Center. According to the leaflet those wishing to march would congregate at Constitution Square in Berkeley at 1:15 PM and would arrive at the Oakland Induction Center at approximately 3:15 PM.

In the February 23, 1966 issue of "The Daily Californian", there appeared an article captioned, "A Female March to Oakland."

The article, among other things, quoted JAMIE ALLEN described as organizer of the all-women VDC march as stating:

> "The Government can't accuse us of being draft dodgers, or of lacking the courage to fight > in the war. That is why we are going to march to Oakland's Induction Center."

> The article went on to say that ALLEN, a non-student and member of the VDC, Berkeley, felt it was imperative "at this time" that women should take an active position in the anti-war effort.

CHARLES HARRISON, Intelligence Unit, Berkeley Police Department, Berkeley, informed on February 23, 1966, that at approximately 12 noon, February 23, 1966, a rally sponsored by the "Women's Committee for March", VDC, 2407 Fulton Street, Berkeley, was held at Sproul Hall Plaza, UCB. At the rally, JAMIE ALLEN commented, "As women, we aren't worried about our draft status, but we are protesting President JOHNSON's illegal and immoral war." ALLEN went on to say, "We are saying, bring our sons, our husbands and our brothers home now." Officer HARRISON went on to inform that at 1:00 PM, February 23, 1966, BETTINA APTHEKER with a hand bullhorn, assembled the marchers on the UCB Campus and directed the march to the Oakland Induction Center, 1515 Clay Street, Oakland.

A Special Agent of the FBI observed on February 23, 1966, that at approximately 4:00 PM, February 23, 1966, some 275 individuals, the majority of whom were females, appeared in the immediate vicinity of the Oakland Induction Center, where an impromptu rally was held. While the rally was in progress, BETTINA APTHEKER and 2 other marchers, attempted to present a petition to the commanding officer, but were told to return the next morning since the Induction Center had closed for the day.

At the rally, SAVANNAH BELLO, who was described as a member of the Richmond Chapter of the Congress of Racial Equality, asked why Negroes had to fight in Vietnam when they had no civil rights in the U.S.

Officer HARRISON informed that the activities terminated at 4:20 PM on February 23, 1966 and there were no arrests or noteworthy incidents during the march and rally.

I. Demonstration Against UN Ambassador ARTHUR J. GOLDBERG, Greek Theater, UCB, March 25, 1966

SF T-1 reported on January 27, 1966, that during a VDC meeting in Berkeley on January 26, 1966, ROBERT HURWITT, a member of the VDC Steering Committee, mentioned the "next drive" would probably occur on Charter Day, March 25, 1966.

Charter Day exercises are held during the latter part of March to celebrate the day the UC received its charter.

The exercises are held in the Greek Theater, UCB, and are featured with the appearance of one of the outstanding speakers in the U.S.

A Special Agent of the FBI observed on March 22, 1966, that a noon-time rally co-sponsored by the VDC was held at Sproul Hall, UCB. At the rally, mention was made that UCB planned to honor UN Ambassador GOLDBERG and "chief international spokesman for the war in Vietnam."

At the rally a leaflet issued by the Peace Rights Organizing Committee (PROC) was distributed. The leaflet carried the message, "When GOLDBERG arrives to accept his degree, we hope that everyone in the audience will rise, picket signs in hand, to voice their opinion."

SF T-18 reported on March 20, 1966, that BETTINA APTHEKER at a meeting of the DCA, Berkeley Chapter, on March 20, 1966, called for a "booing of UN Ambassador GOLDBERG", during the Charter Day exercises on March 25, 1966.

In the March 26, 1966 issue of the "San Francisco Chronicle" there appeared an article captioned, "Charter Day address, GOLDBERG cheered - lively UC protest".

The article informed that waves of boos and catcalls mingled with thunderous applause when UN Ambassador GOLDBERG was introduced. The article informed that 1,000 of the 13,000 spectators began to leave the Greek Theater, UCB, in protest to UN Ambassador GOLDBERG's appearance as a spokesman for U.S.

policy in Vietnam. The article further informed that throughout UN Ambassador GOLDBERG's address, he faced a sea of anti-Vietnam placards and an undercurrent of boos were heard, with the dominant cheers and applause.

In another article in the above-described issue, mention was made that the demonstration was spearheaded by PROC. The article related that MARK STAHL, 2805 Fulton Street, Berkeley, a lab assistant, was arrested on March 25, 1966, during the Charter Day ceremonies and was charged with being a "public nuisance".

> SF T-1 has identified PROC as an off-campus organization whose headquarters are located at 2407 Fulton Street, Berkeley, and has as one of its purposes the protesting of U.S. policy in Vietnam.

V. ANTI-DRAFT COMMITTEE OF THE VDC

SF T-23 reported on October 25, 1965 that on October 23, 1965, he attended a meeting of the Anti-draft Committee of the VDC at 2407 Fulton Street, Berkeley. SF T-23 related that among those in attendance at the meeting was STEVE CHERKOSS, WINDY SMITH and JOHN SELTZ.

SF T-23 related that goals of the Committee, depending upon approval of the VDC leadership, were:

1. The picketing and leafletting of induction centers.

2. Leafletting high schools and junior college students and coordinating the VDC Anti-draft with other anti-draft committees on a local and national level to make it a vital movement.

3. Undermine the morale of soldiers.

In the October 25, 1965 issue of the "Oakland Tribune", an Oakland, California daily newspaper, there appeared an article captioned, "VDC group pickets city draft center". The article informed that on October 25, 1965, STEVE CHERKOSS, who was described in the article as chairman of the VDC Sub-Committee, with 2 other individuals, had picketed the Armed Forces Induction Center in Oakland by handing out leaflets protesting the Vietnam war to soldiers and civilians and touching off arguments with some of the youths who were reporting for their physical examination. The article informed that the leaflet, "ATTENTION ALL MILITARY PERSONNEL" was one of the leaflets distributed at the Induction Center.

The article informed there were no incidents at the center, and Army officials had remarked that as along as the demonstrators remained outside the building, no action would be taken against them.

In the November 24, 1965 issue of the "San Francisco Chronicle" there appeared an article captioned, "Anti-draft Action Next, VDC Says". The article informed that the VDC, inspired by the numerical success of "last weekends" protest march, announced on November 23, 1965 that it was embarking on a "serious and intensive campaign against the draft." The article informed that JERRY RUBIN, WINDY SMITH, JR. and BILL MILLER, spokesman for the Committee, evaded press conference questioning about whether they would actually advise young men to avoid the draft. RUBIN remarked, "We will acquaint them with the facts on the war, encourage them to study it and allow them to make up their own minds. Information about the war equals a campaign against the draft." SMITH stated the Committee would take its campaign of "information" into high schools and Armed Service Induction Centers.

SF T-5 on December 2, 1965 furnished a copy of a mimeographed leaflet issued by the Anti-draft Committee, VDC, a Xerox copy of which follows:

A characterization for the M2M is contained in the appendix section.

PROPOSED AN[illegible]DRAFT PROGRAM FROM THE VDC ANT[illegible] DRAFT COMMITTEE

The Anti-Draft Committee of the VDC has been working on ways to end U.S. agression in Vietnam by developing an effective and broadly-based protest against conscription. The draft is basic to carrying on the war. The draft call has been increased to over 45,000 men for December, and it will continue to rise.

PROGRAM

1) Encourage high school and college students and non-students of draft age to apply for Conscientious Objector (SS form 150) status on a political moral basis. Encourage and assist high school students to organize anti-draft and VDC chapters within their schools.
2) Distribute general VDC educational material to potential inductees at induction and draft centers.
3) Give, and urge others to give, all possible support to those who wish to destroy their draft cards, to these who prefer prison to fighting an immoral war, and to other protests of conscience.
4) Begin an immediate and widespread protest against the involvement and cooperation of the Universities with the Draft system.
5) Demand the removal of ROTC programs from college campuses.

WHERE: Work areas should include:
1) High schools
2) College and university campuses
3) Induction and draft centers
4) Coordination with other groups with similar programs, such as SDS and M2M, on a nationwide level.

HOW:
1) Literature
2) Informal counseling (perhaps by retaining legal advice)
3) Rallies, street meetings, demonstrations, where such tactics will have maximum effectiveness.

ARGUMENTS FOR A STRONG ANTI-DRAFT PROGRAM

1) Answers questions of many students as to what they can do about the draft and creates opportunities to inform new people, more people about the war.
2) Creates opportunities for [illegible] marches and demonstrat[illegible]
3) Make[illegible] the Cold War [illegible] Service System.
4) Has an extremely large potential for rapid and sustained growth, at the lowest level through self-interset, at the highest through genuine concern about the war.
5) Is a relatively long range program with immediate and substantial political effect, such as tying up the draft system and creating many problems for Selective Service.
6) Innumerable possibilities for strengthening both the anti-war and anti-draft movements around the country, by creating new opportunities for mutual cooperation and mutual aid with various individuals and organizations.
7) Development of an anti-draft movement on a massive and nationwide scale will hit the Washington militarists right where it hurts—in their cannon fodder.

CITIZENS COMMITTEE FOR CONSTITUTIONAL LIBERTIES (NEW YORK CITY)

The Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications, revised and published December 1, 1961, prepared and released by the Committee on Un-American Activities, United States House of Representatives, contains the following on Page 42 concerning "Citizens Committee for Constitutional Liberties (New York City)":

> 1. "On the basis of its investigations and hearings to date, the committee concludes that the National Assembly for Democratic Rights and a coordinating and organizing group in support thereof, titled the 'Citizens Committee for Constitutional Liberties, are communist fronts. Created, dominated and controlled by members and officials of the Communist Party, the National Assembly for Democratic Rights and the Citizens Committee for Constitutional Liberties were organized as propaganda devices for the conduct of 'mass activity' in support of the avowed objectives of 'reversal or nonapplication' of the Supreme Court decisions of June 5, 1961, which upheld the constitutionality of the registration and disclosure provisions of the Internal Security Act of 1950 as applied to the Communist Party, and the Smith Act membership clause making punishable active and purposive membership in the Communist Party."
> " The long-range objective of the Citizens Committee for Constitutional Liberties is to serve as the vehicle for concealed communist participation in, and direction of, propaganda and agitational activities aimed to nullify the Internal Security and Smith Acts."
>
> " Committee investigation disclosed that the Citizens Committee for Constitutional Liberties was formed on or about June 12, 1961 ***."

FAIR PLAY FOR CUBA COMMITTEE, BAY AREA CHAPTER, also known as Bay Area Fair Play for Cuba Committee (BAFPCC)

The "New York Times" newspaper on November 20, 1960 carried an article captioned "Pro-Castro Body Reports U.S. Gain," which reported that the Fair Play for Cuba Committee (FPCC) had 5,000 paid-up members in the United States. The article declared that the FPCC had headquarters at 799 Broadway, New York City, New York, and had chapters in other cities, including one in San Francisco.

A source advised in March, 1961, that the Bay Area Chapter of the FPCC (BAFPCC) began to be formed in San Francisco in November, 1960, under the direct guidance and leadership of ASHER HARER, who the source identified as a member of the San Francisco Branch of the Socialist Workers Party (SWP) and a member of the National Committee of the SWP.

> The SWP has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

This source advised in March, 1963, that in the recent election of the BAFPCC the SWP continued its influence by having SWP members elected to the executive committee

This source advised in May, 1963, that the BAFPCC included members in San Francisco and surrounding counties. He advised that the BAFPCC has no headquarters but received mail through Post Office Box 2615, San Francisco 26, California, which is a box maintained by ASHER HARER. He stated that the announced aims and purposes of the BAFPCC are to "spread the truth about Cuba and to prevent U.S. intervention in Cuba."

A second source advised on January 10, 1964, that at a BAFPCC meeting in Berkeley, California, in December, 1963, it was decided to dissolve the BAFPCC.

APPENDIX

FAIR PLAY FOR CUBA COMMITTEE

The April 6, 1960, edition of "The New York Times" newspaper contained a full-page advertisement captioned "What Is Really Happening in Cuba," placed by the Fair Play for Cuba Committee (FPCC). This advertisement announced the formation of the FPCC in New York City and declared the FPCC intended to promulgate "the truth about revolutionary Cuba" to neutralize the distorted American press.

"The New York Times" edition of January 11, 1961, reported that at a hearing conducted before the United States Senate Internal Security Subcommittee on January 10, 1961, Dr. CHARLES A. SANTOS-BUCH identified himself and ROBERT TABER as organizers of the FPCC. He also testified he and TABER obtained funds from the Cuban Government which were applied toward the cost of the aforementioned advertisement.

On May 16, 1963, a source advised that during the first two years of the FPCC's existence there was a struggle between Communist Party (CP) and Socialist Workers Party (SWP) elements to exert their power within the FPCC and thereby influence FPCC policy. This source added that during the past year there had been a successful effort by FPCC leadership to minimize the role of these and other organizations in the FPCC so that their influence as of May, 1963, was negligible.

> The SWP has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

On May 20, 1963, a second source advised that VINCENT "TED" LEE, FPCC National Office Director, was then formulating FPCC policy and had indicated that he had no intention of permitting FPCC policy to be determined by any other organization. This source stated that LEE believed that the FPCC should advocate resumption of diplomatic relations between Cuba and the United States and should support the right of Cubans to manage their revolution without interference from other nations. LEE did not advocate supporting the Cuban revolution per se.

FAIR PLAY FOR CUBA COMMITTEE (cont'd.)

The November 23, 1963, edition of "The New York Times" reported that Senator THOMAS J. DODD of Connecticut had called FPCC "the chief public relations instrument of the Castro network in the United States." It is to be noted that Senator DODD was a member of the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee which twice conducted hearings on the FPCC.

The December 27, 1963, edition of "The New York World Telegram and Sun" newspaper stated that the pro-Castro FPCC was seeking to go out of business and that its prime activity during its lifetime had been sponsorship of pro-Castro street rallies and mass picket lines, and the direction of an active propaganda mill highlighting illegal travel-to-Cuba campaigns. Its comparatively brief span of life was attributed to mounting anti-Castro American public opinion, the 1962 Congressional hearings which disclosed FPCC financing by Castro's United Nations Delegation, and ultimately, the bad publicity which the FPCC received from disclosure of activities on its behalf by suspected Presidential assassin LEE H. OSWALD.

On February 6, 1964, the previously mentioned second source advised that V. T. LEE had recently remarked that the FPCC was dead and that there were no plans to organize another similar organization.

On April 13, 1964, a third source advised that there had not been any FPCC activity in many months and that the FPCC had been dissolved.

NATIONAL COMMITTEE TO ABOLISH THE HOUSE UN-AMERICAN ACTIVITIES COMMITTEE

The "Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications" issued December 1, 1961, by the House Committee on Un-American Activities, page 115, contains the following citation regarding the National Committee to Abolish the Un-American Activities Committee (NCAUAC).

"Cited as a 'new organization' set up in the Summer of 1960 to lead and direct the Communist Party's 'Operation Abolition' campaign. Seven of the national leaders of this group have been identified as Communists."

A source has advised that the NCAUAC changed its name on March 3, 1962, to include the word "House" in its name, thereby becoming known as the National Committee to Abolish the House Un-American Activities Committee (NCAHUAC).

A second source advised on June 28, 1965, that as of that date the NCAHUAC continued to function with the headquarters at 555 North Western Avenue, Los Angeles, California.

A source advised on August 1, 1960, that the San Francisco Branch of the Socialist Workers Party (SWP) was formed approximately in the early part of 1938 and the Oakland Branch of the SWP was formed in the latter part of 1938.

A second source advised on October 26, 1959, that the name of the Oakland Branch of the SWP was changed to the Oakland-Berkeley Branch of the SWP.

A third source advised on April 2, 1965, that the San Francisco Branch and the Oakland-Berkeley Branch of the SWP follow the policies and directives of the National SWP with which they are affiliated.

The SWP has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

PROGRESSIVE LABOR PARTY (PLP)
PROGRESSIVE LABOR MOVEMENT (PLM)

A source advised on April 20, 1965, that the PLP, formerly known as the PLM, held its first national convention April 15-18, 1965, at New York City, to organize the PLM into a PLP. The PLP will have as its ultimate objective the establishment of a militant working class movement based on Marxism-Leninism.

"The New York Times," City Edition, Tuesday, April 20, 1965, page 27, reported that a new party of "revolutionary socialism" was formally founded on April 18, 1965, under the name of the PLP. The PLP was described as an outgrowth of the PLM. Its officers were identified as MILTON ROSEN, New York, President, and WILLIAM EPTON of New York and MORT SCHEER of San Francisco, Vice Presidents. A 20-member National Committee was elected to direct the party until the next convention.

According to the article, "The Progressive Labor Movement was founded in 1962 by Mr. ROSEN and Mr. SCHEER after they were expelled from the Communist Party of the United States for assertedly following the Chinese Communist line."

The PLP publishes the "Marxist-Leninist Quarterly," a theoretical magazine; "Progressive Labor," a monthly magazine; "Challenge," a New York City newspaper; and "Spark," a west coast newspaper.

The June 1, 1965, issue of "Challenge," page 6, states that, "this paper is dedicated to fight for a new way of life - where the working men and women own and control their homes, factories, the police, courts, and the entire government on every level."

The source advised that the PLP utilizes the address of General Post Office Box 808, Brooklyn 1, New York, but also utilizes an office in Room 622, 132 Nassau Street, [illegible] where PLP publications are prepared.

SAN FRANCISCO SCHOOL OF SOCIAL SCIENCES, aka
San Francisco School of Social Science,
San Francisco Marxist Study Group,
San Francisco School of Marxism-Leninism,
San Francisco School of Marxism

A source advised on February 6, 1962, that the first class of the San Francisco Marxist Study Group (SFMSG) was held on February 5, 1962, at 345 Franklin Street, San Francisco, California, and that the instructor of this class stated that the main purpose of the SFMSG was to train young people for leadership of the people in the event the U. S. wakes up to the advantages of communism.

A second source advised on April 23, 1964, that the San Francisco School of Social Sciences (SFSSS), has been known as the "San Francisco School of Social Science," "San Francisco Marxist Study Group," "San Francisco School of Marxism-Leninism," and "San Francisco School of Marxism."

A third source furnished the Spring, 1964, Bulletin of the SFSSS on October 14, 1964, which reflected that TERENCE HALLINAN and J. P. MORRAY were Co-Directors of the SFSSS.

> A fourth source advised on April 9, 1965, that in April, 1965, TERENCE HALLINAN advised that he was not a member of the Communist Party (CP), but considered himself a communist and intended to join the CP as soon as he passed his bar exams.
> A fifth source advised March 1, 1963, that HERBERT APTHEKER, a member of the CP, USA, National Committee, advised in February, 1963, that he was to be the East Coast Chairman and JOSEPH P. MORRAY the West Coast Director of a new organization being promoted by the CP, USA, to teach and propagate Marxist theories.

The third source further advised on January 26, 1966, that due to the failure of the SFSSS during its Spring, 1965, term to raise support sufficient to continue all of its scheduled classes, no classes were organized for a Fall, 1965, term. The SFSSS no longer exists.

STUDENT COMMITTEE FOR TRAVEL TO CUBA

"The Columbia Owl," weekly student newspaper of Columbia University, New York City, December 12, 1962, issue, page one, contained an article entitled "Students to Visit Cuba During Holidays." This article stated in part that the Ad Hoc Student Committee for Travel to Cuba was formed October 14, 1962, by a group of students from New York City universities, the University of Wisconsin, Oberlin College and the University of North Carolina, who stated that as students they would like a chance to see and evaluate the situation in Cuba for themselves and had received an offer of transportation and two weeks stay in Cuba from the Federation of University Students in Havana, as guests of the Federation. The Committee accepted the offer and applied to the State Department of the United States for passport validation which was refused; however, over fifty students planned to defy the State Department ban and go to Cuba.

A source advised on December 6, 1962, it was learned the Ad Hoc Student Committee for Travel to Cuba had recently been formed by the Progressive Labor Group.

A second source advised on September 13, 1963, that during the Summer of 1963, fifty-nine individuals traveled to Cuba; the leaders of the group were members of the Progressive Labor Movement; and the trip was planned and organized by Progressive Labor Movement members.

A third source advised on October 9, 1963, the Student Committee for Travel to Cuba was utilizing Post Office Box 2178, New York, New York, as its mailing address.

On March 12, 1965, Philip Abbott Luce, 504 West 55th Street, New York, New York, a self-admitted member of the Student Committee for Travel to Cuba Executive Committee and the Progressive Labor Movement National Coordinating Committee, advised as follows:

The Student Committee for Travel to Cuba (SCTC) was formerly known as the Ad Hoc Student Committee for Travel to Cuba and the Permanent Student Committee for Travel to Cuba.

Luce was a leader and participant of the 1963 trip to Cuba and an organizer of the 1964 trip to Cuba and both trips were sponsored by the SCTC.

By the Spring of 1964 the Executive Committee of the SCTC was considered to be members of the Progressive Labor Movement.

No trip to Cuba or China was being planned by the SCTC for 1965.

W. E. B. DU BOIS CLUBS OF AMERICA (DCA)

A source has advised that on October 26-27, 1963, a conference of members of the Communist Party (CP), including national functionaries, met in Chicago, Illinois, for the purpose of setting in motion forces for the establishment of a new national Marxist-oriented youth organization which would hunt for the most peaceful transition to socialism. The delegates to this meeting were cautioned against the germ of anti-Soviet and anti-CP ideologies. These delegates were also told that it would be reasonable to assume that the young socialists attracted into this new organization would eventually pass into the CP itself.

A second conference of over 20 persons met in Chicago on December 28-29, 1963, for the purpose of initiating a "call" to the new youth organization and planning for a founding convention to be held in June, 1964.

A second source has advised that the founding convention for the new youth organization was held from June 19-21, 1964, at 150 Golden Gate Avenue, San Francisco, California, at which time the name W. E. B. DuBois Clubs of America (DCA) was adopted. Approximately 500 delegates from throughout the United States attended this convention. The aims of this organization, as set forth in the preamble to the constitution, are, "It is our belief that this nation can best solve its problems in an atmosphere of peaceful coexistence, complete disarmament and true freedom for all peoples of the world, and that these solutions will be reached mainly through the united efforts of all democratic elements in our country, composed essentially of the working people allied in the unity of Negroes and other minorities with whites. We further fully recognize that the greatest threat to American democracy comes from the racist and right wing forces in coalition with the most reactionary sections of the economic power structure, using the tool of anti-Communism to divide and destroy the unified struggle of the working people. As young people in the forces struggling for democracy, we shall actively strive to defeat these reactionary and neo-fascist elements and to achieve complete freedom and democracy for all Americans, thus enabling each individual to freely choose and build the society he would wish to live in. Through these struggles we feel the American people will realize the viability of the socialist alternative."

The constitution further states that this new organization shall be a membership organization open to individuals, or if five or more people so desire, a chapter can be formed which shall in turn be guided by the policies and principles of the parent organization.

As of October, 1965, the headquarters of the DCA was located at 954 McAllister Street, San Francisco, California.

Over the Labor Day weekend, 1965, the DCA held a conference in Chicago, Illinois. According to a third source, a new slate of national officers was elected at this conference, which included Chairman HUGH STERLING FOWLER, II (who, according to the third source, attended a CP cadre encampment held at Camp Midvale, New Jersey, in June, 1965, and following his election as Chairman of the DCA, attended another national CP cadre youth conference held on September 9-12, 1965, on a farm located in Northern Indiana, according to a fourth source); Director of Publicity CARL ELLENGER BLOICE (who was elected to the San Francisco County Committee CP in April, 1964, according to a fifth source); Educational Director MATTHEW "DYNAMITE" HALLINAN (who in June, 1964, was stated to be the Youth Representative on the Northern California CP District Board, according to a sixth source); Organizational Secretary TERENCE "KAYO" HALLINAN (who, according to a seventh source, met in June, 1965, with the District Staff of the Illinois CP to discuss the proposed DCA Midwest Summer Project), and Treasurer SUSAN PHYLLIS BORENSTEIN (who, according to an eighth source, has attended meetings of the Youth Club of the CP of Illinois during 1965 in connection with the DCA Summer Project).

W.E.B. DU BOIS CLUBS OF AMERICA - BERKELEY BRANCH;
W.E.B. DuBois Youth Club - Berkeley Chapter;
Berkeley W.E.B. DuBois Club, Berkeley DuBois Club;
East Bay DuBois Club

A source advised on April 12, 1963, that the W.E.B. DuBois Youth Club - Berkeley Chapter, was originated in October 1962, principally through the efforts of MATHEW HALLINAN.

> This same source advised in October 1963, that MATHEW HALLINAN was elected as Chairman and Communist Party (CP) Youth Commission Representative of the Berkeley CP On-Campus Youth Club during September 1963.

A second source advised that a leaflet distributed by the Berkeley DuBois Club in Spetember 1964, reflected the name of that organization to be the "W.E.B. DuBois Clubs of America - Berkeley Branch."

This same leaflet, under the heading "The DuBois Clubs of America" reads as follows: "The Berkeley DuBois Club is a part of a nation-wide socialist youth organization founded in June of this year. It attempts to bring together those action-oriented youth who consider socialism to be a visible alternative to the ills of this society."

As of April 23, 1965, the Berkeley W.E.B. DuBois Club was registered with the University of California as an "off-campus" membership organization. As such, it could present lectures on campus with prior University permission and was allowed to set up and maintain a literature table on campus.

YOUNG SOCIALIST ALLIANCE (known in the San Francisco Bay area as the Bay Area Young Socialist Alliance, aka the Bay Area Committee of the Young Socialist Alliance, Bay Area Committee for the Young Socialist)

A source advised on May 16, 1960, that the Bay Area Young Socialist Alliance (BAYSA) was formed in February, 1958, as the Bay Area Committee for the Young Socialist (BACYS). At a later stage in its development prior to adoption of the name BAYSA, the organization was known as the Bay Area Committee of the Young Socialist Alliance (BACYSA).

The source advised that as a result of a national convention held April 15-17, 1960, at Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, the BAYSA became a branch of the national organization to be known as the Young Socialist Alliance (YSA) and will carry out in the Northern California area the policies of the YSA.

The source advised August 19, 1965, that the BAYSA is currently active and is composed of three locals, the San Francisco YSA, the Berkeley YSA, and the San Jose YSA.

The source advised that the BAYSA, although ostensibly an independent organization, is in reality controlled by the San Francisco Branch, Socialist Workers Party (SWP) and Oakland Branch SWP.

The SWP has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

APPENDIX

YOUNG SOCIALIST ALLIANCE

The May, 1960, issue of the "Young Socialist" ("YS"), page 1, column 3, disclosed that during April 15-17, 1960, a national organization entitled "Young Socialist Alliance" (YSA) was established at Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. This issue stated this organization was formed by the nationwide supporter clubs of the publication "YS."

The above issue, page 6, set forth the Founding Declaration of YSA. This declaration stated YSA recognizes the Socialist Workers Party (SWP) as the only existing political leadership on class struggle principles, and that the supporters of the "YS" have come into basic political solidarity with the SWP on the principles of revolutionary socialism.

A source advised on May 7, 1965, that the original YSA was an organization formed during October, 1957, in New York City, by youth of various left-socialist tendencies, particularly members and followers of the SWP. The leaders of this group were the guiding forces in the establishment of the national organization.

The source further advised on May 7, 1965, YSA is dominated and controlled on a national basis by the SWP through having SWP members comprise exclusively the National Executive Committee (NEC) and through an official SWP representative at all YSA NEC meetings. The YSA, in reality, is the youth and training section of the SWP and the main source of new SWP members.

The headquarters of the YSA is located in Room 631, 41 Union Square West, New York City.

The SWP has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

YOUNG SOCIALIST LEAGUE (YSL)

The March 1, 1954, issue of the "Young Socialist Challenge," published as page three of "Labor Action," an official publication of the Indpendent Socialist League (ISL), contained an article concerning the creation of the YSL, which pointed out that at a unity conference occurring February 12-14, 1954, at Labor Action Hall, New York, New York, a merger occurred between the Young People's Socialist League (YPSL) and the Socialist Youth League (SYL). The new organization was named the YSL.

A source on June 15, 1954, made available the minutes of the YSL's National Action Committee meeting of April 13, 1954, which reflected that one S. SITEMAN, "Chairman of SP (Socialist Party) Youth Committee," had objected to a statement appearing in "Commerce," a New York University journal, which indicated that the YPSL merged with the SYL to form the YSL. He explained that the YPSL did not merge with anyone; that it continued to exist as the youth section of the Socialist Party. He explained that a small group of the YPSL was dropped, expelled, or suspended from that organization and joined the SYL, which he characterized as the youth group of the "Trotskyite ISL." He explained that after these few former members of the YPSL joined the SYL, the SYL then proceeded to change its name for its own purposes.

On April 9, 1956, a source advised as follows: The YSL has frequently worked in close sympathetic cooperation with the ISL toward similar objectives, although each major issue given mutual consideration is decided upon by these organizations individudally. The YSL serves as an apprenticeship for the ISL, but the ISL selection of members from YSL ranks is made on an individual and personal basis. In many instances YSL members are also members of the ISL. The YSL and the ISL utilize the same printing house in New York City and the YSL publication is printed as an insert in "Labor Action." Frequently, lecturers before the YSL are ISL members.

The September 22, 1958, issue of "Young Socialist Challenge," which appeared as page five of "Labor Action," contained an undated statement from the National Committee of the YSL which indicated that the YSL had been dissolved. The statement appeared under the caption "Join the Young Peoples Socialist League."

The YPSL is publicly known as the youth affiliate of the Socialist Party - Social Democratic Federation.

A source advised on June 12, 1958, that the Berkeley, California, unit of the YSL was formed in 1954, following the unity convention held in New York in February 1954, which combined the forces of the SYL and the YPSL. The source stated that the YSL in the San Francisco Bay Area continued to operate under the leadership and guidance of ISL members.

A source advised on October 9, 1958, that the YSL Branch dissolved itself in line with the YSL national organization, and the branch members joined the YPSL.

INDEPENDENT SOCIALIST LEAGUE (ISL), FORMERLY WORKERS PARTY (WP)

The May 4, 1942, issue of "Labor Action", then an official publication of the Workers Party (WP), carried an article which reflected that the WP was formed in April 1940, as a result of a split within the leadership of the Socialist Workers Party (SWP). The article stated that when the Hitler-Stalin Pact was signed and Poland invaded, the minority group within the SWP, in proclaiming the formation of the WP, condemned the pact as being imperialistic in nature and stated it would not support either imperialist camp.

The April 25, 1949, issue of "Labor Action" contained an account of the Fifth National Convention of the WP, held March 24-27, 1949, in New York City, which reflected the change of name of the organization from the WP to the Independent Socialist League (ISL) in order to emphasize the character of the group as a propaganda group for the spreading of socialist ideas and not as a full-fledged political party.

The July 14, 1958, issue of "Labor Action", an official publication of the ISL, contained an article captioned "The ISL Program in Brief." The article indicated: "The ISL stands for socialist democracy and against the two systems of exploitation which now divide the world: capitalism and Stalinism. The ISL, as a Marxist movement, looks to the working class and its ever-present struggle as the basic progressive force in society. The ISL is organized to spread the ideas of socialism in the labor movement and among all other sections of the people. There can be no lasting and genuine democracy without socialism and there can be no socialism without democracy."

The September 22, 1958, issue of "Labor Action" contained an undated statement signed by the Political Committee of the ISL which indicated that the ISL had been dissolved. The statement urged former ISL members to join the Socialist Party - Social Democratic Federation.

The SWP has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

A source advised on May 21, 1958, that the San Francisco Bay Area Branch, Independent Socialist League, was an adjunct of the National Organization. The Branch had representation on the National Committee of the Independent Socialist League; it participated in the campaigns of the Independent Socialist League, and contributed financially to the support of the National Organization.

The source advised on August 11, 1958, that the San Francisco Bay Area Branch, Independent Socialist League, had dissolved itself and the members had joined the Local Branch of the Socialist Party - Social Democratic Federation.

YOUTH FOR JOBS (YFJ), aka Youth for Jobs Committee

A source advised in July 1963, that several recent graduates and dropouts of high schools in Oakland and Berkeley, California, had on April 17, 1963, attended the organizing meeting of Youth for Jobs (YFJ) in Oakland, California, in response to letters prepared by ROSCOE PROCTOR and DOUGLAS WACHTER. At this meeting, WACHTER gave reports on the unemployment problem among youth and the need for an organization of this type. PROCTOR also spoke at this meeting.

> In May 1963, a second source advised that ROSCOE PROCTOR attended meetings of the National Executive Committee of the Communist Party (CP), USA, during May 1963, in New York City.

> In January 1963, a third source identified DOUGLAS WACHTER as the Chairman of a CP recruiting class held in January 1963, in Berkeley, California.

In May 1963, the first source advised that in May 1963, a 12-page pamphlet entitled "Youth for Jobs-Aims and Purposes" was distributed. This pamphlet described YFJ as an independent organization of young people working together to find solutions to current vocational, social and recreational problems; it specified that YFJ is not affiliated with any other organizations, but would fully support the labor movement and any other organizations striving to combat unemployment and to increase job security for all employees.

In June 1963, the third source advised that at a meeting of the Political Committee of the CP of the East Bay Region (Alameda and Contra Costa Counties, California) held in June 1963, VIRGINIA PROCTOR, member of that Committee, gave a report on a draft document read before the National Committee, CP, USA, by GUS HALL, member of the National Committee, CP, USA. In connection with the portion of the report dealing with youth, PROCTOR said "A report from this area on the activity around Youth for Jobs organized by ROSCOE PROCTOR will be included in the final document, as one of the signs of the Party work in organizing the unemployed."

On May 3, 1965, a fourth source advised that ROSCOE PROCTOR has promoted and guided YFJ since its inception and continues to do so. The source stated that meetings of YFJ are held at the YFJ Club House, 1095 - 59th Street, Oakland, California, and at homes of individual members.

Synopsis:

Source present at Berkeley Free Press during preparation of "soldier's leaflet". FBI Laboratory has determined that eight (8) additional copies of the "soldier's leaflet" were sent to military servicemen serving overseas by RICHARD CLAYTON IVEY. Witnessed handwriting specimens of IVEY obtained.

DETAILS:

The Vietnam Day Committee (VDC), 2407 Fulton Street, Berkeley, California, distributed a leaflet captioned, "ATTENTION ALL MILITARY PERSONNEL." The contents of this leaflet are essentially the same as the Xerox copies of the leaflet which follows, and the first paragraph begins, "The following is proposed text for a 4-page 8-1/2 X 11 leaflet." A Xerox copy of the "PROPOSAL" which refers to the leaflet also follows.

The above-mentioned leaflet will also be referred to as the "soldier's leaflet".

In the "PROPOSAL", O.A.T. refers to the Oakland Army Terminal, Oakland, California.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

PROPOSAL:

1. The VDC publish the attached leaflet or one similiar to it specifically aimed at soldiers.
2. The VDC publish a similiar leaflet aimed at prospective draftees which includes a section on ways of getting out of the draft, andC. O. information etc.
3. One of the major themes of the 15-16 demonstration will be a position by the VDC urging soldiers and potential inductees to individually and collectively oppose the war.
4. That the VDC, through its publicity. and through at least one public speaker make it clear that at the O. A. T. we will go beyond merely stating that we urge soldiers and potential inductees to oppose the war, but that we shall lauoch an active campaign of attempting to communicate with soldiers and potential inductees, trying to inform them of the criminal nature of the war and the reasons why we urge them to oppose it.
5. That the VDC publically inform intellectuals, liberals etc. that we are urging soldiers to oppose the war, why we are doing so, and urging them also to oppose the war by refusing to participate in government programs, rejecting government research grants, etc.
6. It is understood that the above program does not rule out stressing other major themes on the 15-16, or of launching other programs on that day.

The following is proposed te... for a 4 page 8½ x 11 leaflet. T... leaflet will also include pictures, and at least 2 informational boxes. One of these will be divided into 2 columns. The left giving definitions of war crimes and the right giving examples ofwar crimes. The other box will give information on the soldiers who have already refused to fight in Vietnam. Other material will be added if space permits. The layout will be large print - 2 columns with frequent subtitles.

You may soon be sent to Vietnam. You have heard about the war in the news; your officers will give you pep talks about it. But you probably feel as confused and uncertain about it as most Americans do. Many people will tell you to just follow orders and leave the thinking to others. But you have the right to know as much about this war as anyone else. After all, it's you---not your congressman---who might get killed.

WHY ARE WE FIGHTING IN VIETNAM ?

We are supposed to be fighting to protect democracy in Vietnam, and yet our own government admits that South Vietnam is a dictatorship. General Ky, the latest military dictator, is as bad as they come. - Insert here quote about Ky admiring Hitler etc. -

----

General Ky doesn't mean much to us; we're not even sure how to pronounce his name. But the South Vietnamese have lived under him and men like him for ten years. As far as they are concerned, we are fighting on the side of Hitlerism; and they hope we lose.

WHO IS THE ENEMY ?

U.S. military spokesmen have often said that their greatest problem is finding the enemy. "The enemy" they say, "is everywhere." The old woman feeding her chickens may have a stock of hand grenades in her hut. The little boy who trails after the America soldiers during the day slips out to give information to the guerillas at night. The washerwoman at the American air base brings a bomb to work one day. "It is impossible says the military, "to tell who is the Viet Cong and who is the people."

And so, because the whole Vietnamese people seems to be the enemy, the military is taking no chances. They use tear gas---a weapon only used against civilian populations never against soldiers. They order American troops to fire at women and children--- because women and children, after all, are firing at American troops. American fighter planes destroy civilian villages with napalm; American B52s are flattening whole regions. That is why the war in Vietnam is so often called a "dirty war."

When the South Vietnamese people see you in your foreign uniform, they will think of you as their enemy. You are the ones bombing their towns. They don't know whether yor're a draftee or a volunteer, whether you're for the war or against it; but they're not taking any chances either.

FREE ELECTIONS

The Vietnamese would dearly like to vote the foreigners out of their country, but they have never had the chance. According to the Geneva Agreement of 1954, there were supposed to be elections throughout Vietnam in 1956, But the U.S. government was afraid that our man in Vietnam, Premier Diem, would lose. In fact, President Eisenhow himself admitted that "Ho Chi Minh....80%" (Eisenhower quote). So we decided not to allown any election there until we were sure we could win. Diem set up a political police force and put all political opposition---Communist and anti-Communist---in jail. By 1959 it was clear that there weren't going to be any elections, and the guerillas known as the Viet Cong began to fight back. By 1963 our government was fed up with Diem, but still wasn't willing to risk elections. Our CIA helped a group of Vietnamese generals to overthrow Diem and kill him. Since then there have been a series of "better" military dictators. General Ky---the man who admires Hitler---is the latest one.

FIGHTING FOR DEMOCRACY

Your job as a soldier is supposed to be "to win the people of South Vietnam." Win them to what? Not democracy. We keep democracy for ourselves---they get military dictators. What then? The American way of life ? But why should they care any more about that than we care about the Vietnamese way of life? We can't speak their language or even pronounce their names. We don't know anything about their religion or even what it is. We never even heard of Vietnam until Washington decided to run it.

You are supposed to be fighting to "save the Vietnamese people from Communism." Certainly Communist influence is very strong in the National Liberation Front, the rebel government. Yet most of the people support the NLF. Why? Many of the same people who now lead the NLF led the Vietnamese independence movement against the Japanese during World War II and then went on to fight against French colonial rule. Most Vietnamese think of the NLF leaders as their country's outstanding patriots. In fact, many anti-Communists have joined the guerilla forces in the belief that the most important thing is to get rid of foreign domination and military dictators. On the other hand, very few Vietnamese support the official government of General Ky. His army has low morale and a high desertion rate.

THE TOUGH GUERILLAS

The newspapers and television have told us again and agian what a brave, tough fighter the Vietnamese guerilla is. Short of ammunition and without any air cover, he can beat forces that outnumber him five or ten to one. Why do they have such high morale? They are not draftees; no draftees ever fight like that. They are not high-paid, professional soldiers; most of them are peasants who work their fields. They are not well-trained; they can't even spare the ammunition for target practice.

Their secret is that they know why they are fighting. They didn't hear about Vietnam in the newspapers; they've lived there all their lives. While we were in high school, they were living under the Diem regime and hating it. Now American planes are bombing their towns and strafing their fields; American troops have occupied their country; and if they complain out loud, an American-supported dictator sentences them to jail or the firing squad. Is it any wonder that they fight so fiercely?

CRUSHING THE RESISTANCE

The war in Vietnam is not being fought according to the rules. Civilians are gassed. Prisoners are tortured. Our planes drop incendiary bombs on civilian villages. Our soldiers shoot at women and children. Your officers will tell you that it is all necessary, that we couldn't win the war any other way. And they are right. Americans are no more cruel than any other people; American soldiers don't enjoy this kind of war. But if you are going to wage war against an entire people, you have to become cruel. The ordinary German soldier in occupied Europe wasn't especially cruel, either. But as the resistance movements grew, he became cruel. He shot at women and children because they were shooting at him; he never asked himself why they were shooting at him. When a certain town became a center of resistance activity, he followed his orders and destroyed the whole town. He knew that SS men were torturing captured resistance fighters, but it wasn't his business to interfere.

FOLLOWING ORDERS

As a soldier you have been trained to obey orders, but as a human being you must take responsibility for your own acts. International and American law recognize that an individual soldier, even if acting under orders, must bear final legal and moral responsibility for what he does. This principle became a part of law after World War II, when the Allied nations, meeting in London, decided that German war criminals must be punished even if they committed war crimes under orders. This principle was the basis of the Nuremberg trials. We believe that the entire war in Viet nam is criminal and immoral. We believe that the atrocities which are necessary to wage this war against the people of Vietnam are inexcusable.

OPPOSE THE WAR

We hope that you too find yourself, as a human being, unable to tolerate this nightmare war—we hope that you will oppose it. We don't know what kind of risks we are taking in giving you this leaflet; you won't know what risk you will be taking in opposing the war. Several GIs have already refused to fight in Vietnam and have been court-martialed. They have shown great courage. We believe that they, together with other courageous men who will join them, will have influence far out of proportion to their numbers.

There may be many other things you can do; since you are in the service, you know better than civilians what sorts of opposition are possible. But whatever you do, keep your eyes open. Draw your own conclusions from the things you see, read and hear. At orientations sessions, don't be afraid to ask questions, and if you're not satisfied with the answer, keep asking. Take every chance you get to talk to your fellow soldiers about the war. Demand to hear civilian speakers who oppose the war debate military spokesmen.

You may feel the war is wrong, and still decide not to face a courtmartial. You may then find yourself in Vietnam under orders. You will have to do some fighting—but don't do any more than you have to. Good luck.

SF T-1 furnished a copy of the "PROPOSAL" and the proposed text for the four page leaflet which would be "specifically aimed at soldiers."

SF T-1 informed on May 3, 1966, that he obtained the "PROPOSAL" and the proposed text for the leaflet from a table during the VDC membership meeting in Room 204, Engineering Hall, University of California, Berkeley, California, (UCB), on October 5, 1965. SF T-1 remarked he did not know who wrote or assisted in the preparation of the proposed text for the leaflet; however, recalled the proposed text for the leaflet was read aloud at the meeting by STEVE CHERKOSS. SF T-1 was unable to recall any comments made by CHERKOSS during his reading of the proposed text.

SF T-1 went on to say there were from 85 to 105 individuals also present at the meeting on October 5, 1965; however, since this was the first meeting of this type that he had attended, he only knew CHERKOSS who was introduced.

SF T-8 has informed that STEVE WEISSMAN, also known as STEPHEN MARK WEISSMAN (true name), held a Bachelor of Arts Degree from the University of Tampa and a Master of Arts Degree from the University of Michigan. He enrolled at UCB as a graduate student for the fall semester, 1964. He was a strategist for the Free Speech Movement (FSM) demonstrations during the latter part of 1964 on the UCB Campus. He organized a strike of teaching assistants at UCB in support of the FSM.

The FSM was an organization which evolved at UCB out of a disagreement between students and UCB administration of UCB policy regarding campus organizations.

WEISSMAN, according to his academic file at Tampa University, December 9, 1964, had a history of self-admitted emotional instability for which he had been under psycho-therapy treatment fro October, 1958 to January, 1960. His father informed in April, 1965, that his son was not a Marxist; had no Communist leanings whatsoever and considered the United States the best country in the world, but one which still needed improvement.

SF T-13 reported on November 1, 1965, that at a general membership meeting of the VDC on October 26, 1965, in Room 204, Engineering Building, UCB, there was a vote which was subsequently set aside to distribute the leaflet, "ATTENTION ALL MILITARY PERSONNEL."

A review of all information furnished by SF T-13 failed to reveal any information indicating who conducted the above-described meeting, or when, where or to whom the leaflets would be distributed.

SF T-13 is currently employed in a foreign country, and there is no information indicating whether he will return to the United States in the near future.

SF T-14 reported on May 6, 1966, he was unable to recall who conducted the VDC general membership meeting in Room 204, Engineering Building, UCB, on October 26, 1965, or if mention was made when, where, or to whom the "soldier's leaflet" would be distributed.

SF T-3 informed on May 6, 1966, that the VDC general membership meeting which was held in Room 204, Engineering Building, UCB, was chaired by SYDNEY STAPLETON. SF T-3 recalled that the persons attending the meeting voted on a decision to distribute the "soldier's leaflet"; however, the majority vote postponed action on the leaflets until a later meeting. SF T-3 also recalled that JACK KURZWEIL, BOB KAUFMAN, and (CONN) "RINGO" HALLINAN informed those present that the leaflets should be distributed to civilians rather than to soldiers.

SF T-3 commented he had no knowledge as to when, where, or to whom the leaflets may have been distributed.

SF T-15 reported in October 1965, that as of September 1965, JACK WEINBERG was a member of the Steering Committee of the VDC.

SF T-12 informed on October 9, 1964, that on October 11, 1964, JACK WEINBERG attended a general membership meeting of the W.E.B. Du Bois Club of America, Berkeley Branch.

WEINBERG was arrested at UCB in connection with a sit-in demonstration at Sproul Hall on December 3, 1964. He was charged with trespassing and resisting arrest; convicted, and on July 30, 1965, he was sentenced to serve 120 days in jail.

SF T-16 reported on July 19, 1965, that on July 10, 1965, ROBERT KAUFMAN attended a Northern California District Communist Party meeting in San Francisco.

SF T-17 reported on April 19, 1966, that as of November 1965, CONN "RINGO" HALLINAN was a member of a Communist Party (CP) Club in San Francisco.

Sergeant DAHL informed on January 10, 1966, that he had received a report from his previously described source that at the VDC general membership meeting in Room 204, Engineering Hall, UCB, on October 26, 1965, WINDY SMITH gave the majority report and recommended the VDC approve and distribute the "soldier's leaflet" to anyone, but mainly to U.S. servicemen preparing to go to Vietnam. In addition, SMITH commented at the meeting that 4,000 of the "soldier's leaflets" had been sent to the National Liberation Front, 6,000 had been distributed at Fort Ord, California, 2,000 at a military installation at Point Mugu, California, and many at the Army Intelligence School in Monterey, California.

SF T-14 related on May 6, 1966, that at the VDC general membership meeting in Room 204, Engineering Hall, UCB, on October 26, 1965, WINDY SMITH, who delivered the majority report, recommended that the leaflets be distributed, and MIKE O'HANLON, STEVE WEISSMAN and STEVE SMALE opposed the distribution. SF T-14 could furnish no additional information.

On January 5, 1966, Deputy Sheriff JOHN CRISAN, Monterey County, California Sheriff's Office, furnished some membership cards issued to MICHAEL J. O'HANLON, which he had obtained from a forest ranger at the Big Sur Park in December 1965. CRISAN stated he had no further information concerning O'HANLON, and assumed the cards were membership cards signed by O'HANLON for the Industrial Workers of the World (IWW), Students for a Democratic Society (SDS), and the VDC.

The IWW has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

"STUDENTS FOR A DEMOCRATIC SOCIETY is an association of young people on the left...; one bringing together liberals and radicals, activists and scholars, students and faculty. It feels the urgency to put forth a radical, democratic program counterposed to authoritian movements both of Communism and the domestic Right.

Preamble, SDS Constitution"

During the 1965 National Convention of the SDS, the Preamble of the Constitution was amended to eliminate "counterposed to authoritarian movements both of Communism and the domestic Right."

SDS Worklist No. 14,
7/28/65

When O'HANLON was stopped by a Highway Patrol Officer on February 18, 1966, in Ocala, Florida, O'HANLON had a membership card for the W.E.B. DuBois Clubs of America (DCA).

A characterization for the DCA is contained in the Appendix.

The FBI Laboratory informed on February 17, 1966, that fingerprint examinations revealed MICHAEL J. O'HANLON was identical with FRANCIS GEORGE MEDAILLE, FBI Number 874 775C.

In the March 20, 1966, issue of the "San Francisco Examiner", a San Francisco, California, daily newspaper, information was set forth that FRANCIS GEORGE MEDAILLE was arrested in 1958 on a homicide charge in New York for throwing a six-year old girl from the roof of a building. MEDAILLE was sent to a mental institution until May 5, 1963, when he pled guilty to a manslaughter charge, first degree. He received a five-to-ten year suspended sentence and was placed on five years probation.

RICHARD D. CALLAHAN, Special Agent, Chief of Special Operations Section, 115th INTC, Presidio, California, on January 7, 1966, made available a file pertaining to the appearance of the leaflet in the vicinity of Fort Ord. A review of the file revealed a report concerning an interview with A. C. COULAPIELES, Lieutenant, U. S. Navy 63[illegible], Security Officer, U.S. Naval Postgraduate School (USNPS), Monterey. Lieutenant COULAPIELES informed on October 26, 1965, that during the morning hours of October 23, 1965, members of his cleanup detail at USNPS informed him that a number of VDC leaflets addressed, "ATTENTION ALL MILITARY PERSONNEL" had been scattered at various points within the USNPS area. The report related a subsequent inspection of the area by the cleanup detail indicated leaflets had been dropped from outside the fence line at various points. The report further informed that the number of leaflets dropped was small.

Mr. CALLAHAN related inasmuch as the investigation revealed the leaflets were dropped from outside the fence on military property, no further investigation was conducted by the military authorities. USNPS is approximately three miles from Fort Ord.

In addition, Mr. CALLAHAN recalled information indicating copies of the leaflet had been reported as appearing on the cement divider on the main highway between Marina and Monterey, California. Mr. CALLAHAN added that part of this highway runs adjacent to Fort Ord.

EDWARD MURPHY, NISO, 11th Naval District, San Diego, informed on February 2, 1966, he had received no information indicating that the "soldier's leaflet" had been distributed at Point Mugu. He added if the leaflet had been distributed at Point Mugu, he was certain his office would have received information concerning the distribution.

SF T-18 informed on May 16, 1966, that he remembered on one occasion during a discussion of the leaflet at VDC headquarters 2407 Fulton Street, Berkeley, JOHN SELTZ remarked that he, SELTZ, was one of the passengers in a speeding automobile from which leaflets were thrown at Fort Ord and the Presidio at Monterey. SF T-18 commented he had no knowledge as to whether any of the leaflets were actually picked up by soldiers. SF T-18 believed the discussion took place during the last quarter of 1965.

> JOHN CLIFFORD NORDEEN, 9125 Marmora Avenue, Morton Grove, Illinois, a self-described friend of JOHN PETER SELTZ, had informed that SELTZ served under one ALEJANDRO MARTINEZ, leader of an anti-Somoza Nicaraguan revolutionary group, on the Honduras-Nicaraguan border during May and June 1960.

SF T-3 related on May 6, 1966, he recalled there was a discussion regarding leaflets which were supposedly distributed to soldiers at Fort Ord; however, he could furnish no specifics.

Sergeant CARL DAHL had related on January 10, 1966, that according to his previously described source, at the VDC meeting on October 26, 1965, in Room 204, Engineering Building, UCB, STEVE WEISSMAN made the following remark:

> "Our lawyers have informed us if we stop now distributing this leaflet it is less likely any of us would be prosecuted, but if we continue, we are asking for arrest for sedition."

SF T-14 related on May 6, 1966, that he recalled STEVE WEISSMAN making the above-quoted statement at the VDC meeting on October 26, 1965.

SF T-3 informed on May 6, 1966, that he could not recall

SF T-18 related on October 25, 1965, that on October 23, 1965, the VDC Anti-Draft Committee held a meeting at VDC headquarters, 2407 Fulton Street, Berkeley. SF T-18 related that at the meeting, STEVE CHERKOSS admitted being a "Communist" and stated those active in the organization should face up to the fact and accept that Communists were in the anti-draft movement on a national scale.

SF T-18 related on May 16, 1966, that he recalled WINDY SMITH and JOHN SELTZ were also present at the above-mentioned meeting. SF T-18 went on to say that SMITH left the meeting early. SF T-18 did not recall that anyone at the meeting of October 23, 1965 mentioned the Oakland Induction Center specifically as a distribution point for the "soldier's leaflet." SF T-18 was unable to recall the names of anyone known to him at the meeting of October 23, 1965, who led and/or took part in any discussion concerning the undermining of the morale of U.S. troops or anything said by any individual at the meeting in this regard.

SF T-18 did recall that the "soldier's leaflet" was distributed at the Oakland Induction Center one morning. He believed this occurred in October 1965, but was unable to recall the exact date. SF T-18 recalled STEVE CHERKOSS was present and was distributing the leaflets at the Oakland Induction Center on the morning in question. SF T-18 added he was also present at the Oakland Induction Center on the particular morning; however, he did not distribute any of the leaflets.

A review of the printed leaflet, "ATTENTION ALL MILITARY PERSONNEL" indicated it was printed by the Berkeley Free Press.

SF T-18 informed on May 16, 1966, that the Berkeley Free Press did, in fact, print the leaflet, "ATTENTION ALL MILITARY PERSONNEL." SF T-18 went on to say he was present at the Berkeley Free Press, along with two other individuals and a couple of printers from the Berkeley Free Press who were unknown to him when approximately 30,000 copies of the leaflets were printed. SF T-18 added that he helped cut the paper at the Berkeley Free Press for the leaflets.

Sergeant CARL DAHL had related on January 10, 1966, that according to his previously described source in the VDC, the "soldier's leaflet" was primarily the work of MARVIN GARSON and JACK WEINBERG, and had been proofread by ROBERT SCHEER.

SF T-11 reported during April 1963, that MARVIN THOMAS GARSON had been active in the Young Socialist Alliance (YSA) in Berkeley, while attending UCB, and had served as an officer of the organization.

SF T-11 further reported that GARSON had become dissatisfied with the YSA over a factionalist dispute and had resigned from the YSA in Berkeley in February, 1963.

The December 12, 1961, issue of "The Daily Californian", UCB Campus Publication, contained an article captioned, "Fair Play For Cuba," which was signed by two individuals, one of whom was "Bob Scheer, Grad Student, Econ., member, Fair Play Exec. Comm."

In the May 22, 1965, issue of the "San Francisco Examiner", a San Francisco, California, daily newspaper, there appeared an article captioned, "The 'Camp' Meeting at Cal." Among other things, the article identified ROBERT SCHEER as Research Director for the FPCC and informed SCHEER had visited Cuba in the summer of 1964 in defiance of a U.S. State Department ban.

ROBERT SCHEER is the Foreign News Editor for "Ramparts" magazine.

"Ramparts" is self-described as the "catholic journal of political opinion."

The February 23, 1966, issue of the "Berkeley Daily Gazette", a Berkeley, California, daily newspaper, informed among other things, that "SCHEER, an outspoken critic of the JOHNSON Administration policies in Viet Nam" was "presently" touring South Vietnam and Cambodia, the latter country at the invitation of Prince SHIANOUK.

SF T-18 related on May 16, 1966, he could not recall who told him, but he had the distinct impression he was told that MARVIN GARSON was the main author of the "soldier's leaflet." SF T-18 added he had not heard anything linking JACK WEINBERG with the preparation of the leaflet or that ROBERT SCHEER had proofread the leaflet.

SF T-3 reported on May 6, 1966, that he had no knowledge of who actually prepared the "soldier's leaflet"; however, he vaguely recalled that the leaflet was at least in part the work of SIDNEY CHERPITEL. He could furnish no specifics.

SF T-13 reported on November 4, 1965, that SIDNEY WILLIAM CHERPITEL on November 3, 1965, considered himself a Communist, but was not a member of the CP.

SF T-14 reported on May 6, 1966, he possessed no information concerning who prepared or assisted in the preparation of the "soldier's leaflet".

SF T-13 related on October 13, 1965, that on October 11, 1965, at approximately 7:30 PM, MIKE O'HANLON and his girl friend, MIRIAM GOLOMB, described by SF T-13 as very active in the VDC, went to the Greyhound Bus Depot, 7th and Mission Streets, San Francisco. SF T-13 commented their purpose for visiting the Greyhound Bus Depot was to ship three (3) parcels of leaflets to be distributed to soldiers. The leaflets were captioned, "ATTENTION ALL MILITARY PERSONNEL", and were addressed to J. PARISOT, C/O Department of Literature, University of California at San Diego, La Jolla, California.

On May 4, 1966, C. A. TELFER, Greyhound Terminal Manager, San Diego, California, informed that the bus bill for the shipment of leaflets to J. PARISOT on October 11, 1965, if such shipment were made, would be located at the Accounting Department of the Greyhound General Office, Market and Fremont Streets, San Francisco. Mr. TELFER commented all bus bills were furnished to San Francisco at the end of the month and they would contain the name of the person accepting delivery of the package.

EDWARD J. BASILE, Greyhound Bus Lines, 371 Market Street, San Francisco, furnished the following information to SA JOSEPH T. QUIGLEY on May 6, 1966.

Collect Bus Bill Number 520851, dated October 11, 1965, revealed three (3) boxes weighing sixty-five (65) pounds were sent to J. PARISOT, University of California, Department of Literature, La Jolla, California. The contents of the boxes were described as books and leaflets. The shipper was listed as the VDC, 2407 Fulton Street, Berkeley. Express charges were $4.40. No signature was shown on the bus bill to record the name of the recipient.

DISTRIBUTION OF LEAFLET TO MILITARY SERVICEMEN SERVING OVERSEAS

As of April 10, 1966, the FBI Laboratory, Washington, D.C., had determined from handwriting comparisons, twenty-seven (27) leaflets sent to military personnel serving overseas had been sent by RICHARD CLAYTON IVEY.

Sergeant CARL DAHL's highly placed source in the VDC, SF T-14, SF T-3, and SF T-18 on May 4, 6, 6 and 16, 1966, respectively, were shown photographs of IVEY, and they informed they did not know him nor had they seen him at VDC headquarters, Berkeley, nor at any VDC activities. They commented that if an individual desired copies of the leaflet, they were available to anyone at VDC headquarters, 2407 Fulton Street, Berkeley.

Inasmuch as investigation to date had revealed that RICHARD CLAYTON IVEY had sent thirty-five (35) of the "soldier's leaflet" to military personnel serving overseas, the following investigation was conducted for the purpose of obtaining witnesses who could testify to IVEY's handwriting.

MRS. ANN BEACH, Deputy Registrar of Voters, Sonoma County Court House, 2555 Mendocino Avenue, Santa Rosa, California, advised that according to the records of her office she registered a RICHARD C. IVEY, 7314 Lynch Road, Sebastopol, California, on November 3, 1965, for voting purposes.

She stated that she can testify that her signature appears on the Affidavit of Registration, No. B75888, and that she personally witnessed the Affiant's signature.

She stated that the usual and accepted practice in registering an individual is as follows:

The registrant comes to the counter in the Office of Registrar of Voters. He asks to be registered. He is questioned about his former registration, which in this case was Alameda County. He is then asked for his height, birth place and birth date. In this case the height was listed as 5'8", birth place as California, and birth date as April 13, 1941. The next question he is asked is, "Can you read the constitution in the English language?" If the Affiant states in the affirmative, he is then asked for his full name, address, occupation, and the name of the party with which he would like to affiliate. He is then asked, "Do you swear that all statements are true to the best of your knowledge?" If the Affiant states in the positive, he then has placed before him the Affidavit of Registration, which he must sign in the Deputy's presence, and in this matter the Affiant signed the name "RICHARD C. IVEY, 7314 Lynch Road, Sebastopol."

MRS. BEACH, after witnessing the signature, in the proper column entitled, "Subscribed and Sworn Before Me," she affixes the date, signs her name in full and enters the precinct number.

Bay Area Progressive Labor,
"Progressive Labor"

The masthead in the February 8, 1965, issue of "Spark" reflects it is published by the Progressive Labor Movement of the Bay Area, P.O. Box 73, Station A, Berkeley.... page 4 of this issue of "Spark" carries an article describing MORT SCHEER as the "West Coast organizer" of the Progressive Labor Movement (PLM).

A source advised on January 7, 1965, that MORTIMER SCHEER, following a press conference in San Francisco, California, on January 7, 1965, related that he was the West Coast Organizer for the PLM and National Vice Chairman. PLM was started about three years ago as a national organization located mainly in the New York and Buffalo areas, and he has been here since last July striving to organize PLM. He stated PLM has several publications, including "Progressive Labor", a monthly, and the "Marxist-Leninist Quarterly."

The April 19, 1965, issue of the "San Francisco Chronicle", a daily San Francisco newspaper, carried an article which related that the Progressive Labor Party (PLP) was officially formed April 18, 1965, after a four-day convention in New York. PLP was formerly known as the Progressive Labor Movement and MORT SCHEER was elected as one of the vice-presidents of PLP.

A second source advised on May 6, 1965, that the Bay Area Progressive Labor Party (BAPLP) has no headquarters. MORTIMER SCHEER, organizer for BAPLP operates out of his residence.

PROGRESSIVE LABOR PARTY (PLP)
PROGRESSIVE LABOR MOVEMENT (PLM)

A source advised on April 20, 1965, that the PLP, formerly known as the PLM, held its first national convention April 15-18, 1965, at New York City, to organize the PLM into a PLP. The PLP will have as its ultimate objective the establishment of a militant working class movement based on Marxism-Leninism.

"The New York Times," City Edition, Tuesday, April 20, 1965, page 27, reported that a new party of "revolutionary socialism" was formally founded on April 18, 1965, under the name of the PLP. The PLP was described as an outgrowth of the PLM. Its officers were identified as MILTON ROSEN, New York, President, and WILLIAM EPTON of New York and MORT SCHEER of San Francisco, Vice Presidents. A 20-member National Committee was elected to direct the party until the next convention.

According to the article, "The Progressive Labor Movement was founded in 1962 by Mr. ROSEN and Mr. SCHEER after they were expelled from the Communist Party of the United States for assertedly following the Chinese Communist line."

The PLP publishes the "Marxist-Leninist Quarterly," a theoretical magazine; "Progressive Labor," a monthly magazine; "Challenge," a New York City newspaper; and "Spark," a West Coast newspaper.

The June 1, 1965, issue of "Challenge," page 6, states that "This paper is dedicated to fight for a new way of life - where the working men and women own and control their homes, factories, the police, courts, and the entire government on every level."

The source advised that the PLP utilizes the address of General Post Office Box 808, Brooklyn 1, New York, but also utilizes an office in Room 622, 132 Nassau Street, New York City, where PLP publications are prepared.

COMMITTEE FOR CONSTITUTIONAL LIBERTIES (CCL), aka Citizens Committee for Constitutional Liberties - San Francisco

A source advised on June 19, 1961, that MICKEY LIMA, Chairman, Northern California District, Communist Party (CP), reported on June 15, 1961, that the CP, USA, in response to the Supreme Court decision of June 5, 1961, relating to the Internal Security Act of 1950, had decided to create a committee known as Citizens Committee for Constitutional Liberties (CCCL), 22 East 17th Street, New York City, and that a local committee would be organized for Northern California.

This source advised on June 26, 1961, that a meeting was held on June 18, 1961, at the home of ROSCOE PROCTOR, member of the National Committee, CP, USA, for the purpose of formulating plans for the CCCL in Northern California.

A second source advised on September 14, 1961, that the CCCL had opened an office at 942 Market Street, Room 401, San Francisco, California, and that some of the furniture for this office had come from the CP office on the same floor.

A third source advised June 22, 1962, that Dr. HERBERT PHILLIPS announced that he had closed down the headquarters of the CCL at 942 Market Street, San Francisco.

A fourth source in November, 1962, advised that CP officials in Northern California have been active in promoting the CCL.

This same source advised in November, 1962, that the CCL was active in the fight against the Internal Security Act of 1950, under which the CP and its officials were being prosecuted.

A fifth source on May 2, 1963, furnished the names of the officers of the CCL in San Francisco as Dr. HERBERT J. PHILLIPS, Chairman, and WALTER STACK, Treasurer.

Dr. HERBERT PHILLIPS testified in open court in 1953 to CP membership since 1935.

The fifth source above advised that the CCL bank account at the Bank of America, #1 Powell Street, San Francisco, was closed August 16, 1963, because it was "no longer needed".

CITIZENS COMMITTEE FOR CONSTITUTIONAL LIBERTIES (NEW YORK CITY)

The Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications, revised and published December 1, 1961, prepared and released by the Committee on Un-American Activities, United States House of Representatives, contains the following on Page 42 concerning "Citizens Committee for Constitutional Liberties (New York City)":

> 1. "On the basis of its investigations and hearings to date, the committee concludes that the National Assembly for Democratic Rights and a coordinating and organizing group in support thereof, titled the 'Citizens Committee for Constitutional Liberties, are communist fronts. Created, dominated and controlled by members and officials of the Communist Party, the National Assembly for Democratic Rights and the Citizens Committee for Constitutional Liberties were organized as propaganda devices for the conduct of 'mass activity' in support of the avowed objectives of 'reversal or nonapplication' of the Supreme Court decisions of June 5, 1961, which upheld the constitutionality of the registration and disclosure provisions of the Internal Security Act of 1950 as applied to the Communist Party, and the Smith Act membership clause making punishable active and purposive membership in the Communist Party."
> " The long-range objective of the Citizens Committee for Constitutional Liberties is to serve as the vehicle for concealed communist participation in, and direction of, propaganda and agitational activities aimed to nullify the Internal Security and Smith Acts."
> " Committee investigation disclosed that the Citizens Committee for Constitutional Liberties was formed on or about June 12, 1961 ***."

FAIR PLAY FOR CUBA COMMITTEE, BAY AREA CHAPTER, also known as Bay Area Fair Play for Cuba Committee (BAFPCC)

The "New York Times" newspaper on November 20, 1960 carried an article captioned "Pro-Castro Body Reports U.S. Gain," which reported that the Fair Play for Cuba Committee (FPCC) had 5,000 paid-up members in the United States. The article declared that the FPCC had headquarters at 799 Broadway, New York City, New York, and had chapters in other cities, including one in San Francisco.

A source advised in March, 1961, that the Bay Area Chapter of the FPCC (BAFPCC) began to be formed in San Francisco in November, 1960, under the direct guidance and leadership of ASHER HARER, who the source identified as a member of the San Francisco Branch of the Socialist Workers Party (SWP) and a member of the National Committee of the SWP.

> The SWP has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

This source advised in March, 1963, that in the recent election of the BAFPCC the SWP continued its influence by having SWP members elected to the executive committee

This source advised in May, 1963, that the BAFPCC included members in San Francisco and surrounding counties. He advised that the BAFPCC has no headquarters but received mail through Post Office Box 2615, San Francisco 26, California, which is a box maintained by ASHER HARER. He stated that the announced aims and purposes of the BAFPCC are to "spread the truth about Cuba and to prevent U.S. intervention in Cuba."

A second source advised on January 10, 1964, that at a BAFPCC meeting in Berkeley, California, in December, 1963, it was decided to dissolve the BAFPCC.

FAIR PLAY FOR CUBA COMMITTEE

The April 6, 1960, edition of "The New York Times" newspaper contained a full-page advertisement captioned "What Is Really Happening in Cuba," placed by the Fair Play for Cuba Committee (FPCC). This advertisement announced the formation of the FPCC in New York City and declared the FPCC intended to promulgate "the truth about revolutionary Cuba" to neutralize the distorted American press.

"The New York Times" edition of January 11, 1961, reported that at a hearing conducted before the United States Senate Internal Security Subcommittee on January 10, 1961, Dr. CHARLES A. SANTOS-BUCH identified himself and ROBERT TABER as organizers of the FPCC. He also testified he and TABER obtained funds from the Cuban Government which were applied toward the cost of the aforementioned advertisement.

On May 16, 1963, a source advised that during the first two years of the FPCC's existence there was a struggle between Communist Party (CP) and Socialist Workers Party (SWP) elements to exert their power within the FPCC and thereby influence FPCC policy. This source added that during the past year there had been a successful effort by FPCC leadership to minimize the role of these and other organizations in the FPCC so that their influence as of May, 1963, was negligible.

> The SWP has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

On May 20, 1963, a second source advised that VINCENT "TED" LEE, FPCC National Office Director, was then formulating FPCC policy and had indicated that he had no intention of permitting FPCC policy to be determined by any other organization. This source stated that LEE believed that the FPCC should advocate resumption of diplomatic relations between Cuba and the United States and should support the right of Cubans to manage their revolution without interference from other nations. LEE did not advocate supporting the Cuban revolution per se.

FAIR PLAY FOR CUBA COMMITTEE (cont'd.)

The November 23, 1963, edition of "The New York Times" reported that Senator THOMAS J. DODD of Connecticut had called FPCC "the chief public relations instrument of the Castro network in the United States." It is to be noted that Senator DODD was a member of the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee which twice conducted hearings on the FPCC.

The December 27, 1963, edition of "The New York World Telegram and Sun" newspaper stated that the pro-Castro FPCC was seeking to go out of business and that its prime activity during its lifetime had been sponsorship of pro-Castro street rallies and mass picket lines, and the direction of an active propaganda mill highlighting illegal travel-to-Cuba campaigns. Its comparatively brief span of life was attributed to mounting anti-Castro American public opinion, the 1962 Congressional hearings which disclosed FPCC financing by Castro's United Nations Delegation, and ultimately, the bad publicity which the FPCC received from disclosure of activities on its behalf by suspected Presidential assassin LEE H. OSWALD.

On February 6, 1964, the previously mentioned second source advised that V. T. LEE had recently remarked that the FPCC was dead and that there were no plans to organize another similar organization.

On April 13, 1964, a third source advised that there had not been any FPCC activity in many months and that the FPCC had been dissolved.

San Francisco School of Marxism

A source advised on February 6, 1962, that the first class of the San Francisco Marxist Study Group (SFMSG) was held on February 5, 1962, at 345 Franklin Street, San Francisco, California, and that the instructor of this class stated that the main purpose of the SFMSG was to train young people for leadership of the people in the event the U. A second source advised on April 23, 1964, that the San Francisco School of Social Sciences (SFSSS), has been known as the "San Francisco School of Social Science," "San Francisco Marxist Study Group," "San Francisco School of Marxism-Leninism," and "San Francisco School of Marxism."

A third source furnished the Spring, 1964, Bulletin of the SFSSS on October 14, 1964, which reflected that TERENCE HALLINAN and J. P. MORRAY were Co-Directors of the SFSSS.

A fourth source advised on April 9, 1965, that in April, 1965, TERENCE HALLINAN advised that he was not a member of the Communist Party (CP), but considered himself a communist and intended to join the CP as soon as he passed his bar exams.

A fifth source advised March 1, 1963, that HERBERT APTHEKER, a member of the CP, USA, National Committee, advised in February, 1963, that he was to be the East Coast Chairman and JOSEPH P. MORRAY the West Coast Director of a new organization being promoted by the CP, USA, to teach and propagate Marxist theories.

The third source further advised on January 26, 1966, that due to the failure of the SFSSS during its Spring, 1965, term to raise support sufficient to continue all of its scheduled classes, no classes were organized for a Fall, 1965, term. The SFSSS no longer exists.

STUDENT COMMITTEE FOR TRAVEL TO CUBA

"The Columbia Owl," weekly student newspaper of Columbia University, New York City, December 12, 1962, issue, page one, contained an article entitled "Students to Visit Cuba During Holidays." This article stated in part that the Ad Hoc Student Committee for Travel to Cuba was formed October 14, 1962, by a group of students from New York City universities, the University of Wisconsin, Oberlin College and the University of North Carolina, who stated that as students they would like a chance to see and evaluate the situation in Cuba for themselves and had received an offer of transportation and two weeks stay in Cuba from the Federation of University Students in Havana, as guests of the Federation. The Committee accepted the offer and applied to the State Department of the United States for passport validation which was refused; however, over fifty students planned to defy the State Department ban and go to Cuba.

A source advised on December 6, 1962, it was learned the Ad Hoc Student Committee for Travel to Cuba had recently been formed by the Progressive Labor Group.

A second source advised on September 13, 1963, that during the Summer of 1963, fifty-nine individuals traveled to Cuba; the leaders of the group were members of the Progressive Labor Movement; and the trip was planned and organized by Progressive Labor Movement members.

A third source advised on October 9, 1963, the Student Committee for Travel to Cuba was utilizing Post Office Box 2178, New York, New York, as its mailing address.

On March 12, 1965, Philip Abbott Luce, 504 West 55th Street, New York, New York, a self-admitted member of the Student Committee for Travel to Cuba Executive Committee and the Progressive Labor Movement National Coordinating Committee, advised as follows:

The Student Committee for Travel to Cuba (SCTC) was formerly known as the Ad Hoc Student Committee for Travel to Cuba and the Permanent Student Committee for Travel to Cuba.

Luce was a leader and participant of the 1963 trip to Cuba and an organizer of the 1964 trip to Cuba and both trips were sponsored by the SCTC.

By the Spring of 1964 the Executive Committee of the SCTC was considered to be members of the Progressive Labor Movement.

No trip to Cuba or China was being planned by the SCTC for 1965.

W. E. B. DU BOIS CLUBS OF AMERICA (DCA)

A source has advised that on October 26-27, 1963, a conference of members of the Communist Party (CP), including national functionaries, met in Chicago, Illinois, for the purpose of setting in motion forces for the establishment of a new national Marxist-oriented youth organization which would hunt for the most peaceful transition to socialism. The delegates to this meeting were cautioned against the germ of anti-Soviet and anti-CP ideologies. These delegates were also told that it would be reasonable to assume that the young socialists attracted into this new organization would eventually pass into the CP itself.

A second conference of over 20 persons met in Chicago on December 28-29, 1963, for the purpose of initiating a "call" to the new youth organization and planning for a founding convention to be held in June, 1964.

A second source has advised that the founding convention for the new youth organization was held from June 19-21, 1964, at 150 Golden Gate Avenue, San Francisci, California, at which time the name W. E. B. DuBois Clubs of America (DCA) was adopted. Approximately 500 delegates from throughout the United States attended this convention. The aims of this organization, as set forth in the preamble to the constitution are, "It is our belief that this nation can best solve its problems in an atmosphere of peaceful coexistence, complete disarmament and true freedom for all peoples of the world, and that these solutions will be reached mainly through the united efforts of all democratic elements in our country, composed essentially of the working people allied in the unity of Negroes and other minorities with whites. We further fully recognize that the greatest threat to American democracy comes from the racist and right wing forces in coalition with the most reactionary sections of the economic power structure, using the tool of anti-Communism to divide and destroy the unified struggle of the working people. As young people in the forces struggling for democracy, we shall actively strive to defeat these reactionary and neo-fascist elements and to achieve complete freedom and democracy for all Americans, thus enabling each individual to freely choose and build the society he would wish to live in. Through these struggles we feel the American people will realize the viability of the socialist alternative."

APPENDIX

SF 14-207

The constitution further states that this new organization shall be a membership organization open to individuals, or if five or more people so desire, a chapter can be formed which shall in turn be guided by the policies and principles of the parent organization.

As of October, 1965, the headquarters of the DCA was located at 954 McAllister Street, San Francisco, California.

Over the Labor Day weekend, 1965, the DCA held a conference in Chicago, Illinois. According to a third source, a new slate of national officers was elected at this conference, which included Chairman HUGH STERLING FOWLER, II (who, according to the third source, attended a CP cadre encampment held at Camp Midvale, New Jersey, in June, 1965, and following his election as Chairman of the DCA, attended another national CP cadre youth conference held on September 9-12, 1965, on a farm located in Northern Indiana, according to a fourth source); Director of Publicity CARL ELLENGER BLOICE (who was elected to the San Francisco County Committee CP in April, 1964, according to a fifth source); Educational Director MATTHEW "DYNAMITE" HALLINAN (who in June, 1964, was stated to be the Youth Representative on the Northern California CP District Board, according to a sixth source); Organizational Secretary TERENCE "KAYO" HALLINAN (who, according to a seventh source, met in June, 1965, with the District Staff of the Illinois CP to discuss the proposed DCA Midwest Summer Project), and Treasurer SUSAN PHYLLIS BORENSTEIN (who, according to an eighth source, has attended meetings of the Youth Club of the CP of Illinois during 1965 in connection with the DCA Summer Project).

YOUNG SOCIALIST ALLIANCE (known in the San Francisco Bay area as the Bay Area Young Socialist Alliance, aka the Bay Area Committee of the Young Socialist Alliance, Bay Area Committee for the Young Socialist)

A source advised on May 16, 1960, that the Bay Area Young Socialist Alliance (BAYSA) was formed in February, 1958, as the Bay Area Committee for the Young Socialist (BACYS). At a later stage in its development prior to adoption of the name BAYSA, the organization was known as the Bay Area Committee of the Young Socialist Alliance (BACYSA).

The source advised that as a result of a national convention held April 15-17, 1960, at Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, the BAYSA became a branch of the national organization to be known as the Young Socialist Alliance (YSA) and will carry out in the Northern California area the policies of the YSA.

The source advised August 19, 1965, that the BAYSA is currently active and is composed of three locals, the San Francisco YSA, the Berkeley YSA, and the San Jose YSA.

The source advised that the BAYSA, although ostensibly an independent organization, is in reality controlled by the San Francisco Branch, Socialist Workers Party (SWP) and Oakland Branch SWP.

The SWP has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

YOUNG SOCIALIST ALLIANCE

The May,1960 issue of the "Young Socialist" ("YS") page 1, column 3, disclosed that during April 15-17, 1960, a national organization entitled "Young Socialist Alliance" (YSA) was established at Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. This issue stated this organization was formed by the nationwide supporter clubs of the publication "YS".

The above issue, page 6, set forth the Founding Declaration of YSA. This declaration stated YSA recognizes the Socialist Workers Party (SWP) as the only existing political leadership on class struggle principles, and that the supporters of the "YS" have come into basic political solidarity with the SWP on the principles of revolutionary socialism.

A source advised on May 7, 1965, that the original YSA was an organization formed during October, 1957 in New York City, by youth of various left-socialist tendencies, particularly members and followers of the SWP. The leaders of this group were the guiding forces in the establishment of the national organization

The source further advised on May 7, 1965, YSA is dominated and controlled on a national basis by the SWP through having SWP members comprise exclusively the National Executive Committee (NEC) and through an official SWP representative at all YSA NEC meetings. The YSA, in reality, is the youth and training section of the SWP and the main source of new SWP members.

The headquarters of the YSA is located in Room 631, 41 Union Square West, New York City.

The SWP has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

YOUTH FOR JOBS (YFJ), aka Youth for Jobs Committee

A source advised in July 1963, that several recent graduates and dropouts of high schools in Oakland and Berkeley, California, had on April 17, 1963, attended the organizing meeting of Youth for Jobs (YFJ) in Oakland, California, in response to letters prepared by ROSCOE PROCTOR and DOUGLAS WACHTER. At this meeting, WACHTER gave reports on the unemployment problem among youth and the need for an organization of this type. PROCTOR also spoke at this meeting.

In May 1963, a second source advised that ROSCOE PROCTOR attended meetings of the National Executive Committee of the Communist Party (CP), USA, during May 1963, in New York City.

In January 1963, a third source identified DOUGLAS WACHTER as the Chairman of a CP recruiting class held in January 1963, in Berkeley, California.

In May 1963, the first source advised that in May 1963, a 12-page pamphlet entitled "Youth for Jobs-Aims and Purposes" was distributed. This pamphlet described YFJ as an independent organization of young people working together to find solutions to current vocational, social and recreational problems; it specified that YFJ is not affiliated with any other organizations, but would fully support the labor movement and any other organizations striving to combat unemployment and to increase job security for all employees.

In June 1963, the third source advised that at a meeting of the Political Committee of the CP of the East Bay Region (Alameda and Contra Costa Counties, California) held in June 1963, VIRGINIA PROCTOR, member of that Committee, gave a report on a draft document read before the National Committee, CP, USA, by GUS HALL, member of the National Committee, CP, USA. In connection with the portion of the report dealing with youth, PROCTOR said "A report from this area on the activity around Youth for Jobs organized by ROSCOE PROCTOR will be included in the final document, as one of the signs of the Party work in organizing the unemployed."

On May 3, 1965, a fourth source advised that ROSCOE PROCTOR has promoted and guided YFJ since its inception and continues to do so. The source stated that meetings of YFJ are held at the YFJ Club House, 1095 - 59th Street, Oakland, California, and at homes of individual members.

He applied for admission to the graduate division at UCB, Berkeley, California on May 20, 1959, at which time he was residing at 2915 Wheeler Street, Berkeley. He listed his former residence as 205 Ollis Court, Syracuse, New York. He received a BA degree in political science at the City College of New York in June 1960. The Student Directory for the Fall Semester 1960 at UCB, reflected that ROBERT SCHEER, 1916 A Francisco Street, Berkeley, California, was registered for the fall term as a graduate student in economics.

F. Interviews of Subject

Another Government agency that conducts security investigations interviewed ROBERT SCHEER July 11, 1958, August 10, 1961 and August 16, 1961, the last interview being under oath. During the interviews, SCHEER stated that while in college he attended a few meetings which he felt were run by someone who could have been in the Labor Youth League (LYL) and had attended one social event which he felt was definitely sponsored by LYL, but explained that he had gone to this affair to meet a girl. He said he never attended a political meetings of LYL and added that he has never been a member of the CP or any organization cited by the Attorney General. SCHEER admitted having read the "Communist Manifesto" frequently and studied it as an example of ideological development.

SCHEER said under oath that he did not consider the CP, USA to be a threat to the United States and had no reason to believe that a person who joins the CP swears allegiance to a foreign power or advocates the overthrow of the United States Government. He said he believes that the CP is not subversive because it claims to be interested in bringing about its program through democratic process. SCHEER refused to discuss his trip to Cuba in 1960 and refused to discuss his membership, activities or associations with the Student Fair Play for Cuba Committee (SFPCC) under protection of the First and Fifth Amendments.

SCHEER stated under oath that he has never been arrested and that he considers he owes his allegiance to the United States, but does not believe in the philosophy

G. Birth of a Child

Records of the Department of Health, Alameda County Courthouse, Oakland, were checked on April 29, 1968 by IC ROBERT L. GIBSON and a record was found of a birth of a son named CHRISTOPHER WARREN SCHEER, born September 8, 1967 at Berkeley, California to ANNE BUTTERFIELD WEILLS SCHEER and ROBERT SCHEER, 6468 Benvenue Avenue, Oakland, California.

H. Marital Discord

ROBERT SCHEER has been living at his home, 6468 Benvenue Avenue, Oakland, California, since about September 7, 1968. On September 26, 1968, Mrs. ANNE SCHEER told some of the neighbors that she and ROBERT SCHEER were separating because they live different kinds of lives. ANNE SCHEER said she was moving to an apartment somewhere near the Oakland-Berkeley border where she planned to live with a man named TOM, not further identified, whom she expected to marry eventually. Mrs. SCHEER was busy removing her belongings from the residence at 6468 Benvenue Avenue, Oakland, on September 26, 1968.

ROBERT SCHEER was at his residence, 6468 Benvenue Avenue, Oakland, on October 19, 1968 and had his infant son with him. He also has a new girl friend who looks like a "hippie" who has been at this residence quite a lot in recent weeks. It is understood that SCHEER's son has been residing with his mother at a different location.

Mrs. GEORGIA SWILLIAM, 6480 Benvenue Avenue, Oakland, California, reported October 14, 1968 that ANNE SCHEER had been living with THOMAS HAYDEN while ROBERT SCHEER was away on trips for "Ramparts" magazine and now appears to have taken their child and both are residing with HAYDEN full time at HAYDEN's apartment. The SCHEERs reportedly had reached a mutual agreement to get a divorce.

ROBERT and ANNE SCHEER reside at 6468 Benvenue Avenue, Oakland, California, and most of the neighbors refuse to associate with them. There has never been any sign of emotion or warmth exhibited between them. When THOMAS HAYDEN arrived in early September 1968, it became very evident that ANNE SCHEER was very strongly attracted to him in a physical way. ANNE is believed to have met HAYDEN in Hanoi, North Vietnam during the summer of 1968. When ROBERT SCHEER made trips away from home, HAYDEN would move into the SCHEER residence. During October 1968, ANNE SCHEER indicated she intended to seek a divorce from ROBERT SCHEER and would move into the apartment of THOMAS HAYDEN. Beginning about Christmas, 1968, ANNE SCHEER returned home with the SCHEER baby and has remained with ROBERT SCHEER for the past month or more. THOMAS HAYDEN has not been observed in the company of ANNE SCHEER or visiting the SCHEER residence in more than one month. There are numerous visitors to the SCHEER residence and it would appear that several men were living at this residence regularly in addition to the SCHEERs. While ANNE SCHEER was in Hanoi, ROBERT SCHEER received a threat to his life that frightened him greatly. He moved out of the house immediately and hired a private investigator who moved into the house "armed to the teeth". It appears that ROBERT SCHEER has been somewhat frightened ever since this threat.

A characterization of the SDS is contained in the Appendix.

"RAMPARTS" MAGAZINE

"Ramparts" in a letter to subscribers dated May 1, 1968, announced that beginning June 1, 1968, it would be published biweekly at a yearly subscription price of $15. In this letter "Ramparts" described itself as follows: "...the first national publication to consistently reveal the ribbon of lies supporting America's involvement in Vietnam; we stripped the curtain from America's 'invisible government' by exposing CIA's unlicensed intrusion into our domestic lives; we dared to write about the applications of the Catholic Church's political power; we warned, years before the Kerner report, that white racism was the base of America's racial problems; we blasted away at the corroded institutions of Cold War liberalism.

" 'Ramparts' is now the largest left-of-center commercial magazine in the history of the United States..."

I. Burning of Draft Card

The cover of the December 1967 issue of "Ramparts" magazine contains a photograph of four right hands each holding a burning Selective Service card. One of the cards is a duplicate issued December 3, 1958 of the "Selective Service Registration Certificate" for ROBERT SCHEER, 653 Britton Street, New York 67, Bronx.

The San Francisco "Examiner," daily newspaper published in San Francisco, California, in its issue of November 16, 1967, carried an article headlined "Ramparts Editors Burn Draft Cards" which quoted "Publisher MARC STONE" of "Ramparts" as saying the magazine cover is "a very serious editorial statement," adding "there is a very serious political crisis in this country and we want to show that the bureaucracy of the Selective Service System is unfair."

The San Francisco "Examiner" daily newspaper, issue of June 13, 1968, carried a news article "3 Ramparts Officers Before Jury in NY." This article stated that three top officers of "Ramparts" magazine were called to appear before a Federal Grand Jury in New York City, June 13, 1968 to testify at an inquiry described only as "having to do with Selective Service." The article continued by stating that there was speculation that the investigation dealt with the cover photograph of the December 1967 issue of "Ramparts", which pictured the flaming draft cards of 3 top officials. (Should be four officials.)

The August 24, 1968 issue of "Ramparts" magazine carried a column entitled, "Apologia," which carried a reprint of a news article from the "New York Times" newspaper, issue of July 18, 1968. The article stated that WARREN HINCKLE, III, ROBERT SCHEER, DUGALD STERMER, and SOL STEIN, all officials of "Ramparts", appeared before a Grand Jury in New York City on June 17, 1968, as a result of the December 1967 cover of "Ramparts" containing a photograph of four hands holding burning draft cards containing the names of these four men.

J. Threat to Subject's Life

ROBERT SCHEER telephoned the San Francisco FBI Office on July 8, 1968, to state the receptionist at "Ramparts" magazine, San Francisco, received the following telephone message from an anonymous male at 4:45 pm that day:

> "I just want to inform you that we plan to destroy the Managing Editor, BOB SCHEER, tomorrow night at 9:00."

SCHEER stated that the New York City Office of "Ramparts" had received a threat about July 3, 1968 and he felt that this call resulted from a recent article in "Ramparts" regarding Cuban refugees. He said he had no indication that the call was interstate.

The San Francisco "Examiner" newspaper, San Francisco, California, in its issue of July 9, 1968, carried a news article headlined, "Ramparts Threatened By Bombs." The article stated that both the San Francisco and New York City offices of "Ramparts" had been threatened by bombs and "Associate Editor ROBERT SCHEER had received calls threatening his life."

SCHEER advised SA CHARLES E. GALVIN on July 10, 1968, that no one had carried out the threat and that he would immediately contact the FBI if any future threats were made.

Records of the Bureau of Criminal Identification and Investigation (CII), Sacramento, California, reveal that a .25 calibre Beretta automatic pistol, serial number 415984, was sold to ROBERT SCHEER, 6468 Benvenue Avenue, Oakland, California, on January 27, 1968, and that this gun was purchased in Oakland.

Records of the Oakland Police Department were searched October 17, 1968 by IC ROBERT L. GIBSON and it was determined that ROBERT SCHEER did not possess a permit to carry a gun.

L. Passport Information

Files of the Passport Office, US Department of State, Washington, D. C., were reviewed by SA DOUGLAS M. BROWN on January 26, 1968 and reflected the following.

On January 28, 1966, Passport number G 41559 was issued at the San Francisco Passport Agency to ROBERT SCHEER, based on his application, January 27, 1966. SCHEER stated he was born April 4, 1936 at Bronx, New York, was a writer by occupation, residing at 2828 Milvia Street, Berkeley, California.

His last passport, number D 163804, was issued February 5, 1963. It was cancelled and returned to SCHEER when the above application was submitted. His parents were identified as FRED SCHEER, born in Germany, May 5, 1898, and IDA KURAN, born in Russia, April 24, 1900. His father was a United States citizen, but his mother was not a citizen. He was last married in 1965 to ANNE BUTTERFIELD WEILLS, born Eureka, California, March 14, 1942. She was designated as the person to be notified in an emergency at the above address. SCHEER stated in the application that he planned to depart San Francisco via Japan Airlines for a trip of one month to Japan, Cambodia and Hong Kong for journalistic purposes.

On November 29, 1967, SCHEER wrote a letter on the letterhead of "Ramparts" magazine and signed the letter as Managing Editor of that publication, which he sent to the Visa Department, US Department of State, Washington, D. C., stating he had been invited to attend a cultural conference in Havana, Cuba, in January 1968, by the Cuban Commission to the United Nations. He stated he found it necessary in his position to accept this invitation and requested a visa for this purpose.

The Department of State advised SCHEER by letter dated December 18, 1967 that provided he would execute the enclosed affidavit stating that he desired to attend the conference as a professional reporter and would not participate in the conference in any manner, his application would appear to qualify under existing regulations.

On December 20, 1967, SCHEER returned the affidavit which was executed on that date before a notary public in San Francisco. On December 27, 1967, the San Francisco Passport Office was authorized by the State Department to validate SCHEER's passport for one round trip to Cuba. The State Department files reflect that the passport was so validated at San Francisco on December 29, 1967.

Miss MADELINE EBINGER, Clerk, Passport Office, US Department of State, 450 Golden Gate Avenue, San Francisco, advised March 20, 1968 that her office received authorization from the State Department, Washington, D. C. on March 19, 1968 to validate the passport of ROBERT SCHEER, DUGALD STERMER and FREDERICK C. MITCHELL, all of "Ramparts" magazine for one round trip to Cuba, each for journalistic purposes. STERMER is art director of "Ramparts" magazine and MITCHELL a senior editor of "Ramparts". Miss EBINGER expected SCHEER to appear in the immediate future for this validation since she stated he has been telephoning the passport office daily for the past week to determine if the validation of his passport had been authorized.

On April 16, 1968, ROBERT SCHEER was observed by a Special Agent of the FBI to visit the Passport Office of the State Department in San Francisco, where he had his passport validated for one round trip to Cuba. This was confirmed by MADELINE EBINGER the same day.

Mrs. DOROTHY GIBBS, Passport Office, US Department of State (USDS), Washington, D. C., stated on August 29, 1968 to SE ROBERT P. LYNCH that the State Department wired the San Francisco Passport Agency instructing, "You are authorzied to validate passport G 041559, issued to ROBERT SCHEER of 'Ramparts' valid for one round trip to Cuba."

Miss MADELINE EBINGER advised on September 18, 1968 that records of that office reflect that the passport of ROBERT SCHEER was validated for one round trip to Cuba on August 22, 1968. She said she recalled that an unknown man appeared at the Passport Office a few minutes before closing time on August 22, 1968 and insisted that the passport be validated that evening since ROBERT SCHEER intended to depart that evening.

A characterization of the FPCC is contained in the Appendix of this report.

"The Daily Californian," a daily newspaper of the Associated Students of the University of California, Berkeley, (UCB), issue of September 22, 1960, identified ROBERT SCHEER as Research Director of the Student Fair Play for Cuba Committee (SFPCC) on the Berkeley Campus.

The National Office of the Socialist Workers Party (SWP) maintained a quantity of correspondence dealing with efforts of the SWP to infiltrate and dominate the FPCC. This material included the following notation: BOB SCHEER, originally from N. Y. CCNY, was in SDA. Led fight to expel YSL and told me that they called him a Stalinist. In a political discussion he gave me that impression too, though he can attack Soviet Union before a liberal audience. Either in periphery of CP or thereabouts (influenced, etc.)."

"The Daily Californian," issue of December 22, 1960, reflected that the SFPCC was formed at a meeting in Berkeley, September 21, 1960. This article stated that amond the officers elected at this meeting was ROBERT SCHEER, who was elected Research Director; RICHARD CURRIER, President; and MAURICE ZEITLIN, Secretary.

The publication "Student Council," Volume 1, Number 1, dated November 4, 1960, declared that this publication constituted the first issue of the "Student Council," FPCC newsletter, and that this publication would be a bi-monthly report concerning Cuba and the activities of the newly organized Student Council chapters. The publication on page one reported that under the leadership of RICHARD CURRIER and ROBERT SCHEER, the Berkeley Chapter had enlisted 90 members and had held several successful meetings.

A source advised November 18, 1960, that an associate of RICHARD CURRIER described CURRIER as new to politics and as being very close to MAURICE ZEITLIN.

The same source reported that an associate of MAURICE ZEITLIN described him as an individual who formerly called himself a Stalinist and who has expressed himself as supporting Russia and Red China.

Another source related February 12, 1957, that in September 1956, MAURICE ZEITLIN evidenced interest in joining the Labor Youth League (LYL) in Detroit, Michigan, but did not become active in LYL and, in fact, repulsed LYL efforts to take over a discussion group at Wayne University which ZEITLIN led.

The "Stanford Daily" newspaper, issue of February 9, 1961, contained an article entitled "Bay Area Students Describe Progress of Revolutionary Cuba." This article explained that on February 8, 1961, there were a number of persons who spoke on the campus of Stanford University, Palo Alto, California, favoring "progress" in Cuba since the revolution. One of these speakers was identified as ROBERT SCHEER, from UCB.

An FPCC faction meeting sponsored by the SWP was held March 21, 1961, at 5931 Whitney Street, Oakland, California. ROBERT SCHEER was not present at this meeting, but was described as one of the 14 students on the campus of UCB who had signed a petition for a club of the FPCC to be active on the campus.

The concluding speaker at this program was ROBERT SCHEER, who was introduced as a reporter for "Ramparts" magazine. SCHEER vehemently denounced the United States action in Vietnam and stated that it was a problem for the Vietnamese people to decide. SCHEER stated that the United States rationalized its killing of Vietnamese civilians by saying that the Viet Cong commit horrible atrocities. SCHEER said that although the Viet Cong may kill some civilians, the United States Government's statements on their atrocities are, on the whole, a lie.

This article stated in part, "According to SCHEER, the primary goal of his campaign is not to defeat his opponent but rather to engender support for the anti-Vietnam war movement."

G. Communist Party (CP) Affiliation

SCHEER for Congress issued a press release January 19, 1966, stating that ROBERT SCHEER announced his candidacy for the Democratic Party nomination for Congressman in the 7th Congressional District of California. In his opening speech, SCHEER called for negotiations with the National Liberation Front leading to the withdrawal of American troops from Vietnam. SCHEER said, "The United States should never have gone into Vietnam, should not have stayed in and should now get out." SCHEER added, "The Johnson Administration is waging an increasingly vicious war against the Vietnamese people and this campaign will be aimed at halting it."

The SCHEER for Congress office, 2214 Grove Street, Berkeley, California, issued a letter on the letterhead of this group pointing out that ROBERT SCHEER was running in the Democratic Party primary election in June 1966, for the congressional seat presently held by JEFFREY COHELAN. The letter stated this challenge was being undertaken because Congressman COHELAN "has been completely unresponsive to the concern of East Bay citizens who are opposed to Administration policy in Vietnam." It added that in addition to the Vietnam issue, SCHEER intended to put forward a "Radical critique of the Great Society." It also requested contributions of time and money to help in this campaign. The PW issue of February 12, 1966, contained an article headlined"A New Campaign Tackles Old Issues," written by CARL BLOICE. This article gives historical background of the City of Oakland, California and the problems faced by the poor people in that city. It then cites how DANIEL SIMON, M. D. had sent hundreds of letters to Berkeley, California during the wekk of June 22, 1965, pointing out that Congressman JEFFREY COHELAN had failed to take a stand in opposition to United States participation in the war in Vietnam, and enclosed cards addressed to Congressman COHELAN appealing to COHELAN to speak out strongly in Congress for a cease fire and international negotiations through the United Nations. The cards also stated that unless COHELAN took such action, he would be opposed for re-election. By August 1965, there had been 750 cards processed and returned to Dr. SIMON. When Congressman COHELAN failed to speak out in Congress opposing US involvement in Vietnam, certain people began searching for a candidate to oppose him. ROBERT SCHEER agreed to oppose COHELAN. Some of his supporters left the organization because SCHEER refused to shave off his beard and others left the organization because SCHEER refused to exclude Communists fro his campaign committee. The article stated ROBERT SCHEER had the endorsement of the VDC as well as a sizeable portion of the community, and was not centered among the college students.

In early 1966, two functionaries of the CP discussed the forthcoming trip by SCHEER to Southeast Asia and his desire to go to North Vietnam. Both functionaries agreed that an effort should be made to assist SCHEER in gaining admission to North Vietnam, or, at least to arrange for him to have an interview at the North Vietnam Embassy while he is in Cambodia.

The "Berkeley Daily Gazette" newspaper, Berkeley, California, issue of June 9, 1966, carried a news article regarding the defeat of ROBERT SCHEER in his campaign as Democratic candidate for U. S. Congressman from the 7th Congressional District of California. This article stated SCHEER received a total of 28,751 votes, while his Democratic opponent, JEFFREY COHELAN, received 35,270 votes. This indicates SCHEER captured 45 per cent of the votes in this primary election. The newspaper quoted SCHEER as stating "From now on I'm the shadow Congressman in this District." He added that he would be a write-in candidate for U. S. Congressman in the November, 1966 election unless Congressman JEFFREY COHELAN stopped supporting the Vietnam war and unless COHELAN faced up to the serious social problems in the U. S. SCHEER added that he and his backers were "building a political movement in this District and this campaign was only the opening wedge."

During the interview, SCHEER said the cost of running his campaign had been $35,000 to $40,000, most of it being donated by "students, housewives, longshoremen and what-have-you," and none of it coming from his own pocket. He said, "When I started this campaign I didn't have a dime."

Has CNP Begun to Grow Up?

Robert Scheer has his own differences with fellow members of the New Left, he said here Friday.

In his talk to the City Commons Club, he said the nation for years had operated under a theory which blamed communism as "the devil" responsible for all world turmoil. A listener asked: "Doesn't the New Left have its own devil theory — against liberals and Democrats?"

Scheer replied: "I have my own differences with the New Left because of the fact that I wear suits and have a job."

He wore a suit of muted plaid pattern with a vest, striped, button-down shirt with a long collar and figured tie.

He continued: "Here in Berkeley the Community for New Politics is generally beyond the student stage, over 30. I came to the New Left through traditional politics. When I ran for Congress I received the CDC (California Democratic Council) endorsement, though I didn't recognize many faces at the meeting."

Scheer added: "I got the support from liberal people because they were disillusioned with liberal policies. I don't like stopping troop trains or picketing. But I did not come to the New Left without coming through liberal politics.

"I went to the Democratic Party convention of 1956. I was once on the national board of ADA (Americans for Democratic Action). There is a great danger in symbols. There is a great number of symbols that are attacked and deserve to be attacked."

Scheer continued: "Our form of dress, sexual mores, many aspects of middle class society are boring. We go in for artificial pursuits such as watching television and fixing up our homes. I find every restaurant I eat in in San Francisco boring.

"The hippies force us to re-examine these things — even the New Left can learn from the hippies."

I. Peace and Freddom Party and Black Panther Party

The "San Francisco Examiner," a daily newspaper published at San Francisco, California, in its issue of October 3, 1967, carried a news article headlined "New Peace Party's Aim - Beat LBJ." The article explained that "the newly formed Peace and Freedom Party is out to beat President Johnson in 1968 even at the expense of electing his Republican opponent."

The article continued by saying that the new Peace and Freedom Party was recently formed in an effort to promote peace candidates and had initiated a drive for the 67,000 signatures needed to put a Peace and Freedom Party candidate on the ballot. ROBERT SCHEER was listed as one of the founders of the Peace and Freedom Party.

The "Berkeley Barb," a weekly newspaper of the left, published at Berkeley, California, in its issue of March 15-21, 1968, carried an article headlined, "Differs but Will Fight for Party." This article explained that ROBERT SCHEER's decision to withdraw as a Peace and Freedom Party (PFP) candidate for nomination as U.S. Senator, was based primarily on differences with the PFP leadership over how to conduct the campaign. SCHEER was quoted as saying, "I think it is possible to conduct a radical campaign and at the same time reach out to bring people in. I don't agree that there is a conflict between educating people and running a principled campaign. There are purists in PFP who will be talking only to small meetings of convinced people. Some of the purists seem to want a small, left wing, vegetarian-type party." SCHEER also objected to being asked for loyalty to the PFP program before it had been adopted. SCHEER said he expects to campaign very actively for PFP, but stated his position with "Ramparts" Magazine also creates demands on his time.

The article added that SCHEER said he wanted to work hard for PFP without being accused of doing it for personal advantage. SCHEER also said he wanted to be free of the petty in-fighting that goes on too much in the Berkeley PFP.

SCHEER also claimed that his unsuccessful campaign for nomination as U. S. Congressman from the 7th Congressional District of California gave rise to the Community for New Politics (CNP) and the CNP formed the base for PFP locally.

CP Support for PFP

A meeting of the Campus CP Club was held February 4, 1968, at 3048 Deakin Street, Berkeley, California, during which there was a discussion of political activities. This article stated "Bob SCHEER endorsed Huey Newton for Congress last week." The article pointed out that HUEY P. NEWTON was running against JEFFREY COHELAN as the PFP candidate in the California 7th Congressional District, COHELAN being the Democratic Party candidate and the incumbent. The article continued by quoting ROBERT SCHEER as saying, "I have come to know and respect HUEY over the past two years, and I am very pleased to support him for Congress."

America must pull out of Vietnam because it is essentially wrong. The dominant political institutions are responsible for the U. S. involvement in Vietnam. We must reject the emotion of racial evil by studying the war in Vietnam. America is fundamentally racist and must come to grips with itself about racism. Relations are unwholesome between white radicals and black panthers. The Panthers are becoming better organized and can reach more people than white people can reach. The Panthers wrote a book to obtain money with which to purchase guns.

At the same meeting, GEORGE MURRAY, Minister of Education of BPP also spoke condemning the institutions in the U.S. as all being racist and working to keep the black people enslaved. MURRAY stated that if the black people wanted anything they had to get it with guns and force.

The International Committee of Defend Eldridge Cleaver issued a press release November 25, 1968, calling on the public to support a vigil at the residence of ELDRIDGE CLEAVER at 2777 Pine Street, San Francisco, 24 hours each day until CLEAVER was returned to jail November 27, 1968. The purpose of the vigil was to allegedly stop the San Francisco Police Department from "murdering" CLEAVER when they came to arrest him to return him to jail. This press release was on the letterhead of the International Committee to Defend Eldridge Cleaver, which listed ROBERT SCHEER as the Director, one of three listed officials. (Rather than return to jail ELDRIDGE CLEAVER went into hiding November 26, 1968, and is presently being sought as a fugitive from justice).

III FOREIGN TRAVEL

Trip to Indonesia, February, 1965

An American by the name of SHEA (phonetic), who claims that he is an ex-professor of a California University, visited Japan about February 11, 1965. He went to visit the office of the National Harbor and Ports Labor Union in Tokyo. The Japan labor union put up SHEA in one of their dormitories and had him live there until three days ago, when he left Japan and went to Indonesia on a ten-day trip. Before he left Japan for Indonesia, he claimed that he strongly desired to go to Communist China. He was complaining to the Japanese labor union officials about the discrimination problem in the U. S. and made derogatory remarks about the U.S. The Japanese labor union official, after listening to his desire to go to Communist China, asked the Chinese Communists now staying in Tokyo about the possibility of SHEA's trip to the Chinese mainland. The Chinese did not give a decisive answer. Although SHEA is expected to return to Japan after his trip from Indonesia, he may go to China directly from Indonesia. It is said that SHEA had to quit his university job due to an article he wrote after he came back from a trip to Cuba. The article contained some derogatory remarks about the U.S. Government.(S)

The "Berkeley Daily Gazette" newspaper, issue of February 23, 1966, carried a news article headlined "Peace Group Slates Scheer." This article states ROBERT SCHEER, candidate for Congressman, 7th Congressional District, would speak under the sponsorhsip of the Berkeley Women for Peace on February 24, 1966, at Friends Meeting House, Berkeley. It added that SCHEER, "an outspoken critic of the Johnson Administration policies in Viet Nam, is presently touring South Viet Nam and Cambodia, the latter country at the invitation of Prince SIHANOUK." It continued by stating, "Foreign Editor of Ramparts, author of 'Cuba - Tragedy in a Hemisphere' and 'How the United States Got Involved in Viet Nam.' SCHEER is also known for his association with the Center for Study of Democratic Institutions at Santa Barbara." The article concluded by stating that Women for Peace would vote on endorsing SCHEER's candidacy at this meeting.

An article appeared in "The Daily Californian," issue of March 1, 1966, which stated that ROBERT SCHEER would give "an eyewitness report from Southeast Asia" at 8:00 p.m. at the Berkeley Community Theatre, Berkeley, California. The article added, "SCHEER is a candidate for Congress in the 7th Congressional District and an authority on U.S. policy in Vietnam."

The "Berkeley Daily Gazette" newspaper, issue of March 1, 1966, carried a news article advertising the above speech. It also contained information to the effect that SCHEER's travels during February, 1966, took him to Cambodia, Thailand and South Vietnam.

"The Daily Californian," issue of March 4, 1966, carried an article reporting the results of an interview by this newspaper on March 3, 1966, with ROBERT SCHEER, who was scheduled to speak March 4, 1966, on the campus of UC, Berkeley. This article quoted SCHEER as stating that Oakland, California might be the next Watts and explode (into race riots) because of the "miserable conditions which have persisted there for the last 25 years." The article then stated that SCHEER described a recent trip he had taken to Cambodia, which he described as "one of the few neutral governments in the world, very jealous of its prerogatives." SCHEER said he visited Cambodia at the invitation of its government and was sent there by "Ramparts" Magazine, of which he is Foreign Editor. He said he was accompanied by STANLEY SCHEINBAUM, "an adviser to the Diem Government in Vietnam from 1955 to 1961." SCHEER asserted that after exploring the entire frontier between Cambodia and South Vietnam, he concluded that "Cambodia was not being used in any significant way, to support the fighting in South Vietnam." He explained that by any significant way he meant that Cambodia was not a "major staging area for the Viet Cong."

A CP contact class was held February 4, 1966, at 631 Redwood Street, San Francisco, during which it was stated that ROBERT SCHEER had left San Francisco February 4, 1966, for Cambodia and there was a very good possibility that SCHEER would also visit North Vietnam.

ROBERT SCHEER was in London, England, January 26, 1967, and claimed that he was engaged in writing an article about the International Student Conference (ISC) for the magazine "Ramparts" of which he is Editor. The article was intended to be an exposure of the ISC and, in order to obtain material for it, SCHEER was planning a two day visit to the headquarters of the International Union of Students (IUS) in Prague. SCHEER was seeking information on the passing of financial assistance from the ISC to student unions in Africa and Latin America. (S)

Trip to Prague

The "San Francisco Examiner" newspaper, issue of February 24, 1967, carried a page 1 news article headlined, "Ramparts Editor at Prague Meet" by CARL ROWAN. This article explained that "a few days ago a brief, cryptic report out of Prague, Czechoslovakia, was passed among a handful of top officials in Washington." The report said that an editor of "Ramparts" magazine had visited Prague and held "a long, secret session" with officers of the Communist controlled International Union of Students (IUS).

The article continued by stating that "Ramparts" is the magazine that exposed the fact that the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) had been financing the National Student Association (NSA), which in turn had worked for several years to prevent IUS from dominating the youth of the world. The article questioned what relationship there was between "Ramparts" and the IUS.

ROWAN telephoned ROBERT SCHEER, Managing Editor of "Ramparts" in San Francisco and SCHEER admitted that he had met with representatives of the National Liberation Front, political arm of the Communist Viet Cong, in South Vietnam, and also with IUS officers in Prague "several weeks ago" for two days. In response to a question as to who controlled IUS, SCHEER replied, "It is essentially an organ of the foreign policy of the Soviet Union." SCHEER emphasized that he had visited IUS headquarters strictly for journalistic reasons and that he was in Europe writing a story for "Ramparts" on Bertrand Russell, "(94 year old British philosopher who plans a Vietnam 'war crimes trial' of President Johnson)", so he continued on to Prague to check the international implications of the "Ramparts" article on the NSA. SCHEER volunteered, "We don't truck with Communism in Ramparts. We compare the U.S. position in Vietnam with the actions of the Soviet Union in Hungary. Both are intolerable and we make no bones about it. Any attempt to smear us at Ramparts is libelous and we'll sue. I warned the same thing when they were muttering about me being a Communist when I ran for Congress."

ROBERT SCHEER traveled to Prague, Czechoslovakia during the first week of February, 1967, to contact the International Union of Students (IUS) and was an official guest of the Czechoslovakian Government with his lodging being furnished at the best hotel in Prague. SCHEER requested and received massive documentation for his article in "Ramparts" regarding Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) contributions to the National Student Association, a United States affiliate of IUS. SCHEER's trip from West Germany to Czechoslovakia was fiaanced by the Czecosolvakian Government and WLODOMIERZ KONARSKI, Vice President of IUS, was in charge of this visit. (S)

SCHEER had a wide range of interviews with IUS executives and was provided with some internal IUS documents. While in Prague, SCHEER wrote an article based on material which he obtained while in Europe and this article was later published in "Rude Pravo" datelined New York. (S)

The "California Jewish Record" newspaper, an English language weekly newspaper published at Oakland, California, in its issue of September 1, 1967, contained an editorial captioned, "Is BOB SCHEER An Anti-Semite?" This editorial described SCHEER as Managing Editor of "Ramparts" magazine and an unsuccessful candidate in the primary election of 1966.

The editorial stated SCHEER had recently returned from a trip to Cairo and Israel and then spoke at a meeting in Berkeley, California, August 25, 1967, when he told his audience about his trip. In his speech, SCHEER claimed he had been accused of being an anti-Semite and an anti-Arab because of what he said on the matter of Arab-Israel relations. The editorial said that SCHEER referred constantly to the people of Israel and the American Jews as the "Zionists" and uses this term constantly when criticizing action of the Israelis.

The editorial continued by stating that SCHEER accused the Zionists of being imperialistic, of being excessively hard on the poor Arabs they defeated, of provoking the war - in short, of doing everything the Arabs and the Soviets accused them of and SCHEER attributed these lies to Israel's subservience to the United States." In his speech, SCHEER was further accused of using the term, "American Grand Concourse Zionists," the "Anti-Semites favorite euphemism for Jew."

IV. WRITINGS OF SUBJECT

ROBERT SCHEER is the author of a pamphlet written for the Center for the Study of Democratic Institutions, which he later condensed into an article for "Ramparts" magazine entitled, "The Vietnam Lobby." The article purports to show how various Americans worked to misinform the public about Vietnam. The persons whom SCHEER holds responsible for misleading the American people are JOSEPH KENNEDY, Cardinal SPELLMAN, ARTHUR SCHLESINGER, JR., NORMAN THOMAS, J. BRACKEN LEE, General EDWARD LANSDALE, MARVIN LIEBMAN, and others.

A feature article datelined Cairo, July 31, 1967, entitled, "Egypt" which is described as "A Special Report from Managing Editor ROBERT SCHEER in Cairo", was published in the September 1967 issue of "Ramparts" magazine. In this article, SCHEER tried to explain the current situation in Egypt. He laid the blame for the Arabs losing the six-day war to the Israelis on "cowardly or traitorous officers" in the Arab Army.

The article also stated that many in the NASSER Goverment say that most of the blame for starting the Arab-Israel war should be charged to the Syrians for having provided the Israelis with a pretext for attack. The article stated the Egyptian people were not at this time in a warlike mood and NASSER was doing his best to discourage his people from warlike aspirations and to encourage continuance of the Social Revolution in Egypt.

SCHEER concluded that NASSER must break with the rightists in the Arab world and make his primary commitment to the Arab social revolution in order to survive. He concluded also that NASSER's most dangerous enemy is the "Moslem Brotherhood" who could take control of Egypt and become embroiled in another war in as little as one year's time.

The November 1967 issue of "Ramparts" magazine contains a 13-page article entitled, "A NASSER Thesis" by ROBERT SCHEER. In this article, SCHEER analyzes the Middle East situation from 1952 to the present, giving his recital of the relationship of the various countries to each other, the rise to power by GAMAL ABDUL NASSER, the Suez war in the middle 1950's, and the six-day Arab-Israel war in June, 1967.

The article lays great stress on NASSER being unsuccessful in some of his ventures because while he nationalized many businesses and industries and distributed the proceeds to the poor, he allowed the Army to remain an elite, privileged class which was not loyal to either NASSER or Egypt. SCHEER also blamed NASSER's failure to develop a political party with its own aims set forth for his lack of success in communicating with his people and obtaining their full support.

The January, 1968 issue of "Ramparts" Magazine contains an article entitled "Oil and the Arabs (The Nasser Thesis:Part 2)" This article states "Researchers for this article and Part I ("Ramparts", November, 1967) include BOB AVAKIAN, JIM HAWLEY, DAVID KOLODNEY and JOHN SPITZER."

The article states the thesis that the Middle East is "of paramount strategic importance to this Country" because the Persian Gulf produces 27% of the world's petroleum and has proved global reserves of 60%. In addition the Mideast is the trade crossroads between Asia and Europe and an important cultural bridge between Africa and Asia and the center of the Islam world.

The article explains that 27% of the oil used throughout the world comes from the Middle East and, since oil is indispensable to industrial and military potential it is no wonder that continued control of this resource is a major focus of the Western powers. It adds that if control of this oil is important to the West it is absolutely critical to the Arabs, since it is the only source of the cash needed to break out of the cycle of underdevelopment and poverty in which their countries are trapped. It pointed out that the profits from the oil go to the "wrong" states, those with the least population (12% of the Arab population) and therefore the least need. The article stated the Arabs could repay the total investment of Western powers of $5 billion in two years with the oil removed from Arab wells except for the fact that Western Countries are in a position to force the Arabs to deal with them or to have no market whatever for this oil. The article cited how Iranian Prime Minister MOSSADEGH nationalized his country's oil production May 1, 1951 and the U. S. proceeded to crush him so totally that the example has served as a chilling model for other would-be nationalists - no major oil producing country in the Mideast has dared to repeat MOSSADEGH's attempt." The Western Powers were said to have accomplished this by imposing a total boycott of Iranian oil.

The article explained that the Baghdad Pact was an integral part of a global containment policy which was put into effect by the U.S. in the early 1950s but NASSER refused to align himself with it. NASSER was said to be a threat to the Western powers by being consciously and arrogantly expansionist, and by holding the position that oil in the underpopulated oil producing countries must be the basis of the development of the entire region. It stated that the U.S. response to NASSER was principally by propping up the economy and military machines of the monarchies while alternately mollifying through grants or the withholding of grants to the more leftist tendencies as they appeared in Egypt and other Arab regimes. The article added "Intensive CIA operations even involved founding the American Friends of the Middle East - a pro-Arab Organization in the U.S. - as well as widespread meddling in internal Arab politics."

The article continued that Soviet support of the Arabs began in 1955, which caused the U. S. to be more careful not to cause an anti-Western Arab union to be formed that might topple America's right-wing Arab allies. NASSER was said to have steered clear of any major direct confrontation with the U.S. and "the U.S. has never attempted to really clamp down on him." Thus the Arab revolutionary impulse, fearful of challenging the West, turned to "challenging Israel as a Western tool" and condemned "Israeli imperialism." This hostility to Israel provided a kind of anti-imperialism that was able to appeal to both progressive leftists and traditional monarchies in the Arab world. In 1956 Israel joined the British and French attempt to reestablish by force Western control over the Suez Canal after NASSER nationalized it, and Israel also supported the French in the Algerian war. To the Arabs it seemed that Israel had aligned herself with the exploiters. This signalled the Russians to begin helping the Arabs to get as many friends as possible among the non-aligned countries even while local communists in Egypt, Algeria and Syria were being jailed.Russia felt that the Arabs were moving to the left to justify Russian support.

The article said the social changesin Algeria and Egypt were significant but also inadequate because "they destroyed the power of the traditional upper class without in any significant sense passing power on to that very broad base of the Arab pyramid." The reforms in Syria and Egypt came about as a result of military coups d'etat which placed men in power who were willing to introduce reforms.

The article continued by stating "The identification of Israel-rather than the oil companies and their monarchies-as the serious extension of imperialism has allowed Arab progressives to play at revolution, through periodic anti-Israel tirades, without taking essential revolutionary action." In reference to the six day Arab-Israel war the article stated "the Soviets were clearly unprepared to assess its implications," in reference to withdrawal of UN troops from Gaza and Aqoba. It added "The Soviets continuously underestimated the emotional depth and political intensity of the Arab-Israeli conflict." It added that Russia began immediately to rearm Eghpt and Syria after the defeat, specifying only that their weapons be better used.

The article stated "The Central Thesis of this essay is that the Great Powers cannot be expected to be concerned, on any consistent basis, with the interests and needs of the Arabs and Jews who live in the Mideast," but are preoccupied with their own prestige and security needs. It added that both the Arabs and the Jews identify their opposition with the nation of imperialism supported by the American oil companies.

The article added that "The Arab denial of legitimate Jewish nationhood as the basis of Israel is the subject of deserved ridicule. But that the mainstream of Zionism has, in like fashion, denied the existence of a legitimate Arab quest for nationhood is not commonly admitted. This factor has been of great significance in the formation and sustaining of Arab hostility towards Israel. The Arabs will never be able to turn their energies from opposing Israel to the development of an Arab nation so long as the Israelis hold the existence of an Arab nation to be a threat." The Israelis viewed the drive toward Arab unity and independence as a threat to them. ABBA EBAN conferred upon Israel the very nationhood that Israel denied to the Arabs. The Arabs find this position most difficult to accept when the Jews deny them the same position. The article stated that "Israelis must come to accept the fact that nationhood is an aspiration which some Arabs hold without being conned into it by NASSER; and that an Arab State - if it became a reality (as a confederation or a nation) - is not necessarily a threat to Israel."

The article concluded that "The Arab Nation and the Jewish Nation are both legitimate concepts which can survive together only if they exist as part of the same social revolution to meet the needs of the people of the Mideast."

The April - May, 1968, issue of "Ramparts" Magazine, lists ROBERT SCHEER as Editor in Chief and carried a two page article entitled "The 'Peace' Candidates" by ROBERT SCHEER. In this article, SCHEER discussed the Vietnam War and Democratic presidential candidates ROBERT F. KENNEDY (now deceased) and EUGENE McCARTHY. SCHEER was critical of each of these candidates because they were not among the original protestors against U.S. participation in the Vietnam War.

The June 15, 1968, issue of "Ramparts" Magazine stated that this issue marked the beginning of "Ramparts as a fortnightly magazine which will appear in the same format as it has previously appeared. It stated that features planned for the first few editions include (in part) several articles on the problems of today's Cuba including an interview with FIDEL CASTRO by ROBERT SCHEER."

The August 10, 1968, issue of "Ramparts" carried a two-page article entitled, "The Night BOBBY Died," by ROBERT SCHEER. In this article, SCHEER stated he was present at the Ambassador Hotel in Los Angeles, California with ROBERT F. KENNEDY on the evening of Primary Election Day, June 4, 1968, in the Royal Suite, while the KENNEDY campaign workers were waiting for the returns to come in. He wrote that he was also in the Empire Ballroom while ROBERT KENNEDY was giving his victory speech and while KENNEDY was shot about 12:29 A.M.

The September 28, 1968, issue of "Ramparts" carried a feature-length article dealing with the Democratic National Convention in Chicago, which was described as "a Ramparts special report" by staff members and it named 23 persons including ROBERT SCHEER as responsible for this report.

The San Francisco Chronicle daily newspaper published in San Francisco, California, in its issue of March 3, 1969, carried the column of WILLIAM HOGAN entitled, "World of Books: Eldridge Cleaver, Written on the Run." In this article HOGAN discussed a new book "Eldridge Cleaver: Post-Prison Writings and Speeches," which was edited by ROBERT SCHEER published by the book publishing branch of Ramparts magazine. The article continued by stating that SCHEER compiled this book from pieces that appeared previously in Ramparts magazine and from speeches delivered by CLEAVER at various times. The article concluded by stating that a book entitled "Berkeley On 0 Dollars a Day," by ROBERT SCHEER and his Ramparts colleague PETER COLLIER is presently under negotiation with publishers.

A protest rally for persons jailed as a result of Auto Row and Sheraton-Palace Hotel sit-in demonstrations was held at San Francisco City Hall plaza July 17, 1966. The crowd at the rally was estimated at from 400 to 1,000 people. ROBERT SCHEER was one of the speakers and said that if Governor BROWN had not freed these sit-in demonstrators by election day, SCHEER would tell the people to march to the jail housing these demonstrators, rather than going to the polls.

The "Stockton Record" newspaper, Stockton, California, issue of September 8, 1966, carried a news article headlined, "Editor Attacks U. S. Policy in Vietnam; Sees National Peril." In this article it was stated that ROBERT SCHEER had delivered a speech at the Raymond College High Table, University of the Pacific, Stockton, California, on September 7, 1966. SCHEER maintained that the concept of an international communist conspiracy was false and the U. S. is mistaken in considering it a unified, ever-growing force that can only be contained by force. He stated that the communist conspiracy is a movement that does not hold together because of nationalistic interests. He cited the Sino-Soviet dispute and the international squabbling between satellite countries and the major communist powers. He said the Vietnam conflict began as an internal dispute and if the U. S. withdrew from the conflict this withdrawal would reaffirm the communists' confidence in the possibility of peaceful co-existence.

He concluded that if anyone is genuinely concerned about American security, he is going to have to work to reverse American foreign policy.

"The Guardsman," weekly student newspaper at City College of San Francisco, in its issue of October 19, 1966, carried a news article headlined, "Scheer Lectures on Involvement in Southeast Asia." The article stated ROBERT SCHEER spoke at the College Theater to a capacity audience. He was reported to have reviewed the historical changes in Vietnam, the French role in Vietnam affairs, and the limited policy set by President KENNEDY of only sending 30,000 advisors as "technical aid only for a limited period of time to prevent a colonial posture." The article stated further, "In a summary conclusion SCHEER said that if there is an international communist movement, it should cease to exist, that there are hardly two communist countries that coexist, that communism is in truth a form of nationalism and that practically speaking, 'it does not exist.'"

Discussion Unlimited, Incorporated (DU), sponsored a meeting December 2, 1966, in the auditorium of Los Angeles Trade College, 700 block, Washington Boulevard, Los Angeles, with from 1,000 to 1,500 people in attendance. The topic of the discussion was "What Will the New Development on the Left Be?" ROBERT SCHEER from "Ramparts" magazine, EUGENE GENOVESE from Rutgers College in New Jersey, and DOROTHY HEALEY from Southern California District CP were the speakers. HEALEY spoke first, stating that the most important things for the groups on the left to do today were to unite on common grounds and to be critical on grounds where they cannot agree, as well as to give allegiance to the other 14 socialist countries in the world. She described these countries as the hope of the future. ROBERT SCHEER attacked her bitterly, his main contention being that he felt he could not even say he was a socialist because of all the crimes that are committed in the name of socialism. He said he could not align himself with other countries in the socialist world because of the barbaric deeds committed by some of these countries.

He led a vicious attack against the Soviet Union, against the STALIN era, against the crimes that were committed in the Soviet Union against Jewish people and Jewish culture, and against other religious people and intellectuals in the Soviet Union. He made reference to the two writers who had been recently jailed in Russia. In a rebuttal and question and answer period the attack went back and forth, mainly between GENOVESE and HEALEY against SCHEER for his anti-Soviet Union position. SCHEER constantly brought up Hungary, stating that the oppression that went on in Hungary is no different than the oppression of the United States in Vietnam. He also said the Soviet Union is a sick society just as the U. S. is a sick society, and he is quite sure that the workers in each society are not much aware of or care about the relative difference of the sickness.

The PW issue of December 10, 1966, and December 24, 1966, also carried news articles on the above-described forum. SCHEER's remarks are reported in the December 10, 1966 issue as follows:

> "Scheer, who ran as a peace candidate in the Democratic primary in the Seventh Congressional District, winning nearly 45% of the vote, spoke of the kind of revolution he would like to see. 'Revolution is better than rebellion,' he said, 'but I am interested in what a revolution will lead to....Soviet society is vicious....I want a revolution that means the right of a man to control his own life.'
>
> "Referring to Marxism, Scheer said, 'The theories don't work. The working class is not getting poorer and poorer.
>
> "'It is true,' he said, 'that the 'New Left' has no ideology, (but because of that) it does not follow that it should accept the old ones...Why is there a New Left?
>
> "'The old Left was tired, cynical, frightened... LSD is more important than (considered by the 'Old Left')...The young people who have looked at the American Dream and said it isn't so great have made a statement more profound than anything the Old Left has ever made'."

A characterization of DU is contained in the appendix.

"The Daily Cardinal," student newspaper of the University of Wisconsin, Madison, Wisconsin, in its issue of February 10, 1967, carried an article headlined, "Scheer Hits 'Mythology' of U.S. Anti-Communism." This article stated as follows:

SF 100-46832
WEH:kah

"'Anti-Communism is what holds the American people together, not the Judaeo-Christian ethic,' radical author Robert Scheer told 500 people in the Social Science building Thursday.

"He argued that the United States is attempting to impose on the Southeast Asian crisis the 'myth' of a monolithic Communism and the policy of 'containment' that developed out of the post-World War II Eastern European situation 20 years ago.

"He said that America has become 'so imbued with the anti-Communist mythology' that it has become the over-riding criteria for all, and especially foreign policy decision-making.

"He cited the investigations of philosopher Bertrand Russell's Vietnam 'War Crimes Tribunal' which purports to show American use of 'fragmentation bombs' that are not effective militarily, but which demoralize the population. 'And these bombs are designed not so much to kill as to torture.'

"'What is frighteningly horrible about this whole policy,' he said, 'is that it works. It succeeds militarily even where it fails politically.'

"He urged his listeners to 'support the Vietcong, or National Liberation Front...given the fact that they are the only ones standing up to the American 'intrusion' over there.'

"He said that it is not the North Vietnamese who have shown 'bad faith' in efforts to negotiate, 'but us.' They have already offered concessions, he said, 'even though it is we who are bombing them.'

"Russian and Chinese foreign policies, before and after the death of Stalin, he said, 'have been essentially conservative, and not aggressive.' He cited as evidence the Trotsky-Stalin conflict and Mao Tse-tung's early differences with the regular Chinese Communist Party apparatus over this issue."

March 16, 1967

A meeting was held at Hospitality House, Balboa Park, California, March 16, 1967, to hear ROBERT SCHEER talk on the CIA (Central Intelligence Agency). He was introduced as editor of "Ramparts" magazine. His only comments concerning the CIA were that the CIA was the "whipping boy" for high officials of the U. S. Government. He indicated that if anything went wrong with the policy of the high government officials, they could always blame CIA for their failures.

In discussing the Vietnam war, SCHEER stated the President of the U. S., along with other government officials, were guilty of murder of innocent women and children. SCHEER then spoke of a trip he had taken to France and Belgium. He said he had talked to important officials in these countries and gained the impression that these officials were opposed to the war policy of President JOHNSON, particularly the bombing of North Vietnam. SCHEER alleged that there were more bombs dropped in Vietnam than were dropped during World War II. He claimed that the reason the U. S. was using anti-personnel bombs against the people of North Vietnam was because they did not agree with the U. S. and the use of anti-personnel bomb was of a punitive nature.

SCHEER took the position of an independent criticizing both the "Commie" and "Bircher" elements.

SCHEER described the "New Politics" as a movement which seeks to bring about a substantial change in American society.

April 15, 1967

ROBERT SCHEER spoke at the rally of the Spring Mobilization Committee Against the War in Vietnam which was held April 15, 1967, at Kezar Stadium, San Francisco, California, with about 55,000 people in attendance. SCHEER remarked that General WESTMORELAND had stated that the Vietnamese people would have to "bleed more" to learn they had met their match in this war. SCHEER commented that despite United States' "intervention" in Vietnam, there would be "other Vietnams" as other rights groups and countries had their own nationalist expressions. SCHEER went on to say that "other people will make revolutions" and, thus, the U. S. would have to go into other countries. "If other people want communist revolutions, so be it" added SCHEER. Other speakers at this rally urged immediate withdrawal of U. S. troops from Vietnam.

The "Daily Utah Chronicle," University of Utah, Salt Lake City, Utah, in its issue of October 6, 1967, carried a news article entitled, "National Perspective on Vietnam issues," which announced that a program entitled, Spectrum Vietnam, would be held in the main ballroom of the Union Building, Saturday, October 7, 1967, at noon. This would be a panel discussion with CARL OGLESBY of the Students for a Democratic Society and others. The article provided the following background data:

> "Scheer, a Political Science graduate of City College of New York, was appointed Maxwell Fellow in Public Administration at Syracuse University. Two additional years of graduate study as a Teaching Assistant in Economics and as a fellow in the Center for Chinese Studies at the University of California, Berkeley, followed. He then taught American Government at City College of New York.

> "In spring of 1965 and again in 1966 he traveled to Southeast Asia, touring Laos and Vietnam. Findings of his trips were published in the report HOW THE UNITED STATES GOT INVOLVED IN VIETNAM.
> "Scheer has been active in the New Politics movement and is a member of the Board of the National Committee for New Politics."

The same paper stated that at 7:00 PM, October 7, 1967, Utah Senator WALLACE F. BENNETT and GALE McGHEE, Senator from Wyoming, would speak on Vietnam.

The "Daily Utah Chronicle," issue of October 18, 1967, carried a news article headlined, "Spectrum Chronicle Debate," which stated that ROBERT SCHEER of "Ramparts Magazine" was looking into the possibility of bringing a libel suit against the "Daily Utah Chronicle" for using slanderous misquotes attributed to him in the coverage in the Spectrum Vietnam, October 7, 1967. This article explained that the night editor of this paper rewrote the story at a time when he could not contact any sources, hence the inaccuracy.

The "Deseret News", Salt Lake City, Utah, newspaper issue of October 9, 1967, carried a news article, "Spectrum Vietnam, Question Unresolved." This article related that ROBERT SCHEER described as Editor of "Ramparts" Magazine, attacked the arrogant American myth that "we are always good guys fighting on the side with angels with a monopoly on democracy, peace and freedom."

The article said "he contended the mood of communism is now nationalism, not world expansion and that the Communists are now more concerned with internal problems than presenting a united front to defeat democracy." The article added "Mr. Scheer and Mr. Oglesby charged that the U.S. is supporting the wrong side in Vietnam because of its economic interest. The real issue in Vietnam and other troubled areas of the world is poverty, according to Scheer and Oglesby."

A symposium on Vietnam was held October 7, 1967 at the University of Utah, Student Union Building Ballroom, Salt Lake City, Utah. The panel of speakers included a senator from Utah, a senator from Wyoming, CARL OGLESBY, former President of Students for a Democratic Society, and ROBERT SCHEER, Editor of Ramparts magazine. There were about 150-200 people present at this meeting including at least seven CP members. This function was called Spectrum - Vietnam.

Following this meeting a social party and discussion was held at the residence of one SUE GOODRICK in Salt Lake City on October 7, 1967.

Both CARL OGLESBY and ROBERT SCHEER were present. The time was spent generally in questioning OGLESBY and SCHEER by youths of the New Left who were attempting to find themselves. There were about 50 persons present at this meeting including at least three CP members.

ROBERT SCHEER was introduced as Editor of Ramparts and as spokesman for the New Left when he appeared as a guest on the LES CRANE Show on television station KTTV, Channel 11, Los Angeles, California, on October 11, 1967. SCHEER stated on this program that due to electoral procedure it would be impossible to place a candidate on the ballot - that the industralist and monied interests controlled the ballot system. SCHEER said "we" had no money and because of time and other factors, it would be impossible to obtain the thousands of names to place an eligible candidate on the ballot. He added "we" would have to take over the polls. He claimed that in order to make necessary changes in the present political structures "we" would have to "take over" the establishment in Washington.

This article stated that ROBERT SCHEER, editor of Ramparts magazine, spoke November 20, 1967, at the Solano College Gymnasium and delivered a blistering attack on what he termed the "bought off society." He decried what he termed an "exploitive corrupt war economy fostered by a profiteering business community."

The article said SCHEER stated "We invoke the devil theory of communism to explain the reality of desperate social revolution." SCHEER concluded "Vietnam is only the extension of this unhealthy American characteristic, not an isolated example of mistaken policy. It is an integral part of a policy of corrupt self-seeking deception." After explaining that ROBERT SCHEER visited South Vietnam twice, the article quoted SCHEER as saying, "I think we have to realize that the Vietnamese are indeed fighting for their freedom - but their freedom from us. They are nationalists trying to create a national revolution, and they can't be explained away with a label."

SCHEER alleged that the United States was in the Vietnam war to make a profit. He called for staged withdrawal of U.S. troops over a period of years.

In reference to the domestic scene, SCHEER warned that sterner measures against dissent were coming and that President JOHNSON's talk about peace was a "con job." SCHEER said people were rioting in America because "they have no legitimate avenue of dissent." In summary, SCHEER urged concerned youth not to become complacent but to remain aware of the problems and refuse to conspire with liberal politicians who try to make dissent irrelevant. SCHEER told the group, "Block the halls and block the airports. This may be one of the times when to behave reasonably is to behave irresponsibly."

The article said that SCHEER, who is leading proponent of the New Left, served on the Board of Directors of the National Conference for New Politics, which held its convention in Chicago. The "Seattle Post Intelligencer" newspaper, Seattle, Washington, in its issue of November 22, 1967, reported that ROBERT SCHEER spoke to an overflow audience at the University of Washington, Hub Auditorium, November 21, 1967. The article stated that SCHEER said it was arrogant for Americans to decide what is best for the Vietnam people. SCHEER said it was an "obscene argument that withdrawal of American forces from Vietnam would result in a blood bath. He claimed the United States was operating on a war economy and suggested that our loss of pre-eminence in world trade as well as in jobs which rely on military contracts accounts for much of our reluctance to pull out of Asia. SCHEER predicted that 1968 may be the "last democratic election" for this nation. He predicted that the far left and the far right would grow as Americans seek alternatives. SCHEER advocated taking the billions spent on the Vietnam war and applying them to domestic problems. He alleged that unless this is done, there would be more violence and more riots in American cities.

The article stated that SCHEER said the United States should withdraw from Vietnam and not worry about the fate of that country. In speaking about the means of demonstration, SCHEER was quoted as saying "Use your bodies imaginatively. Block railway tracks and government buildings. Violence is the only serious alternative." With regard to opposition to the war, SCHEER blamed the rowdy character of recent demonstrations which have been blocked by the economic and political power structure. He said "I support these tactics out of desperation, though I would like to see the growth of a serious left to challenge the people in power."

"The Daily Californian" newspaper, which is self-identified as being published daily by the Associated Students of UCB, on January 29, 1968, carried a news article entitled "Radical Groups Emphasize Need for Mutual Self-Protection". This article described a rally sponsored by MAPS held at noon on the UCB campus January 26, 1968, in which "members of the PFP, "Ramparts", Black Panthers, the mathematics faculty and political activists addressed the crowd in drizzling rain. The article carries summaries of the speeches of numerous people, including BETTINA APTHEKER KURZWEIL, a self-admitted Communist Party member, and ROBERT SCHEER. The article contained the following regarding SCHEER:

"BOB SCHEER, Managing Editor of Ramparts magazine, also spoke. He began with a comment on the carnival mood of the rally.

Roman Carnival

"'There is something obscene or bizarre about the Roman carnival attitude when seven people are in jail,' he commented, referring to the fact that Martha's Laundry was playing on the lower "plaza and evangelists were singing and preaching on the corner.

"'The United States is now fighting a war of examples,' he said. 'They're saying "there are certain things which we will not tolerate and we will make examples of those who attempt them,"' he continued.

"'And the war of examples in Vietnam has been brought home,' he added.

"He strongly emphasized the fact that the government will permit a type of false liberty so that one feels free--as long as it does not intrude on government policies.

Intruding Struggles

"'Marines won't go to jail and the people who sent them won't go to jail but we will.' Nevertheless, he said, 'We must engage in struggles that intrude.'

"'Most of us were not born to be revolutionary. But one becomes a revolutionary not out of choice but when the situation demands it,' he stated. 'The time calls for it now and we must find solidarity in a spirit of CHE GUEVARA,' he concluded"

A leaflet issued by "Campus Stop the Draft Week Committee" advertised a noon rally to be held Friday, (January 26, 1968) at UCB with six speakers, including ROBERT SCHEER and BETTINA APTHEKER.

"'We must start to plan now for the next Stop the Draft Week,' the editor of Ramparts Magazine urged. 'We must seriously think of filling the jails because Stop the Draft Weeks must go on, and if jail is the price to pay, we must pay it.'

On February 4, 1968, ROBERT SCHEER appeared as a guest on a nationally televised "Firing Line" television show at 6:30 PM, Pacific Standard Time, where he was involved in a type of debate with WILLIAM F. BUCKLEY, Editor of "National Review". BUCKLEY stated ROBERT SCHEER was invited to appear on this program to explain the un-American attitude of SCHEER and also of "Ramparts" Magazine. SCHEER said he was not previously apprised of the exact topic but in any case could not speak for "Ramparts" since he is only one member of the editorial board. SCHEER then became evasive, claiming he wanted a definition of "un-American" before he could answer BUCKLEY. During this show, SCHEER stated that "National Review" Magazine had maligned SCHEER when it stated he traveled to Cuba in violation of State Department regulations and SCHEER requested a retraction be printed. SCHEER did not state that he had traveled to CUBA illegally in 1960 and legally in 1968, but such is the case. SCHEER was very glib but was very evasive in answering BUCKLEY's questions and statements. SCHEER's statements showed him stongly in opposition to the Vietnam war.

Television, February 7, 1968

ROBERT SCHEER appeared on the Pat Michaels' television show at 10:30 p.m. on KTVU, Channel 2, Oakland on February 7, 1968. During this appearance, SCHEER stated he attended the Cultural Congress held in Havana, Cuba in early January, 1968. He said he traveled in Cuba via Mexico City as an accredited correspondent with the approval of the State Department and that he traveled alone. The interview related to SCHEER's work as managing editor of "Ramparts Magazine."

Television, February 23, 1968

ROBERT SCHEER was interviewed by BRANT FRAYNE and PAUL SALTZMAN at the Expo '67 in Montreal, Quebec, Canada, in June, 1967, and the results of this interview were shown on Canadian Broadcasting Company television network on February 23, 1968. Some of the points emphasized by SCHEER in this interview are as follows:

"Ramparts" magazine, of which SCHEER is Editor, tries to be exciting and to fill a void in American life. It tries to handle the stories the other magazines do not have the guts to handle and to give some diversity of opinion in the mass media of America. It is an experiment in seeing whether American freedom and democracy really works. Other magazines are locked into the establishment because of the funding required to start a magazine and the income received from advertisers, while "Ramparts" is probably the only large circulation magazine in America that does not depend on advertising.

"Ramparts" made a decision to challenge the big magazines and to turn to a secular monthly magazine two and a half years ago (about January, 1965) and it no longer has any connection with or particular interest in the Catholic Church. It is aimed at challenging the establishment and its readers, who are primarily in the 15 to 40 year age group.

"Ramparts" has been called a muckraker and left-wing. It is on the left of the political spectrum since it opposes the war in Vietnam and is interested in removing the ghettos in American life. "Ramparts" is biased as a left-wing opposition to "Time" magazine but "Time" is biased toward the establishment and toward maintaining the status quo. "Ramparts" has never been sued for libel or had a serious challenge to its factual accuracy. "Ramparts" has a small staff of only 30 and has successfully challenged the other big magazines with extensive advertising revenue and has done a more factual reporting job on the Vietnam War, its casualties, civil rights stories and stories on such topics as the children of suburbia rebelling against suburban community and its values.

"Ramparts" magazine is largely staff produced and has nothing to offer but the guts and freedom of its reporters to report facts as they see them. "Ramparts" does not edit the reporters' articles for opinion or value of concept. These articles are only edited for size and possible emphasis for a particular issue so that there would not be four articles on Vietnam in a single issue, for instance. When "Ramparts" sends a reporter to do a story it prints what the reporter writes even though the Editor does not necessarily agree with that reporter's viewpoint.

SCHEER feels that the United States is more afflicted with an extremely biased press because in the United States we have the illusion of freedom and Americans are raised to believe that we have a free press while in fact the press is controlled through "an interlocking directorate of big business, big military and big government" that effectively manages the news so that it is not troubling or upsetting to their interests.

SCHEER believes that the honest reporting of news by "Ramparts" is doing "an awful lot of good" because a generation is being raised in the United States that knows how to be free for a change and "is not going to buy the nonsense that comes out of Washington". The youths are asking some very searching questions about American society and are not satisfied with the usual glibness so they are willing to go on marches because they do not buy these answers. This is a very large minority of youths.

Most of the American soldiers in Vietnam have been raised to believe that their country always does right and have an implicit racism. They realize that the Vietnamese do not really share United States objectives. For instance "There is a 650,000 man Vietnamese army that never does any fighting". "It is very clear that the Viet Cong has considerable support from the countryside and has done some very fine things in the countryside."

There are some cracks in the brainwashing and some disillusionment with the war in Vietnam even among American troops. More people have refused to fight and more people in the army have taken those critical steps rather than go along with the fighting. It is not a significant number yet, but SCHEER believes it is growing. "We have to figure out whether the United States is Rome on the rise or Rome in decay and hopefully America's empire is on the verge of cracking up."

When asked if he could make a generalization about the American housewife and American married life, SCHEER stated, "The average American is drunk most of the time." SCHEER explained that the average American has a couple of drinks before starting home and several more when he arrives at home. The cocktail hour is all about getting "yourself numb enough that you can take your wife and kids and then you usually fall asleep in front of the television."

The "Albion Pleiad," Albion College weekly newspaper, Albion, Michigan, in its issue of March 1, 1968, carried an article headlined, "SCHEER Rips NORRIS, College." The article stated SCHEER was scheduled to speak on the "relevance of academe in response to cultural needs," but abandoned this topic and instead dissected the speech given by Albion College President LOUIS W. NORRIS to freshmen at this school in the fall of 1967. SCHEER said Dr. NORRIS' speech stressed the importance of vicarious learning and the central role of the "great conversation." SCHEER said the "great conversation is a bore." SCHEER stated that white middle class Americans want to make a revolution without doing anything revolutionary. SCHEER said Dr. NORRIS stated in his speech "hippies" did not belong on Albion's campus. SCHEER replied to this "with these ideas he shouldn't be president of a university, and I wouldn't have to make these statements if he hadn't given such a speech to the freshmen." He said that America can no longer engage in foreign aggression in the guise of extending freedom." SCHEER concluded his speech by stating that to alleviate these crises America should dismantle the defense apparatus, turn to a peace economy and get out of Vietnam.

One of the critics of SCHEER's speech was quoted in this article as saying, "Some of what he said was admirable, but he was so irrational and so boorish and had excruciating bad taste."

ROBERT SCHEER was one of many persons who was present and spoke at the University of California, Irvine, California (UCI), on April 3, 1968, when an anti-Vietnam program was held. No publicity was afforded this activity in the local metropolitan newspapers and the "Anthill", campus newspaper, published at UCI, did not publish any of the speeches delivered nor any quotes taken out of context, but merely contained an outline of the program.

"Iowa State Daily," which is a student newspaper published at Iowa State University (ISU), Ames, Iowa, carried an article in its issue of April 17, 1968, headlined, "'Ramparts' Editor SCHEER Keynotes 'Dissent' Series." This article stated that ROBERT SCHEER, editor of "Ramparts" Magazine, would speak on "dissent, revolution and the Democratic process" on April 17, 1968, in the Great Hall, Memorial Union, ISU, as part of a series of talks sponsored by the National Affairs Institute (NAI). The article included background information to the effect that ROBERT SCHEER received a B.A. Degree in Economics and Political Science from the City College of New York, and then served as a Maxwell Fellow in Public Administration at Syracuse University.

The "Ames Daily Tribune," Ames, Iowa newspaper, issue of April 18, 1968, carried a news article headlined, "ISU Dissenters Knock System." This article reported that ROBERT SCHEER was the first speaker at ISU's "dissent" series and spoke April 17, 1968. The article reported that SCHEER stated America did not need BOBBY KENNEDY or GENE MC CARTHY, but needed a whole new political ideology. SCHEER stated "if liberals can't come up with some alternative to the prevailing political thought, the right wing is likely to do it instead." SCHEER said "our basic ideologies are going to have to be challenged if we are going to face and solve our problems." He called particularly for critical examination of the philosophies on which the United States foreign policy is based, the attitudes behind its welfare program, and the whole basis of its political system. He stated this nation is ripe for political change and the right wing has frightening ability to come up with ideological alternatives.

ROBERT SCHEER was listed as one of the speakers, noting that he had spoken at the University in 1967, and was very well received.

"The Spectrum" did not carry a follow up news story concerning SCHEER's talk, and there was no reference to SCHEER's plans in the Buffalo, New York, area in the local daily papers.

The "Bozeman Daily Chronicle," newspaper, Bozeman, Montana, issue of May 12, 1968, carried an article relating to the speech of ROBERT SCHEER at Montana State University, May 11, 1968. The portion of the article relating to ROBERT SCHEER reads as follows:

> "Robert Scheer, 31-year-old editor of the New Left Ramparts Magazine, who flew here directly from Havana, Cuba, said our simplistic reason for intervention in Vietnam was the 'myth of the international communist conspiracy' also called the 'Devil Theory.' The Devil Theory has disintegrated, whether our state department will admit it or not, he said.
>
> "'This reality plays havoc with the most cherished tenant of our foreign policy,' he said. Scheer cited the squabbling between Russia and Red China, and more recently between Czechoslovakia and Russia, as evidence of the disintegration of the international conspiracy. He said that our foreign policy should be humanistic rather than jingoistic. Americanization of the rest of the world should not be our goal, he added.
> "Scheer said the United States should swallow its pride and get out of Vietnam. He said it might be good for the U.S. to lose a little face in Vietnam. Maybe it would be healthy for us to admit we made a mistake, that we can be wrong.

"The Exponent", student newspaper, Montana State University, Bozeman, Montana, issue of May 17, 1968, carried a news article bearing the headline, "Ramparts Editor - War is not U.S. vs Commies." This article stated that a Vietnam symposium was held on Saturday, May 11, 1968, during which ROBERT SCHEER stated "no peace or negotiations are possible unless the United States is willing to admit that the war in Vietnam is not primarily a struggle between communism and democracy." SCHEER reportedly alleged that the state department's monolithic concept of communism is the main reason that we are in that war. SCHEER stated "that the Viet Minh forerunner to the Viet Cong was a serious struggle for independence and fought the French who they considered as foreign aggressors. Both Diem and Ky, South Vietnamese leaders, worked for the French and thus the Viet Cong consider them traitors to their people. Since the U.S. supports Ky and formerly supported Diem, it was natural for the Viet Cong to fight against the U.S." SCHEER said "the U.S. should settle for something along the line of the 1954 Geneva accords to get out of Vietnam." SCHEER added that he thought it would be good for the U.S. to lose face because we have become too arrogant.

Television, June 3, 1968

The "Berkeley Daily Gazette" newspaper issue of June 4, 1968, carried an article by MIKE CULBERT, Executive Editor, which related that KTVU, Channel 2, Oakland, California, taped a television show June 3, 1968, for viewing on that station at 10:30 p.m., June 5, 1968, in which PAT MICHAELS, host, questioned ROBERT SCHEER, "A new left leader and editor of 'Ramparts' magazine" and SCOTT STANLEY, JR., "Editor of 'American Opinion' magazine, major organ of the John Birch Society." The article stated that a surprise questioner from the audience during this show was DAVID GUMAER, a 29 year old Chicagoan who infiltrated the Du Bois Clubs of America for the Chicago Police Intelligence Division and served on the registration committee of the National Convention for New Politics, which was held in Chicago, Illinois, during Labor Day weekend of 1967. The article stated GUMAER also testified before the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee in Executive Session in December, 1967. GUMAER stated ROBERT SCHEER was "completely surrounded by communists" at the New Politics Convention. SCHEER is reported as replying, "If you're saying I'm a communist, go ahead and say it, and I'll sue." SCHEER called GUMAER a "fink". SCHEER said he is not a communist and the communists he has known are "too conservative" for him.

The agenda for the National Student Association (NSA) Convention which was held at Kansas State University (KSU), Manhattan, Kansas, August 17-26, 1968, stated that there was scheduled a "discussion of the movement for social change in America on both a theoretical and a practical level," conducted by four individuals including ROBERT SCHEER.

An article in the August 21, 1968, issue of the "Kansas City Star" newspaper stated that TOM HAYDEN, former President of Students for a Democratic Society (SDS), and ROBERT SCHEER, editor of "Ramparts" Magazine, had both spoken at the NSA Convention. In this regard, the article stated "despite the militancy of their demands and aggressiveness or their charges of the JOHNSON-HUMPHREY Administration, at no time has HAYDEN or SCHEER called explicitly for violence. The printed material appearing here maintains the same guarded stance."

An article in the "Manhattan Mercury" newspaper, Manhattan, Kansas, issue of August 20, 1968, stated, "In an open forum, ROBERT SCHEER, editor of 'Ramparts' Magazine, said 'If students don't act at the (Democratic National) Convention, they must decide what their reaction is going to be when all their efforts for EUGENE MC CARTHY are swallowed up by a HUMPHREY machine. If the American people are not left with a vote against the war in Vietnam after this Convention, all the work of the students and middle class, all the efforts in the primaries, all the fund-raising will have been in vain and the Democratic process will have failed."

A meeting billed as "America as a Racist Culture", sponsored by the Associated Students of the UCI, was held on September 26, 1968, with about 2,000 persons in attendance, mainly students. ROBERT SCHEER was one of the main speakers talking on American imperialism, stating it was exhibited through the history of this country and was now being shown in Vietnam. SCHEER criticized the California Board of Regents for having refused ELDRIDGE CLEAVER the opportunity to lecture at a class at the University of California, Berkeley, California (UCB). SCHEER defended HUEY P. NEWTON, Founder of the Black Panther Party (BPP) (characterization to be found in the appendix), and stated that becuase of all of the problems there had evolved a close coalition between the BPP and the Peace and Freedom Party (PFP). SCHEER praised ELDRIDGE CLEAVER as the best choice among the presidential candidates.(running on the PFP ticket). SCHEER said this is a racist society in which we live and the government's efforts to "control" the black man is causing opposition to the government. He said we were forced into the streets in Chicago and society blocked our demands. SCHEER claimed "we must oppose that force."

At the same meeting, ELDRIDGE CLEAVER, Minister of Information of the BPP and PFP presidential candidate, also spoke, condemning the racist pigs, the police, the courts, gun control laws and the racist power structure. CLEAVER recommended that everyone obtain guns and hide them so that they would be available when needed.

"The Dartmouth", Dartmouth College daily newspaper, printed at Hanover, New Hampshire, in its issue of November 15, 1968, carried an article headlined "Scheer provides sharp contrast in symposia focus". This article reported that a senior symposium was held at Dartmouth College on November 14, 1968, with five speakers participating. The article began by quoting ROBERT SCHEER, Editor in Chief of "Ramparts" magazine, as stating "you must use the means at hand, which might mean burning your ROTC building to challenge the institution". The article said "the program climaxed with Scheer's appeal for the students of the college to assert themselves 'by challenging the institution that is manipulating your life'". SCHEER reportedly added, "the spots closest at heart are where you can best challenge the manipulators. I suggest you get busy at task". He added, "even in the woods at Dartmouth, where there aren't any girls, the elements for a confrontation exist. I told a similar group at Columbia this, but they wouldn't believe it. But look what happened". The article stated that the audience applaused loudly at the conclusion of SCHEER's plea.

VI. WRITINGS ABOUT SCHEER

"Human Events" publication, Washington, D.C., in its issue of April 8, 1967, carried a story headlined, "The Inside Story of 'Ramparts' Magazine". A portion of this story, "Scheer's Radicalism", reads as follows:

> "Probably the best known nationally of Ramparts' staffers is Managing Editor Robert Scheer, who, at 30, has made a career of New Leftism. A former member of the pro-Castro Fair Play for Cuba Committee, he is the most articulate of the Ramparts crew and contends that he is an anti-Communist.
>
> "Last year Scheer ran for the Democratic nomination for U. S. Congress in Berkeley, hinging his entire campaign on getting out of the war in Viet Nam and getting into the 'War on Poverty.' Several weeks ago, Scheer traveled to Prague, Czechoslovakia, to meet with the Communist-controlled International Union of Students and representatives of the National Liberation Front, the political arm of the Communist Viet Cong in South Viet Nam.
>
> "Not publicized in his race for Congress but revealed later was the fact that Scheer's campaign coordinator was Carl Bloice, a 28-year-old Communist party member. Bloice's CP membership was hardly a secret, for several years he had been a by-lined staff writer for People's World, the Communist weekly on the West Coast, and then he was publications director of the Communist-controlled W.E.B. DuBois Clubs.

SF 100-46832

"From Berkeley to D.C.

"At last summer's Communist party convention in New York City, Bloice was elected to the CP's National Committee and the requirements for serving on that policy board make it clear Bloice has been a CP member since at least January 1964, although intelligence agencies place it many years earlier.

"Just two months ago the newsletter of the Robert Scheer campaign - he is keeping his organization intact under the name of Community for New Politics (CNP) - carried a social note: 'Carl Bloice, heretofore coordinator for CNP, has left Berkeley for the larger battlefield in Washington, D.C., where he will be a correspondent for People's World and The Worker. At a farewell party December 23 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Scheer, Carl was presented with several going-away gifts, including a larger than life poster of Mao-Tse Tung....Carl has indicated he will be an occasional correspondent [for the Scheer newsletter].... We all wish him the best of luck in Washington and we feel fully comforted by the fact that we are not losing a coordinator, but gaining a spy.'

"Tax Money Helped

"The portrait of Mao probably brought a gust of laughter when it was unveiled and presented to the Moscow-line Bloice, and the 'gaining a spy' phrase was simply New Left humor. The story makes two important points: 1) Scheer's campaign manager was a Communist, and 2) The Capital correspondent for two Communist newspapers will contribute occasional articles to Scheer's campaign organization.

"Scheer has told Human Events that he hired Bloice 'for his technical competence'; that he likes him as a person, but violently disagrees with his politics.

"Communist Bloice, however, was only one of Scheer's supporters. Another backer was the U. S. Treasury, which channeled funds into Scheer's campaign. It worked this way. During his campaign one of his workers was Mrs. Phyllis Haberman O'Donnell, who has been chairman of the East Bay DuBois Club. Mrs. O'Donnell worked on a work-study program directed by the University of California's Department of Criminology (which is now practically another Sociology Department) and was assigned to a leftist group called Welfare Rights Organization as a case worker. In truth, she worked for the Scheer campaign and reported on it at WRO meetings.

"The work-study program was originally funded through the Office of Economic Opportunity, receives its funds through the National Defense Education Act and is overseen by the Department of Health, Education and Welfare."

An article by IVAN SHARPE appeared in the San Francisco Bay Guardian daily newspaper published at San Francisco, California, in its issue of March 27, 1969, entitled "Ramparts - revolution with limousine service." This article reflects numerous interviews with present and former officials of Ramparts magazine and analyzes factors that led to this magazine's financial difficulties. The article places primary blame for the bankruptcy on WARREN HINCKLE and ROBERT SCHEER for their extragavant spending, such as taking their wives on trips for Ramparts and spending huge sums of money. Most of the blame was placed on WARREN HINCKLE because frequently his expense account would be more than the money he raised on promotional trips. The article gave most of the credit for the sensational stories and exposes to ROBERT SCHEER, who obtained them from his new left contacts. It reported that HINCKLE had destroyed Ramparts and SCHEER was angry about this. SCHEER decided to stay on as Editor-In-Chief of Ramparts and his salary has been reduced from $15,000 to $10,000 per year in an effort to help the magazine out of its financial problems.

AD HOC COMMITTEE TO END DISCRIMINATION

According to an article in the March 8, 1964, issue of the "San Francisco Examiner," a San Francisco daily morning newspaper, TRACY SIMS stated among other things that following a sit-in demonstration in San Francisco during October 1963 by various civil rights groups, the groups realized that a central, coordinating committee was needed. The formation of AD HOC COMMITTEE TO END DISCRIMINATION (AHCED) was the result and SIMS became its chairman.

A source reported on December 9, 1963, that in December 1963 TRACY SIMS attended a joint meeting of the San Francisco Communist Party Youth Club and the Communist Party Berkeley Off-Campus Youth Club.

A second source, on May 12, 1964, described AHCED as a central body of representatives from militant youth organizations whose purpose was to work for equal civil rights and to put pressure on establishments and employers to hire more people from the minority races, especially Negroes.

A third source reported on March 13, 1964, that at a meeting of the San Francisco Branch of the Socialist Workers Party on March 11, 1964, KIPP DAWSON, a representative of AHCED, related among other things that AHCED was directed and controlled by the W.E.B. DuBois Clubs of the Bay Area.

A fourth source reported on January 30, 1964, that on January 29, 1964, KIPP DAWSON attended a San Francisco Branch membership meeting of the Socialist Workers Party.

Second source related on May 12, 1964, that the W.E.B. DuBois Clubs of the Bay Area consisted of the W.E.B. DuBois Clubs of San Francisco, Berkeley, and San Francisco State College. According to source, any member of the W.E.B. DuBois Club of San Francisco who attends San Francisco State College is automatically a member of the club at San Francisco State College.

A fifth source reported on February 3, 1965, that on February 3, 1965, a press conference was held at 1365 Turk Street, San Francisco, California. At this press conference, an official of AHCED announced and passed out press releases that as of February 3, 1965, AHCED was no longer in existence.

BLACK PANTHER PARTY, aka Black Panther Party for Self Defense

A source advised that the Black Panther Party for Self Defense (BPPSD) was formed by HUEY PERCY NEWTON, Minister of Defense, and BOBBY GEORGE SEALE, Chairman, in December, 1966, as a militant black nationalist political organization to combat "police brutality," to unite militant black youth, and to determine the destiny of black communities. The political philosophy was taken from writings of Chairman MAO Tse-tung of Communist China and black militant writers.

In March, 1968, the name of the organization was changed to Black Panther Party (BPP).

The official BPP publication, "The Black Panther Party - Black Community News Service," states that the BPP advocates use of guns and guerrilla tactics in their violent revolutionary program to end oppression of black people.

On February 17, 1968, ELDRIDGE CLEAVER, Minister of Information, announced merger of the BPP and Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee (SNCC) and bestowed title of Minister of Justice, BPP, upon H. RAP BROWN, Chairman of SNCC.

> SNCC is a militant Negro organization which preaches black supremacy.

NEWTON, aforementioned, is incarcerated in the Alameda County Jail, Oakland, California, awaiting trial on charge of murder of an Oakland police officer.

Headquarters of BPP and Huey P. Newton Defense Fund are located at 4421 Grove Street, Oakland, California.

DISCUSSION UNLIMITED, INC.

Records of the Division of Corporations, California State Department of Investments, Los Angeles, California, indicate that Discussion Unlimited filed its Articles of Incorporation as a nonprofit corporation, with the Secretary of State, Sacramento, California, on or about June 4, 1963, noting its principal site of office as Los Angeles County, California. The aims and purposes of the organization, as listed in the Articles of Incorporation, are "...to promote full and open discussion on our society and problems".

A source advised on May 8, 1963, that Discussion Unlimited, Inc. actually was originated in Los Angeles, California, in May, 1962, and was composed largely of a number of present and former Communist Party members who assist in staging panel forums and in promoting such events. Original coordinator of the group was BERNARD LUSHER, who in 1961, was educational director of the Southern California District Communist Party.

This source was recontacted on April 9, 1965, and indicated that the basic concept of Discussion Unlimited, Inc. has not changed. It continues to present "left ideas" to at least partially non-committed audiences. It proposes to develop special activities around various issues on an irregular basis. It is not a membership organization, and does not hold regular meetings as such, but rather is strictly a forum-type organization.

On May 10, 1966, another source reported that Discussion Unlimited, Inc. continues to operate as a forum-type organization.

East Bay DuBois Club

A source advised on April 12, 1963, that the W.E.B. DuBois Youth Club - Berkeley Chapter, was originated in October 1962, principally through the efforts of MATHEW HALLINAN.

> This same source advised in October 1963, that MATHEW HALLINAN was elected as Chairman and Communist Party (CP) Youth Commission Representative of the Berkeley CP On-Campus Youth Club during September 1963.

A second source advised that a leaflet distributed by the Berkeley DuBois Club in Spetember 1964, reflected the name of that organization to be the "W.E.B. DuBois Clubs of America - Berkeley Branch."

This same leaflet, under the heading "The DuBois Clubs of America" reads as follows: "The Berkeley DuBois Club is a part of a nation-wide socialist youth organization founded in June of this year. It attempts to bring together those action-oriented youth who consider socialism to be a visible alternative to the ills of this society."

As of April 23, 1965, the Berkeley W.E.B. DuBois Club was registered with the University of California as an "off-campus" membership organization. As such, it could present lectures on campus with prior University permission and was allowed to set up and maintain a literature table on campus.

DuBois Club, San Francisco DuBois
Youth Group, Student-Labor Alliance

A source advised that on January 31, 1963, the W.E.B. DuBois Club of San Francisco held its first general meeting at California Hall, Polk and Turk Streets, San Francisco, California, at which time the aims of the club were put forth as follows by TERENCE "KAYO" HALLINAN:

(1) Alleviate the Negro problem in the United States.
(2) Promote peaceful co-existence between the United States and Russia.
(3) Promote and encourage Marxist doctrines and to bring about a socialistic government in the United States.

A second source advised in March 1963, that the DuBois Club was both conceived and originated by TERENCE HALLINAN.

A third source advised on April 9, 1965, that in April 1965, TERENCE HALLINAN advised he was not a member of the Communist Party (CP) but considered himself a communist and intended to join the CP as soon as he passed his bar exams.

A fourth source advised on June 29, 1964, that at a general membership meeting held on June 28, 1964, the DuBois Club voted to affiliate with the parent organization, the W.E.B. DuBois Clubs of America (DCA).

The fourth source advised on April 26, 1965, that the DuBois Club is currently active as a membership organization, has its headquarters at 1007 McAllister Street, San Francisco, and continues to follow the line and policy of the DCA.

W. E. B. DU BOIS CLUBS OF AMERICA (DCA)

A source has advised that on October 26-27, 1963, a conference of members of the Communist Party (CP), including national functionaries, met in Chicago, Illinois, for the purpose of setting in motion forces for the establishment of a new national Marxist-oriented youth organization which would hunt for the most peaceful transition to socialism. The delegates to this meeting were cautioned against the germ of anti-Soviet and anti-CP ideologies. These delegates were also told that it would be reasonable to assume that the young socialists attracted into this new organization would eventually pass into the CP itself.

A second conference of over 20 persons met in Chicago on December 28-29, 1963, for the purpose of initiating a "call" to the new youth organization and planning for a founding convention to be held in June, 1964.

A second source has advised that the founding convention for the new youth organization was held from June 19-21, 1964, at 150 Golden Gate Avenue, San Francisco, California, at which time the name W. E. B. DuBois Clubs of America (DCA) was adopted. Approximately 500 delegates from throughout the United States attended this convention. The aims of this organization, as set forth in the preamble to the constitution, are, "It is our belief that this nation can best solve its problems in an atmosphere of peaceful coexistence, complete disarmament and true freedom for all peoples of the world, and that these solutions will be reached mainly through the united efforts of all democratic elements in our country, composed essentially of the working people allied in the unity of Negroes and other minorities with whites. We further fully recognize that the greatest threat to American democracy comes from the racist and right wing forces in coalition with the most reactionary sections of the economic power structure, using the tool of anti-Communism to divide and destroy the unified struggle of the working people. As young people in the forces struggling for democracy, we shall actively strive to defeat these reactionary and neo-fascist elements and to achieve complete freedom and democracy for all Americans, thus enabling each individual to freely choose and build the society he would wish to live in. Through these struggles we feel the American people will realize the viability of the socialist alternative."

The constitution further states that this new organization shall be a membership organization open to individuals, or if five or more people so desire, a chapter can be formed which shall in turn be guided by the policies and principles of the parent organization.

As of October, 1965, the headquarters of the DCA was located at 954 McAllister Street, San Francisco, California.

Over the Labor Day weekend, 1965, the DCA held a conference in Chicago, Illinois. According to a third source, a new slate of national officers was elected at this conference, which included Chairman HUGH STERLING FOWLER, II (who, according to the third source, attended a CP cadre encampment held at Camp Midvale, New Jersey, in June, 1965, and following his election as Chairman of the DCA, attended another national CP cadre youth conference held on September 9-12, 1965, on a farm located in Northern Indiana, according to a fourth source); Director of Publicity CARL ELLENGER BLOICE (who was elected to the San Francisco County Committee CP in April, 1964, according to a fifth source); Educational Director MATTHEW "DYNAMITE" HALLINAN (who in June, 1964, was stated to be the Youth Representative on the Northern California CP District Board, according to a sixth source); Organizational Secretary TERENCE "KAYO" HALLINAN (who, according to a seventh source, met in June, 1965, with the District Staff of the Illinois CP to discuss the proposed DCA Midwest Summer Project), and Treasurer SUSAN PHYLLIS BORENSTEIN (who, according to an eighth source, has attended meetings of the Youth Club of the CP of Illinois during 1965 in connection with the DCA Summer Project).

FAIR PLAY FOR CUBA COMMITTEE, BAY AREA CHAPTER, also known as Bay Area Fair Play for Cuba Committee (BAFPCC)

The "New York Times" newspaper on November 20, 1960 carried an article captioned "Pro-Castro Body Reports U.S. Gain," which reported that the Fair Play for Cuba Committee (FPCC) had 5,000 paid-up members in the United States. The article declared that the FPCC had headquarters at 799 Broadway, New York City, New York, and had chapters in other cities, including one in San Francisco.

A source advised in March, 1961, that the Bay Area Chapter of the FPCC (BAFPCC) began to be formed in San Francisco in November, 1960, under the direct guidance and leadership of ASHER HARER, who the source identified as a member of the San Francisco Branch of the Socialist Workers Party (SWP) and a member of the National Committee of the SWP.

> The SWP has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

This source advised in March, 1963, that in the recent election of the BAFPCC the SWP continued its influence by having SWP members elected to the executive committee

This source advised in May, 1963, that the BAFPCC included members in San Francisco and surrounding counties. He advised that the BAFPCC has no headquarters but received mail through Post Office Box 2615, San Francisco 26, California, which is a box maintained by ASHER HARER. He stated that the announced aims and purposes of the BAFPCC are to "spread the truth about Cuba and to prevent U.S. intervention in Cuba."

A second source advised on January 10, 1964, that at a BAFPCC meeting in Berkeley, California, in December, 1963, it was decided to dissolve the BAFPCC.

FAIR PLAY FOR CUBA COMMITTEE

The April 6, 1960, edition of "The New York Times" newspaper contained a full-page advertisement captioned "What Is Really Happening in Cuba," placed by the Fair Play for Cuba Committee (FPCC). This advertisement announced the formation of the FPCC in New York City and declared the FPCC intended to promulgate "the truth about revolutionary Cuba" to neutralize the distorted American press.

"The New York Times" edition of January 11, 1961, reported that at a hearing conducted before the United States Senate Internal Security Subcommittee on January 10, 1961, Dr. CHARLES A. SANTOS-BUCH identified himself and ROBERT TABER as organizers of the FPCC. He also testified he and TABER obtained funds from the Cuban Government which were applied toward the cost of the aforementioned advertisement.

On May 16, 1963, a source advised that during the first two years of the FPCC's existence there was a struggle between Communist Party (CP) and Socialist Workers Party (SWP) elements to exert their power within the FPCC and thereby influence FPCC policy. This source added that during the past year there had been a successful effort by FPCC leadership to minimize the role of these and other organizations in the FPCC so that their influence as of May, 1963, was negligible.

> The SWP has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

On May 20, 1963, a second source advised that VINCENT "TED" LEE, FPCC National Office Director, was then formulating FPCC policy and had indicated that he had no intention of permitting FPCC policy to be determined by any other organization. This source stated that LEE believed that the FPCC should advocate resumption of diplomatic relations between Cuba and the United States and should support the right of Cubans to manage their revolution without interference from other nations. LEE did not advocate supporting the Cuban revolution per se.

FAIR PLAY FOR CUBA COMMITTEE (cont'd.)

The November 23, 1963, edition of "The New York Times" reported that Senator THOMAS J. DODD of Connecticut had called FPCC "the chief public relations instrument of the Castro network in the United States." It is to be noted that Senator DODD was a member of the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee which twice conducted hearings on the FPCC.

The December 27, 1963, edition of "The New York World Telegram and Sun" newspaper stated that the pro-Castro FPCC was seeking to go out of business and that its prime activity during its lifetime had been sponsorship of pro-Castro street rallies and mass picket lines, and the direction of an active propaganda mill highlighting illegal travel-to-Cuba campaigns. Its comparatively brief span of life was attributed to mounting anti-Castro American public opinion, the 1962 Congressional hearings which disclosed FPCC financing by Castro's United Nations Delegation, and ultimately, the bad publicity which the FPCC received from disclosure of activities on its behalf by suspected Presidential assassin LEE H. OSWALD.

On February 6, 1964, the previously mentioned second source advised that V. T. LEE had recently remarked that the FPCC was dead and that there were no plans to organize another similar organization.

On April 13, 1964, a third source advised that there had not been any FPCC activity in many months and that the FPCC had been dissolved.

The administration and direction of this project was entrusted to a 17-man executive committee, of whom 12 were known Communists." Also cited as one of the "long-established Soviet-controlled international organizations" which speak identical lines of propaganda and stand together on all phases of Soviet foreign policy and which has "affiliated organizations in the United States, which consequently have also been turned into instruments in the 'peace' campaign."
(Committee on Un-American Activities, House Report 271 on American Youth for Democracy, April 17, 1947, p. 13; and House Report 378 on the Communist "peace" Offensive, April 25, 1951, originally released April 1, 1951, p. 77.)

NATIONAL COMMITTEE TO ABOLISH THE HOUSE UN-AMERICAN ACTIVITIES COMMITTEE

The "Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications" issued December 1, 1961, by the House Committee on Un-American Activities, page 115, contains the following citation regarding the National Committee to Abolish the Un-American Activities Committee (NCAUAC).

"Cited as a 'new organization' set up in the Summer of 1960 to lead and direct the Communist Party's 'Operation Abolition' campaign. Seven of the national leaders of this group have been identified as Communists."

A source has advised that the NCAUAC changed its name on March 3, 1962, to include the word "House" in its name, thereby becoming known as the National Committee to Abolish the House Un-American Activities Committee (NCAHUAC).

A second source advised on June 28, 1965, that as of that date the NCAHUAC continued to function with the headquarters at 555 North Western Avenue, Los Angeles, California.

PROGRESSIVE LABOR PARTY (PLP)
PROGRESSIVE LABOR MOVEMENT (PLM)

A source advised on April 20, 1965, that the PLP, formerly known as the PLM, held its first national convention April 15-18, 1965, at New York City, to organize the PLM into a PLP. The PLP will have as its ultimate objective the establishment of a militant working class movement based on Marxism-Leninism.

"The New York Times," City Edition, Tuesday, April 20, 1965, page 27, reported that a new party of "revolutionary socialism" was formally founded on April 18, 1965, under the name of the PLP. The PLP was described as an outgrowth of the PLM. Its officers were identified as MILTON ROSEN, New York, President, and WILLIAM EPTON of New York and MORT SCHEER of San Francisco, Vice Presidents. A 20-member National Committee was elected to direct the party until the next convention.

According to the article, "The Progressive Labor Movement was founded in 1962 by Mr. ROSEN and Mr. SCHEER after they were expelled from the Communist Party of the United States for assertedly following the Chinese Communist line."

The PLP publishes the "Marxist-Leninist Quarterly," a theoretical magazine; "Progressive Labor," a monthly magazine; "Challenge," a New York City newspaper; and "Spark," a west coast newspaper.

The June 1, 1965, issue of "Challenge," page 6, states that, "this paper is dedicated to fight for a new way of life - where the working men and women own and control their homes, factories, the police, courts, and the entire government on every level."

The source advised that the PLP utilizes the address of General Post Office Box 808, Brooklyn 1, New York, but also utilizes an office in Room 622, 132 Nassau Street, New York City, where PLP publications are prepared.

A second source advised on October 26, 1959, that the name of the Oakland Branch of the SWP was changed to the Oakland-Berkeley Branch of the SWP.

A third source advised on April 2, 1965, that the San Francisco Branch and the Oakland-Berkeley Branch of the SWP follow the policies and directives of the National SWP with which they are affiliated.

STUDENTS FOR A DEMOCRATIC SOCIETY

The Students for a Democratic Society (SDS), as it is known today, came into being at a founding convention held at Port Huron, Michigan, in June, 1962. The SDS is an association of young people on the left and has a current program of protesting the draft, promoting a campaign for youth to develop a conscientious objector status, denouncing United States intervention in the war in Vietnam and to "radically transform" the university community, and provide for its complete control by students. GUS HALL, General Secretary, Communist Party, USA, when interviewed by a representative of United Press International in San Francisco, California, on May 14, 1965, described the SDS as a part of the "responsible left" which the Party has "going for us." At the June, 1965 SDS National Convention, an anti-communist proviso was removed from the SDS constitution. In the October 7, 1966 issue of "New Left Notes," the official publication of SDS, an SDS spokesman stated that there are some communists in SDS and they are welcome. The National Headquarters of this organization as of April 18,1967, was located in Room 206, 1608 West Madison Street, Chicago, Illinois.

VIETNAM DAY COMMITTEE (VDC)

A source advised in May, 1965, that the VDC was founded in May, 1965, to organize the May 21-22, 1965, community "teach-in" on the University of California, Berkeley, California (UCB) campus.

Public literature distributed by the VDC reveals that the purpose of the VDC is to mold public opinion to force withdrawal of the United States from Vietnam, and to utilize dramatic, large-scale demonstrations in increasing public alarm about the Vietnam war.

A second source advised on June 24, 1966, that at a meeting of the San Francisco Branch of the Socialist Workers Party (SWP) in San Francisco, California, on June 22, 1966, KIPP DAWSON, whom source identified as a member of the Branch, commented, among other things, that "with our help" the VDC was finally recognized as a political power and was under "our control."

> The SWP has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

During the period from August 18, 1966 to October 7, 1966, the VDC was publicly announced as having been expelled from the UCB as a recognized on-campus organization.

A third source advised on September 29, 1966, that PETE CAMEJO was the chief spokesman for the VDC in its attempts for reinstatement as a recognized UCB on-campus organization. Following the reinstatement of the VDC in October, 1966, CAMEJO decided to disband the Campus Chapter of the United Committee Against War (UCAW), which he had organized to replace the VDC on the UCB campus when it was expelled. The UCAW Chapter was disbanded and the VDC subsequently became an "affiliate" of UCAW.

The third source further advised that as of September 29, 1966, the VDC was controlled and dominated by PETE CAMEJO. Source added that the VDC is no longer under the control of the old stalwarts of the original VDC and there is no continuity between the original and current VDC.

> A fourth source on October 27, 1966, identified PETE CAMEJO as a current member of the SWP.
> The fourth and a fifth source in September and October, 1966, identified UCAW as an organization in the San Francisco and East Bay areas whose activities were directed toward protesting United States foreign policy in Vietnam, and is controlled and dominated by the SWP and the Young Socialist Alliance (YSA.

WOMEN FOR PEACE, aka
Women Strike for Peace

The "Berkeley Daily Gazette," a daily newspaper of general circulation published in Berkeley, California, contained an article in the November 19, 1965, evening edition reflecting that in November, 1961, when concern mounted over radioactive fallout from nuclear testing, a group of women in Washington, D. C. started Women Strike for Peace. The idea spread rapidly throughout the country and now embraces 900 groups, including Women For Peace groups in the San Francisco Bay area.

These groups support programs to achieve goals such as:

(1) Continued disarmament negotiations.

(2) A strong and flexible United Nations.

(3) Planning now at state and national levels for conversion to peace-time economy and positive efforts to ease world tensions.

The women act as individuals and as a group, with specific actions suggested by individuals and groups from all over the world. Decision to participate jointly on any given suggestion is democratly arrived at by members of the Coordinating Committee. Effective cooperation with other peace groups is encouraged. Monthly Coordinating Committee meetings and general meetings, as warranted, are open to all and announced in mailings to members. There are no dues or membership forms nor conditions for membership.

To stir an awareness of the need for peace, Women For Peace encourage public education in peace objectives at local schools and sponsor peace-oriented demonstrations and public meetings, newspaper ads, billboards, and candidates for public office. On the national level the group attempts to influence government officials by letters and conferences.

YOUNG SOCIALIST ALLIANCE (known in the San Francisco Bay area as the Bay Area Young Socialist Alliance, aka. the Bay Area Committee of the Young Socialist Alliance, Bay Area Committee for the Young Socialist)

A source advised on May 16, 1960, that the Bay Area Young Socialist Alliance (BAYSA) was formed in February 1958, as the Bay Area Committee for the Young Socialist (BACYS). At a later state in its development prior to adoption of the name BAYSA, the organization was known as the Bay Area Committee of the Young Socialist Alliance (BACYSA).

The source advised that as a result of a national convention held April 15-17, 1960, at Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, the BAYSA became a branch of the national organization to be known as the Young Socialist Alliance (YSA) and will carry out in the Northern California area the policies of the YSA.

A second source advised April 28, 1966, that the BAYSA is currently active and is composed of three locals: The San Francisco YSA, the Berkeley YSA, and the San Jose YSA.

The first source advised on April 28, 1966, that the BAYSA, although ostensibly an independent organization, is in reality controlled by the San Francisco Branch, Socialist Workers Party (SWP) and the Oakland Branch SWP.

The SWP has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

YOUNG SOCIALIST ALLIANCE

The May, 1960 issue of the "Young Socialist" (YS), page 1, column 3, disclosed that during April 15-17, 1960, a national organization entitled "The Young Socialist Alliance" (YSA) was established at Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. This issue stated that this organization was formed by the nation-wide supporter clubs of the publication YS.

The above issue, page 6, set forth the Founding Declaration of YSA. This declaration stated that the YSA recognizes the Socialist Workers Party (SWP) as the only existing political leadership on class struggle principles, and that the supporters of the YS have come into basic political solidarity with the SWP on the principles of revolutionary socialism.

A source advised on May 23, 1966, that the original YSA was an organization formed during October, 1957, in New York City by youth of various left socialist tendencies, particularly members and followers of the SWP. The leaders of this group were the guiding forces in the establishment of the national organization.

The source further advised on May 23, 1966, that the YSA is dominated and controlled on a national basis by the SWP through having SWP members comprise exclusively the National Executive Committee (NEC). The YSA, in reality, is the youth and training section of the SWP and the main source of new SWP members.

The headquarters of the YSA are located in Room 535, 41 Union Square West, New York City.

The SWP has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

4. REPORT OF FINDINGS

(SUBJECT INTERVIEW) On 21 November 1966, David Reed FROMER, Student University of Wisconsin, Madison, Wisconsin, with residence at 140 Langdon Street, Madison, and with permanent mailing address at Rhonda Way, Mill Valley, California, was contacted at the Armed Forces Entrance and Examination Station, 1509 Clay Street, Oakland, California. It was explained to FROMER that it is the policy of the Department of the Army to interview all persons who refuse to fill out their DD Form 98, Personnel Security Questionnaire, and qualify their DD Form 398, Statement of Personal History, at the time they are called upon for processing under the conscription laws of the United States. SUBJECT was informed that the purpose of the interview was to give HIM the opportunity to furnish an explanation concerning HIS reasons for refusing to fill out and qualify the above mentioned forms and to furnish any additional information which might be useful in making a determination of HIS case. FROMER was advised of HIS rights under the Fifth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States and Article 31, Uniform Code of Military Justice. HE was further advised of HIS right to legal counsel concerning the interview. FROMER refused to be interviewed under oath or make any statement concerning the above mentioned forms based upon HIS rights under the First and Fifth Amendments to the Constitution of the United States. SUBJECT only stated that HE had formerly made application for conscientious objection, that HIS right of appeal had been denied by the United States District Court on 13 October 1966, and that HIS lawyers had initiated action to have the appeal heard by a higher court. SUBJECT further indicated that HE did not wish to make a statement because HIS personal attorney, Peter Franck, a family attorney, Vincent Hallinan, were not available at this time to speak in HIS behalf.

AGENT'S NOTES: SUBJECT is presently enrolled at the University of Wisconsin, Madison, Wisconsin, and will not be available for further contact in this area. FROMER declined to sign a statement in verification of the opportunity given HIM to be interviewed concerning HIS qualification of DD Form 398 and refusal to fill out DD Form 98.

4. REPORT OF FINDINGS

(BIRTH) On 20 September 1968, a check of the birth records concerning Manuel MARTI was conducted at the Bureau of Demographic Registry, Department of Health, Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, Santurce, Puerto Rico. Mrs. Candita Hernandez de Buxo, Records Supervisor, furnished Certificate 36046, Book 73, for the year 1946, which revealed the following pertinent information:

Name:	Manuel Adrian MARTI-BADILLO
Date of Birth:	17 May 1946
Place of Birth:	San Juan, Puerto Rico
Father's Name:	Manuel Marti
Father's Place of Birth:	Utuado, Puerto Rico
Mother's Name:	Reyes Badillo
Mother's Place of Birth:	Aguadilla, Puerto Rico
Registered By:	Manuel Marti
Date Registered:	27 May 1946
Remarks:	SUBJECT was born, and was originally registered, as Manuel Adrian SOTOMAYOR-BADILLO. HIS father was originally recorded as Adrian Sotomayor. However, on 5 March 1963, SUBJECT'S father changed his name to Manuel Marti under correction number 249, and changed his SON'S surname on the same date.

AGENT'S NOTES: According to Spanish tradition, a person's surname is sometimes compounded by using the father's surname followed by the mother's maiden name in hyphenated form. However, many persons now omit the mother's name in common usage.

Attention is invited to Agent Report, Birth-Father, dated 24 September 1968, reflecting the results of an examination of the Court Order, which effected correction number 249, dated 5 March 1963 (EXHIBIT III).

4. REPORT OF FINDINGS

(BIRTH-FATHER) On 23 September 1968, a check of the birth records of Manuel Marti, father of Manuel MARTI, was conducted at the Bureau of Demographic Registry, Department of Health, Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, Santurce, Puerto Rico. Mrs. Candita Hernandez de Buxo, Records Supervisor, furnished a Certificate of Birth Registration, dated 20 March 1963, issued by Tomas Beauchamp, Registrar, Utuado, Puerto Rico, which revealed the following pertinent information:

Name:	Adrian Martir (sic)
Date of Birth:	11 August 1910
Place of Birth:	Utuado, Puerto Rico
Father's Name:	Not Recorded
Father's Place of Birth:	Not Recorded
Mother's Name:	Juana Martir-Aponte (sic)
Mother's Place of Birth:	Utuado, Puerto Rico
Registered By:	Not Recorded
Date Registered:	22 September 1910
Certificate Number:	Certificate 636, Page 257, Book 44, (EXHIBIT III)

AGENT'S NOTES: Attention is invited to Court Order in the Spanish language, dated 12 February 1963, by which SUBJECT'S father legally changed his name to Manuel Marti, (EXHIBIT IV), which was subsequently translated into the English language (EXHIBIT V). Attention is further invited to the discrepancy between the spelling of SUBJECT'S father's surname on the Court Order and on the Certificate of Birth Registration. Source advised that the spelling Martir was a typographical error, and that the surname would be changed to read Marti. Attention is further invited to the fact that the term natural child is a term used in Puerto Rico, when a child's birth is registered at the Bureau of Demographic Registry by someone other than the parents of the child. The child takes the name of the mother and the father's name does not appear on the record, inasmuch as the parents are not married to each other.

RESOLUCION

El presente caso se celebró ante el Juez que suscribe el 31 de agosto de 1962, con intervención del Fiscal, habiéndose probado a satisfacción del Tribunal los siguientes extremos: que el peticionario nació en Utuado, Puerto Rico, el 11 de agosto de 1910, hijo natural de Juana Martí; que en su certificado de nacimiento él aparece con el nombre de Adrián, al libro 44 de Utuado, folio 237, acta 636, año 1910; que esta circunstancia constituye un error por cuanto el verdadero y auténtico nombre del peticionario es Manuel, cuyo apelativo ha usado en todo momento desde su nacimiento; que el peticionario tiene dos hijos legítimos llamados Iván y Manuel, quienes aparecen en sus respectivos certificados de nacimiento con el apellido Sotomayor, lo cual constituye un error por la razón de que el apellido legal de dichos menores es Martí; el apellido Sotomayor lo usó el peticionario porque erróneamente creyó estar reconocido por su padre.

En apoyo de las alegaciones de la solicitud presentó el peticionario prueba testifical y documental a entera satisfacción del Tribunal.

El nacimiento de sus referidos hijos Iván y Manuel aparece inscrito en San Juan, P. R. bajo los números 213 y 2765 del Distrito 164, Nums. de Archivo 12969 y 36,046, Años 1945 y 1946, respectivamente.

APR 10 1963

Considerada y analizada la evidencia ofrecida en este caso, el Tribunal, por la presente, declara con lugar la solicitud instada por el peticionario y ordena al Negociado de Registro Demográfico y Estadísticas del Departamento de Salud del Estado Libre Asociado de Puerto Rico, que proceda a corregir el nombre del peticionario para que aparezca en su certificado de nacimiento con su verdadero nombre de Manuel y para que sus dos hijos menores de edad aludidos precedentemente aparezcan en sus respectivos certificados de nacimiento con el apellido paterno Martí, y asimismo se corrija el nombre del padre de dichos menores para que aparezca Manuel Martí en vez de Adrián Sotomayor; todo ello de acuerdo con lo dispuesto en la Ley Num. 119 aprobada el 26 de abril de 1950.

DADA en San Juan, P. R., hoy día 12 de febrero de 1963.

COURT OF HEARING OF PUERTO RICO

SUPERIOR COURT

San Juan Court

MANUEL MARTI,	)	Civil Case Num. CS-62-6720
Petitioner,	)	Concerning:
EX-PARTE.	)	Ad Perpetuam Rei Memoriam

RESOLUTION

This case was held before the undersigned Judge on 31 August 1962, with the intervention of the Prosecuting Attorney, having proved to the satisfaction of the Court the following: that the petitioner was born on 11 August 1910, in Utuado, Puerto Rico, the natural son of Juana Marti; that on birth certificate 636, page 237, book 44, for the year 1910, in Utuado, the petitioner appears with the first name Adrian; that this circumstance constitutes an error because the true and authentic first name of the petitioner is Manuel, which first name he has used since his birth; that the petitioner has two legitimate sons named Ivan and Manuel, who appear on their respective birth certificates with the surname Sotomayor, which constitutes an error because the legal surname of the aforementioned minors is Marti; that the petitioner used the surname Sotomayor erroneously because he believed that he had been recognized by his father.

In support of the allegations of the application, the petitioner presented attested and documentary proof to the complete satisfaction of the Court.

The births of the aforementioned children, Ivan and Manuel, are filed in San Juan, Puerto Rico, under numbers 213 and 2765 of District 164, file numbers 12969 and 36046, years 1945 and 1946, respectively.

Considering and analysing the evidence in this case, the Court, by the present, declares the application made by the petitioner to be in order and orders the Bureau of Demographic Registry and Statistics of the Department of Health of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico to proceed with the correction of the petitioner's first name in order that it appear on his birth certificate with his true first name of Manuel and in order that his two aforementioned minor sons appear in their respective birth certificate with the paternal surname Marti, and also to correct the name of the father of the said minors so that it appears as Manuel Marti instead of Adrian Sotomayor; all this in accordance with what is set forth in Law 119, approved on 26 April 1950.

Given in San Juan, Puerto Rico, today the 12th day of February 1963.

Source who was SUBJECT'S immediate supervisor from September 1964 to February 1965 stated substantially as follows:

Source first met SUBJECT in September 1964 when MARTI was hired as a shipping clerk by Polly Perry Stores and went to work under Source's Immediate supervision. SUBJECT was never heard to express any radical political views, and although Source did not know what HIS specific political views were, Wang had no reason to doubt or question SUBJECT'S loyalty to the United States. Source had no knowledge of SUBJECT'S organizational affiliations, foreign travels, business interest or relatives residing abroad. Source would gladly re-employ SUBJECT if the occasion arose. Source suggested that Allen Lee and Cora McLendon, former co-workers of SUBJECT as persons who would be knowledgeable of HIM.

Wang recommends that MARTI be favorably considered for a position of trust and responsibility with the United States Government.

4. REPORT OF FINDINGS

(LISTED CHARACTER REFERENCE) On 24 October 1968, Ramona Rodriguez, Housewife, Apartment 4E, 905 East 167th Street, Bronx, New York, was interviewed in her residence concerning Manuel MARTI. Source who has known SUBJECT since 1951 stated substantially as follows:

Source met SUBJECT and HIS parents as neighbors in 1951 when Source moved into the apartment across from SUBJECT at 905 East 167th Street, Bronx, New York. Source became a close friend of SUBJECT'S mother and saw SUBJECT daily until HIS family moved from the building in 1965. Source continued to visit SUBJECT'S mother after 1965 and until her death in early 1967. Source had not seen SUBJECT since the funeral of HIS mother in 1967.

Source had no knowledge of SUBJECT's birthplace since HE was approximately six years of age when they first met. Source knew SUBJECT'S parents as Manuel and Reyes Marti. HE has an older brother, Ivan, and a younger sister, Blanca. SUBJECT was brought up in a very respectable home, and HIS parents exercised very strict control over the children. SUBJECT graduated from high school in Bronx, New York, shortly before HE and HIS parents moved from the neighborhood, further details unknown. Source had no knowledge of SUBJECT'S employment.

SUBJECT is a quiet, friendly, serious-minded young man of excellent character and personal behavior. HE was never known to be adversely involved with law enforcement agencies. HIS parents were very strict and watchful over the upbringing of SUBJECT and HIS brother and they were not allowed to roam the streets or participate in any neighborhood gang activities. Most of SUBJECT'S free time from school was spent at home with HIS studies, and with HIS hobbies of stamp collection, and HIS pet birds and fishes. Source believed that SUBJECT'S father worked in a factory, further details unknown, and was never known to operate HIS own business. HIS parents were never heard to speak badly about the United States and its democratic institutions, and Source was of the opinion that SUBJECT was brought up as a loyal United States citizen. SUBJECT is a mature, emotionally stable young man, and because of HIS home training Source was of the opinion that HE would be financially responsible. SUBJECT was not known to have any organizational affiliations, nor to have traveled outside of the United States. HE is honest, trustworthy and dependable, and has manifested no undesirable social habits. Source suggested Luisa Perez, 905 East 167th Street, Bronx, New York, as a friend of SUBJECT's family. She was unable to suggest other persons in the neighborhood who would have knowledge of SUBJECT since most of the people presently residing in the apartment building moved there since SUBJECT moved away in 1965. 43 (LISTED CHARACTER REFERENCE) On 4 November 1968, a check of the Hagstrom's Maps of Manhattan and Bronx, New York City, failed to reveal the location of 201 Roebling Street, New York, New York, the address reflected for listed character reference Hugo Rivera on Manuel MARTI'S SPH, dated 1 August 1968; however, a check of the Brooklyn, New York Telephone Address Directory revealed the existence of a Roebling Street, and a telephone listing 384-0091 for Maria Rivera at 201 Roebling Street, Brooklyn, New York. Repeated telephone calls at different hours and over a period of days failed to elicit any response from the residents at that address.

(LISTED CHARACTER REFERENCE) On 12 November 1968, a physical check was conducted at 201 Roebling Street, Brooklyn, New York, in an attempt to locate Hugo Rivera, listed character reference of Manuel MARTI, with the following results:

Mrs. Kuechler, wife of the apartment building superintendent, was interviewed and stated that the family named Rivera who resided at the above address had moved away approximately one month ago, and she had no knowledge of their present address.

(LISTED CHARACTER REFERENCE) On 13 November 1968, a postal removal check was conducted at the United States Post Office, 271 Cadman Plaza East, Brooklyn, New York, with the assistance of Mr. Urcinola, Postal Inspector, concerning Maria Rivera, 201 Roebling Street, Brooklyn, New York, and revealed the following information:

A postal removal notice had been submitted from that address on 1 October 1968 for Hugo Rivera only, and the new address is 2020 Walton Avenue, Bronx, New York 10453.

4. REPORT OF FINDINGS

(LISTED CHARACTER REFERENCE) On 14 November 1968, Hugo Rivera, Assistant Manager, American Finance Corporation, 556 7th Avenue, New York, New York, who resides at 2020 Walton Avenue, Bronx, New York 10453, was interviewed at his place of employment concerning Manuel MARTI. Source who has been a close friend of SUBJECT for approximately 12 years stated substantially as follows:

Source and SUBJECT first met approximately 12 years ago when they were both attending elementary school at PS 20, Simpson and 167th Street, New Yori. They were classmates from elementary school through Junior High School number 40, Prospect Avenue, Bronx, New York, and through their sophomore year at Evander Childs High School, 800 East Gunhill Road, Bronx, New York, in 1962, when Source dropped out of school and went into the United States Army. Source and SUBJECT visited each other regularly while they were in school together, and because of their mutual interest in coin and stamp collecting. After Source went into the Army he did not see SUBJECT again until HIS discharge in 1964; however, they corresponded with each other regularly. Since 1964 they have had frequent social contact, and Rivera last saw MARTI on 12 November 1968 when HE was home on leave to attend the funeral of HIS uncle who Source knew only as Polo.

Source believed that SUBJECT and HIS brother, Ivan, were born in Puerto Rico but came to New York City when they were very young. When they first met SUBJECT resided at 905 East 167th Street, Bronx, New York, with HIS parents, Reyes and Manuel Marti; HIS brother, Ivan, and their younger sister, Blanca, who is now approximately 14 years of age. Prior to HIS induction SUBJECT resided with HIS family at 1201 University Avenue, Bronx, New York. HIS mother died in early 1967 from lung cancer. HIS only known employment was with an insurance firm on Third Avenue, New York, New York, where MARTI worked as an IBM operator, further details unknown. SUBJECT'S father was formerly employed with an unknown shipping company, but Source had no knowledge of HIS present employment. HIS uncle, Polo, who died recently, used to operate a small grocery store on 163rd Street, Bronx, New York, exact location not recalled. 46

SUBJECT and HIS brother were brought up in a very respectable home, and their mother exercised rigid control over their activities even after they were fully grown. They were not allowed to participate in any of the games and other activities in which boys usually participate with the other children in the neighborhood, and as a result SUBJECT had had very few close friends. Most of SUBJECT'S spare time was always devoted to reading or to HIS hobby of coin and stamp collection. Although SUBJECT is a perfectly normal male, Source did not recall HIM ever having a girlfriend. HE is completely honest, trustworthy, and dependable, and HE has never had a moment of difficulty with law enforcement agencies. When SUBJECT'S brother was drafted into the military service SUBJECT was granted a deferment in order that HE could assist in supporting the family since HIS mother was ill. When HIS turn came to be drafted HE did not utter a single complaint about going into the Army because HE felt that HE had an obligation to go. Source stated that HE would stake his life on SUBJECT'S loyalty to the United States. Although he had no knowledge of SUBJECT'S father's political or organizational affiliations, Source recalled that he occasionally brought home the socialist newspaper, name not recalled, and would side with the comments made in the paper that were critical of the United States and its policies. On these occasions SUBJECT and HIS brother would always argue in defense of the United States, and SUBJECT'S father has never been able to influence HIS political thoughts and belief in any way. SUBJECT never travelled abroad, and is not known to have any relatives residing abroad. HE uses alcoholic beverages moderately, and does not gamble or use habit forming drugs. Source knew of nothing that would reflect adversely on MARTI'S character, discretion, maturity, or emotional stability, and HE has no organizational affiliations, except perhaps some club connected with stamp and coin collection. Source was unable to furnish any information concerning SUBJECT's listed character references Juanita Reyes and Aleanso Ortiz. Carlos Delgado, SW 33rd Street between First and Second Streets, Miami, Florida, is a friend of SUBJECT.

Rivera highly recommends that MARTI be favorably considered for a position of trust and responsibility with the United States Government.

Source first met SUBJECT in April 1965 when SUBJECT was employed as a utility clerk at MIAA; however, he did not have any close working contact with SUBJECT until approximately one year later when Source was assigned to the Data Control Section where SUBJECT was then working as a Tabulating Machine Operator. MARTI is honest, trustworthy, mature, emotionally stable, and of high moral character and personal behavior. HE manifested no undesirable personal habits and was not known to be adversely involved with creditors or law enforcement agencies. Source had no knowledge concerning SUBJECT'S organizational affiliations or foreign travels, and he had no reason to doubt or question SUBJECT'S loyalty to the United States since SUBJECT was never heard to voice any criticism whatever of the United States government or of the democratic policies of this country. Source was unable to suggest anyone other than co-workers who would have knowledge of SUBJECT.

(DEVELOPED CHARACTER REFERENCE) On 20 October 1968, Lucien Todman, Computer Operator, Mutual Insurance Advisory Association (MIAA), 733 3rd Avenue, New York, New York, who resides in Apartment 4A, 1660 Andrews Avenue, Bronx, New York 10453, was interviewed at his residence concerning Manuel MARTI. Source who has known SUBJECT slightly over two years stated substantially as follows:

Source and SUBJECT met in July 1966 when Source went to work at MIAA and was introduced to SUBJECT who gave Source his orientation regarding operations within the data processing at MIAA. Source and SUBJECT became good friends and rode to and from work together since they resided in the same general neighborhood. SUBJECT visited Source's home socially on a few occasions, and they made visits to the United Nations and other cultural sites together. Source had not seen SUBJECT since May 1968 when HE was drafted into the United States Army.

SUBJECT is a native of Puerto Rico, but Source assumed that HE moved to New York City when HE was very young inasmuch as HIS knowledge of HIS native island was very limited, and HE frequently queried Source, a Virgin Islander, concerning conditions in Puerto Rico. Source met SUBJECT'S father, HIS sister, and HIS brother, names unknown, on the occasion of the death of SUBJECT'S mother in early 1967, when Source attended the funeral. SUBJECT appeared to be very much attached to HIS mother and until her death most of HIS time was spent between work and visiting HIS mother at the hospital. SUBJECT never mentioned HIS father, and Source was not aware of his existence until they met briefly at the funeral of SUBJECT'S mother. SUBJECT'S brother was in the military service at the time of HIS mother's death and is believed to have traveled from Germany for the funeral. Source believes that SUBJECT received a deferment from military service because of HIS mother's illness and the fact that HIS other brother was on active military duty. This gave Source the impression that SUBJECT was the family's main support. SUBJECT is an avid reader and has a keen interest in history. HE is a high school graduate and college at night for a short period. Source believed that HE attended New York City College and took courses in history. SUBJECT is not known to have any organizational affiliations. HE and Source have held many discussions concerning local and world politics and MARTI has always staunchly defended the basic democratic philosophy of the United States Government. They have also discussed the subject of Puerto Rico's welfare, independence or statehood and MARTI has expressed the view that Puerto Rico's welfare and that of its people is best served under the island's present commonwealth status. SUBJECT is a very intelligent, friendly, industrious and responsible young man. HE appears to be very mature in HIS thoughts and actions, and has had no known difficulty with creditors or law enforcement agencies. Source

(NEIGHBORHOOD CHECK) On 24 October 1968, Hortense Mosko, Housewife, who resides at 1201 University Avenue, Bronx, New York 10452, was interviewed in her residence concerning Manuel MARTI. Source who has known SUBJECT for approximately three years stated substantially as follows:

Source has been casually acquainted with SUBJECT and HIS family as neighbors since 1965 when MARTI and HIS parents moved into apartment 1E adjacent to Source; however, her contact with SUBJECT and HIS family had been limited to a neighborly greeting whenever they met in the hallways of the building. Source saw SUBJECT frequently prior to HIS induction in the United States Army.

SUBJECT and HIS family were described as very quiet, friendly neighbors whose conduct in the neighborhood was above reproach. Source had no knowledge concerning SUBJECT'S educational background, employment or previous residence.

MARTI appears to be of excellent character, and Source knew of nothing whichwould reflect adversely on SUBJECT'S character, integrity, discretion, honesty, or financial responsibility. HE was not known to have any difficulty with law enforcement agencies. SUBJECT'S mother, given name unknown, died almost two years ago. The members of SUBJECT'S family keep very much to themselves and do not associate with any of the other neighbors in the building. Neither SUBJECT or the other members of HIS family were known to engage in any questionable political or other activity in the neighborhood, and Source had no reason to doubt or question SUBJECT'S loyalty to the United States. Source had no knowledge of SUBJECT'S organizational affiliations or foreign travels. Source was unable to suggest anyone who may have knowledge of SUBJECT.

Mosko recommends that MARTI be favorably considered for a position of trust and responsibility with the United States Government.

ARMED FORCES SECURITY QUESTIONNAIRE

I.—EXPLANATION

1. The interests of National Security require that all persons being considered for membership or retention in the Armed Forces be reliable, trustworthy, of good character, and of complete and unswerving loyalty to the United States. Accordingly, it is necessary for you to furnish information concerning your security qualifications. The answers which you give will be used in determining whether you are eligible for membership in the Armed Forces, in selection of your duty assignment, and for such other action as may be appropriate.

2. You are advised that in accordance with the Fifth Amendment of the Constitution of the United States you cannot be compelled to furnish any statements which you may reasonably believe may lead to your prosecution for a crime. This is the only reason for which you may avail yourself of the privilege afforded by the Fifth Amendment in refusing to answer questions under Part IV below. Claiming the Fifth Amendment will not by itself constitute sufficient grounds to exempt you from military service for reasons of security. You are not required to answer any questions in this questionnaire, the answer to which might be incriminating. If you do claim the privilege granted by the Fifth Amendment in refusing to answer any question, you should make a statement to that effect after the question involved.

II.—ORGANIZATIONS OF SECURITY SIGNIFICANCE

1. There is set forth below a list of names of organizations, groups, and movements, reported by the Attorney General of the United States as having significance in connection with the National Security. Please examine the list carefully, and note those organizations, and organizations of similar names, with which you are familiar. Then answer the questions set forth in Part IV below.

2. Your statement concerning membership or other association with one or more of the organizations named may not, of itself, cause you to be ineligible for acceptance or retention in the Armed Forces. Your age at the time of such association, circumstances prompting it, and the extent and frequency of involvement, are all highly pertinent, and will be fully weighed. Set forth all such factors under "Remarks" below, and continue on separate attached sheets of paper if necessary.

3. If there is any doubt in your mind as to whether your name has been linked with one of the organizations named, or as to whether a particular association is "worth mentioning," make a full explanation under "Remarks."

1. (U) Forwarded under the provisions of paragraph 29a(1), AR 604-10.

2. (U) Inclosed case file has been reviewed, and it is recommended that SUBJECT be rejected for service in any capacity.

3.(U)~~(C)~~ Following credible derogatory information is furnished as a basis for this recommendation:

a. During 1965 and 1966 SUBJECT was an active member and leader of the Vietnam Day Committee (VDC). The VDC was a radical leftist group which was heavily infiltrated by confirmed Communists and Marxists. The VDC solicited and received financial support and/or assistance from the Communist Party (CP), Socialist Workers Party (SWP), Progressive Labor Party (PLP), and the Berkeley Chapter of the W.E.B. DuBois Clubs of America (DCA). The CP and the SWP have been cited by the Attorney General of the United States; the PLP is organized, controlled, and dominated by a factionalist group of dissident Communists who broke away from the CP because they did not believe it was moving fast enough in accomplishing its revolutionary goals; and the DCA is supported, controlled and dominated by the CP. (Tabs B, pp3, 4 and 5; C; D; E; F; G; H; I, ppIV, 32, 41; J and K)

b. In 1966 HE was associated with the United Committee Against the War which is dominated by the SWP and the Young Socialist Alliance, the youth group of the SWP. (Tabs Q; R and S)

c. In 1964 HE was an associate and instructor of the San Francisco New School (SFNS). The SFNS was formulated by a radical group to criticize existing structures and policies and was the forerunner in the west coast area of the Students for a Democratic Society, a militant youth group that has received support from the CP. (Tabs A; C, pp 21 and 22; L; M; N)

d. On 5 October 1966 SUBJECT refused to complete DD Form 98 (Armed Forces Security Questionnaire). (Tab O)

e. On 5 October 1966 SUBJECT refused to complete DD Form 398 (Statement of Personal History) in its entirety. (Tab P)

4. (U) FBI check for any reports subsequent to those contained in the file and for any objections to further processing of this case is being made this date. Results thereof will be forwarded for inclusion in case file.

4. REPORT OF FINDINGS

~~(C)~~ (U) On 1 February 1972, Robert M. Creed, SP4, 514-54-4745, Security Guard, C Team, 66th USA Artillery Detachment, Datteln (LC8424), Federal Republic of Germany (FRG), was interviewed at his place of duty regarding an incident of possible Counter-Intelligence interest, and stated substantially as follows:

~~(C)~~ (U) Source was approached by a man who identified himself as John the Dee Jay on 31 January 1972, in the Lord Nelson, a bar in Datteln. John the Dee Jay was the Disc Jockey at the Lord Nelson. John sat down with Source and began a normal conversation. The conversation soon turned to military subjects. John asked about CPT FNU Myers and CPT FNU Jackson, who supposedly had been assigned to the unit at one time. John mentioned that he had taken pictures of Myers and his family. John asked Source about radar and other military subjects. John constantly mentioned Security Sergeants, phone numbers and personnel that were formerly at the unit. John stated that he knew the last Security Sergeant of C Team, and was interested in knowing who was now the Security Sergeant. At 2330 hours, Source left the Lord Nelson and proceeded to the Western Bar, Datteln. At the Western, Source met a man, name unknown, who owned the photography shop across the street from the Western, whom Source described as a "drinking buddy". Source and the unidentified man (UIM) left the Western about 0100 hours and proceeded to the Lord Nelson. At the Lord Nelson, Source and UIM were joined at their table by John the Dee Jay. Upon learning that UIM was a Photographer, John asked him if he had ever taken pictures of a military installation. The UIM did not answer the question, but stated that he had taken pictures of a man named Julius (PHONETIC-NFI). Julius supposedly had been an American stationed in Datteln with the US Army. The UIM became nervous because of John's questioning, excused himself, and left the bar. Source did not see UIM anymore that evening. Source and John remained at the Lord Nelson. The conversation between Source and John returned to military subjects. John spoke about military subjects with authority and apparent proficiency. John said many things about military subjects that Source had no knowledge of. Source was unable to recall any of the specifics of the conversation. Source felt dwarfed by John's military knowledge and at one time asked John if he knew about the XR-71. John became very interested and asked Source what was the XR-71. Source replied that he was not allowed to talk about it, and the subject was dropped. John mentioned twice during the evening, that he had been kicked off Haard Kaserne, where C Team was located in Datteln, for being caught wearing a complete set of US fatigues in downtown Datteln. The first time John mentioned the incident he said it occurred two years ago and on the second mentioning he said it happened in 1966. Source did not mention the discrepancy to John. John stated that he had also veen kicked off two or three kasernes in the South, and that his name was on record. John mentioned being caught and interrogated on a site in Southern FRG. Source was unable to recall the exact identification of the agency John claimed to have been interrogated by, but mentioned that it was something like MA, MD, MI, MAD, MAI. John said he had been released after the interrogation and followed, but that he had managed to lose the people who were following him. John mentioned that he had paced off Haard Kaserne and knew exactly where and how to get on to the kaserne without being detected. Source and John left the Lord Nelson at 0300 hours and went to another bar in Datteln. Source thought the name of the bar was the Kessin (PHONETIC), but was not sure. Upon arriving at the Kessin, John said that he had to pick up his pay check from the owner of the bar and left Source. John and the owner of the bar went into a private office for about five minutes before John returned. The owner of the Kessin also owned the Lord Nelson and Western. Source and John left the Kessin at 430 hours and proceeded by taxi to John's apartment, which was located above the Western. John stated that if Source did not believe everything that he had said, that Source could contact an Air Force Security Sergeant and confirm everything. John gave Source a slip of paper (EXHIBIT____), on which was the name of the Security Sergeant, his job title, station, and telephone numbers. John stated that if Source mentioned or showed the paper to anyone that it would get the Security Sergeant into trouble. John also hinted that bodily harm might result to Source if the paper got into the wrong hands. John gave Source an old US Air Force parka to wear back to the kaserne because it was cold and Source's own jacket was light weight. In the pockets of the parka were four beer coasters, (EXHIBITS____, ____, ____, and ____), and a used streetcar ticket (EXHIBIT____). John arranged another meeting with Source for 1700 hours, 5 February 1972, at the Stadtschaenke Bar, Datteln. John gave a slip of paper (EXHIBIT____) to Source with the information for the next meeting. John asked Source to obtain any information on Julius mentioned by UIM, that he could. John mentioned that he had known Cristobal Pimentel-Davilla and asked Source to obtain some C-Rations for him. Source then left John and returned to his unit. Source did not believe that he had supplied any official information to John, but felt that it was possible that he might have as he was quite drunk before the evening ended. Source described John as follows: Six to six feet one inch tall, weighing 180-190 pounds, slight build, black hair with long sideburns, and wore a red shirt with a navy blue coat and tie, black shoes, long black overcoat and black fur hat.

(~~C~~) On 1 February 1972, Phillip W. May, PFC, 444-48-5481, Custodial Agent, C Team, 66th USA Artillery Detachment, Datteln (LC8424), Federal Republic of Germany (FRG), APO New York 09078, was interviewed at his place of duty concerning an incident of possible Counter-Intelligence interest, and stated substantially as follows:

(U)
(~~C~~) About two or three weeks ago, Source was approached by a man that identified himself as John the Dee Jay in the Stadtschaenke Bar, Datteln. John said that he was the Disc Jockey at the Lord Nelson, another bar in Datteln. With Source at the Stadtschaenke were John Stelpflug, John Lukasik, and Terry Drivis (PHONETIC). John the Dee Jay made a general nuisance of himself. He talked about security at the site and gave verbally a list of telephone numbers he claimed were security information telephone numbers in Heidleberg (MV7773), FRG, and other cities in FRG. Source was unable to recall any of the telephone numbers John the Dee Jay mentioned. John asked Source who the Security Sergeant of the unit was. He also asked about persons who had been formerly assigned to the unit. Source was not familiar with any of the names mentioned as Source has been at the unit only a short time. John talked about how, if he was a spy, he would get information from people. Source felt that John the Dee Jay was trying to make him and the others nervous. John spoke fluent English and German and claimed that he could speak Russian. Source described John as follows:

Height:	Six feet to six feet one inch
Weight:	200-210 pounds
Age:	27-28 years old
Build:	Solid
Dress:	Wore furry coat and shoes, possibly camel hair

Source had not met John the Dee Jay before and had not seen or had contact with him since and gave negative responses to all questions posed by him.

4. REPORT OF FINDINGS

~~(C)~~ (U) On 1 February 1972, Peter D. Herpst, PFC, 475-54-6972, Clerk, C Team, 66th USA Artillery Detachment, Datteln (LC8424), Federal Republic of Germany, APO New York 09078, was interviewed at his place of duty concerning an incident of possible Counter-Intelligence interest, and stated substantially as follows:

~~(C)~~ (U) About two or three weeks ago, just before a scheduled exchange of warheads at C Team, Source was approached in a Datteln bar, the Stadtschaenke, by a man who identified himself as John Dee Jay. John was the Disc Jockey at another bar in Datteln, the Lord Nelson. Source thought that Dee Jay was only a nickname and not John's real name. John asked Source and other Americans in the bar if they knew where some of the former members of the unit are presently stationed. Source could recall only one name John had asked about, Cristobal Pimentel-Davilla. John told Source "If you see Pimentel, tell him I have the package for him." Source knew that John had called the unit that night asking for Pimentel-Davilla. John at one time asked Source to tell him who the Security Sergeant of the unit was, but Source refused to answer the question. Source descriped John as follows: Height: Six feet to six feet one inch tall; Weight: 200-210 pounds; Age: 22-24 years old; Build: Stocky; Hair: Dark; Dress: Wore furry coat and shoes, possibly camel hair. Source had not met John before and has not seen him since and gave negative responses to all questions posed by him.

~~(C)~~ (U) REMARKS: Source felt that the package John mentioned that he had for Pimentel-Davilla was probably drugs, either hashish or marijuana. Source knew that Pimentel-Davilla used both drugs and may have been selling them to other members of the unit.

~~(C)~~ (U) AGENT'S NOTES: Full identification of Pimentel-Davilla was as follows: Pimentel-Davilla, Cristobal, SP6, 582-58-9662, departed C Team on 20 January 1972 on a permanent change of station to Fort Eustis, Virginia.

(U) ~~(C)~~ On 1 February 1972, Stephen R. Wilson, SP4, 167-40-2332, Clerk, C Team, 66th USA Artillery Detachment, Datteln (LC8424), Federal Republic of Germany (FRG), APO New York 09078, was interviewed at his place of duty concerning an incident of possible Counter-Intelligence interest, and stated substantially the following:

(U) ~~(C)~~ About two or three weeks ago, Source was approached by a man who identified himself only as John in the Stadtschaenke Bar, Datteln. John refused to mention his last name, but Source knew that he had been the Disc Jockey at the Western, a bar in Datteln, and was now the Disc Jockey at the Lord Nelson, another bar in Datteln. Source had only a brief conversation with John, but was asked for the name of the Security Sergeant at the unit. John then told Source to tell Pimentel that he was back in town. Source described John as follows:

Height:	Six feet to Six feet one inch tall
Weight:	180-190 pounds
Hair:	Brown
Dress:	Wore furry coat and boots
Distinguishing marks:	None

Source had not met John before although he had seen him at the Lord Nelson, and has not had contact with John since. Source did not answer questions posed by John that pertained to military affairs.

(U) ~~(C)~~ REMARKS: Source felt the reason John was interested in Pimentel probably had something to do with drugs. Pimentel was known to smoke hashish and marijuana. The Dortmund Police, Dortmund (LC9308), FRG, were interested in Pimentel as a drug pusher. Dortmund Police had been to the unit two or three times to talk to Pimentel about drugs and had searched his house and car. Pimentel had his car impounded shortly before he left the unit in regards to refusing to pay the one thousand German Marks deductible on an automobile accident he had. The case was still pending. Pimentel was married and had four children, all residing with him in Datteln, but had German girlfriends in the area. Source could provide no further information about Pimentel.

(U)
(~~C~~) On 4 February 1972, Raymond R. Leal, 1LT, 459-78-6563, Platoon Leader, 164th Military Police Company (MPC), Milsau (NCA), Federal Republic of Germany (FRG), APO New York 09059, and Ronald A. Margulies, SP4, 220-48-5408, Senior MP, 164th MPC, were interviewed separately regarding an incident of possible Counter-Intelligence interest, and both stated substantially as follows:

(U)
(~~C~~) On 3 February 1972, Sources were in the Lord Nelson Bar, Datteln (LC8424), FRG, with other members of their unit, 1LT Wood and an unidentified Non-Commissioned Officer (NCO), when they were approached by the Disc Jockey of the bar, who introduced himself only as John, and asked them if there was a particular song they would like to hear. After playing the record requested, John walked back over to Sources and sat down with them. John began asking them military related questions almost as soon as he sat down. John asked them what unit they were from. He wanted to know where they came from and where they were going. He asked them why they were in Datteln. John stated that he knew who the Security Sergeant at C Team, 66th USA Artillery Detachment, Datteln, APO New York 09078, was. When John did not receive the answers to his Questions he stated that he knew what they were doing in Datteln. John stated that Datteln was a dead town, but that things were hoping in Westkirchen (MC3549), FRG. The site that the convoy had just come from. John then listed every site the convoy had just come from. John identified the sites by unit designation, location, APO number, and telephone number of the orderly room. John was completely accurate in every detail. John stated that he knew what they had brought to Datteln and knew how long they were going to stay. John talked about how easy it was to get information out of people by using indirect questions. John said that about four years ago he had a Lieutenant that was supplying him information about the site at Datteln. John then boasted that he could find out anything he wanted to by giving ten beers to almost any German soldier at the site. John stated that he did not have any bugs so Sources and their friends did not have to worry about what they said. John was very interested in the jeeps in the parking lot near the Lord Nelson. John said that the jeeps had poor radios and that he had a transmitter/receiver about one foot long, three to four inches wide, and about six inches high, with a three foot antenna that could reach Brazil. When asked where such a radio could be purchased, John said that it was a special model and could not be bought anywhere. John mentioned how easy it would be to put a fake bomb into the jeeps and asked Sources if they checked the jeeps before starting them or just got in and started them.

John wanted to know on what frequency the radios operated. John stated that he hated to be a Disc Jockey, that he had more important things to do. John also stated that they had some mighty fine missiles in Soest (MC3813), FRG. John stated that the Russian Army was far superior to anything in Europe. He talked at length about the Russian Army. Sources felt that John was serious about what he was saying and not trying just to make them uneasy. John asked Margulies if he was a CID agent. Margulies replied that he was not. John talked about and named every intelligence agency of the United States. He mentioned MI, OSS, ONI, CIA, CID and the FBI. John said that Israel's intelligence network was far superior to that of any countries' in Europe or that of the United States. John spoke fluent German and English and spoke Spanish and Russian to Sources to prove that he knew how. John said he learned to speak English in the Union of Soviet Socialist Republic (USSR), and said "we have to learn many languages." John kept asking about Ramstein Air Force Base and stated that he had been to the NCO Club at Ramstein. John said he hated the FRG and that he wanted to go back to the German Democratic Republic (GDR). John stated that he goes to the GDR often and that he has been to Moscow (NCA), USSR. John expounded on how much better it was to live in the GDR. John claimed to have a cousin or nephew, Sources could not recall which, who was a Major in the army in the GDR. John talked about brainwashing at length and how information could be gotten from people without the threat of physical violence. John said that the American Prisoners of War in North Viet Nam would never be the same even after they were released. John stated that his hobby was just listening and looking around. Sources said that they had to go because tommorrow was a busy day and they had field exercises at 0900 hours. John quipped in "Don't you mean that you and the convoy are leaving at 0600 hours?", and added that tommorrow whould be a busy day from him also. John mentioned that he had stolen something and had sold it. John described the object in great detail, as to size, dimensions, and color, but never said what it was. Sources could only recall that it was about one and a half feet long with fins on the end. Sources thought from the description that John gave, that he was talking about a mortar projectile or some kind of small rocket. When Sources left the bar at 0430 hours, they waited for John outside the bar, but he did not come out. They then proceeded through the parking lot where their jeeps were parked to their hotel across from the Lord Nelson. At 0515 hours, Margulies looked out of his hotel window and saw John leave the Lord Nelson. John proceeded directly to the jeeps in the parking lot

(~~C~~) On 4 February 1972, Robert M. Creed, Sp4, 514-54-4745, Security Guard, C Team, 66th USA Artillery Detachment, Datteln (LC8424), Federal Republic of Germany (FRG), APO New York 09078, was interviewed at his place of duty regarding an incident of possible Counter-Intelligence interest, and stated substantially as follows:

(~~C~~) At 1200 hours on 3 February 1972, Creed received a telephone call at the unit from John the Dee Jay. John began the conversation by asking Source his last name, saying that he had a difficult time getting a hold of Source knowing only his first name Bob. Source told John his last name and then was asked to spell it. Source spelled his last name while John repeated it slowly as if he were writing it down. John asked Source if he could meet him at the Lord Nelson Bar, Datteln, that evening. Source replied that he could and asked John if he wanted him to return the Air Force parka he had borrowed from him the previous evening. John said that it was not necessary to return the jacket and that Source could hold on to it for a while if he wished. John said "You didn't have a chance to get to the man at the photo shop yet, have you?" Source said that he had not. John said that it did not matter, it could be done later. John asked Source if he could meet him at the Lord Nelson at 2000 hours, to which Source replied that he could. The conversation ended.

Source met John the Dee Jay at 2000 hours, 3 February 1972, in the Lord Nelson, Datteln. John was very interested in the Military Police that were in Datteln, wanting to know why they were in town. John stated that he knew they had come from Westkirchen (MC3549), FRG, and wanted to know where they were going next. John was extremely interested in the Military Policemen. John was interested in the jeeps that the Military Police had with them, two of which were parked in the parking lot near the Lord Nelson. John wanted to know what the numbers written in chalk on the jeeps meant. Were they call numbers or code numbers as to the point of origin of the jeeps. John mentioned that the radios in the jeeps were nothing, that he knew where he could get a radio that could reach Brazil. John mentioned Julius and said something about Julius having some military photographs. John was not clear on this point and Source was unable to determine exactly what John had meant. John said that he was going to have his photograph taken at the Althoff Photo Shop, Datteln, which was across the street from the Western Bar, where John resided. John asked Source to bring him some war and Army books. John said all he wanted were some war stories, nothing about NORAD or SANRAS (Special Ammunitions Recognition and Authentication System). Source was not positive that John had said SANRAS because John had said it quickly, but Source was fairly sure. John offered to pay for all Source's drinks if Source did not have any money. Source returned the borrowed Air Force parka to John who was very suspicious about it and wanted to know where it had been the last couple of days. Source told John that it had been in his room at the unit, but John was still quite nervous about the parka. John stated that he did not tell anyone about what Source had said to him the night before. John did not talk to Source about what his was refering to with the statement. John then left Source to talk to some members of the Military Police that had just entered the Lord Nelson. John talked only to members of the convoy from that time on. Although Source remained in the Lord Nelson for two more hours, John did not approach him again. Source was suppose to meet John again at 1700 hours on 5 February 1972, at the Stadtschaenke Bar, Datteln, but told John that he had duty Saturday and would be unable to meet him. John said he would call the unit Saturday to talk to Source and find out if he still had duty that evening and would be unable to meet him.

4. REPORT OF FINDINGS

(MILITARY SERVICE) On 22 April 1970, James Hutchinson, Sergeant, United States Army, Personnel Interviewer, Personal Action Branch (PAB), Over-Seas Replacement Station (ORS), United States Army Personnel Center (USAPC), Oakland Army Base (OAB), Oakland, California, was interviewed concerning Victor L. TRINKALA. Hutchinson, who interviewed TRINKALA several times prior to HIS discharge, stated substantially the following:

Hutchinson first met TRINKALA on 8 November 1969, when HE requested to be interviewed by the PAB, ORS, because HE was seventeen years old and HE did not want to go to the Republic of Viet Nam (RVN). A copy of the interview request is attached to the original copy of this agent's report as EXHIBIT___. SUBJECT stated that HE had lied about HIS age to get into the Army, had changed HIS mind about the Army, and did not want to go to RVN. Source was of the impression that SUBJECT had heard from someone that if HE were under 18 years old, HE would not have to go to RVN. SUBJECT was told by Source that even though HE was under 18 years old, HE would be sent to RVN after HIS 18th birthday which was just 20 days away. SUBJECT was questioned by Source as to how HE managed to get into the Army when HE was under 18 years old with out parental consent. SUBJECT stated that the US Army Recruiter was knowledgeable of HIS age but assured SUBJECT that he could "fix it up" so that HE could enlist with out parental consent. SUBJECT was told by Source that HE would have to provide conclusive evidence that HE was under 18 years old, otherwise HE would be shipped to RVN. The interview was terminated at this point and SUBJECT was to return on 10 November 1969, pending verification of HIS age.

On 13 November 1969, Source received a message from Sixth Army Headquarter (EXHIBIT___) through the Message Center (MC), USAPC, OAB, requesting that SUBJECT'S orders to RVN be cancelled pending advisement from the Department of the Army and at the request of one R. C. Nagell, former Captain, Special Agent, Counter Intelligence Corps. This message was sent to Sixth Army Headquarters by way of Western Union Telegraph Company (WUTC) from New York, New York, by R. C. Nagell. Source was not too concerned with this request because SUBJECT was already on "hold status" pending verification of HIS age. This was the first time Source had heard of R. C. Nagell.

On 14 November 1969, Source received a message from the MC, USAPC, that was sent by way of WUTC from Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, from SUBJECT'S mother, Mrs. Dorothy Trinkala, 202 Basco Street, Pittsburgh, a copy of which is attached to this agent's report as EXHIBIT___. The message stated that SUBJECT was not of age and HIS mother did not give her consent for HIM to join the Army. SUBJECT was then called in for another interview and HE was asked to have a registered letter sent to USAPC with HIS birth certificate or positive evidence of HIS age. SUBJECT stated that HE would comply with this request and the interview was terminated.

On 18 November 1969, Source recieved a telephone call from LTC Parker, Chief of Military Personnel Division, Sixth Army Headquarters, Presidio of San Francisco, California, (EXHIBIT___) stating that one Nagell, former Captain, Special Agent, with Counter Intelligence, urged that SUBJECT'S orders to RVN be cancelled. Parker did not explain why Nagell wanted the orders to be cancelled. Source was instructed to find out who Nagell was by talking to SUBJECT. SUBJECT was consequently called in for another interview by the former Officer In Charge, CWO Walter Girvin, 456-48-8128, 22d Administration Company (Finance), Americal Division, APO San Francisco 96374. Source was not positive if Girvin ever talked to SUBJECT. Source interviewed SUBJECT and asked HIM who Nagell was. SUBJECT replied that Nagell was a relative and a former Army Captain. SUBJECT was apprehensive when talking about Nagell. LEAD

On 24 or 25 November 1969, Source received a registered letter from SUBJECT'S mother. The letter contained a copy of SUBJECT'S birth certificate and a note in long hand, apparently written by HIS mother, stating that she did not want SUBJECT to go to RVN nor remain in the Army. The birth certificate was a copy of the original and Source did not remember seeing a raised seal of any kind on the certificate. The copy of the birth certificate was apparently considered to be official because SUBJECT was transferred to Transient Company to be discharged. Source was confident that the correspondence from Nagell played no part in SUBJECT getting discharged, although it did confuse the matter and brought it to the attention of the personnel working in PAB, ORS, USAPC.

4. REPORT OF FINDINGS

(MISCELLANEOUS) On 14 April 1970, Harfez Muneer, also known as Tony Muneer, Desk Clerk, Hotel Strand, 206 West 43d Street, New York, New York 10036, residing at Room 301, Hotel Woodstock, 127 West 43d Street, New York, New York 10036, was interviewed at his residence in an attempt to identify Richard Nagell's current address, business connections, physical description and to query Muneer as to why Nagell was allegedly instrumental in getting Victor L. TRINKALA separated from the military service and how Nagell was able to do so. Source stated in substance as follows:

Muneer knew Richard Nagell as a former United States Army Officer, Captain Richard C. Nagell and first met him in 1966, while both, Source and Nagel, were serving sentences at the Federal Prison (FP) at Fort Leavenworth, Kansas. From 1966 to 27 November 1968, when Source was released from the FP, Source saw SUBJECT daily on a friendly basis as a fellow inmate. While at the FP, Nagell told Source that he was a former United States Army Captain, and had been an investigator for the CIA (Central Intelligence Agency) or the CIC (Counterintelligence Corps), further details unknown. According to Nagell, while he was working for the above mentioned agency, Nagell was directly involved with the investigation of the assassination of former President John F. Kennedy, and while on business in a bank in El Paso, Texas, Nagell was arrested by the civilian authorities and charged with some kind of felony involving traveler checks, further details unknown. As a result of this arrest, Nagell was convicted and confined to the FP at Fort Leavenworth, Kansas. On 27 November 1968, Source was released from the FP and since then had seen Nagell on approximately four occasions on a friendly and social basis. Source last saw Nagell at the Hotel Strand sometime in December 1969. Muneer was unable to furnish any information concerning Nagell's present business connections or whereabouts. Sometime in 1969, exact date unrecalled, Nagell gave Source the following mailing address: Mr. Richard C. Nagell, P. O. Box 2337, Grand Central Station, New York, New York 10017. Source did not know if Nagell's mailing address is still valid.

Source furnished the following physical description of Nagell:

Name:	Richard C. Nagell
Nationality:	United States citizen
Age:	Approximately 31 or 32 years old
Race:	Caucasian
Height:	6'1" to 6'2"
Weight:	170 to 189 lbs.
Built:	Medium

Color of Hair:	Brown
Color of Eyes:	Unknown
Physical Defects:	None; however, while at the FP at Fort Leavenworth, Kansas, Nagell was believed to have had a physical defect which was corrected, further details unknown.
Remarks:	Nagell does not wear glasses or a mustache and he is always clean shaven.

Sometime in 1968, while Source was on duty as a Desk Clerk at the Strand Hotel from 1600 to 2400 hours, SUBJECT came to the hotel desk and requested that Source allow HIM to sleep at the hotel that night since SUBJECT was from out of town and did not have any money to rent a room. Source offered his room at the Woodstock Hotel for that night, which SUBJECT accepted. Since then, Source and SUBJECT have been close friends, and Source shared his room with SUBJECT until approximately three weeks ago when SUBJECT left the hotel with some friends, and Source had not seen HIM since.

SUBJECT told Source that HE was originally from Pittsburg, Pennsylvania, where HE lived with HIS mother, Mrs. Trinkala, prior to coming to New York City. Source had never met Mrs. Trinkala, however, Source had talked with her telephonically on several occasions. To Source's knowledge, SUBJECT'S parents have been either separated or divorced for several years, further details unknown. SUBJECT has several other brothers and sisters, names unknown. During July or August 1969, SUBJECT was inducted into the United States Army and was assigned to Fort Gordon, Georgia, for basic military training. SUBJECT always discussed with Source the fact that HE was a very religious individual and HE considered HIMSELF a Conscientious Objector. During one of Source's telephone conversations with SUBJECT'S mother, Mrs. Trinkala told Source that she was making the necessary arrangements with her Senator in Pittsburg, name unknown, to get SUBJECT out of military service. At this time, Source told SUBJECT'S mother that he felt it would be difficult to get SUBJECT out of military service; however, Source felt that he could help her and SUBJECT in obtaining SUBJECT'S transfer to the United States Army Chaplain School, (USACS), Fort Hamilton, Brooklyn, New York. In December 1969, a couple of days after Source's conversation with SUBJECT'S mother, Source met Nagell at the Strand Hotel. Since Source knew Nagell to be a former United States Army Captain, Source told Nagell about SUBJECT and requested advice from Nagell as to what could be done to have SUBJECT transferred to USACS. At this time, SUBJECT was at Oakland Army Terminal with PCS orders for Vietnam. Nagell immediately sent a telegram addressed to the Commanding General, Sixth United States Army, requesting SUBJECT'S transfer to USACS since SUBJECT was a Conscientious Objector. Nagell had never met SUBJECT personally; however, the same night that Nagell sent the telegram to Sixth Army in regard to SUBJECT, Source talked to SUBJECT by telephone and at that time Nagell was introduced to SUBJECT telephonically. Source believed that neither Nagell nor Source was instrumental in getting SUBJECT separated from the service, since it is a fact that SUBJECT'S mother mentioned to Source that she was making the necessary arrangements through her Senator in Pittsburg to get SUBJECT separated from the military service. It is Source's opinion, that either Mrs. Trinkala or her Senator was instrumental in getting SUBJECT out of the military. Source knew of no other efforts or attempts made by either Source or Nagell to get SUBJECT separated from the military service. Source could not offer any further information concerning Nagell and had not seen him since that night that Nagell wrote the telegram in behalf of SUBJECT.

In December 1969, SUBJECT was discharged from the United States Army, reason unknown to Source. SUBJECT returned to New York City and continued to share Source's apartment at the Woodstock Hotel. At that time, Source recalled that he was illegally convicted and confined to the FP for the use, possession and selling of narcotics. Since SUBJECT is a young man and there is a narcotics problem in the New York City area, Source started counselling SUBJECT against the use of narcotics or drugs. Source secured a job for SUBJECT at the Clinton Hotel, 19 West 31st Street, New York, New York, where SUBJECT started working during the day shift. Since SUBJECT was working during the day, Source suggested to SUBJECT that HE register at the evening classes offered at the YMCA so that HE could finish HIS high school education. To Source's knowledge, SUBJECT never completed high school and Source was unable to state whether or not SUBJECT ever registered in the evening classes offered at the YMCA. Approximately three weeks ago, SUBJECT was at Source's room at the Woodstock Hotel with some friends, not further identified. SUBJECT left the Woodstock Hotel with HIS friends and Source had not seen HIM since then. To Source's knowledge, SUBJECT had never been approached or been in contact with anyone representing policies inimical to the best interests of the United States and it is Source's opinion that SUBJECT would report to the proper United States authorities if HE were ever approached by such a person. SUBJECT was considered to be loyal to the United States and to favor and support the Constitution of this country. SUBJECT is willing to defend the United States against all enemies; however, since HE is a Conscientious Objector, SUBJECT would hesitate to kill anyone other than in self-defense.

Harfez Muneer recommended that Victor L. TRINKALA be favorably considered for assignment to a position of trust and responsibility with the United States Army.

AGENT'S NOTES: During the course of this interview, it was noted by the undersigned that Source appeared to be genuinely interested in the well being of SUBJECT and on several occasions Source made it clear that he wanted to help HIM. Source appeared to be truthful and always answered the questions asked in a straightforward manner and without hesitation. It was also noted that the hotel room occupied by Source at the Woodstock Hotel contained only one bed, which gave reason to believe that SUBJECT and Source were sleeping in one bed while sharing the room at the hotel. When Source was queried concerning SUBJECT, Source presented for inspection a copy of SUBJECT'S Sworn Statement completed by HIM on 19 February 1970 and signed by HIM on 20 February 1970.

A. I would not be willing to be called to Active Duty and I do not know if I would go if called.

Q. Are these attitudes due to religious beliefs?

A. Yes, I am Catholic and do not believe in killing.

Q. If you had to kill someone in self-defense what would you do?

A. I would fight back but this is different than being placed in Viet Nam where I would probably have to kill.

A. Yes, I would. Any human being would fight back. VLT

Q. If a foreign power attacked the United States would you have any objection to killing the aggressor? VLT VLT

(MISCELLANEOUS) During my tour of duty, 0800 hours 12 November 1969 through 0800 hours 13 November 1969, as Duty Agent (DA), 108th Military Intelligence Group, Region I, 26 Federal Plaza, New York, New York (MIGP), the following information was received telephonically from an anonymous male caller, who stated substancially as follows:

At 2105 hours the call was received and the unidentified male stated that an active duty US Army Enlistedman, PVT Victor L. TRINKALA, US 527-87-228, DD Form 2-A, card number, D-323-485, issuing officer, LT James Kraft (Phonetic), Field Artillery, left New York City four or five days prior to 12 November 1969 enroute to Oakland Army Terminal, Oakland, California for shipment to the Republic of Vietnam. TRINKALA completed HIS Basic Combat Training at Fort Jackson, Columbia, South Carolina and HIS Advanced Individual Training at Fort Polk, Louisiana. HE was in New York City on HIS authorized travel time to Oakland Terminal. While in New York City, unknowingly, HE was contacted by a "Soviet Agent" Since the "Soviet Agent" contacted TRINKALA and found HIM to be a Conscientious Objector (CO), enroute to Vietnam, he, the "Soviet Agent", plans to use this as a propaganda pitch against the US, reason being that since TRINKALA is a known CO by the Army, the Army is still sending HIM to Vietnam, and will make HIM serve in a combat zone, against HIS will. The caller stated that he was a former US Army Captian, Special Agent in the Counterintelligence Corp and that his former credential-badge number was 10-837. He stated that this badge number could be verified through the records at Fort Holabird, Maryland. He called in order for this office to send a "twix" to Oakland Army Terminal and cancel TRINKALA'S orders or to detain HIM in Oakland. The caller's reason for calling and explaining the situation was to prevent the US embarrassment. The caller stated that he planned to travel to Washington, DC in the near future to inform the "proper" authorities of the incident concerning TRINKALA and the "Soviet Agent". The caller was released from East Germany approximately one year ago but would not discuss this on the telephone because of security reasons, nor would he discuss any other information concerning TRINKALA telephonically. He refused to release his identity because he was a civilian and did not want to get involved with an Army matter.

AGENT'S NOTES: The caller seemed to be very knowledgeable of the Army and knew many Army terms. He was very relaxed and co-operative when he was asked questions but refused to come to this office to discuss the incident on 12 November1969 nor at a future date. He conversed with the undersigned for approximately thirty minutes and kept putting additional coins in the public pay telephone. He had no outstanding speech characteristics and [illegible] well spoken, [illegible]

2. LATIN AMERICAN COMMUNIST PARTIES HAVE BECOME INCREASINGLY DIVIDED BETWEEN VIOLENT AND NON-VIOLENT FACTIONS. THIS CONTROVERSY IS LIKELY TO RESULT IN INDIVIDUAL COMMUNIST PARTIES ADOPTING MORE INDEPENDENT AND FELXIBLE POLICIES. THERE IS A GENERAL TREND AGAINST POLICIES "DICTATED FROM OUTSIDE ."

4. REPORT OF FINDINGS

REGRADED UNCLASSIFIED ON 22 Sep 94 BY CDR USAINSCOM FOI/PO AUTH Para 1-603 DOD 5200.1R

On 23 January 1968, Mr. Cecil L. Griggs, retired dairyman, residing at 2615 North 30th Street, Boise, Idaho, was interviewed at his home concerning letters received in reference to his adopted son, Kenneth C. GRIGGS, and stated substantially as follows:

Source stated that he had received two letters concerning SUBJECT from a Philip LaChapelle Jr, 1724 North Linder, Chicago, Illinois, who claimed to have been the Security and Intelligence clerk with the 191st Ordinance Battalion, Vietnam, but was presently out of the US Army. LaChapelle, in his first letter dated 8 November 1967, indicated to Source that being SUBJECT's closest friend in Vietnam, he felt that he should write to Source giving some history and facts concerning the period prior to SUBJECT's defection. LaChapelle indicated sympathy and concern over SUBJECT's defection. LaChapelle stated that he believed the Army had suppressed information to cover up mistakes. LaChapelle told Source about SUBJECT being beaten and shunned by HIS companions during HIS assignment with the 191st Ordinance Battalion and that he was SUBJECT's only friend. LaChapelle stated that he had also written to SUBJECT, but had received no answer. Copy of letter written by LaChapelle dated 8 November 1967 is attached as EXHIBIT I. On 16 November 1967, Source answered the letter of 8 November 1967 thanking LaChapelle for the communication. Source indicated that he had very little knowledge of SUBJECT's philosophy or plans and requested further information from LaChapelle since he was apparently more knowledgeable concerning these aspects. Source asked four specific questions of LaChapelle. First asking about SUBJECT's view of the world, as known by LaChapelle. Secondly asking LaChapelle's view on why SUBJECT felt that HIS conscience dictated decision was a solution to any problems that HE envisioned. Thirdly was SUBJECT encouraged by a third party to defect and the last question was whether SUBJECT's defection was motivated by resentment about HIS treatment by other Army personnel. Source indicated that LaChapelle's tone in his letter indicated a certain feeling of bitterness about the way the incident was handled by the US Army. Source requested a reply because the information would be of interest to Source. Copy of letter by Source dated 16 November 1967 is attached as EXHIBIT II. LaChapelle again wrote to Source on 20 November 1967, indicating interest in the letter written by Source on 16 November 1967. LaChapelle stated that he was bitter because the Army took no remedial action concerning the mental state of SUBJECT, and indicated to Source that SUBJECT had a medical history of emotional disturbance. LaChapelle stated that he had been the Security and Intelligence Clerk, 191st Ordinance Battalion, Vietnam, and SUBJECT's personnel records had passed over his desk after the defection. LaChapelle indicated that the records had been classified to conceal any embarrassing incidents. LaChapelle commented on the National Security in reference to the classification of SUBJECT's records. LaChapelle indicated that SUBJECT's view of the world was that HE was simply bitter and thought it was going in the wrong direction. LaChapelle stated that SUBJECT favored an absolute state of control as long as HE was one of the ruling class. LaChapelle stated that SUBJECT's defection was the truest decision HE could make thus making the only solution HIS conscience dictated. LaChapelle stated that SUBJECT was not encouraged by a third party to defect except maybe the world around HIM. LaChapelle stated that only three people other than himself who were in any way friendly were Chaplain Camp, presently in Germany, Hal Nelson, and John Klink. They would not encourage a defection. SUBJECT would not let HIMSELF be influenced by others. LaChapelle went on saying that SUBJECT's defection was motivated by HIS resentment of HIS treatment by other personnel, indicating that HE had been beaten and required stitches in HIS head on one occasion and that HE was considered different by HIS section leaders. SUBJECT had mentioned defection to LaChapelle, but LaChapelle had talked HIM out of it. At that point in their relationship, the friendship between LaChapelle and SUBJECT seemed to decline. LaChapelle blames the Army and society for forcing SUBJECT to defect. LaChapelle requested any information or photographs of SUBJECT because LaChapelle intends to be a writer and wants to write about SUBJECT and HIS problems. A copy of letter dated 20 November 1967, written by LaChapelle is attached as EXHIBIT III. On 24 November 1967, Source answered the letter of 20 November 1967, stating that at first he was apprehensive and wondered how much LaChapelle was involved with SUBJECT. Source commented that he could offer very little concerning SUBJECT for LaChapelle to use in his writing. Source stated that SUBJECT's mental problems started before HIS entry into the US Army and that LaChapelle should take a more kindly view of the people who comprise society. Source gave LaChapelle a short history of SUBJECT from the time HE came to the United States in 1956 to the time HE was placed in the Childrens Home, Boise. During this period, SUBJECT would not stay with any one thing for very long, such as scouts, sports, and physical activities. HE became angry very easily. SUBJECT was intelligent in school. From the time HE was placed in the Childrens Home until HE entered the US Army, SUBJECT had a history of running away and was never satisfied being in the same place for very long. SUBJECT finished high school and entered the military service. Source stated his desire to again hear from LaChapelle. A copy of letter dated 24 November 1967, written by Source is attached as EXHIBIT IV.

Source stated that he had not received any other correspondence concerning SUBJECT. Neither Source nor his family have heard from SUBJECT or any official of the Cuban Embassy in Japan. Source further stated that he had no information concerning SUBJECT's present whereabouts or HIS future plans. Source stated that he would advise this office in the event he received other letters or information pertaining to SUBJECT.

AGENT'S NOTES: Source was very cooperative. He had original letters written by LaChapelle and carbon copies of his replies, which Source allowed this office to copy

4. REPORT OF FINDINGS

SOURCE HAD NO OBJECTION TO HIS IDENTITY BEING RELEASED TO SUBJECT

On 16 September 1982, Henry D. Glaister, Captain, 547-76-1040, United States Army, was interviewed in his home at 812 Maplewood Drive, Columbia, Missouri 65201, concerning Joseph T. WHITE, PFC, 492-60-2196. Source, SUBJECT'S former Military Science instructor from August 1980 to May 1981, at Kemper Military School and College (KMSC), Boonville, Missouri 65233, stated in substance as follows:

Source first met SUBJECT in August 1980, when SUBJECT enrolled at KMSC. From August 1980 to May 1981, Source had contact with SUBJECT three times weekly for a one hour class, and twice monthly for weekend leadership classes. Also during this period, Source counseled SUBJECT on three occasions concerning SUBJECT'S academic performance. From June 1981 to July 1981, Source, acting as the Reserve Officer Training Corps (ROTC) Advance Summer Camp (ASC) Liaison Officer for KMSC at Fort Riley, Kansas, had contact with SUBJECT on three separate occasions about SUBJECT'S performance in ASC. Source last met SUBJECT in September 1981, when SUBJECT enrolled for 1981/82 school year at KMSC. Source has had no contact with SUBJECT since September 1981 when HE departed KMSC.

SUBJECT was born in St Louis, Missouri, where HIS family still maintains their residence. SUBJECT'S father worked for an automobile company in Saint Louis, Missouri, (NFI). Source could provide no further information regarding SUBJECT'S family background, past employments, prior residences or education. SUBJECT had no close associates.

SUBJECT was a member of Source's Military Science class from August 1980 to May 1981. SUBJECT was a good student and did well on the course tests. Source had no disciplinary problems with SUBJECT but Source counseled SUBJECT on three occasions to improve HIS leadership skills. During a counseling session in approximately November 1980, SUBJECT told Source that HE was having financial difficulty in meeting HIS school expenses. SUBJECT further stated that HE was concerned with the financial assistance being provided by HIS parents as being a financial burden to the family. In approximately January 1981, Source assisted SUBJECT in entering the Simultaneous Membership Program (SMP) to assist HIM financially. In the SMP, SUBJECT was required to train with the Missouri National Guard (MNG), Marshall, Missouri, once a month and received $88 for HIS duty time. From June 1981 to July 1981, SUBJECT attended ROTC ASC at Fort Riley, Kansas. In July 1981, while Source was assigned as an Individual Tactical Training (ITT) instructor at Fort Riley, Kansas, he received performance evaluations from SUBJECT'S peers and cadre personnel describing SUBJECT as immature and unable to interact with HIS peers. As a result of these reports, SUBJECT was required to appear before an administrative review board. The review board was to decide if SUBJECT was to be given credit for completing ASC. Source, acting as defense representative for SUBJECT, submitted testimony to the board that SUBJECT should be granted credit for ASC. Source could not recall any specific statements other than saying SUBJECT was immature but should be given the benefit of the doubt and be granted credit for completing ASC. The board ruled that SUBJECT would be given credit for ASC. Upon completion of ASC, SUBJECT was to report for Annual Training (AT) with C Battery, 128th Field Artillery Battalion, MNG, Marshall, Missouri. When SUBJECT returned to KMSC approximately 15 September 1981, HE told Source that HE had failed to attend HIS AT, (NFI). SUBJECT further stated HE had attended airborne training at Fort Benning, Georgia, from August 1981 to September 1981, (NFI). In September 1981, SUBJECT'S financial trouble led to HIS disenrollment from KMSC, which subsequently led to SUBJECT being disenrolled from the ROTC program, (NFI).

In approximately February 1981, Source was informed by Thomas McCarthy, Professor, KMSC, that SUBJECT and McCarthy debated the benefits of National Socialism (Nazism) during McCarthy's American Government class. SUBJECT'S support for Nazism enraged the other students and further widened the gap with SUBJECT'S peers, (NFI). Source believed SUBJECT to be loyal to the United States, but, because of HIS beliefs on Nazism and Communism, HE was branded "Anti-US" by HIS peers. Source, personally could not recall any occasions in which SUBJECT specifically denounced the United States Government. In approximately May 1981, Booker T. Washington, SUBJECT'S former Cadet Commanding Officer, A Company, KMSC, told Source that he was having trouble with SUBJECT. Washington related that because of SUBJECT'S beliefs in Nazism, and HIS "superior" attitude over HIS peers, HE was alienating HIS peers against HIM. Washington related further that SUBJECT had gone AWOL overnight in approximately April 1981 to attend a debate between the Grand Wizard of the Ku Klux Klan (KKK) and a representative of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP). The debate was held in Columbia, Missouri. Washington also advised Source that SUBJECT had National Socialist reading material in HIS barracks room, (NFI). Source did not know Washington's present address, only that Washington may be in the Berkley or Oakland, California area, (NFI).

Source believed SUBJECT was mentally stable, but emotionally immature.

ACTION ADDRESSEE: NITE ACTION REQUIRED
INFO ADDRESSEES: DELIVER DURING FIRST DUTY HOUR
QQQQ
SUBJECT: WHITE, JOSEPH TIMOTHY, PFC, 492-60-2196, DPOB: 5 NOV 61, ST LOUIS, MO (U)
A. MSG, IAGPA-OP-I, 091240Z SEP 82, SAB.

1. (U) SOURCE HAD NO OBJECTION TO THE RELEASE OF HIS IDENTITY TO SUBJECT.

2. (U) ON 10 SEP 82, JOSEPH C. MERLINO, 027-54-4638, 2LT, USAR, DPOB: 26 APR 62, BOSTON, MA, COMPANY A, 2D BATTALION, 104TH INFANTRY MASSACHUSETTS ARMY NATIONAL GUARD, WAS INTERVIEWED AT THE UNIVERSITY OF MASSACHUSETTS CAMPUS, AMHERST, MA, CONCERNING SUBJECT. SOURCE PROVIDED SUBSTANTIALLY THE FOLLOWING INFORMATION: (MSG PARA 3 THRU 12

3. (U) MERLINO FIRST MET WHITE ON 28 AUG 80, WHEN BOTH ARRIVED AT KEMPER MILITARY SCHOOL & COLLEGE (KMSC), BOONVILLE, MISSOURI, AS FRESHMEN (PLEBES), ASSIGNED TO DIFFERENT COMPANIES. MERLINO'S LAST CONTACT WITH WHITE WAS ON ABOUT 26 SEP 81, TWO DAYS BEFORE WHITE DROPPED OUT OF KMSC. THROUGHOUT ACADEMIC YEAR 80-81 AND DURING SEP 81, MERLINO SAW WHITE DAILY, USUALLY AT FORMATIONS, OCCASIONALLY IN CLASS, BUT MADE PERSONAL CONTACT ONLY ON ABOUT FIFTEEN OCCASIONS. THEY ALSO MET BRIEFLY AT THE AIRBORNE SCHOOL, FT BENNING, GEORGIA, IN JULY 1981. THEY WERE WELL ACQUAINTED, BUT WERE NOT CLOSE PERSONAL FRIENDS.

4. (C) MERLINO DID NOT KNOW OF WHITE'S FAMILY BACKGROUND OR FINANCIAL SITUATION, ALTHOUGH WHITE DID NOT APPEAR TO HAVE ANY FINANCIAL PROBLEMS. NOR DID MERLINO KNOW IF WHITE USED NARCOTICS OR ABUSED ALCOHOL. WHITE WAS PHYSICALLY HEALTHY AND FIT, BUT NOT ATHLETIC. HE DID NOT APPEAR TO HAVE ANY DEVIANT SEXUAL TENDENCIES OR HANG-UPS, TO INCLUDE HOMOSEXUALITY. WHITE WAS REPUTED TO BE A MORALLY STRAIGHT INDIVIDUAL WHO VALUED HIS OWN HONESTY AND INTEGRITY. HE WAS EXCEPTIONALLY BRIGHT, AND CONSISTENTLY EARNED HIGH GRADES IN ACADEMIC SUBJECTS AND MILITARY SCIENCE.

5. (C) WHITE WAS ALSO A VERY SERIOUS, EXTREMELY INTENSE, AND HIGHLY IDEALISTIC PERSON. HE WAS USUALLY MILD-MANNERED, BUT WOULD GET QUITE AGITATED DURING SERIOUS DISCUSSIONS. IN PAPERS HE WROTE AND DURING DISCUSSIONS IN HISTORY CLASS, HE EARNESTLY DEFENDED THE MARXIST PHILOSOPHY OF EQUALITY. IN OTHER DISCUSSIONS HE REVEALED AN ADMIRATION FOR HOW ADOLF HITLER HARNESSED THE ENERGIES AND NATIONALISM OF THE GERMAN PEOPLE. HOWEVER, WHITE DID NOT APPEAR TO BE PRO-NAZI OR ANTI-SEMITIC. IN FACT, HE SEEMED TO BE SYMPATHETIC TO MINORITY GROUPS IN THE U.S., AND THEIR BID FOR EQUALITY.

6. (C) WHITE NEVER SHOWED ANY DISLOYALTY TO THE U.S., ALTHOUGH DURING CONVERSATIONS HE WOULD CONSTRUCTIVELY CRITICIZE AND CRITIQUE BOTH AMERICAN SOCIETY AND THE SOVIET GOVERNMENT. HE TALKED SERIOUSLY AS THOUGH HE HAD HIS OWN PROGRAMS FOR IMPROVING THE LOT OF OTHER PEOPLE. WHITE NORMALLY RESPECTED SUPERIORS AND THEIR AUTHORITY, AS LONG AS THEY MADE SENSE TO HIM. BUT, HE WOULD BALK AT OBEYING SOMEONE FOR WHOM HE HAD LOST RESPECT. THIS TENDENCY LED TO AN INCIDENT AT ROTC ADVANCED CAMP AT FORT RILEY, KANSAS, IN THE SUMMER OF 81, WHEN WHITE REFUSED TO OBEY A CADET'S ORDER (NO FURTHER INFORMATION), AND WAS ALMOST BOARDED OUT OF THE CAMP.

7. (C) WHITE'S SERIOUSNESS, INTELLIGENCE, AND INTENSITY SEEMED THREATENING TO SOME CADETS AT KMSC. HE TENDED TO REMAIN ALOOF FROM HIS PEERS. ON TOP OF THIS, HIS POOR SKIN COMPLEXION, NERVOUS MANNERISMS, AND ERRATIC DRESS (ONE DAY - NEAT, THE NEXT DAY - SHABBY) MADE WHITE THE BUTT OF DERISION AND PRANKS AT KMSC. HE WAS OSTRACIZED AND UNIVERSALLY DISLIKED. HIS PEER RATING AT ROTC ADVANCED CAMP WAS REPORTED TO BE LOW.

8. (C) WHITE TRIED HARD TO SUCCEED IN EVERYTHING HE DID. HOWEVER, HIS SELF-ESTEEM WAS CONSTANTLY BATTERED BY THE ATTITUDES OF HIS PEERS AND A STRING OF DISAPPOINTMENTS. DURING HIS FIRST YEAR AT KMSC HE GOT INTO SEVERAL FIGHTS WITH OTHER CADETS. ALSO, HIS GIRLFRIEND (NFI) BROKE-OFF THEIR RELATIONSHIP, ALLEGEDLY UNDER PRESSURE FROM HER PARENTS. (WHITE PAPERED A MYRIAD OF PICTURES OF HER ON HIS DORMITORY WALL.) WHITE DATED SELDOM, IF AT ALL. ONE OF HIS INSTRUCTORS, A CAPTAIN DAVID, REPORTEDLY GAVE WHITE A ZERO FOR TURNING IN A PAPER LATE, BUT DID NOT PENALIZE OTHERS WHO HAD DONE SO, AS SEVERELY. CPT DAVID WAS THE TYPE OF PERSON WHO EITHER LIKED OR HATED OTHERS, AND IT SEEMED THAT HE DISLIKED WHITE INTENSELY FOR UNKNOWN REASONS.

FINAL SECTION OF 02

9. (C) AFTER WHITE'S NEAR FAILURE AT ROTC ADVANCED CAMP, HE WAS RECYCLED AT AIRBORNE SCHOOL FOR FAILING THE PT TEST. HOWEVER, HE RECOVERED AND COMPLETED THE COURSE. WHEN HE RETURNED TO KMSC IN SEP 81, HE WAS DEEPLY UPSET UPON LEARNING THAT HE WAS ONLY A CADET SERGEANT FIRST CLASS AND NOT AN OFFICER. WHITE WAS IN SOURCE'S COMPANY (SOURCE WAS A CADET MAJOR). ON ONE OCCASION, DURING LEADERSHIP LAB, SOURCE CORRECTED WHITE WHO WAS IMPROPERLY EXECUTING THE HIGH AND LOW CRAWLS. WHITE REACTED INDIGNANTLY AT FIRST, BUT AFTER SOURCE EXPLAINED WHAT HE DID WRONG, WHITE ADJUSTED AND CONTINUED TO PERFORM. ALSO IN SEP 81, ANOTHER CADET (NFI) TOOK ONE OF WHITE'S BOOKS FROM HIS ROOM . VIOLENTLY ANGRY, WHITE DRAPED TOILET PAPER ON THE CADET'S DORMITORY DOOR AND SET IT ON FIRE. SOURCE CAUGHT WHITE IN THE ACT OF SETTING THE BLAZE AND LAUGHING ABOUT IT. MERLINO VERBALLY CENSURED WHITE AND THREATENED TO GET HIM DISMISSED FROM KMSC. SHORTLY THEREAFTER, WHITE ADVISED THAT HE WANTED TO LEAVE SCHOOL. HE WAS COUNSELED BY COLONEL JOHNNY PARKER, SCHOOL COMMANDANT. PARKER ASKED SOURCE FOR HIS RECOMMENDATION. SOURCE SYMPATHIZED WITH WHITE BUT COULD NOT RECOMMEND HIM FOR A COMMISSION IN THE US ARMY BECAUSE OF HIS APPARENT IMMATURITY.

10. (C) AROUND 26 SEP 81, BEFORE WHITE LEFT KMSC, HE TOLD SOURCE HE WAS LEAVING THE SCHOOL. WHITE SAID HE DID NOT WANT TO BE AN OFFICER, BECAUSE HE WAS "FED UP WITH THE BULLSHIT AND THE ASS-KISSING". HE ADDED THAT HE WAS GOING TO ENLIST IN THE ARMY AND BECOME "THE BEST DAMN NCO HE COULD BE". BY HIS COMMENTS AND HIS TONE OF VOICE DURING THIS AND OTHER CONVERSATIONS, WHITE INDICATED THAT HE WASN'T GETTING WHAT HE DESERVED FROM SOCIETY. SOURCE WISHED HIM LUCK AND NEVER SAW OR HEARD FROM HIM AGAIN.

11. (C) SOURCE WAS NOT TOTALLY SURPRISED WHEN HE READ OF WHITE'S DEFECTION TO NORTH KOREA. IT SEEMED TO FIT IN WITH HIS PERSONALITY. SOURCE GUESSED THAT WHITE'S ACTION RESULTED FROM THE CULMINATION OF HIS DISAPPOINTMENTS. WHITE PROBABLY BECAME DISILLUSIONED WITH THE ARMY OR HIS UNIT AND HAD PROBABLY ENTERTAINED THOUGHTS ABOUT DEFECTING FOR SOME TIME. HOWEVER, IT WAS MOST LIKELY ONE PARTICULAR INCIDENT THAT PROMPTED HIM TO TAKE ACTION. WHERE ONCE WHITE WAS A FAILURE IN U.S. SOCIETY, HE GAINED NOTORIETY AND AN INTERNATIONAL AUDIENCE THROUGH HIS DEFECTION. SOURCE BELIVED THAT THE TEXT OF THE REMARKS ATTRIBUTED TO WHITE BY THE GOVERNMENT OF NORTH KOREA SOUNDED LIKE WHITE'S WORDS AND MANNER OF SPEECH, AND COULD VERY WELL HAVE BEEN AUTHORED BY WHITE. AT LEAST THEY PARALLELED WHITE'S IDEALISTIC BUT NAIVE SOCIO-POLITICAL VIEWS.

12. (U) OTHER SOURCES FROM KMSC WHO KNEW WHITE BETTER OR WHO COULD CONTRIBUTE ADDITIONAL INFORMATION INCLUDED: COL JOHNNY PARKER, (TEL: 816-882-5623), RICHARD J. HATCH, 2LT USAR, A NATIVE OF PENNSYLVANIA, WHO KNEW WHITE BETTER THAN ANYONE, CAPTAIN MICHAEL R. BASISTA, SGM JAMES MCKANE, AND MSG STEPHEN G. HINK.

13. (U) POC FOR THIS REPORT IS S/A ALFRED M. MEMOLE, FORT DEVENS RESIDENT OFFICE, AV 256-2001, (ON LEAVE 13 THRU 17 SEP 82).

14. (U) DELAY IN REPORTING AROSE FROM DIFFICULTIES IN IDENTIFYING AND LOCATING SOURCE.

1. ENROUTE TO YOUR LOCATION IS A VIDEO TAPE COPY OF THE TELEVISED NORTH KOREAN PRESS CONFERENCE PFC WHITE HELD IN PYONGYANG.

2. THE TAPE IS BEING HANDCARRIED BY LTC ROBERT TURPIN, 074-26-2297, USA. LTC TURPIN IS SCHEDULED TO ARRIVE WASHINGTON NATIONAL AIRPORT AT 2155 LOCAL, 8 SEPTEMBER, ON TWA FLIGHT 240.

3. REQUEST AN OFFICER FROM YOUR OFFICE MEET HIM UPON HIS ARRIVAL. HE IS DRESSED IN SHORT SLEEVE CLASS A UNIFORM.

4. LTC TURPIN HAS RESERVATIONS AT THE HOLIDAY INN, NEXT TO MILPERCEN HQ IN ALEXANDRIA, SHOULD HE BE MISSED AT THE AIRPORT.

5. TAPE MUST BE CONSIDERED CLOSE HOLD NOW, BUT, DO NOT OBJECT TO PERMITTING PARENTS TO VIEW IT UNDER DA CONTROL WITHOUT PRESS INVOLVEMENT. NEWS MEDIA MAY HAVE TAPED INTERVIEW AND SEEMS BEST TO GIVE PARENTS AN OPPORTUNITY TO VIEW FROM OUR SOURCE FIRST RATHER THAN THEM SEEING IT ON EVENINGS NEWS. PARENTS SHOULD BE REQUESTED TO NOT DISCUSS THE TAPE OR ITS CONTENTS WITH NEWS MEDIA, AS SUCH ACTION MIGHT JEOPARDIZE OUR 13 SEPTEMBER EFFORTS TO TRY AND ARRANGE A FACE TO FACE INTERVIEW WITH WHITE.

6. USE OF THE TAPE IN CONNECTION WITH NEWS MEDIA MUST BE CAREFULLY CONSIDERED. WE BELIEVE THAT UNDER NO CIRCUMSTANCES SHOULD DA ALLOW THE PRESS TO VIEW THE TAPE WITHOUT EXPRESS CONSENT OF THE PARENTS. TO DO OTHERWISE VIOLATES COMMON COURTESY. MOREOVER, THE TAPE WAS NOT PRODUCED BY DOD FOR RELEASE BUT HAS SIMPLY FALLEN INTO OUR POSSESION AND THUS PRESS HAS NO UP FRONT RIGHT TO IT. THE INTERVIEW WILL NOT

BE SHOWN ON SOUTH KOREAN TV AND IT IS IN THE BEST INTEREST OF THE US NOT TO AID NORTH KOREA IN SPREADING THEIR COMMUNIST PROPAGANDA. OFFERING TO PROVIDE A SCREENING OR COPIES OF THE TAPE WILL PROVIDE THE NORTH KOREANS WITH A MUCH LARGER AUDIENCE THAN THEY MAY OTHERWISE ACHIEVE. COMMON SENSE DICTATES THAT WHATEVER WE CAN DO TO DOWNPLAY THE INCIDENT AND LIMIT THE PUBLICITY WILL FRUSTRATE COMMUNISTS EFFORTS TO SPREAD THEIR MESSAGE. IF FEELING AT DA IS THAT TAPE SHOULD BE TURNED OVER TO PRESS, URGE TJAG AND/OR GENERAL COUNCIL BECOME INVOLVED TO RULE ON THE NECESSITY TO DO SO.

7. PLEASE RESPOND WHEN THE TAPE IS IN YOUR POSSESSION.

THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION

SOURCE Naturalized US citizen of Haitian birth. Source maintains close contacts with Haitians in the US and with prominent business and political figures in Haiti and travels at irregular intervals to the Caribbean countries.

1. Clemard Joseph-Charles was released from prison during the evening of 25 Apr 68 in return for a "ransom" of US $605 thousand.

2. Charles has been given until 24 May 68 to produce the US $605 thousand. This sum must be in an irrevocable letter of credit on an American bank in favor of the National Bank of the Republic of Haiti. It has been intimated that the 24 May 68 deadline can be extended, should Charles be experiencing any really unusual difficulties in producing the required money.

3. In order to obtain his release from prison, Charles had to sign a memorandum of understanding that he would produce the US $605 thousand plus some unidentified real property. These terms were agreed to by both Charles and his wife prior to the release. At the same time, Charles wrote a personal letter to President Duvalier asking for release and promising to hand over the money and property in question.

4. Charles is now under house arrest in Port-au-Prince, Haiti.

5. Charles's immediate resources consist of about US $100 thousand in cash in two US banks (no additional data available), various homes, businesses (essential oils, an automobile dealership and others (no additional data available)), buildings, land and about US $400 thousand worth of Haitian government bonds. He did have another US $300 thousand in personal funds in Haiti. He can no longer count on this money to help raise the US $605 thousand, however, because prior to his release from prison the Haitian authorities (no additional data available) confiscated it.

6. Charles has agreed to raise the US $605 thousand on condition that it be used to pay off legitimate claims of depositors in his Banque Commerciale d'Haiti. He has stated that he will permit the money to be paid out only to those depositors who are able to produce documentary proof that they had deposited funds in his bank.

The dissemination of this document is limited to civilian employees and active duty military personnel within the intelligence components of the USIB member agencies, and to those senior officials of the member agencies who must act upon the information. However, unless specifically controlled in accordance with paragraph 8 of DCID 1/7, it may be released to those components of the departments and agencies of the U. S. Government directly participating in the production of National Intelligence. IT SHALL NOT BE DISSEMINATED TO CONTRACTORS. It shall not be disseminated to organizations or personnel, including consultants, under a contractual relationship to the U. S. Government without the written permission of the originator.

7. Charles and several associates now propose to reorganize the Banque Commerciale d'Haiti, formerly his private preserve, into a corporate entity and to incorporate it in the US. The associates plan to raise US $500 thousand for this new corporation. This sum will be separate from the US $305 thousand and will serve to put the new banking corporation into business. Secretarial help and at least some of the six directors of the corporation will be US citizens. Two of the directors will be Charles himself and Louis [illegible].

8. President Duvalier is reportedly most interested in the new venture and is anxious to see it succeed. He has finally realized that the economic situation in Haiti has deteriorated so badly during the past 18 months that he must do something before total bankruptcy occurs. Accordingly, President Duvalier wants to improve his "image" in the eyes of the outside world, particularly in the US, and by doing so hopes to attract investments and business activities from outside Haiti. He apparently hopes that the new, incorporated, Banque Commerciale d'Haiti, will help attract such activity to Haiti and is therefore permitting Charles to proceed.

9. /Collector's Note: 00-B-321/12106-68 described a possible reorganization in the Haitian government. This reorganization, sponsored by Duvalier, would place Duvalier on the elevated plane of spiritual advisor and father of the people and would, on the surface, at least, turn over to a president the day-to-day management of Haitian government affairs. Various names have been mentioned for the position of president under the possible new system./ The name of Luc-Albert Foucard has recently been mentioned frequently in Haiti as the possible new president under the rumored reorganization of the government. Foucard is a son-in-law of Duvalier and lives in Haiti. He is in charge of tourism. Some say that Duvalier listens to Foucard and is, to a degree, influenced by him. I doubt this very strongly.

Subject: Examination of Principal Sources of Policy and Contingency Planning on Cuba

In accordance with your instructions, over the week-end I have reviewed the main sources of policy on Cuba. The problem as I define it as follows:

The Problem:

Prior to the establishment of the Interdepartmental Coordinating Committee of Cuban Affairs, much work had been done on Cuba, both in the policy and contingency fields. The purpose of the current exercise is to review and identify the main sources of such policy and contingency planning in an effort to determine if any of the work previously done will be of value to the officers of your committee as we go forward with implementation of the newly stated Cuban policy and objectives.

Sources of Policy and Contingency Planning:

The principal sources of policy and contingency planning which may or may not be of value to the work of your committee are as follows:

1. The National Security Action Memoranda emanating from the White House.
2. The Actions of the National Security Council.
3. The Basic National Security Policy of the U.S. (now awaiting final stages of formal clearance before presentation to National Security Council).

4. The Records

4. The Records of Action of the Executive Committee of the National Security Council as they pertain to Cuba.

5. The Reports of the Sub-Committees of EXCOM - during the Cuban Crisis.

6. The Resolutions of the Organization of American States and the Punta del Este Conference.

7. Public Statements of Government Officials, in Particular Press Conference of President Kennedy of September 13, 1962.

8. Meeting of Secretary Rusk with Foreign Ministers of Latin America during Cuban Crisis.

9. Recently Approved New Policy Statement and Objectives as Drawn Up by the Interdepartmental Committee of Cuban Affairs.

10. Cuban Guidelines Paper.
    (A guidelines paper as such does not exist on Cuba as is the case in a majority of other countries.)

CONCLUSIONS:

There are well over eight volumes of material concerned with Cuba, particularly that generated during the recent October crisis. This review is nearing completion, and I am segregating particular reports which may be of value to the members of your committee as we go forward with implementation of the new policy and objectives. In the attached documentation, I have segregated those National Security Council decisions and National Security Action Memoranda which are carried as pending or closed in the files of the Department of State. Where action on a particular NSC decision or NASAM has been transferred to EXCOM, action responsibility on these decisions would appear now to be within the purview of your Coordinating Committee. From my review to date, it appears that all of these decisions call for actions which have already been considered by your Committee. You will note that in some instances action responsibility on an NSC decision or NASAM has been transferred to the Special Group (Mr. Alexis Johnson).

MEMORANDUM FOR THE NATIONAL SECURITY COUNCIL'S EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

(Prepared for the Meeting of Friday, January 25, 1963, 4 p.m.)

FROM : Coordinator of Cuban Affairs

SUBJECT: United States Policy Toward Cuba

United States Policy

On November 20, the President set forth the broad guidelines of United States policy with respect to Cuba in the following words:

> "As for our part, if all offensive weapons systems are removed from Cuba and kept out of the hemisphere in the future, under adequate verification and safeguards, and if Cuba is not used for the export of aggressive communist purposes, there will be peace in the Caribbean. And, as I said in September, 'we shall neither initiate nor permit aggression in this hemisphere.'
>
> "We will not, of course, abandon the political, economic and other efforts of this hemisphere to halt subversion from Cuba, nor our purpose and hope that the Cuban people shall some day be truly free. But these policies are very different from any intent to launch a military invasion of the island."

[redacted] SECRET

Objectives

Accordingly, the objectives of United States policy with respect to Cuba are:

1. Protecting the security of the United States and the other states of the Organization of American States (OAS) by assuring that offensive weapons are not reintroduced into Cuba;
2. Removal of remaining Soviet forces from Cuba;
3. Preventing Cuba from taking any aggressive military action against other Caribbean states;
4. Reducing the capabilities of the Castro regime to direct and support subversion and insurrection within the other Hemisphere states;
5. Encouraging and supporting any developments within Cuba that offer the possibility of divorcing the Cuban Government from its support of Sino-Soviet Communist purposes;
6. Encouraging and supporting any developments within Cuba that offer the possibility of replacing the Cuban Government with a regime that would break with the Sino-Soviet Bloc, it being understood that our ultimate objective is replacement of the regime by one fully compatible with the goals of the United States;

7. Maximizing the cost to the Soviet Union of supporting the Castro regime;

8. Maximizing the political isolation of the Castro regime from other free world states, and especially from states of the OAS. Whenever possible, U. S. actions against Cuba should be multilateral, preferably based upon the Treaty of Reciprocal Assistance (Rio Pact) or on resolutions adopted by the Organization of American States. The newly-won hemispheric solidarity on the Cuban issue should not be jeopardized by seeking OAS actions of marginal value and which might split the hemisphere;

9. Being prepared to meet, with the employment of appropriate U. S. combat elements and/or logistical support, the wide variety of military contingencies that may arise from pursuit of the foregoing objectives; and

10. Producing comprehensive intelligence related to the above objectives.

Supporting Actions

A. To achieve the foregoing objectives, the U. S. Government will be prepared to increase the political economic, psychological and military pressures, as appropriate opportunities present themselves or can be created. The actions listed below are those requiring immediate approval and would be initiated in the sequence set forth below. Recommendations for further actions based upon the re-examination of existing programs and upon the development of new programs related to the foregoing objectives will be forthcoming.

1. In addition to current covert program, such as intelligence collection, recruitment of Cuban officials as agents, radio broadcasts, support of the Cuban Revolutionary Council(CRC) and other exile group activities and infiltration of propaganda materials:

    a. Intensify covert collection of intelligence within Cuba, especially within the regime;

    b. Support the efforts of certain Cuban exiles, who are associated with the original aims of the 26 of July Movement and who believe that the Castro regime can be overthrown from within in order that they may: 1) cause a split in the leadership of the regime at the national or provincial levels; and 2) create a political base of popular opposition to the regime; and, 3) secure intelligence;

    c. Assist Cuban exiles in developing a capability to launch balloons carrying leaflets and other propaganda materials from international waters into Cuba. Launch propaganda balloons after an operational capability has been established.

2. With respect to the actions listed below, the results of Mr. Donovan's imminent negotiations with Fidel Castro for freeing the 20-odd American prisoners should first be ascertained. If these actions were taken before the conclusion of the negotiations they could jeopardize the release of the Americans.

3. If these negotiations fail, or when the prisoners are recovered, proceed on the following timetable:

4. Inform NATO and OAS twelve hours in advance of the proclamation of the four point shipping orders. (The proclamation calls for the orders to go into effect in five days). These orders:

    a. Close United States ports to all vessels of a country whose vessels engage in carrying arms to Cuba;

    b. Close United States ports to any ship which has carried goods in the Bloc-Cuba trade within 120 days of the time it seeks to enter a United States port;

    c. Prohibit all United States flag ships and all ships owned by United States nationals or residents from entering any ports of Cuba and from carrying any goods bound to or from Cuba; and

d. Prohibit any cargo sponsored by any department of the United States from being shipped on vessels owned or controlled by persons who own or control vessels engaged in the trade between Cuba and the Soviet Bloc.

5. At the termination of the U. S. Chiefs of Mission Conference - January 20-30, or at a later date dependent on the Donovan mission, Assistant Secretary Martin, or another representative of the President will visit the Presidents of Chile, Mexico and Brazil to convey to them the importance President Kennedy attaches to maintaining hemispheric solidarity by their supporting the following resolutions:

a. An OAS resolution condemning Cuba for its actions which continue to endanger the peace, deploring refusal to allow inspection, condemning the presence of Soviet troops, recommending continued surveillance and continued vigilance against subversive activities, and terminating the invocation of the Rio Treaty on the missile crisis, together with

b. An OAS resolution which would recommend 1) extension of arms embargo to all items of trade except food and medicine (fall back position: extension of arms embargo to all strategic items);

2) prohibition of ships of OAS member states from transportating embargoed items and deny use of ports to ships in Bloc-Cuba trade; 3) denial of Soviet over-flights and transit rights for flights to Cuba; and 4) a call on other states to take similar action.

6. After obtaining the maximum possible support of the key countries of Mexico, Chile and Brazil, the other OAS members will be approached in Washington and in their respective capitals, simultaneously. It should be possible for this consultation and OAS action on the resolutions to be completed within ten days. Prior to formal COAS approval of the resolutions, we will inform our NATO allies of the impending OAS action.

7. At the first NATO meeting after formal OAS action on the resolutions, we will request that NATO include Cuba on the list of countries to which shipment of COCOM list (strategic) items prohibited.

8. After NATO decision on our COCOM request, we will seek to get agreement from Free World industrial nations to prevent shipping of critical spare parts and equipment to Cuba, not on the COCOM list.

9. In addition to the four point shipping resolutions, and action under Section 107 of the Foreign Assistance Act, continue to press Free World nations to keep their shipping out of Bloc-Cuba trade.

B. Contigency Planning

New opportunities for accomplishing our objectives may arise either as a result of Bloc action in other parts of the world; as a result of aggressive moves (or isolated hostile actions) by the Castro-Communist regime itself; or as a result of uprisings or internal conflict within Cuba.

Our contingency planning, which will be undertaken immediately, should include preparations for increased multilateral and/or bilateral political and economic measures, large scale use of Cubans who are now inside Cuba; more extensive air activity including both high and low level flights primarily directed toward surveillance and collection of intelligence, and which may also have the effect of embarrassing the Castro government and keeping the Castro forces on continual alert; retaliatory measures, as appropriate, including the imposition of a POL blockade; harrassment of Cuban officials in other countries; severance of communications to Cuba; major acts of sabotage on shipping destined for Cuba and on key installations to Cuba; intensive naval patrols; and, ultimately, the use of U. S. military force. To the extent feasible, U. S. military forces employed against Cuba should be accompanied by U. S. militarily-trained free Cubans and by the armed forces of those Latin American nations desirous of participating in the U. S. effort.

Our programs should be designed to encourage the Brigade members to melt back into the exile community and engage in constructive pursuits pending the liberation of Cuba. We should offer them some special assistance but not to the extent that they become a perpetual privileged class within the community. Presidential action on their behalf would single them out unnecessarily.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE NATIONAL SECURITY COUNCIL'S EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

(Prepared for the Meeting of Friday, January 25, 1963, 10 a.m.)

FROM : Coordinator of Cuban Affairs

SUBJECT: Summary of Coordinator's Recommendations

1. U. S. Policy Objectives

The following are the objectives of the U. S. with respect to Cuba:

a. Protecting the security of the United States and the other states of the Organization of American States by assuring that offensive weapons are not reintroduced into Cuba;

b. Removal of remaining Soviet forces from Cuba;

c. Preventing Cuba from taking any aggressive military action against other Caribbean states;

d. Reducing the capabilities of the Castro regime to direct and support subversion and insurrection within the other OAS states;

e. Encouraging and supporting any developments within Cuba that offer the possibility of divorcing the Cuban Government from its support of Sino-Soviet Communist purposes;

f. Encouraging and supporting any developments within Cuba that offer the possibility of replacing the Cuban Government with a regime that would break with the Sino-Soviet Bloc, it being understood that our ultimate objective is replacement of the regime by one fully compatible with the goals of the United States;

g. Maximizing the cost to the Soviet Union of supporting the Castro regime;

h. Maximizing the political isolation of the Castro regime from other Free World states, and especially from states of the OAS. Whenever possible, U. S. actions against Cuba should be multilateral, preferably based upon the Treaty of Reciprocal Assistance (Rio Pact) or on resolutions adopted by the Organization of American States. The newly-won hemispheric solidarity on the Cuban issue should not be jeopardized by seeking OAS actions of marginal value and which might split the hemisphere;

i. Being prepared to meet, with the employment of appropriate U. S. combat elements and/or logistical support, the wide variety of military contingencies that may arise from pursuit of the foregoing objectives; and

j. Producing comprehensive intelligence related to the above objectives.

2. Supporting Actions

Actions in support of these objectives and their time sequence are set forth in the attached paper entitled "U. S. Policy Toward Cuba." They include the four point shipping regulations, OAS sanctions, NATO action to include Cuba on the COCOM list, and approaches to Free World industrial nations to eliminate sale and shipment of critical items from their Cuban trade. Existing programs will be reviewed and further recommendations made as necessary. Planning for the variety of contingencies related to Cuba will be undertaken at once.

In addition to current covert programs such as intelligence collection, recruitment of Cuban officials, support of the Cuban Revolutionary Council (CRC) and other exile activities, infiltration of propaganda materials, and radio broadcasts, the following are recommended for approval and immediate initiation:

a. intensified covert collection of intelligence within Cuba, especially within the regime;

b. support of Cuban exiles who are seeking to return the 26 of July Movement to its original aims.

NOTE: It should be noted that approval of the foregoing actions may impair our ability to accomplish objective b. (Removal of remaining Soviet forces from Cuba) because taking these actions could provide the U.S.S.R. with rationale for maintaining its forces in Cuba. Nevertheless, approval of the foregoing actions is recommended.

3. Cuban Brigade

Brigade leaders should be induced to accept a specially tailored civilian and military program for Brigade members.

The Brigade should be disbanded as a military unit and individual members urged to accept civilian training or to enlist in the existing U. S. military program for Cubans and join a Brigade reserve unit thereafter. Our moral obligation would be discharged to the Brigade members and creation of a privileged class in the exile community would be avoided.

SUBJECT: United States Policy Toward Cuba

Attached is a revision of paper #2 submitted by the Coordinator of Cuban Affairs for the meeting of the NSC Executive Committee on the above subject, that has now been rescheduled for Friday at 4:00 p.m. The revision consists essentially of what is now denominated as "ALTERNATIVE I" in the proposed statement of policy and related courses of action with respect to Cuba, supplemented by the insertion of the paragraphs marked in red at the top of page 3 and on page 7 of the revision. This supplemental material is derived from portions of the text of "ALTERNATIVE II" in the original paper.

At luncheon today with Alexis Johnson, I handed him the attached revision and told him Mr. McNamara's and my reasons for suggesting the expansion of State's paper to include the supplemental material referred to above. MEMORANDUM FOR THE NATIONAL SECURITY COUNCIL'S EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

SUBJECT: United States Policy Toward Cuba

United States Policy

On November 20, the President set forth the broad guidelines of United States policy with respect to Cuba in the following words:

> "As for our part, if all offensive weapons systems are removed from Cuba and kept out of the hemisphere in the future, under adequate verification and safeguards, and if Cuba is not used for the export of aggressive communist purposes, there will be peace in the Caribbean. And, as I said in September, 'we shall neither initiate nor permit aggression in this hemisphere'.
>
> "We will not, of course, abandon the political, economic and other efforts of this hemisphere to halt subversion from Cuba, nor our purpose and hope that the Cuban people shall some day be truly free. But these policies are very different from any intent to launch a military invasion of the island."

Objectives

Accordingly, the objectives of U.S. policy with respect to Cuba are:

1. Protecting the security of the United States and the other states of the Organization of American States (OAS) by assuring that offensive weapons are not reintroduced into Cuba;

2. Removal of remaining Soviet forces from Cuba;

3. Preventing Cuba from taking any aggressive military action against other Caribbean states;

4. Reducing the capabilities of the Castro regime to direct and support subversion and insurrection within the other OAS states;

5. Encouraging and supporting any developments within Cuba that offer the possibility of divorcing the Cuban Government from its support of Sino-Soviet Communist purposes or replacing the Government with a regime which would accomplish this purpose;

6. Maximizing the cost to the Soviet Union of supporting the Castro regime;

7. Maximizing the political isolation of the Castro regime from other free world states, and especially from states of the OAS. Whenever possible, U.S. actions against Cuba should be multilateral, preferably based upon the Treaty of Reciprocal Assistance (Rio Pact) or on resolutions adopted by the Organization of American States. The newly-won hemispheric solidarity on the Cuban issue should not be jeopardized by seeking OAS actions of marginal value and which might split the hemisphere.

8. Being prepared to meet, with the employment of appropriate U.S. combat elements and/or logistical support, the wide variety of military contingencies that may arise from pursuit of the foregoing objectives; and;

9. Producing comprehensive intelligence related to the above objectives.

Our ultimate objective with respect to Cuba remains the overthrow of the Castro/Communist regime and its replacement by one compatible with the objectives of the U.S. and, where possible, sharing the aims of the Free World. To achieve this objective, the U.S. Government will be prepared to apply increasing degrees of political, economic, psychological and military pressures, as appropriate opportunities present themselves or can be created, until the Castro/Communist regime is overthrown.

DoD supporting addition

[illegible]

Isolating, undermining and discrediting the Castro/Communist regime through the exercise of all feasible diplomatic, economic, psychological and covert actions may achieve the immediate objectives and could create propitious conditions in Cuba for further advance toward our ultimate objective.

Supporting Actions

The following actions should be initiated in the sequence set forth below:

1. Await results of Mr. Donovan's imminent negotiation with Fidel Castro for freeing the 20-odd American prisoners. Prior aggressive U. S. action could jeopardize their release.

2. If these negotiations fail, or when the prisoners are recovered, proceed on the following timetable:

3. Inform NATO and OAS twelve hours in advance of the proclamation of the four point shipping orders. (The proclamation calls for the orders to go into effect in five days). These orders:

   a. close United States ports to all vessels of a country whose vessels engage in carrying arms to Cuba;

   b. close United States ports to any ship which has carried goods in the bloc-Cuba trade within 120 days of the time it seeks to enter a United States port;

   c. prohibit all United States flag ships and all ships owned by United States nationals or residents from entering any ports of Cuba and from carrying any goods bound to or from Cuba; and

d. prohibit any cargo sponsored by any department or agency of the United States from being shipped on vessels owned or controlled by persons who own or control vessels engaged in the trade between Cuba and the Soviet bloc.

4. At the termination of the U. S. Chiefs of Mission Conference in El Salvador on January 28-30 Assistant Secretary Martin will visit the Presidents of Chile, Mexico and Brazil to convey to them the importance President Kennedy attaches to maintaining hemispheric solidarity by supporting the following resolutions:

a. An OAS resolution condemning Cuba for its actions which continue to endanger the peace, deploring refusal to allow inspection, condemning the presence of Soviet troops, recommending continued surveillance and continued vigilance against subversive activities, and terminating the invocation of the Rio Treaty on the missile crisis, together with

b. An OAS resolution which would recommend 1) extension of arms embargo to all items of trade except food and medicine (fall back position: extension of arms embargo to all strategic items); 2) prohibition of AR ships from transporting embargoed items and deny use of ports to ships in Bloc-Cuba trade; 3) denial of Soviet over-flights and transit rights for flights to Cuba; and 4) a call on other states to take similar action.

5. After obtaining the maximum possible support of the key countries of Mexico, Chile and Brazil, the other OAS members will be approached in Washington and in their respective capitals, simultaneously. It should be possible for this consultation and OAS action on the resolutions to be completed within ten days. Prior to formal COAS approval of the resolutions, we will inform our NATO allies of the impending OAS action.

6. At the first NATO meeting after formal OAS action on the resolutions, we will request that NATO include Cuba on the list of countries to which shipment of COCOM list (strategic) items is prohibited.

7. After NATO decision on our COCOM request, we will seek to get agreement from Free World industrial nations to prevent shipping of critical spare parts and equipment to Cuba, not on the COCOM list.

8. In addition to four point shipping resolutions, and action under Section 107 of the Foreign Assistance Act, continue to press Free World nations to keep their shipping out of Bloc-Cuba trade.

9. In addition to current covert programs such as intelligence collection, radio broadcasts, recruitment of Cuban officials as agents, support of the Cuban Revolutionary Council (CRC) activities, and infiltration of propaganda materials, the following are recommended for approval and immediate initiation:

   a. Intensify to maximum degree possible intelligence and counterintelligence coverage of Cuba;

   b. Support the efforts of certain Cuban exiles, who are associated with the original aims of the 26 July Movement and who believe that the Castro regime can be overthrown from within in order that they may: 1) cause a split in the leadership of the regime at the national or provincial levels; and, 2) create a political base of popular opposition to the regime; and, 3) secure intelligence;

c. Assist Cuban exiles in developing a capability to launch balloons carrying leaflets and other propaganda materials from international waters into Cuba. Launch propaganda balloons after an operational capability has been established.

In addition to these immediate actions, we should make preparations now so that we are able to seize opportunities for more positive action towards our ultimate objective of the overthrow of the Castro/Communist regime. These opportunities may arise either as a result of Bloc action in other parts of the world, as a result of aggressive moves (or isolated hostile acts) by the Castro/Communist regime itself; or as a result of uprisings or internal conflict within Cuba. We should prepare contingency plans to deal with these situations.

Our contingency planning should include preparations for large-scale use of Cubans inside Cuba; more extensive air activity including both high and low level flights primarily directed toward surveillance and collection of intelligence, and which may also have the effect of embarrassing the Castro government and keeping the Castro forces on continual alert; retaliatory measures, as appropriate, including the imposition of a POL blockade; harrassment of Cuban officials in other countries; severance of communications to Cuba; major acts of sabotage on shipping destined for Cuba and on key installations in Cuba; intensive naval patrols; and, ultimately, the use of U.S. military forces.

We should be in a position to respond with open military support (to include such items as materiel, advisors, training, and Special Forces support and, if necessary, up to the full range of military forces), to a request for assistance from any anti-Castro/Communist group or groups in Cuba which demonstrate an ability to survive, which threaten the present regime, and whose aims are compatible with those of the U.S.

To the extent feasible, U.S. military forces employed against Cuba should be accompanied by U.S. militarily-trained free Cubans and by the armed forces of those Latin American nations desirous of participating in the U.S. effort.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF THE NATIONAL SECURITY COUNCIL

(Prepared for the Meeting of Thursday, January 24, 1963, 10 a.m.)

FROM : Department of Defense Representative on the Interdepartmental Coordinating Committee on Cuba

SUBJECT: United States Policy Toward Cuba

Policy

Our ultimate objective with respect to Cuba remains the overthrow of the Castro/Communist regime and its replacement by one compatible with the objectives of the U. S. and, where possible, sharing the aims of the Free World. To achieve this objective, the U. S. Government will apply increasing degrees of political, economic, psychological and military pressures, as appropriate opportunities present themselves or can be created, until the Castro/Communist regime is overthrown. Our immediate objectives are to isolate the Castro/Communist regime from the Free World and from the Bloc; weaken it economically; promote internal dissension, erode its domestic political support; frustrate its subversive activities; negate its influence in the hemisphere; increase the cost to the Bloc of sustaining the regime; and obtain the withdrawal of Russian troops from Cuba.

~~SENSITIVE~~

[redacted] SECRET

EXCLUDED FROM AUTOMATIC REGRADING
DOD DIR 5200.10 DOES NOT APPLY

Isolating, undermining and discrediting the Castro/Communist regime through the exercise of all feasible diplomatic, economic, psychological and covert actions may achieve the immediate objectives and could create propitious conditions in Cuba for further advance toward our ultimate objective.

We should be in a position to respond with open military support (to include such items as material, advisors, training, and Special Forces support and, if necessary, up to the full range of military forces), to a request for assistance from any anti-Castro/Communist group or groups in Cuba which demonstrate an ability to survive, which threaten the present regime, and whose aims are compatible with those of the U. S.

Invasion of Cuba by U. S. military forces, as distinguished from military support upon request of indigenous forces, should not be undertaken in the absence of aggression or other Castro/Communist and/or Soviet actions that threaten the peace or security of the hemisphere. This does not preclude appropriate U. S. retaliation for isolated hostile acts by the Castro/Communist or Soviet forces.

To the extent feasible, U. S. military forces employed against Cuba should be accompanied by U. S. militarily-trained free Cubans and by the armed forces of those Latin American nations desirous of participating in the U. S. effort.

Intensive, comprehensive and continuing intelligence gathering in depth on Cuba should be identified as a primary objective of the national intelligence effort.

Whenever possible, U. S. actions against Cuba should be multilateral, preferably based upon the Treaty of Reciprocal Assistance (Rio Pact) or on resolutions adopted by the Organization of American States. The newly-won hemispheric solidarity on the Cuban issue should not be jeopardized by seeking OAS actions of marginal value and which might split the hemisphere.

Overt and covert annexes of specific actions in support of this policy will be prepared.

Discussion

The active pursuit of our ultimate objective involves a phased and controlled series of political, economic, psychological and military actions. Such actions might include leaflet dropping; propaganda urging sabotage, strikes, and opposition to the regime; psychological operations urging defections; large scale training of Cubans in the U. S. and the use of such Cubans inside Cuba; extensive air activity including both high and low level flights primarily directed toward surveillance and collection of intelligence, and which may also have the effect of embarrassing the Castro government and keeping the Castro forces on continual alert; retaliatory measures, as appropriate, including the imposition of a POL blockade; harrassment of Cuban officials in other countries; severance of communications to Cuba; major acts of sabotage on shipping destined for Cuba and on key installations in Cuba; intensive naval patrols; and, ultimately, the use of U. S. military forces.

In addition, this course of action would involve a broad gamut of carefully timed political, economic, psychological and covert actions, such as OAS sanctions, Caribbean security arrangements, intensified surveillance of and publicity concerning Castro/Communist subversive activities in Latin America, application of Four Point shipping restrictions and other economic sanctions, and a series of actions designed to obtain, to the greatest extent possible, multilateral approval of and participation in the campaign to unseat the Castro/Communist regime.

This course of action has the advantage of attaining the objective more rapidly and under more controlled conditions than the alternative stated by the Coordinator. Indeed, this may be the only course of action that will accomplish the ultimate objective. It involves greater risks; and, in the short run, a greater expenditure of money and material and far greater numbers of personnel.

From the standpoint of international politics, the U. S. will probably be subjected to criticism for aggression from the uncommitted nations. It is difficult to predict the reaction of the Latin American governments. They may attack the U. S. for "intervening" or they may react favorably (as they did during the missile crisis). To a large extent, the reaction of the nations throughout the world, and particularly the Latin American nations, will depend upon how adroitly these actions are handled. For example, there may even be advantages to the fact that our active policy and the courses of action under it may eventually become impossible to conceal. If properly handled, the overt aspects of this policy may serve not only to mitigate any unfavorable reactions from other countries, but also to gain, particularly in Latin America, increasing appreciation of the threat of Castro/Communist Cuba.

The active pursuit of our objective will make it clear that the U. S. will not permit the maintenance of a communist base in the hemisphere. From the standpoint of military posture, the more active approach may be subjected to counteractions from the Sino-Soviet Bloc elsewhere. As we increase the pressures on Castro/Communist Cuba and the extent of our commitment to overthrow the regime, U. S. prestige becomes more deeply involved. The further we progress along this route, the more significant will be the loss of U. S. prestige if we alter or abandon it.

The successful execution of this policy will require careful timing and coordination of our actions and the development of detailed plans. While such plans would be designed to bring about the overthrow of the Castro regime within a given time frame for planning purposes, they would have to be sufficiently flexible to accommodate changes to the international situation.

In any case, at crucial points along the way, it will be necessary for the highest levels of our Government to review the actions already taken and those contemplated and to assess the advantages of continued and escalated activity against the disadvantages and dangers of such activity.

Commitment to this course of action does not exclude the possibility of actively pursuing the isolation of the Castro regime from the Bloc.

Coordinator's Recommendation

I do not concur in the policy recommended by the Coordinator. The objectives stated in the Coordinator's paper do not sufficiently commit the U. S. to the overthrow of the Castro/Communist regime. The Coordinator's paper depends too much upon events outside the control of the U. S. Government and does not sufficiently contemplate the creation of opportunities to effect the downfall of the Castro/Communist regime. The specific actions recommended in the Coordinator's paper are consistent with the policy recommended in this paper and, in many cases, would be among the initial steps that would be taken in executing that policy.

Recommendation

I recommend that the policy stated above be adopted as the United States policy toward Cuba.

DRAFT/23 Jan 63

FROM : Coordinator of Cuban Affairs

SUBJECT: United States Policy Toward Cuba

United States Policy

On November 20, the President set forth the broad guidelines of United States policy with respect to Cuba in the following words:

> "As for our part, if all offensive weapons systems are removed from Cuba and kept out of the hemisphere in the future, under adequate verification and safeguards, and if Cuba is not used for the export of aggressive communist purposes, there will be peace in the Caribbean. And, as I said in September, 'we shall neither initiate nor permit aggression in this hemisphere'.
>
> "We will not, of course, abandon the political, economic and other efforts of this hemisphere to halt subversion from Cuba, nor our purpose and hope that the Cuban people shall some day be truly free. But these policies are very different from any intent to launch a military invasion of the island."

Objectives

Accordingly, the objectives of U.S. policy with respect to Cuba are:

1. Protecting the security of the United States and the other states of the Organization of American States (OAS) by assuring that offensive weapons are not reintroduced into Cuba;

2. Removal of remaining Soviet forces from Cuba;

3. Preventing Cuba from taking any aggressive military action against other Caribbean states;

4. Reducing the capabilities of the Castro regime to direct and support subversion and insurrection within the other OAS states;

5. Encouraging and supporting any developments within Cuba that offer the possibility of divorcing the Cuban Government from its support of Sino-Soviet Communist purposes or replacing the Government with a regime which would accomplish this purpose;

6. Maximizing the cost to the Soviet Union of supporting the Castro regime;

7. Maximizing the political isolation of the Castro regime from other free world states, and especially from states of the OAS. Whenever possible, U.S. actions against Cuba should be multilateral, preferably based upon the Treaty of Reciprocal Assistance (Rio Pact) or on resolutions adopted by the Organization of American States. The newly-won hemispheric solidarity on the Cuban issue should not be jeopardized by seeking OAS actions of marginal value and which might split the hemisphere.

8. Being prepared to meet, with the employment of appropriate U.S. combat elements and/or logistical support, the wide variety of military contingencies that may arise from pursuit of the foregoing objectives; and;

9. Producing comprehensive intelligence related to the above objectives.

Our ultimate objective with respect to Cuba remains the overthrow of the Castro/Communist regime and its replacement by one compatible with the objectives of the U.S. and, where possible, sharing the aims of the Free World. To achieve this objective, the U.S. Government will be prepared to apply increasing degrees of political, economic, psychological and military pressures, as appropriate opportunities present themselves or can be created, until the Castro/Communist regime is overthrown.

Isolating, undermining and discrediting the Castro/Communist regime through the exercise of all feasible diplomatic, economic, psychological and covert actions may achieve the immediate objectives and could create propitious conditions in Cuba for further advance toward our ultimate objective.

Supporting Actions

The following actions should be initiated in the sequence set forth below:

1. Await results of Mr. Donovan's imminent negotiation with Fidel Castro for freeing the 20-odd American prisoners. Prior aggressive U. S. action could jeopardize their release.

2. If these negotiations fail, or when the prisoners are recovered, proceed on the following timetable:

3. Inform NATO and OAS twelve hours in advance of the proclamation of the four point shipping orders. (The proclamation calls for the orders to go into effect in five days). These orders:

    a. close United States ports to all vessels of a country whose vessels engage in carrying arms to Cuba;

    b. close United States ports to any ship which has carried goods in the bloc-Cuba trade within 120 days of the time it seeks to enter a United States port;

    c. prohibit all United States flag ships and all ships owned by United States nationals or residents from entering any ports of Cuba and from carrying any goods bound to or from Cuba; and

d. prohibit any cargo sponsored by any department or agency of the United States from being shipped on vessels owned or controlled by persons who own or control vessels engaged in the trade between Cuba and the Soviet bloc.

4. At the termination of the U. S. Chiefs of Mission Conference in El Salvador on January 28-30 Assistant Secretary Martin will visit the Presidents of Chile, Mexico and Brazil to convey to them the importance President Kennedy attaches to maintaining hemispheric solidarity by supporting the following resolutions:

   a. An OAS resolution condemning Cuba for its actions which continue to endanger the peace, deploring refusal to allow inspection, condemning the presence of Soviet troops, recommending continued surveillance and continued vigilance against subversive activities, and terminating the invocation of the Rio Treaty on the missile crisis, together with

   b. An OAS resolution which would recommend 1) extension of arms embargo to all items of trade except food and medicine (fall back position: extension of arms embargo to all strategic items); 2) prohibition of AB ships from transporting embargoed items and deny use of ports to ships in Bloc-Cuba trade; 3) denial of Soviet over-flights and transit rights for flights to Cuba; and 4) a call on other states to take similar action.

5. After obtaining the maximum possible support of the key countries of Mexico, Chile and Brazil, the other OAS members will be approached in Washington and in their respective capitals, simultaneously. It should be possible for this consultation and OAS action on the resolutions to be completed within ten days. Prior to formal COAS approval of the resolutions, we will inform our NATO allies of the impending OAS action.

6. At the first NATO meeting after formal OAS action on the resolutions, we will request that NATO include Cuba on the list of countries to which shipment of COCOM list (strategic) items is prohibited.

7. After NATO decision on our COCOM request, we will seek to get agreement from Free World industrial nations to prevent shipping of critical spare parts and equipment to Cuba, not on the COCOM list.

8. In addition to four point shipping resolutions, and action under Section 107 of the Foreign Assistance Act, continue to press Free World nations to keep their shipping out of Bloc-Cuba trade.

9. In addition to current covert programs such as intelligence collection, radio broadcasts, recruitment of Cuban officials as agents, support of the Cuban Revolutionary Council (CRC) activities, and infiltration of propaganda materials, the following are recommended for approval and immediate initiation:

   a. Intensify to maximum degree possible intelligence and counterintelligence coverage of Cuba;

   b. Support the efforts of certain Cuban exiles, who are associated with the original aims of the 26 July Movement and who believe that the Castro regime can be overthrown from within in order that they may: 1) cause a split in the leadership of the regime at the national or provincial levels; and, 2) create a political base of popular opposition to the regime; and, 3) secure intelligence;

c. Assist Cuban exiles in developing a capability to launch balloons carrying leaflets and other propaganda materials from international waters into Cuba. Launch propaganda balloons after an operational capability has been established.

([illegible])

In addition to these immediate actions, we should make preparations now so that we are able to seize opportunities for more positive action towards our ultimate objective of the overthrow of the Castro/Communist regime. These opportunities may arise either as a result of Bloc action in other parts of the world, as a result of aggressive moves (or isolated hostile acts) by the Castro/Communist regime itself; or as a result of uprisings or internal conflict within Cuba. To the extent feasible, U.S. military forces employed against Cuba should be accompanied by U.S. militarily-trained free Cubans and by the armed forces of those Latin American nations desirous of participating in the U.S. effort.

SUBJECT: United States Policy Toward Cuba

There are submitted for your consideration two alternative statements of policy and related courses of action with respect to Cuba. Alternative I was prepared by the Department of State. The Alternative II was prepared by the Department of Defense. The Coordinator's Recommendation that Alternative I be approved, and the Department of Defense non-concurrence, appear at the end of this paper.

ALTERNATIVE I

On November 20, the President set forth the broad guidelines of United States policy with respect to Cuba in the following words:

COORDINATOR'S RECOMMENDATION

I recommend approval of Alternative I.

ALTERNATIVE II

United States Policy

1. Our ultimate objective with respect to Cuba remains the overthrow of the Castro/Communist regime and its replacement by one compatible with the objectives of the United States and consonant with the aims of the Free World. To achieve this objective, the U.S. Government will apply increasing degrees of political, economic, psychological and military pressures, as appropriate opportunities present themselves or can be created, until the Castro/Communist regime is overthrown.

2. Our immediate objectives are to isolate the Castro/Communist regime from the Free World and from the Bloc; weaken it economically; promote internal dissension, erode its domestic political support; frustrate its subversive activities; reduce its influence in the hemisphere; increase the cost to the Bloc of sustaining the regime; and obtain the withdrawal of Russian troops from Cuba.

3. Isolating, undermining and discrediting the Castro/Communist regime through [illegible] feasible diplomatic, economic, psychological and covert actions may achieve the immediate objectives and could create propitious conditions in Cuba for further advance toward our ultimate objective.

4. We should be in a position to respond with open military support (to include such items as materiel, advisors, training, and Special Forces support and, if necessary, up to the full range of military forces), to a request for assistance from any anti-Castro/Communist group or groups in Cuba which demonstrate an ability to survive, which threaten the present regime, and whose aims are compatible with those of the U.S.

5. Invasion of Cuba by U.S. military forces, as distinguished from military support upon request of indigenous forces, should not be undertaken in the absence of aggression or other Castro/Communist and/or

Soviet

Soviet actions that threaten the peace or security of the hemisphere. This does not preclude appropriate U.S. retaliation for isolated hostile acts by the Castro/Communist or Soviet forces.

6. To the extent possible, U.S. military forces employed against Cuba should be accompanied by U.S. militarily-trained free Cubans and by the armed forces of those Latin American nations desirous of participating in the U.S. effort.

7. Intensive, comprehensive and continuing intelligence gathering in depth on Cuba should be identified as a primary objective of the national intelligence effort.

8. Whenever possible, U.S. actions against Cuba should be multilateral, preferably based upon theTTreaty of Reciprocal Assistance (Rio Pact) or on resolutions adopted by the Organization of American States. The newly-won hemispheric solidarity on the Cuban issue should not be jeopardized by seeking OAS actions of marginal value and which might split the hemisphere.

Overt and covert annexes of specific actions in support of this policy will be prepared.

Discussion

The active pursuit of our ultimate objective involves a phased and controlled series of political, economic, psychological and military actions. Such actions might include leaflet dropping; propaganda urging sabotage, strikes, and opposition to the regime; psychological operations urging defections; large scale training of Cubans in the U.S. and the use of such Cubans inside Cuba; extensive air activity including both high and low level flights primarily directed toward surveillance and collection of intelligence, and which may also have the effect

[illegible] t[illegible] keeping the Castro forces on the[illegible] retaliatory [illegible], as appropriate, including the imposition of a POL blockade; [illegible]; severance of communications [illegible] Cuba; major acts of sabotage on shipping destined for Cuba and on key installations in Cuba; intensive naval patrols; and, ultimately, the use of U. S. military forces.

In addition, this course of action would involve a broad gamut of carefully timed political, economic, psychological and covert actions, such as OAS sanctions, Caribbean security arrangements, intensified surveillance of and publicity concerning Castro/Communist subversive activities in Latin America, application of Four Point shipping restrictions and other economic sanctions, and a series of actions designed to obtain, to the greatest extent possible, multilateral approval of an participation in the campaign to unseat the Castro/Communist regime.

This course of action has the advantage of attaining the objective more rapidly and under more controlled conditions than the alternative stated by the Coordinator. Indeed, this may be the only course of action that will accomplish the ultimate objective. It involves greater risks; and, in the short run, a greater expenditure of money and material and far greater numbers of personnel.

From the standpoint of international politics, the U. S. will probably be subjected to criticism for aggression from the uncommitted nations. It is difficult to predict the reaction of the Latin American governments. They may attack the U. S. for "intervening" or they may react favorably (as they did during the missile crisis). To a large extent, the reaction of the nations throughout the world, and particularly the Latin American nations, will depend upon how adroitly these actions are handled. For example, there may even be advantages to the fact that our active policy and the courses of action under it may eventually become impossible to conceal. If properly handled, the overt aspects of this policy may serve not only to mitigate any unfavorable reactions from other countries, but also to gain, particularly in Latin America, increasing appreciation of the threat of Castro/ Communist Cuba.

The active pursuit of our objective will make it clear that the U. S. will not permit the maintenance of a communist base in the hemisphere. From the standpoint of military posture, the more active approach may be subjected to counteractions from the Sino-Soviet Bloc elsewhere. As we increase the pressures on Castro/Communist Cuba and the extent of our commitment to overthrow the regime, U. S. prestige becomes more deeply involved. The further we progress along this route, the more significant will be the loss of U. S. prestige if we alter or abandon it.

The successful execution of this policy will require careful timing and coordination of our actions and the development of detailed plans. While such plans would be designed to bring about the overthrow of the Castro regime within a given time frame for planning purposes, they would have to be sufficiently flexible to accommodate changes to the international situation.

In any case, at crucial points along the way, it will be necessary for the highest levels of our Government to review the actions already taken and those contemplated and to assess the advantages of continued and escalated activity against the disadvantages and dangers of such activity.

Commitment to this course of action does not exclude the possibility of actively pursuing the isolation of the Castro regime from the Bloc.

COORDINATOR'S RECOMMENDATION

I recommend approval of Alternative I.

STATEMENT OF DOD REPRESENTATIVE

I do not concur in the policy recommended by the Coordinator. Alternative I does not make the overthrow of the Castro/Communist regime an objective of the U. S. In addition, Alternative I does not sufficiently contemplate the creation of opportunities to effect the downfall of that regime. The specific actions recommended in Alternative I are consistent with the policy recommended in Alternative II and, in many cases, would be among the initial steps that would be taken in executing that policy. I recommend adoption of Alternative II.

[redacted] SECRET Draft 23 Jan 63

MEMORANDUM FOR THE NATIONAL SECURITY COUNCIL'S EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE
(Prepared for the Meeting of Friday , January 25, 1963, 4 p.m.)

FROM : Coordinator of Cuban Affairs

SUBJECT: United States Policy Toward Cuba

United States Policy

On November 20, the President set forth the broad guidelines of United States policy with respect to Cuba in the following words:

> "As for our part, if all offensive weapons systems are removed from Cuba and kept out of the hemisphere in the future, under adequate verification and safeguards, and if Cuba is not used for the export of aggressive communist purposes, there will be peace in the Caribbean. And, as I said in September, 'we shall neither initiate nor permit aggression in this hemisphere.'
>
> "We will not, of course, abandon the political, economic and other efforts of this hemisphere to halt subversion from Cuba, nor our purpose and hope that the Cuban people shall some day be truly free. But these policies are very different from any intent to launch a military invasion of the island."

Objectives

Accordingly, the objectives of U.S. policy with respect to Cuba are:

1. Protecting the security of the United States and the other states of the Organization of American States (OAS) by assuring that offensive weapons are not reintroduced into Cuba;
2. Removal of remaining Soviet forces from Cuba;
3. Preventing Cuba from taking any aggressive military action against other Caribbean states;
4. Reducing the capabilities of the Castro regime to direct and support subversion and insurrection within the other ~~OAS~~ Hemisphere states;
5. Encouraging and supporting any developments within Cuba that offer the possibility of divorcing the Cuban Government from its support of Sino-Soviet Communist purposes;
6. Encouraging and supporting any developments within Cuba that offer the possibility of replacing the Cuban Government with a regime that would break with the Sino-Soviet Bloc, it being understood that our ultimate objective is replacement of the regime by one fully compatible with the goals of the United States;
7. Maximizing the cost to the Soviet Union of supporting the Castro regime;

8.

8. Maximizing the political isolation of the Castro regime from other free world states, and especially from states of the OAS. Whenever possible, U.S. actions against Cuba should be multilateral, preferably based upon the Treaty of Reciprocal Assistance (Rio Pact) or on resolutions adopted by the Organization of American States. The newly-won hemispheric solidarity on the Cuban issue should not be jeopardized by seeking OAS actions of marginal value and which might split the hemisphere.

9. Being prepared to meet, with the employment of appropriate U.S. combat elements and/or logistical support, the wide variety of military contingencies that may arise from pursuit of the foregoing objectives; and;

10. Producing comprehensive intelligence related to the above objectives.

Supporting Actions

A. To achieve the foregoing objectives, the U.S. Government will be prepared to increase the political, economic, psychological and military pressures, as appropriate

regime ~~be~~ is

opportunities present themselves or can be created. The actions listed below are those requiring immediate approval and would be initiated in the sequence set forth below. Recommendations for further actions based upon the re-examination of existing programs and upon the development of new programs related to the foregoing objectives will be forthcoming.

1. In addition to current covert program, such as intelligence collection, recruitment of Cuban officials as agents, radio broadcasts, support of the Cuban Revolutionary Council (CRC) and other exile group activities and infiltration of propaganda materials:

   a) continue to intensify covert collection of intelligence within Cuba, especially within the regime;

   b) Support the efforts of certain Cuban exiles, who are associated with the original aims of the 26 of July Movement and who believe that the Castro regime can be overthrown from within in order that they may: 1) cause a split in the leadership of the regime at the national or provincial levels; and 2) create

c. Assist Cuban exiles in developing a capability to launch balloons carrying leaflets and other propaganda materials from international waters into Cuba. Launch propaganda balloons after an operational capability has been established.

2. WITH RESPECT TO THE ACTIONS LISTED BELOW, THE ~~Await~~ results of Mr. Donovan's imminent negotiations with Fidel Castro for freeing the 20-odd American prisoners SHOULD FIRST BE ASCERTAINED. ~~Any of the actions listed below~~, If these actions are taken before the conclusion of the negotiations, they could jeopardize the~~ir~~ release of the Americans

3. If these negotiations fail, or when the prisoners are recovered, proceed on the following timetable:

4. Inform NATO and OAS twelve hours in advance of the proclamation of the four point shipping orders. (The proclamation calls for the orders to go into effect in five days). These orders:

   a. close United States ports to all vessels of a country whose vessels engage in carrying arms to Cuba;

b. ...

b. close United States ports to any ship which has carried goods in the bloc-Cuba trade within 120 days of the time it seeks to enter a United States port;

c. prohibit all United States flag ships and all ships owned by United States nationals or residents from entering any ports of Cuba and from carrying any goods bound to or from Cuba; and

d. prohibit any cargo sponsored by any department or agency of the United States from being shipped on vessels owned or controlled by persons who own or control vessels engaged in the trade between Cuba and the Soviet bloc.

5. At the termination of the U. S. Chiefs of Mission Conference - January 20-30, or at a later date, dependent on the Donovan mission, Assistant Secretary Martin, or another representative of the President will visit the Presidents of Chile, Mexico and Brazil to convey to them the importance President Kennedy attaches to maintaining hemispheric solidarity by their supporting the following resolutions:

a. An OAS resolution condemning Cuba for its actions which continue to endanger the peace, deploring refusal to allow inspection, condemning the presence of Soviet troops, recommending continued surveillance and continued vigilance against subversive activities, and terminating the invocation of the Rio Treaty on the missile crisis, together with

b. An OAS resolution which would recommend 1) extension of arms embargo to all items of trade except food and medicine (fall back position: extension of arms embargo to all strategic items); 2) prohibition of ~~All~~ ships of OAS member states from transporting embargoed items and deny use of ports to ships in Bloc-Cuba trade; 3) denial of Soviet over-flights and transit rights for flights to Cuba; and

4) a call on other states to take similar action.

6. After obtaining the maximum possible support of the key countries of Mexico, Chile and Brazil, the other OAS members will be approached in Washington and in their respective capitals, simultaneously. It should be possible for this consultation and OAS action on the resolutions to be completed within ten days. Prior to formal COAS approval of the resolutions, we will inform our NATO allies of the impending OAS action.

7. At the first NATO meeting after formal OAS action on the resolutions, we will request that NATO include Cuba on the list of countries to which shipment of COCOM list (strategic) items is prohibited.

8. After NATO decision on our COCOM request, we will seek to get agreement from Free World industrial nations to prevent shipping of critical spare parts and equipment to Cuba, not on the COCOM list.

9. In addition to the four point shipping resolutions, and action under Section 107 of the Foreign Assistance Act, continue to press Free World nations to keep their shipping out of Bloc-Cuba trade.

B. Contingency Planning

New opportunities for accomplishing our objectives may arise either as a result of Bloc action in other parts of the world; as a result of aggressive moves (or isolated hostile actions) by the Castro-Communist regime itself; or as a result of uprisings or internal conflict within Cuba.
